The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4442-The situation was not in their favor.

The Cloud Race's Grand Patriarch, Dalson, had returned from his long absence.

Dalson was at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank long ago. After the battle in the Primordial Realm, he disappeared. Rumors spread that he had died. Only the Cloud Race knew he was alive but chose to stay away from the public eye.

Now that Dalson had returned, he was much more potent. Xezal did not even compare to him.

His half-hearted attacks caused significant damage to the formation that James spent a lot of effort constructing.

After the formation was destroyed, James suffered a massive backlash.

James looked at Thea and said, "Thea, it's a choice between me and Soren. One of us will have to be sacrificed. Soren will die if I escape now. But if Soren successfully escapes, I'm going to die."

Thea's face became solemn.

Boom!!!

Dalson struck the formation again.

His powerful force crashed into the formation, and the cracks on it began to spread out.

James spat out another mouthful of blood. He waved his hand, summoning countless Formation Inscriptions to repair and maintain the formation. However, his efforts only had a temporary effect.

Dalson was very powerful and would destroy the formation very soon.

James could not be bothered with the blood dripping from his lips.

“We can’t let Soren die here. He’s at the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage, so if he recovers, he can lead the Human Race to glory and gain a foothold in the Greater Realms. I’ll sacrifice myself to destroy the formation trapping him. Once he is freed, you get him out of here safely. My formation should be able to last a while more. I’ll stay to hold Dalson back.”

“James...” Thea looked at James with tears rolling down her cheeks.

Meanwhile, the group of powerhouses remained together somewhere in the Cloud Universe.

Xezal stood at the forefront.

“What powerful force.”

Xezal sensed a powerhouse attempting to break the formation and was surprised by his strength. She detected a strange aura, and it was one that she had never encountered before. After seeing the appearance of the old man, she immediately recognized him.

“The Cloud Race’s Grand Patriarch, Dalson? I never expected him to be the first to enter the Caelum Acme Rank.”

Hearing Xezal’s words, the powerhouses were surprised.

“What did you say? That old man has already entered the Caelum Acme Rank?” Gaerel was startled.

They were familiar with Dalson. He was a powerhouse on the same rank as them back in the Primordial Realm Era.

During the fight back then, Dalson was injured and disappeared for countless years. Now that he reappeared, he was a Caelum Acmean.

Meanwhile, James waved his hand, and the formation trapping Soren appeared before him.

James looked at the black palace ahead of him and said, “Sir, I’m leaving the Human Race in your hands.”

“Young man.” The hoarse voice came from inside the black palace.

“You have greater potential than me. You should escape right now. If you remain in hiding for a while, you’ll surely become a Caelum Acmean and reach the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage. Moreover, you’ve also comprehended the Blithe Omniscience. The Human Race will have a greater hope with you. There’s no need to sacrifice yourself to save me.”

Soren was anxious about James’ decision. He could tell James had great potential.

James was still a weak cultivator when they first met. Yet, he managed to grow significantly in just a short period. If he continued improving, he would become the strongest cultivator in the Greater Realms. Thus, Soren did not want James to sacrifice himself to save him.

‘Whether I enter the Caelum Acme Rank or not is uncertain. However, you’ll be able to recover your strength to your prime after you get out of here. Your recovery will be much faster than I can reach the Caelum Acme Rank and the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage. The human race can’t afford to wait for me to become stronger.”

After speaking, James began to burn his Spiritual Power, and a powerful force that surpassed his cultivation rank emerged from his body.

James’ injured body immediately erupted with a powerful aura.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4443-Thea shouted, “James...”

James gradually stood up and waved his hand, interrupting Thea’s words.

“As the human race’s matron, you should know the right choice, Thea. You must look at the bigger picture.”

Thea was well aware James was right.

“Of course, I understand. But I can’t bear to let you go...”

Thea choked up while speaking.

James waved his hand, and a sigil appeared in front of Thea.

“Keep this with you, and activate it when you’re in a desperate situation with no way out.”

It was the sigil that Zella had given to him in the Path of Heavenly Awakening.

Zella seemed to have gained insight into the future and specifically handed the sigil to him.

James wanted to activate it during this battle but felt it was not the right time.

The current battle was only related to the Human Race’s survival and was not about the entire Greater Realms’ safety.

Zella gained insight into a future event that would impact the Greater Realms and wanted him to use the sigil during that time.

Thea accepted the sigil with tears in her eyes.

Boom!!!

Dalson had dealt another blow to the formation, causing it to fluctuate again.

James had already burned his body and Spiritual Power to increase his strength.

Although his cultivation rank was not very high, the power emitting from his body was on par with a powerhouse at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank.

James stood up and entered the Omniscience Path’s Eighth Stage. A white radiance and flames emerged from his body.

He had burned his flesh, spirit, blood, and soul for power.

James’ body was on fire. At that moment, his aura was incredibly bizarre and powerful.

His aura gradually surpassed the Quasi Caelum Acme Rank and was comparable to that of a Caelum Acmean.

Thea watched him with teary eyes.

James had sacrificed himself for humanity and would cease to exist after the battle.

“Break!” James raised his hand, and a powerful force emerged from his fingertip.

The force shot out, instantly destroying the black palace that trapped Soren.

After the black palace dissipated, a middle-aged man with a disheveled appearance entered their sight.

Soren’s body was severely injured and evidently at his limits.

James said firmly, “Get Soren out of here, Thea.”

Soren looked at James. He sensed that James had already sacrificed himself to gain strength, and there was no turning back.

“James...”

“After you’ve escaped, go into hiding and recuperate at ease.”

James looked at Soren and waved his hand, creating a crack in the void. Then, a powerful force emerged and enveloped Thea and Soren. The force lifted the two and dragged them into the crack, disappearing from his sight.

James used a Supernatural Power to teleport the two away.

Now, he would have to fight his final battle.

Even though death awaited him, he wanted to drag a few of these powerhouses with him.

James shouted, “Bring it on!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4444-James’ words resounded throughout the Cloud Universe.

His voice contained terrifying oppression and power, instantly killing a few weaker living beings.

Xezal sensed the potent aura inside the formation and spotted James surrounded by white and red flames.

Her expression immediately became solemn. "Does he have no regard for his own life? I can't believe he burned himself to gain power."

Xezal took a deep breath.

Swoosh!!!

A figure flashed through the air and appeared before her instantly.

James raised his long black sword and pointed it at Xezal and the powerhouses behind her.

The powerhouses immediately figured out what James had done to enhance his strength.

James' aura was terrifyingly strong, and even Xezal did not compare to him.

"An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." James' expression was grim and ferocious.

"In the past, all of you joined forces to destroy the Primordial Realm and brutally slaughter humans. Today, you'll pay for your crimes."

James' voice resounded throughout the Cloud Universe.

Boom!!!

Another explosion erupted on the formation surrounding the Cloud Universe.

Dalson had struck the formation again.

"Hmph." James snorted and poured a powerful force into the formation.

Now that he was stronger, he could strengthen and stabilize the formation. Even Dalson would have a hard time destroying it in a short period.

Dalson's expression changed, and he exclaimed, "The formation has become stronger. I can sense the power of a Caelum Acmean holding the formation together. Who exactly set up this formation?"

Concurrently, Youri was resting in the Doom Race's main hall with his eyes closed. He was waiting for updates from the Cloud Realm.

At that moment, a man appeared in the hall.

The man looked disheveled but wore a firm expression. It was none other than Wyot who was saved from the Heaven- Eradicating Sect.

After Wyot was freed, he immediately returned to the Doom Race. However, when he entered the main hall, he spotted Youri in the highest seat.

"Elder Youri, that's the position of the patriarch. How can you be seated there? Also, where is my father?"

Wyot entered the hall and immediately questioned Youri.

Youri slowly opened his eyes and saw the disheveled Wyot. He replied lightly, "Aren't you supposed to be in the Cloud Race's headquarters right now? What happened to you? Did you acquire the Blithe Omniscience and kill Soren?"

At that moment, a person appeared in the main hall.

Qimat said anxiously, "Sir Youri, I've got bad news. A formation has been set up around the Cloud Universe. The Cloud Race's Patriarch, Dalson, has returned. He's already a Caelum Acmean."

"What did you say?" Youri abruptly stood up in shock.

Wyot was puzzled by what was going on.

Youri looked at Wyot and asked, "What happened, Wyot?"

However, Wyot was dumbfounded by his question. He was also confused by the situation and why Youri was the Doods ' Patriarch.

Youri approached Wyot, lifted him in the air, and asked coldly. 'What exactly happened in the Cloud Realm?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4445-Wyot replied truthfully, "I've no idea what you're talking about. I've just escaped from the Heaven-Eradicating Sect. Does this have something to do with the human impersonating me?"

"The human impersonating you?" Youri was shocked and immediately let go of Wyot.

Wyot looked at Youri and explained, "Yeah. There was a powerhouse from the Human Race that disguised himself as me. He forcibly acquired my memories and soul aura. His plan was to infiltrate our race and provoke a battle between us and the other races."

"What?!!" Youri's expression immediately changed.

"Does that mean you've been trapped by the Human Races all this time and just escaped?"

"Yeah." Wyot nodded.

He quickly shared everything he knew, especially about James.

"Damn it!" Youri's face bulged with veins, and he tightly clenched his fists. He suddenly disappeared from the main hall and appeared outside the Cloud Universe.

Wyot, who was left inside the main hall, glanced at Qimat.

He was curious about what James had done while impersonating him and what had happened within the Dooms, including why Youri was the new patriarch. However, he refrained from asking any questions.

Wyot quickly left the search Doom Race's headquarters and headed toward the Cloud Universe.

When Youri appeared outside the Cloud Universe, he saw Dalsen attacking the formation.

Unfortunately, James' had integrated his powers into the formation to reinforce it. Although Dalsen was a Caelum Acmean, he could not break through the robust formation with ease.

Youri stared at him and said, “Dalson.”

Dalson sensed Youri and turned around to see him. He stroked his beard and said smilingly, “I wasn’t expecting to meet you under such circumstances. I see you’ve reached the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage.”

Youri had the urge to fight Dalson to find out whether the Caelum Acme Rank or Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage was stronger.

However, he was more concerned about the situation inside the Cloud Realm.

Youri asked, “What’s happening?”

Dalson shrugged and replied, “I don’t know. I’ve just returned and was blocked by this formation. It’s an ancient formation that can block out Divine Senses. I’ve been trying to forcibly break the formation, but it’s been reinforced with powerful energy, so I’ve not been able to destroy it yet. We might be able to break the formation if we work together.”

After the brief communication, Youri concentrated his strength into his fist and punched the formation.

His punch contained his physical strength.

His physical strength was not inferior to that of a Caelum Acmean.

Boom!!!

A massive explosion erupted on the formation’s surface. The formation fluctuated but was not destroyed.

Dalson was also surprised by Youri’s terrifying physical strength.

Meanwhile, James was standing in front of Xezal and the group of powerhouses. Suddenly, he sensed another terrifying force outside of the formation.

James knew the force belonged to Youri.

Regardless, James had nothing to fear.

Even though Dalsen and Youri were outside the Cloud Universe, it would not stop him from killing the powerhouses trapped inside it.

Xezal stepped forward and persuaded him, saying, "James. You shouldn't continue down the wrong path. Now that Soren has escaped, you don't need to sacrifice yourself. If you stop now, you'll still have a chance of surviving.

Otherwise, they'll be no turning back once your life force burns out."

James responded coldly, "The wrong path? Is it wrong for me to take revenge? As a human, is it wrong for me to want the Human Race to rise or to pave a path for my people?"

"Die!"

After speaking, James disappeared from sight.

He reappeared before Gaerel and thrust his long sword into Gaerel's body.

James' current strength was on par with the Caelum Acme Rank with the addition of the Blithe Omniscience, so it was easy for him to deal with a peak Terra Acmean.

Gaerel did not even have the chance to dodge. The long sword pierced his body, and a terrifying force permeated his body from the wound site. His body could not bear the destructive Sword Intent and began to fall apart. Shortly after, his body evaporated into a bloody-red mist.
