The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4446-Under normal circumstances, a cultivator that had reached the late stage of the Terra Acme Rank had exceptional physical strength.

However, Gaerel was unable to resist James' attack, and his physical body was obliterated.

Gaerel's soul frantically fled the area.

"Save me, Xezal!"

Gaerel's soul appeared in the distance, and his illusory face was full of horror.

Even though Gaerel was already injured, he would have stood a chance against James earlier in the battle. He might have survived if he were to fight with all his strength.

Unfortunately, he was no longer a match for the current James.

Gaerel felt despair in the face of James.

His desperation was similar to when James faced Wynton and Xezal after she had entered the Caelum Acme Rank.

"James."

In a flash, Xezal appeared in front of Gaerel's soul and said, "I've warned you not to kill him. You can't kill any of the powerhouses here."

James replied coldly, "Do you think you still can stop me?" He already burned himself to gain strength and would not last long in this state.

James was not satisfied with just saving Soren. He wanted to wipe out the powerhouses present and pave a path for humanity.

He slowly stepped forward and mysteriously disappeared from sight.

James had activated the Blithe Omniscience, and even Xezal could not stop him. He dashed before Gaerel's soul and slashed out his sword.

Gaerel knew he could no longer rely on Xezal. He did not want to die, but if he had to, he wanted James to suffer as well. At the last moment, he chose to self-destruct.

“You’re coming with me, James.”

Gaerel’s illusory face became distorted, and as James’ sword fell, his soul exploded.

A terrifying force erupted.

The explosion of a peak of Terra Acmean’s soul had the force of a full-strength attack by a Caelum Acmean.

James’ physical body was immediately blasted by the force and suffered severe trauma.

However, James was not concerned by his injuries.

After sensing that Gaerel’s soul had disappeared, James turned to the other powerhouses in the distance.

“Run!”

The powerhouses immediately had the same thought. They quickly hid their auras and fled in different directions.

Everyone knew that Dalson was trying to break the formation surrounding the Cloud Realm. As long as they stalled enough time until James’ life force burned out, they would survive.

James, on the other hand, remained expressionless.

His formation enveloped the entire Cloud Universe, and the group of powerhouses could not escape the scope of the Cloud Universe. Therefore, James had the confidence to kill them.

James fixated his gaze on the Soul Race’s Patriarch.

The Soul-Demon Master sensed that James’ gaze and his face immediately darkened. His strength was similar to that of Gaerel.

However, Gaerel was killed instantly.

The Soul-Demon Master knew that he could not escape and could only fight to his death.

Knowing that James burned his life force to gain strength, Gaerel wanted to do the same.

James' aura had already locked on Gaerel and could easily catch up to him.

"You won't be able to kill me, James."

The face of the Soul-Demon Master was distorted as he cast a Secret Art to burn his body, blood, soul, and Path Powers.

The Soul-Demon Master immediately gained great strength.

His aura and strength were not inferior to James now.

"Ha!" James snorted coldly.

The Soul-Demon Master instantly dashed at James.

However, James completely ignored him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4447-The Soul-Demon Master had chosen to burn his life force for strength, and his fate was already determined.

James did not want to waste time on someone already doomed to die.

"Huh?" The Soul-Demon Master had burned himself to fight James.

However, James avoided fighting him.

The Soul-Demon Master could not catch up with James, who had activated the Blithe Omniscience.

The various powerhouses had fled to different realms of the Cloud Universe. Everyone had sensed that the Soul-Demon Master had chosen to sacrifice himself for strength to fight. Unfortunately, James did not want to fight him.

Their faces became grim.

“What should we do now?”

“Do we have no choice but to follow the same path as the Soul Race’s Patriarch?”

“But James will choose to avoid battle with us if we do so. Then we’ll sacrifice in vain.”

The powerhouses of the various races had solemn expressions, unsure of the best solution to their problem.

Meanwhile, James had already appeared on the planet where Zusman was hiding.

James flashed in front of him and pointed his sword forward.

“Die!” James shouted, and he disappeared from sight.

Unlike the Soul-Demon Master, Zusman chose to escape. He was profound in the Space Path and quickly used its power to flee. Although he could not leave the Cloud Universe, he could transverse through the various realms.

Zalson escaped to a remote area of the Cloud Universe.

However, a long black sword suddenly appeared and instantly pierced his body. James’ terrifying force destroyed his body and caused severe damage to his soul.

James’ slashed his sword again and completely annihilated Zalson’s soul.

With just two blows, James obliterated the body and soul of Zalson, who was at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank.

Suddenly, James felt dizzy, and his vision blurred.

Although James gained tremendous strength, he paid a heavy price. His life force would slowly burn out, and he would cease to exist, leaving nothing behind except for the legendary stories and memories of the other creatures of him.

James shook his head, forcing himself to regain consciousness.

He appeared in front of the Ghost Race's Patriarch.

"Argh!!!" The Ghost Race's Patriarch was furious.

The Ursas and Stone Race's Patriarchs had died in James' hands. The Ghost Race's Patriarch did not want to die and chose to burn himself like the Soul-Demon Master. Then, he charged at James.

However, his powerful force did not hit James. Instead, it struck the starry universe.

His terrifying attack caused the Cloud Universe to shake, and cracks began to form in the void. If not for the formation, the Cloud Universe would have been destroyed.

James did not want to waste his limited time on those already bound to die.

He took advantage of the Blithe Omniscience and avoided the Ghost Race's Patriarch. The next moment, he appeared behind a Permanence Acmean.

Before the Permanence Acmean could sense the danger, his body and soul were annihilated.

James was like the God of Death, traveling through the Cloud Universe and harvesting the lives of the powerhouses one after another.

Meanwhile, Youri and Dalson teamed up outside the Cloud Universe and attacked the formation repeatedly.

However, James also continuously divided his strength to maintain the formation.

While trying to eliminate the other powerhouses, James also used his strength to resist Dalson and Youri's attacks. Doing so hastened the burning of his life force.

However, James was confident he could wipe out everyone inside the formation as long as the formation was not broken.

Out of the Ten Great Races' Patriarchs, a few of them have already died. Meanwhile, several of them had chosen to burn themselves. Unfortunately, they were unable to catch up with James. Ultimately, they decided to attack the formation with all their strength.

James would absorb the force they dealt to the formation. He was continuously injured, and his strength was gradually weakening.

James' consciousness was getting increasingly blurred.

"I need to hurry up."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4448-Many of the various races' powerhouses had died, and a few had chosen to burn their life force.

On the other hand, James' formation had not been broken.

The powerhouses that consumed their life force for strength continuously attacked the formation simultaneously with the two powerhouses outside the Cloud Universe, causing trauma to James.

Despite that, James remained conscious with his strong willpower.

He quickly took action against the group of powerhouses.

Meanwhile, Yuri and Dalson exerted their full strength to attack the formation from outside the Cloud Universe.

Yuri had entered the Omniscience Path's Ninth Stage, and a cyan glow radiated from his body.

"The formation is solid." His wrinkled face wore a solemn expression.

Yuri continued to attack but was unable to break the formation.

"Stop holding back, Dalson. You need to use full strength," said Yuri.

Dalson replied helplessly, "I'm already exerting all my strength."

Yuri said, "I have a bad premonition. Something terrible must've happened in the Cloud Universe. We need to break the formation as soon as possible. Otherwise, the Greater Realms will go through a huge change."

Inside the Cloud Universe, James had already killed most of the various patriarchs.

Only one of them was left-Jethro, the Angels' Patriarch.

James instantly appeared in front of Jethro.

Jethro panicked and pleaded, "Please spare me, James."

"Impossible."

James' body emitted flames, and his face was almost completely burned, revealing his bones. He looked hideous and terrifying at that moment.

"Regardless of why the angels participated in the attempt to obliterate the humans, they were still involved and will have to pay the price.

"I must kill you. If the humans manage to rise in the future, they may spare the angels then."

James' voice resounded.

Hearing this, Jethro closed his eyes.

"Go ahead, kill me. I'll accept the punishment on behalf of our race."

James immediately took action.

His long word pierced Jethro's body, instantly obliterating his body and soul.

James had finally killed the patriarchs of the major races, also the culprits that had caused agony to the humans.

Although the main perpetrators were dead, many Acmeans were still alive in the Cloud Universe. Unfortunately, James would not let anyone survive since they had also participated in the battle to destroy humanity in the past.

James wanted to kill everyone that had the Human Race's blood on their hands.

After the stronger cultivators died, those remaining were easy to deal with.

James hovered in the void of the Cloud Universe.

The flames on his body burned more vigorously, and his consciousness was slowly slipping away. His physical body was almost incinerated, and his soul was almost completely dissipated.

Somewhere in the Chaos was a desolate area with several dead universes with no traces of life.

Suddenly, a disheveled man and a beautiful woman appeared on a dead planet in the area.

It was none other than Soren and Thea that had escaped.

Thea stood atop a bare mountain and looked into the Chaos. Her tears were wheeling up in her eyes, and her cheeks were stained with tears.

Sensing that James' aura was gradually weakening, she wept sorrowfully.

Standing aside, Soren comforted her, "James' sacrifice is worth it. He successfully created hope for us, Thea."

A powerful aura immediately erupted from Soren's body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4449-"Back then, the various races joined forces and trapped me, resulting in me missing the battle in the Primordial Realm. As a result, the Human Race had been suppressed. Now that I've escaped, I'll definitely lead the Human Race back to prosperity after recovering.

Thea could not process Soren's words as James occupied her entire mind.

"We can't stay in the Greater Realms anymore. I must find a safe place to recuperate. Let's head back to the Primordial Realm," said Soren.

Thea returned to her senses, looked at him with teary eyes, and said, "We can't return to the Primordial Realm. The area around it has already been sealed. There's only a one-way passage from the Primordial Realm to the Greater Realms. It's impossible to travel from the Greater Realms to the Primordial Realm."

“Don’t worry. I know a passage to reach the Primordial Realm. Come with me.”

Thea shook her head.

“James is going to sacrifice in the Cloud Universe, and someone needs to collect his body. I can’t leave yet. I’ll stay behind.”

“They are not going to let you leave if you’re caught. After James is dead, they’ll search the Greater Realms, and you won’t make it out alive.”

After speaking, Soren quickly approached Thea and sealed her.

Even though his strength was not in his prime, he could easily seal Thea’s strength since she did not have her guard up against him.

Soren forcibly took Thea away from the area.

Meanwhile, James floated in the starry Cloud Universe.

His memories began to flash through his mind, including everything from birth to the present.

He recalled the burning of Cadens’ mansion in Cansington and when the earth’s Spiritual Energy was restored.

A smile formed on his scorched face as he remembered these past events.

“I’m content with my life and can die in peace. I’ve reached the end of my life, and it’s time to bid this world goodbye.”

A powerful aura erupted from James’ body, and a terrifying force permeated the surroundings.

The destructive force spread out, causing the void to crack and collapse.

The Cloud Universe collapsed instantly, and the living beings, including a few hidden powerhouses, were obliterated.

Xezal’s shadowy body fluttered with force and was almost wiped out.

Boom!!!

The Cloud Universe exploded and vanished. The formation surrounding it also dispersed.

The Cloud Universe had already been turned into an empty void. Only the skeletal remains of James could be seen floating in the area.

After burning out his life force, James' aura and soul had completely vanished, leaving only his bones behind.

After the Cloud Universe was destroyed, Xezal reappeared.

Yemima also appeared in the Cloud Universe.

James had used his remaining strength to destroy the Cloud Universe and wipe out the remaining powerhouses within it. However, he felt guilty toward Yemima as he had been using her to achieve his goal. Thus, he used his power to protect Yemima before perishing.

Xezal saw Yemima, Youri, Dalson, and Wyot.

Youri immediately questioned, "What happened, Xezal?"

Xezal replied, 'We fell into James' trap. He was impersonating Wyot all this time. He gathered the powerhouses of the Greater Realm to wipe everyone out.

"After everyone was in the Cloud Universe, he set up a formation to trap us. He had already collected the ten tokens and released Soren. I tried to stop Soren from escaping, but James was too strong with the Blithe Omniscience. I used a Secret Art to enter the Caelum Acme Rank but failed to stop him."

After speaking, Xezal looked toward Dalson.

"After sensing Dalson attacking the formation, James burned his life force to gain monstrous strength comparable to a Caelum Acmean. I wasn't strong enough to stand in his way. Ultimately, he killed all the powerhouses inside the Cloud Universe."

"Damn it," Youri cursed furiously.

His voice shattered the Chaotic Void.

Then, he looked at James' skeletal remains. He struck the bones, trying to vent his anger.

However, his powerful force was unable to destroy James' bones.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4450-James died in battle, but his bones were left behind.

Since he set himself on fire, his bones were slightly charred.

Youri unleashed his powerful force but failed to destroy James' skeletal remains.

While still alive, James was at the late stage of the Omniscience Path's Eighth Stage.

His muscle strength was comparable to that of a late-stage Terra Acmean. Bones were the hardest part of one's body, so even Youri could not destroy them.

"E-Everyone's dead?"

Dalson looked at the void where the Cloud Universe used to be in shock.

For the sake of the Cloud Universe, he left to venture to the Greater Realms to heal his wounds and cultivate. After finally entering the Caelum Acme Rank, he wanted to lead the Cloud Race to become the strongest race of the Greater Realms.

Unexpectedly, the Cloud Race was obliterated, and even the Cloud Universe ceased to exist when he returned.

"Sir Youri, I was injured and will return home to recuperate."

Xezal clasped her hands together and disappeared from sight.

"Are you alright, Yemima?"

The disheveled Wyot looked at Yemima and approached with a gentle expression. He reached out to hold Yemima's hand.

Flustered, Yemima took a few steps backward.

Wyot said, "It's me, Yemima. I'm Wyot, remember?"

Yemima stared at the familiar face.

However, she felt distant from him.

"D-Don't come near me!"

Yemima seemed to have been frightened and fled panicked from the area.

Standing aside, Youri explained, "While you were trapped by the humans, James impersonated you and has been staying in Mount search Doom. You've never slept with Yemima before, but James did in your stead. Yemima is already pregnant with James' child. Her child carries the blood of the Human Race."

Besides Yemima, Youri was the only one among the Dooms aware of her pregnancy. Not even James knew about it.

Wyot immediately clenched his fists. Veins bulged on his arms, and his face distorted in anger.

Youri looked toward the destroyed Cloud Universe and cursed, "A bunch of trash."

Then, he disappeared from the area.

Dalson also did not remain and left.

Wyot gritted his teeth. He had grown deep hatred for James and the humans.

"From today onward, my primary goal will be obliterating the humans. As long as I'm alive, they will never have a day of peace."

Wyot made a vow to the Chaos. Then, he also left the area.

The area immediately fell silent.

Inside the search Doom Race's main hall, Youri sat in the highest seat with many powerhouses gathered below him. Even Dolph was released from the dungeon.

Youri said, "The Wyot that had appeared in our territory was James. The humans had carefully plotted to rescue Soren and take revenge on us.

"A massive battle broke out in the Cloud Universe, and countless powerhouses of the Greater Realm have died.

"Now is the perfect chance for us to conquer the various races.

"James had killed many powerhouses, which has dealt a massive loss to the various races. However, our race hasn't suffered any significant losses. He created a chance for us. Dolph, I now order you to lead our army to the various races and conquer them. Soon, we will rule the Greater Realms.

"Qimat, use our intelligence networks to search the Greater Realms for Soren and Thea. We can't let Soren survive. If he recovers his cultivation base and strength, even I won't stand a chance against him."

Youri quickly issued a few orders.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4451-Dolph and Qimat spoke at the same time.

Then, Qimat stood forward and said, "James is already dead. It'll take time for Soren to recover. Shouldn't we take the opportunity to destroy the Primordial Realm, the Human Race's backup plan, and the universe they created?"

Youri stared at the void.

He saw the existence of the Chaos Heavenly Path and its providence.

Although James was dead, the providence of the Human Race did not decrease. On the other hand, many races' providence decreased when their powerhouses died in battle.

Currently, the providence of the Human Race was powerful.

As the Human Race had such a strong providence, if Youri destroyed the universe created by the Human Race and their providence, he would face huge karma. He might not be able to enter the Caelum Acme Path as quickly.

He looked at Wyot in the main hall.

Wyot no longer looked unkempt. He was in a white robe and looked handsome.

‘There’s no need to rush.’

Youri waved his hand and said, “James is dead, and Soren hasn’t recovered. Soren was trapped in the formation for a long time. It’ll be difficult for him to return to his peak. Now, we need to protect the races of the Greater Realms and occupy the providence released. If our providence surpasses the Human Race’s, we can suppress them.”

As he spoke, he looked at Wyot.

“Wyot, you’re our race’s future hope. I hope you can immerse yourself in cultivation. I hope that in the future, you will personally annihilate the human race and settle the grudge between you and the human race.”

Wyot stood forward and nodded slowly. “I understand.”

He looked indifferent, as if he did not care about the matter.

When many races lost their strongest powerhouses, the search Doom Race was forced to deal with the matter.

Upon facing the powerful search Doom Race, the great races had no desire to fight at all. They chose to surrender and become the Doom Race’s underlings.

The Doom Race helped the great races recover in a short time.

However, there was a race the Doom Race could not help, which was the Cloud Race.

Even though many powerhouses of the Cloud Race died, the Cloud Race made their living beings retreat before the powerhouses of the Greater Realms gathered in the Cloud Realm.

When Dalsen returned, he occupied a large realm and named it the Cloud Realm.

Hence, the Cloud Race did not fight against the search Doom Race for the place as the number one race.

The search Doom Race's actions seized the providence that was released, improving the Doom Race's providence.

On the other hand, Youri went into closed-door meditation. He wanted to use the providence to enter the Caelum Acme Rank.

Since Soren had disappeared, it was almost impossible for Youri to obtain the Blithe Omniscience. Youri could only enter the Caelum Acme Rank to protect the Doom Race and resist the pressure brought by Dalsen.

The real Wyot had also returned.

He was still the elder of the Doom Race and was appointed by Youri to be the next Patriarch.

As he was an elder and the future Patriarch, he inherited a large amount of providence.

The providence became the foundation for him to rise.

Meanwhile, the news about James killing numerous powerhouses in the Greater Realms spread throughout the Greater Realms. The news about Soren being freed was also spread.

The news made the Human Race, who were at the bottom, regain hope.

James' matter was also remembered by the Human Race.

He became the hero and motivation of the Human Race.

James' death ignited the flame and fighting spirit in the people of the Human Race's hearts.

Many humans had decided to cultivate to reach James' cultivation rank and lead the Human Race to glory.

Even though James was dead, he ignited the spirits of the humans of the Greater Realms.

Thea and Soren had also returned to the Primordial Realm and their universes. There was a statue in every universe's central region.

The statues were statues of James.

What happened to James in the Greater Realms had spread throughout dozens of universes.

Hearing the news ignited hope in the Human Race.

Although James was dead, his actions stirred up every human. Thus, the providence of humans did not decrease. Instead, it increased.
