The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4436-“What do you mean?” Thea was startled.

James replied, “The formation I’ve set up isn’t powerful, but it’s very ancient. The powerhouses trapped here aren’t familiar with ancient formations, so they were caught off guard.

“However, Xezal might have a bit of understanding of ancient formations. With her strength, she is fully capable of destroying it by force. Even if she doesn’t, the powerhouses can join forces. The formation isn’t going to keep them for very long. We’ll have to strike to kill one of them before they unite to break the formation. They’ll panic after we kill one of them.”

Thea stood before James and could see the powerhouses trapped inside the formation.

“Who’s your target?”

James replied, “Gaerel, from the Ursas.”

“During the battle in the Primordial Realm, the Ursas were one of the main forces that tried to obliterate the Human Race. He’ll be the first one to pay for his sins. To be honest, I’m not sure if I can kill him, but I’ll try my best to inflict severe injuries on him to ensure he doesn’t have any combat power for the next few thousand Epochs and can’t participate in the feud between the Human Race and search Doom Race.”

“Alright.” Thea nodded.

James said, “You maintain the formation’s operation. I’ll exert full force into the formation to try and kill Gaerel.”

“Okay.”

After a simple discussion, James and Thea formulated a plan.

Meanwhile, many well-known powerhouses of the Greater Realms had gathered somewhere in the Cloud Realm.

Everyone had worried expressions.

“Xezal, you need to figure out a way to break the formation.”

“We’re counting on you.”

“Back in the battle against the Human Race in the Primordial Realm, we didn’t have a Caelum Acmean. But now we do. I’m sure you’re capable of dealing with James, who hasn’t even entered the Acme Rank.”

“Even though James isn’t an Acmean yet, his attainments in the Omniscience Path are very high. He’s currently at the peak of the Eighth Stage, which is equivalent to the late stage of the Terra Acme Rank.”

“You shouldn’t be breaking our morale at a time like this.”

The powerhouses gathered and discussed a countermeasure against James.

Xezal, on the other hand, stood silently before the group of people with her weapon.

Suddenly, a bizarre black cloud that contained corrupted energy appeared in the sky.

“Watch out!”

As soon as the cloud appeared, the powerhouses quickly raised their guards.

A faint search halo light appeared on the surface of Xezal’s body, forming a protective layer.

Somewhere in a holy site of the Greater Realms, there was a woman sitting in a lotus position.

The surrounding environment and scenery were pleasant. At the same time, the Emyrean Spiritual Energy was abundant.

The woman was surrounded by a circle of light, making it hard to see her face clearly.

She murmured, “He improved too fast. I’ll have to be careful not to let him destroy my clone. Otherwise, my main body will also suffer tremendously.”

The woman was Xezal's main body, whereas her clone served as the personal maid of the Dooms' Patriarch.

Her clone was already incredibly powerful, making one wonder how much stronger her main body was. Nobody in the search Doom Race, and the Greater Realms, knew that the Xezal serving the Patriarch was just the clone of a powerhouse.

At that moment, Xezal's clone had created a defensive layer around her body.

She was aware of the power of James' formation and that she would be wiped out if she was not careful.

The other powerhouses around her immediately became vigilant.

Swoosh!!!

Sword Energy emerged from the strange cloud.

Suddenly, thousands of Sword Energies shot toward them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4437-Xezal's body appeared in the sky instantly. She raised her hand and unleashed countless sigils.

The sigils spread throughout the area and instantly formed a protective barrier to block James' Sword Energies.

As the Sword Energies struck the protective barrier, the surrounding void was shattered, and countless black holes appeared consecutively.

Seeing that Xezal had successfully blocked James' attacks, the powerhouses inside the protective barrier sighed in relief.

A powerhouse said furiously, "We've been pushed into a corner."

"We didn't struggle as much back when trying to obliterate the Human Race in the past. But inside James' formation, I can't even exert my powers."

James had controlled the formation, trying to kill Gaerel first. However, Xezal interfered and blocked the formation's attacks.

Even though she could not break the formation, she was strong enough to neutralize the attacks.

However, Xezal knew they could not afford to waste any time. Once the formation trapping Soren was dispersed, James would immediately flee from the battle.

She began thinking of ways to break the formation.

After giving it a brief thought, she turned to the group of powerhouses and said, "I'll set up a formation for us. I'll need everyone to pour your strength into it. Then, I'll use everyone's collective power to destroy James' formation. If we can shatter James' formation, he won't be a match for us."

The only plan Xezal could think of was to use everyone's collective strength to break James' formation.

Since they had the advantage of numbers, their strength together was monstrous.

"Alright." The powerhouses agreed in unison.

Xezal immediately began to set up a formation.

James watched them with a solemn expression. He knew he could no longer hide in the formation, and had to stop them.

He appeared in the void far away from Xezal in a flash.

After treating his wounds, his condition was temporarily stabilized and no longer deteriorating.

James's body erupted with white radiance and flames, instantly enhancing his aura.

He held onto the Death-Celestial Sword and looked at the group of powerhouses in the distance.

"Haha!!!" He laughed.

Xezal spotted James and snorted coldly, "You've finally shown up, coward "

James smiled faintly and said, "I'm right here now. What are you going to do?"

“Hmph!” Xezal sneered again and immediately attacked. Her rapier let out a dazzling Sword Energy, charging directly at James.

James suddenly disappeared from the spot, swiftly dodging the Sword Energy.

Boom!!!

The Sword Energy struck the area he was at a few seconds ago, and a hole immediately formed in the void.

James reappeared nearby and said smilingly, “You can’t kill me, Xezal. If you come after me, one of the powerhouses behind you will die today.”

His voice resounded through the area.

However, his taunts had no effect.

Xezal suddenly disappeared from sight and reappeared behind James.

She summoned mysterious inscriptions from her palm, allowing them to submerge into the surrounding void and form a Sealing Formation.

Xezal wanted to confine James within a formation but gave James a chance instead.

James sealed the space around Xezal, causing her movement speed to decrease.

After doing so, he rushed toward the area where the various powerhouses from the Greater Realms were gathered.

He activated the formation’s power, and a mysterious force from the Cloud Universe began to gather into a giant sword.

The sword hovered in the sky and made the Cloud Realm seem small.

The sword contained terrifying strength, and the Sword Energy emitted from it blew up a few planets into dust. Even the void was unable to withstand its power and began to collapse.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4438-James had used his formation to gather the Cloud Universe's Genesis and combined it with his Chaos Path to form a massive sword.

The sword manifested in the air, containing destructive force. The Cloud Universe could not withstand the force and showed signs of collapsing.

The powerhouses watched the massive sword form with terrified expressions. A few of the weaker Acmeans' faces went pale.

Everyone sensed the sword's terrifying force and knew they would die if struck by it.

The thought of running immediately popped into their minds.

The group of powerhouses immediately dispersed, running in different directions. Even those at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank frantically fled the area.

Meanwhile, James hovered in the sky and fixated his gaze on Gaerel.

Gaerel's face darkened after he noticed James' piercing gaze. He immediately cursed, "Why the fuck is he staring at me? Does he intend to kill me?"

James floated silently in the air.

Suddenly, he made another move. He poured all his powers and the Ignis into the giant sword, further enhancing its strength.

"Get him." James waved his hand and pointed at Gaerel.

The giant sword immediately pierced through the Cloud Universe.

In just a few seconds, it was within close proximity to Gaerel.

The giant sword's aura instantly shattered the surrounding void.

Gaerel had a solemn expression.

He instantly urged all his strength to activate a defensive Secret Art. A protective barrier formed around his body, and a set of golden armor wrapped around his body.

Although the massive sword looked heavy, it traveled at incredible speeds and reached Gaerel almost instantly.

The giant sword's tip pierced through Gaerel's protective barrier and cracked his armor.

Fortunately for him, Xezal had already broken through James' Sealing Formation and rushed to the rescue.

She raised her Caelum Acmean God Sword, and a golden Sword Energy burst out.

The Sword Energy shot out like a light beam and clashed with James' giant sword.

The two forces clashed, and a terrifying shock wave spread like water ripples.

As the shock wave permeated the air, the void began to burst, and thousands of galaxies were destroyed.

Gaerel broke out in a cold sweat.

He would have had difficulty resisting James' attack and might have suffered severe injuries if Xezal did not appear in time.

After Xezal rescued him, Gaerel felt relieved. He quickly dashed away, distancing himself from the search battlefield.

Xezal said coldly, 'That's enough. You can't kill Gaerel. Otherwise, the Ursas' founder will show up to avenge him, and the humans' years of hard work will be in vain.'

A formidable power emerged from Xezal's body and poured into her weapon.

Her rapier immediately shot out a light ray toward James' giant sword.

The giant sword began disintegrating from its tip, slowly disappearing into thin air.

James suffered a backlash and was blasted away by the force. Then, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

He immediately fled and hid within his formation.

James' whole body was covered in injuries. After returning to the formation, he quickly sat into a lotus position and urged his powers to heal the wounds.

Thea came to his side and looked at him worriedly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4439-Thea wanted to help James fight, but she could not defeat even one of the patriarchs present with her current strength, let alone Xezal.

After some time, James' injuries had recovered.

"Thea, is the Ursas' founder still alive?"

James turned to Thea beside him.

Xezal's words made him worried.

Thea shook her head lightly and said, "I'm not sure. I've never heard of the Ursa's founder before."

James' brows furrowed at her response.

Xezal was a rather serious person and must have been telling the truth.

James pondered, 'Could the Ursa's founder really still be alive? Is he a Caelum Acmean by any chance?'

Meanwhile, Xezal had returned to the group of powerhouses.

Gaerel quickly approached her, clasped his hands, and said, "Thanks for saving me, Xezal. If you didn't step in, I would've been severely injured or might have even lost my life."

Xezal responded, "James' formation will not be easy to deal with. I've forcefully entered the Caelum Acme Rank but still can't break it. We don't have much time left. If we continue to drag this on, Soren will be freed. Then, James will definitely use his formation to go on a killing spree. Many of us will die at his hands. I managed to block his attack this time, but there's no saying I'll be able to next time."

"Then what should we do?"

"What are our options? Are we just going to wait for our deaths?"

"James is too scheming. Who would've thought he was impersonating Wyot and planning for this day to come? His goal is to use the formation to kill us."

"How despicable of the humans. They don't dare to fight us fair and square. All they can do is hide and plot against us in secret."

Many of the powerhouses gritted their teeth in anger.

They were not afraid to fight James fairly.

Xezal said, "We can only try negotiating with him and let him leave with Soren."

"Never." The powerhouses immediately turned down the suggestion.

"We can't let them leave."

"Even if we perish, we can't let Soren leave this place. If he regains his strength, he'll take revenge against the Greater Realm's various races. No one will be able to stand against him."

Everyone present had a blood feud with the Human Race.

It would be disastrous for their respective races if they were to let Soren escape.

"I agree."

"Let's attack together. I'm sure we'll be able to break the formation."

Xezal looked at the powerhouses and said, "To be honest, James' formation isn't that strong. But it's a very ancient formation, which I know little about. If I have some time, I can break it eventually. However, we're in a race against time right now. If Soren is freed, James will have nothing to worry about and won't go easy on us. Just killing one of us will be enough for him. With his strength and the formation, I'm afraid..."

She paused and glanced at the powerhouses present.

"Apart from those at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank, everyone else here will die."

Gaerel said, "Let me repeat myself. I'd rather all of us die in battle than let them escape."

"I agree. Xaezel, you're one of the strongest in the Greater Realms. I'm sure you must've been holding back just now. You should go all out."

The powerhouses looked at Xezal.

Hearing their conversation, James said solemnly, "They are determined to kill us, even if it means sacrificing their lives. If that's the case, I won't hold back anymore."

James immediately activated the formation, and a powerful force emerged from it, attacking the group of powerhouses.

The area where they were gathered was instantly shattered.

However, Xezal had blocked the attack. Meanwhile, the other powerhouses had also urged all their strength to defend themselves.

Although James used the formation's power, he did not kill any of them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4440-James activated the formation's power but failed to kill the powerhouses.

Although the powerhouse survived, they were terrified and did not dare to act recklessly.

Their battle temporarily came to a stalemate.

Since the group of powerhouses were not taking any action, James did the same. He began to heal his wounds wholeheartedly.

James was severely injured and wanted to continue healing his wounds so he could continue fighting them.

Meanwhile, Xezal's main body, somewhere in the Greater Realms, gradually stood up. Her body emitted a white light, making her look like an ethereal being.

She stood up and stepped forward. Suddenly, she vanished and reappeared outside the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's hideout.

Xezal looked at the mountains ahead and pointed her finger forward. A powerful force emerged from her fingertip and shattered the protective formation that Thea had previously set up for them.

The senior authorities of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect were immediately alarmed and quickly gathered together on high alert.

Xezal casually waved her hand, and a powerful force swept forward.

Wyt was instantly freed from the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's dungeon and appeared before her. He was disheveled, and his aura was weak.

Xezal looked at him and removed the seals in Wyt's body.

The Heaven-Eradicating Sect's powerhouses immediately panicked.

Who was the powerhouse that suddenly appeared outside their mountain gate and easily rescued Wyt?

After being freed, Wyt looked at the person before him. He could tell she was a woman, but the dazzling glow from her body prevented him from seeing her face.

He immediately knelt on the ground and said, 'Thank you for saving me, Madam.'

The woman suddenly disappeared, but her voice resounded in the area.

“Wyt, the Greater Realm’s current condition isn’t optimistic. The humans have risen again. It’s going to be a very exciting time, and I’m looking forward to your performance.”

Her voice gradually dissipated.

The disheveled Wyt stood up from the ground. He looked toward the Heaven-Eradicating Sect’s hideout and brushed his dirty hair out of his pale face, revealing a smile.

The Greater Realms’ situation flashed through his eyes.

“Haha!” He burst out laughing. “I’ve been freed! My time to shine has come!”

Meanwhile, James, who was in the Cloud Universe’s formation, immediately sensed that Wyt was released.

‘This is bad!’ James’ expression changed.

Thea also frowned after sensing the formation around the Heaven-Eradicating Sect’s hideout was broken.

“Wyt has been freed!” the two spoke simultaneously.

James looked at Thea in disbelief and said, “I’ve placed multiple seals in Wyt’s body, but a powerhouse managed to remove them instantly. Who helped him? How strong must this person be to have easily gotten rid of the seals I’ve placed on him.”

Thea replied solemnly, “I’ve no idea. Even a powerhouse like Xezal can’t break the formation you’ve set up here within a short period of time.”

“What I’ve been worried about has happened.” James was anxious.

He had a feeling that Wyt would become his biggest obstacle. However, he was unable to kill Wyt before.

Now, Wyt had escaped.

Thea asked, “What should we do now?”

James replied, "We don't have time to deal with Wyot now. Although he has been freed, he isn't strong enough yet. It will take some time before he becomes a threat to me and the Human Race. For now, we must rescue Soren. After we succeed, we can easily take care of the rest."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4441-Thea asked worriedly, "But are we capable of safely escaping with Soren?"

The power of James' formation was limited, and he could not kill the group of powerhouses with Xezal protecting them.

Thea could sense that Xezal was not using her full strength to break the formation. A Caelum Acmean like her would not be stopped so easily by James' formation.

"We can only take one step at a time."

James did not have much confidence either.

Now, he could only wait to see what happens next. He would do his best to hold back the group of powerhouses if they chose to unite to break the formation.

Since they were not taking action, James continued to heal his wounds while paying attention to the formation trapping Soren.

More than half a day had passed, and the formation had dissipated significantly.

Meanwhile, an old man dressed in a gray robe suddenly appeared in the Chaos outside the Cloud Universe.

The old man had long white hair and a beard. He hovered outside the Cloud Universe and emitted a mighty aura.

A force battle had broke out in the Cloud Universe, and many worlds had been destroyed. Even the Cloud Race's headquarters were shattered into rubble. However, a huge palace still stood firm amidst the chaos.

The palace was a forbidden area of the Cloud Race.

At that moment, a bright light began to shine from the palace.

The Cloud Race's powerhouses immediately noticed the abnormal light. Many of them gathered and looked at the dazzling soul lamp with joy.

"Our Grand Patriarch is back!"

"He has finally returned!"

The Cloud Race's powerhouses were about to shed tears from their excitement.

In the years without their Grand Patriarch, they had been oppressed by the other races.

Now that their Grand Patriarch had returned, they could finally make a comeback.

The old man that appeared outside of the Cloud Universe was Dalson Yiskah, one of the main culprits that had tried to wipe out the Human Race during the Primordial Realm Era. He was a peak Terra Acmean back then but was injured during the battle. Afterward, he left on a journey to improve himself and heal his injuries.

Dalson floated in the Chaos, examining the formation surrounding the entire Cloud Universe. He stretched out his hand, and a powerful force emerged from his fingertips, striking the formation.

The formation trembled, and countless cracks formed.

James instantly suffered a backlash, spat out a mouthful of blood, and fell to the ground.

"James!" Thea immediately rushed to support him up from the ground.

"There's a powerhouse outside trying to break the formation. I can tell he's very powerful and has already surpassed the Terra Acme Rank."

Thea asked, "Is it Youri?"

“No.” James released his Divine Sense, acquired Dalson’s appearance, and showed it to Thea.

Thea immediately identified him. “It’s the Cloud Race’s Grand Patriarch, Dalson Yiskah.”

James frowned slightly and asked, “The Cloud Race’s Grand Patriarch? Why is his aura so powerful? He’s much stronger than Xezal.”

Dalson, who had failed to break the formation on his first try, was astonished. He smiled and murmured, “Impressive.”

He pointed his finger at the formation and unleashed another attack.

James tried his best to reinforce the formation, but another attack had struck, and cracks began to spread throughout it.

To prevent the formation from falling apart, James even absorbed some of the damage that was dealt to the formation.

James’ injuries worsened. After a few more blows, the formation would be destroyed.

“Thea, we need to come up with something. The formation isn’t going to last much longer. We need to make a sacrifice,” James said solemnly.
