The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4432-Xezal had already been using her full strength to fight James.

She was at the Quasi Caelum Acme Rank. Her strength was above James but not enough to overpower and kill him.

Now that she had activated a Secret Art, James felt desperate.

Wynton was the one opponent that had made him feel such despair.

James had encountered countless powerhouses with similar auras, like Yardos and the Boundless Master. However, none of them were his enemies.

Xezal floated in the air with her rapier, which emitted a blinding radiance.

Meanwhile, James quickly healed his injuries.

His goal was to stall for time.

As long as he bought enough time, Soren would be freed from the formation.

After Soren was out of the formation, he could slaughter the powerhouses in the Cloud Universe. Even though he might not be able to wipe out all the Terra Acmeans, many of the powerhouses would die in his hands.

Thea, who was watching from the dark, sensed Xezal's powerful aura.

Being a powerhouse that used to be at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank, Thea managed to retain her Divine Senses even after the battle in the Primordial Realm. Thus, she was capable of detecting Xezal's powerful aura.

Thea immediately sensed that Xezal had entered the Caelum Acme Rank.

Swoosh!

A vibration began spreading throughout the Cloud Realm.

Xezal sprung into action. She appeared before James in a flash and slashed her long sword, unleashing a bright golden Sword Energy.

James raised the Death-Celesital Sword to parry the attack.

The golden Sword Energy clashed with the Death-Celestial Sword. A powerful force permeated the sword and crept into James' arm. He instantly suffered damage along his arm, which spread to his body.

James' body began to show signs of falling apart.

Fortunately, he could hold his body together with his Chaos Power.

After James' parried the Sword Energy, Xezal slashed at him with the Moonlit Sword.

However, James had already disappeared from sight.

He had used the Blithe Omniscience to dodge Xezal's deadly attack and quickly moved to a desolate area in the Cloud Realm.

Unfortunately, his efforts were useless. The golden sword chased him and pierced his chest without warning. Shortly after, an explosion burst in his chest, and potent Sword Energies spread in his body.

James' body was covered with injuries.

Although his physical strength was on par with a powerhouse at the late stage of the Terra Acme Rank, Xezal's strength was too overpowering, and she could easily break his defenses.

James' face distorted, making him terrifying and ferocious.

He leaped into the sky, and his body rapidly flickered around Xezal. Countless Sword Energies emerged and combined with some mysterious inscriptions to form a Sword World.

Xezal was immediately confined within James' Sword World, and countless Sword Energies descended toward her from all directions like meteorites.

Faced with the Sword Energies, Xezal urged her powers to form a golden protective barrier.

Clank! Clank! Clank!

The crisp clanging noises from the Sword Energies colliding with her protective barrier resounded throughout the Sword World.

Xezal's barrier was robust, and James' Sword Energies could not injure her.

James' face became solemn at the sight.

A Caelum Acmean was too strong for him.

His strength was considered to be at the top of the Greater Realms, yet he still felt powerless in the face of a Caelum Acmean.

In fact, Xezal was not considered a real Caelum Acmean as she had used a Secret Art to enter the rank. Despite that, James was having a hard time against her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4433-Xezal raised her head to the sky and roared, "Break!"

She lifted her Caelum Acmean God Weapon and unleashed a powerful Sword Energy, which soared into the sky.

Boom!!!

James' Sword World was shattered instantly.

After Xezal destroyed the Sword World, James suffered a backlash. His body was blasted away, and he spat a mouthful of blood.

Xezal quietly appeared behind James. She put away her dazzling golden rapier and thrust her palm at James. A palm print emerged and struck James' back.

Crack!!!

A terrifying force permeated James' body, instantly shattering his bones.

The sound of his bones breaking resounded.

James' physical body was also severed. His flesh disintegrated, and blood splattered around the area.

"Join."

James concentrated his Chaos Power and forcibly put his body back together.

Although his body was whole again, he was badly injured.

He was wounded even more severely compared to when he fought Wynton.

James' strong will was keeping him alive. He knew Soren would definitely die if he were to be defeated now. The entire Human Race would also lose their hope to rise again.

James looked at Xezal in the distance and gripped tightly onto the Death-Celestial Sword. Despite being severely injured, James' still emitted a powerful aura.

Xezal said calmly, "Surrender, James. I admit you're very powerful. However, you're too weak to fight a Caelum Acmean."

It had not been long since the battle broke out, and it was far from a day.

James looked toward the formation that was gradually breaking down in the distance. He wiped the blood off his lips and said, "Never. I'd rather die."

"Since you insist, I'll fulfill your wish."

Xezal immediately appeared before James and slashed her sword at his head.

Faced with the attack, James quickly created a protective barrier.

Even though Xezal was a Caelum Acmean, she could not break James' protective barrier with just one blow.

Xezal failed to shatter James' barrier instantly, but her attack caused countless cracks to form in it.

Suddenly, the power of James' barrier transformed into a formation and surrounded Xezal.

James quickly seized the chance to distance himself from the area. He fled to another area, set up a time formation, and hurriedly healed his injuries.

Xezal, on the other hand, smiled faintly at his attempt.

She raised her golden rapier and slashed the formation. Her terrifying force struck it and shattered it instantly.

Xezal glanced into the distance, where James had fled.

She approached with her rapier but found another powerful formation blocking her path.

After making a remark about James, Xezal attacked the formation.

James’ formations were unable to block Xezal for long.

Although he created countless layers of formations, Xezal easily broke through them consecutively.

She had broken through tens of thousands of formations in just an instant.

Soon, she appeared where James was treating his wounds.

Only a few minutes had passed since James began healing his wounds, but he managed to buy more time with the time formation. Although he had not completely recovered, his external injuries were healed.

When Xezal arrived, she immediately pierced her rapier through his time formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4434-James’ time formation was destroyed. However, he was nowhere to be seen.

Xezal was taken aback for a moment. She quickly recomposed and laughed, “Haha! Interesting, I wasn’t expecting you to play such tricks with me.”

After speaking, Xezal searched for James' aura, trying to locate his exact position. She spread her Divine Sense throughout the Cloud Universe but found no trace of him.

Boom!!!

A massive explosion erupted somewhere in the Cloud Universe, where many powerhouses were gathered.

These powerhouses visited the Cloud Universe to attend the Cloud Race's event.

All of them were Terra Acmeans but were not strong enough to get involved in the fight between James and Xezal.

Suddenly, several flashes of lightning pierced through the sky and struck a few powerhouses that could not react in time. Their bodies were obliterated, and only a portion of their souls remained.

The soul fragments frantically fled from the area.

The other powerhouses that survived also began to retreat.

However, the formation's powers emerged, wiping out the soul fragments that survived the initial attack.

Xezal detected the incident and cursed out, "Coward."

She attempted to find James' aura again but was to no avail. James had already integrated himself into the formation, which surrounded the entire Cloud Universe.

There was only one way to find him. She would have to destroy the entire Cloud Universe and the formation James had set up.

Xezal scanned the Cloud Universe.

Ultimately, her gaze fixated on the formation that trapped Soren.

Xezal noticed that a large section of the black palace had already disappeared.

She gave up searching for James and rushed toward the formation. As long as she aimed at the formation, James would have to show himself.

Her body immediately disappeared into thin air and traveled through the void to the desolate region where the black palace was. At her current cultivation rank, traveling through the entire Cloud Universe was a matter of seconds.

However, she was hindered by another formation.

James was secretly activating formations while in hiding.

His formation enveloped the entire Cloud Universe, and he could easily set up formations anywhere to block Xezal with just a thought.

Even though he could only stall her for a little while, it was more than sufficient.

With the time the formation bought him, he could continue activating more formations to prevent her from moving freely.

James hid in the formation around the Cloud Universe, trying to heal his injuries and block Xezal's path. At the same time, he was triggering different formations to kill as many powerhouses as possible.

Many living beings within the Cloud Universe died tragically in the battle between the Human Race and the other races of the Greater Realms.

Usually, James would do his best to prevent the deaths of innocent lives.

However, he could not care less under the current circumstances.

"Bastard!" Xezal was continuously blocked by formations.

She could have reached the formation where Soren was trapped instantly, but it took her a full five minutes because James was hindering her.

As soon as she got close, James used a Supernatural Power to move the black palace into the distance.

The situation gave Xezal quite a headache.

She used a Secret Art to make a breakthrough and acquire the strength of a Caelum Acmean but was powerless against James' mysterious and profound formation.

Xezal found herself without a solution.

Boom!!!

A huge explosion erupted in the Sword World that James had formed.

The powerhouses had combined their strength and finally destroyed the Sword World.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4435-The powerhouses destroyed the Sword World and quickly reunited with Xezal.

The other powerhouses that left to escape the Soul Realm also gathered toward her.

Together, they began discussing their next step.

"What should we do now, Xezal? We've been trapped inside James' formation. We have to find a way to break it, or else the various race of the Greater Realms will face grave danger," asked Gaerel.

Gaerel could sense that Xezal had entered the Caelum Acme Rank. Even though he was a dignified Terra Acmean, he humbly asked for her opinion.

After being trapped in the Sword World, he suffered severe injuries from James' Chaos' Nine Voices.

The other powerhouses that were trapped inside the Sword World were also wounded.

The weaker Acmeans, on the other hand, began to panic after witnessing the death of their friends.

Back when they joined forces to wipe out the Human Race during the Primordial Realm Era, they showed no fear.

However, they felt horrified to face James.

A powerhouse asked, "Xezal, can you break the formation?" Xezal's shadowy figure fluttered in the air, seemingly about to disappear anytime soon.

"I can give it a shot."

Xezal gripped her weapon and flew toward the sky. A golden Sword Energy burst out from her rapier and soared into the sky.

James, who was hiding within the formation, immediately sensed the destructive power. He raised his hand and summoned a few sigils. The sigils quickly submerged into the formation, forming defensive barriers above Xezal.

Boom!!!

Consecutive explosions erupted in the Cloud Universe.

Xezal destroyed the defensive barrier one by one and kept moving forward.

When she reached the formation's border, her sword's power had weakened significantly.

She launched an attack at the formation but failed to destroy it and only caused some fluctuation.

The formation's powers concentrated and shot at Xezal.

Xezal disappeared into thin air and returned in front of the group of powerhouses. However, the formation's power chased after her.

She urged all her strength to block it but was pushed backward by the force. The void beneath her leg began to shatter, causing spatial rifts.

The spatial rifts spread throughout the void, destroying countless galaxies.

Xezal was powerful but struggled to withstand the formation's power.

The formation's power would have killed or severely injured a Terra Acmean.

"What force." Xezal took a deep breath and murmured, "He's trying to buy time for Soren. I really underestimated him. He spent five thousand years setting up this formation."

The other powerhouses immediately became anxious after seeing that even Xezal had failed to break through the formation.

They managed to survive the battle in the Primordial Realm but were faced with a crisis and might die in the Cloud Universe today.

Everyone fell silent.

Meanwhile, James continued hiding in the formation, trying to heal his wounds.

Thea had helped James set up the formation, so she had a general understanding of it.

She stood before James and asked worriedly, "Will you be able to last until Soren is freed? How about I leave with the formation trapping Soren first?"

James shook his head lightly and said, "No. The other universes must've sensed something unusual happening in the Cloud Realm. Youri might already be on his way to the Cloud Realm. If he were to intercept you while you're trying to leave the Cloud Universe, you'd die."

Thea asked, "Then what should we do now?"

"Kill one of them," James said grimly.
