The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4481-Wyot exclaimed, 'The living being inside the copper coffin hasn't even entered the Permanence Acme Rank. How can someone not even at the same rank withstand my attacks?'

Although Wyot was in disbelief, the Permanence Acme Rank Heavenly Tribulation had appeared. In the area, there was only him and the unknown copper coffin. Since it was not him, the Heaven Tribulation must be for the living being inside the coffin.

"Damn it," Wyot cursed.

He felt a blow to his confidence.

Even though the mysterious living being was only at the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank, he withstood Wyot's attack.

Wyot knew he would be trounced if the opponent reached the same rank as him.

A murderous intent immediately sprouted in his heart.

'I must kill him. Whether it's James or someone else, I must get rid of whoever it is.'

Boom!!!

The surrounding Chaotic Void burst open, and massive black holes appeared consecutively.

The black holes exploded, causing significant damage to the surroundings.

The copper coffin floated in the void, unaffected by the mayhem outside.

Countless Sonic Sword Energies struck the coffin, but it remained unscathed.

Despite that, James was covered in injuries and blood inside the copper coffin. He looked terrible, but his aura constantly improved, and his comprehension of the various Paths grew.

Swoosh!!!

Wyt dashed toward the coffin and launched a destructive attack on the copper coffin. Countless Sword Energies emerged and struck the coffin.

While trying to make a breakthrough, James also had to pour his strength into the coffin to block Wyt's attacks.

A powerful force emerged from the copper coffin, blocking the dazzling Sword Energies.

The Sword Energy blasted away the copper coffin. It entered a shattered universe, instantly blowing it into nothingness.

James also was impacted by the force and spat out blood.

"Break!" James' face distorted, making a terrifying expression.

As he roared, his aura instantly skyrocketed.

The Heavenly Tribulation was unable to break the copper coffin. Even though it was not destroyed, a powerful force permeated the coffin and inflicted damage on James' body.

Although the Heavenly Tribulation was terrifyingly strong, it was not enough to kill James.

James was progressing rapidly and was close to entering the Permanence Acme Rank.

Soon, he entered the Permanence Acme Rank without much hindrance.

James, who had entered the Permanence Acme Rank, finally obtained the strength of a true Acmean. His comprehension of the various Paths had also improved to a higher level, and his strength had grown significantly.

After entering the Permanence Acme Rank, James' aura leaked outside of the copper coffin. He neutralized the Sonic Sword Energy formed with the Chaos' Nine Voices Forth Tone.

Wyt was also impacted by the powerful aura, and his Blood Energy churned. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

In the distant Chaotic Void, Wyot wiped and licked the blood on his lips with a terrifying expression.

“I would never have expected a human that hasn’t entered the Acme Rank to have withstood so many attacks from me. After entering the Permanence Acme Rank, he’s already so powerful and can injure me with just his aura.”

Suddenly, some inscriptions emerged from the copper coffin and formed a few common words of the Greater Realms.

‘You’re powerful, Wyot. Even though you’re only at the early stage of the Terra Acme Rank, you’re much stronger than a Terra Acmean at the middle stage. Unfortunately, you’ve not been in the Boundless Rank for long and haven’t fully comprehended it. I was forced to make a breakthrough into the Acme Rank. Otherwise, I would’ve continued cultivating in the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank.”

James could not use inscriptions to share any information related to his identity.

However, he was able to communicate other matters with the living beings outside of the coffin.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4482-“Hmph!” After reading the message, Wyot snorted coldly.

He was conscious of everything James had said. After becoming a Permanence Acmean, Wyot entered the Boundless Rank and planned to do the same in the Terra and Caelum Acme Rank. His ultimate goal was the legendary Chaos Rank.

After entering the Chaos Rank, he’ll discover a new world and finally understand the secrets of the Greater Realms and the Chaos.

“How about you get out of the coffin and fight me head-on? You must be a coward to be hiding in there.”

Wyot replied with a message as well.

However, James did not reply to him immediately.

After a while, a word manifested out from the coffin.

“Sure.”

The word containing terrifying strength was formed with James’ powerful aura and a few inscriptions.

“Destruct.” Wyot pointed his sword forward, and Sword Energy emerged, instantly shattering the word.

Suddenly, a shadowy figure manifested.

The figure stood in the Chaotic Void opposite Wyot, and a long illusory sword appeared in his hand.

The two had terrifying auras, but James was slightly stronger after breaking into the Permanence Acme Rank.

Wyot felt uncomfortable under James’ oppressive aura. It felt like an invisible sharp sword had pierced his body, and the Greater Realm’s countless universes were crashing down on him, making it hard to breathe.

Countless powerhouses from the Greater Realms took notice of the battle.

“Who’s inside the copper coffin?”

“Could it be James Caden, who plotted a grand scheme in the Cloud Universe and wiped out countless powerhouses thirty thousand Epochs ago?”

“Back then, James burned his life force. There’s no way he’s still alive.”

The powerhouses began to discuss amongst themselves.

Meanwhile, countless human cultivators had also gathered outside of the Human Universe. Most were Caelum Acmeans, but there were also a few Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

The powerhouses gathered and stood in an organized line, forming a wall outside the Human Universe.

Standing in the forefront were the strongest human cultivators.

“Is it Dad?” Jacopo sensed the battle in the Chaotic Void and made a guess about the identity of the living being inside the copper coffin.

He felt it was likely the case since even Wyot thought the same.

However, he was curious why James did not reveal himself and was hiding inside the copper coffin.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a light ray appeared nearby, and a beautiful woman slowly manifested.

Thea had used her powers to form a clone of herself outside the Human Universe.

Meanwhile, her main body was trying to merge the different universes.

“Mom.”

“Master.”

“Madam Thea.”

As soon as Thea appeared, the powerhouses immediately greeted her respectfully.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4483-Noel, who had never met James, asked, “Mom, is Dad inside the copper coffin?”

Thea nodded lightly but then shook her head.

She took a deep breath and said, “I’m not sure. Your father has already integrated his soul into his flesh and bones. Theoretically, if even one of his bones remains undestroyed, he can resurrect over time.”

“During the battle in the Cloud Universe thirty thousand years ago, Soren forcibly brought me back to the Primordial Realm. Thus, I’m unsure of the battle’s result and whether his bones were completely destroyed or not.”

Although various signs proved that James was likely the person in the copper coffin, nobody could be sure whether it was him since he never revealed himself.

“Regardless of whether it’s James or not, at least humanity is temporarily safe. He managed to block Wyot’s attacks and seems to have made a breakthrough in his cultivation. I can sense that his aura is much stronger than Wyot,” said Jabari.

Surprised, Thea said, “Yeah, it’s a powerful aura. Even while separated by such a long distance, I can feel his terrifying aura. Although I’m a Caelum Acmean, I feel like a mountain crushing down on me. His aura is already comparable to a late-stage Caelum Acmean.”

James’ breakthrough caused a huge commotion amongst the Human Race.

Meanwhile, the Dooms’ powerhouses within the Doom Universe were also shocked. Even Youri felt horrified by the terrifying aura, and a sense of despair budded in his heart.

‘This aura alone is already so powerful, so how strong is his combat power?’

Youri could not fathom how strong the mysterious opponent was.

After James’ destroyed the Cloud Universe, the Cloud Race found themselves a new universe to settle down.

Their powerhouses gathered inside their main hall on a spiritual mountain in the Cloud Race’s headquarters.

Dalson sat in the highest seat. After sensing the powerful aura, Dalson gently stroked his white beard and murmured, “The humans are so lucky. I knew the battle between the Dooms and the humans wouldn’t end so easily. Although the Dooms’ overall strength is superior to the humans, the humans will survive as long as the powerhouse in the copper coffin protects them.”

In the Chaos, James used his Spiritual Powers to create a shadowy clone of himself outside of the copper coffin.

His clone emitted a compelling aura.

Wytot's face darkened, and a ferocious expression emerged as he sensed the terrifying pressure from the clone.

James' clone held a long sword and suddenly dashed through the Chaos.

The shadow flickered all over the Chaos, and countless clones with swords emerged. They attacked simultaneously, unleashing a great number of Sword Energies. A few mysterious inscriptions also manifested and combined with the Sword Energies to form a Sword World.

Wytot was instantly trapped within the Sword World.

He was already struggling to withstand the pressure of James' aura. Now that he was trapped inside the Sword World, the pressure he felt had increased. The damage from James' Sword Intent had broken his physical defense, and his body was instantly injured.

Wytot shouted, "Paths of Heaven and Earth, protect my body."

He waved his hand, and the powers of the heaven and earth's Paths gathered to form a protective barrier on his body's surface.

Meanwhile, James' clone hovered in the Chaotic Void. He raised his hand, and countless Sword Energies fell into the Sword World.

His protective barrier was broken instantly, and the Sword Energies pierced his body.

Wytot suffered a devastating blow from the Sword Energies and was severely injured.

After being saved from the Heaven-Eradicating Sect, this was the first time he had been injured.

His heart was burning with anger.

'The Nine Voices of Chaos, Heaven Piercing Sword Art!'

Wytot suddenly made a move, casting his most potent signature skill.

The Nine Voices of Chaos were cast, and nine mysterious tones combined with his Sword Energy.

Wyt's aura had skyrocketed, and he immediately charged into the sky.

Wyt was trapped inside the Sword World constructed by James and felt a crushing pressure on his body.

He had never been injured since Xezal rescued him from the Heaven-Eradicating Sect until now.

Wyt used his strongest signature skill, and his aura improved tremendously.

He charged into the sky, and the aura emitting from his body caused the Sword World to tremble. Soon, a few cracks formed on the border of the Sword World.

James urged his power to maintain the Sword World's stability. At the same time, he summoned a few powerful Sword Energies to attack Wyt.

However, Wyt's Heaven Piercing Sword Art caused mysterious Sonic Sword Energies to permeate the air.

Boom!!!

James' Sword World collapsed instantly.

Wyt's Sonic Sword Energies spread and penetrated the Chaotic Void.

The Sonic Sword Energy permeated the Chaos and the Greater Realms. The living beings throughout the Greater Realms heard the sonic waves and felt their ears buzzing.

James' shadow was destroyed instantly and disappeared without a trace.

Creak!!!

A crack appeared on the tough copper coffin.

James, who was inside the coffin, suffered severe trauma.

Even though James had entered the Permanence Acme Rank and had a stronger aura, he still suffered damage from Wyot's signature skill. His whole body was covered in blood, and he looked terrible.

Tiny cracks had spread throughout the copper coffin as well.

James was overjoyed and wanted to use the cracks to leave. However, the mysterious inscriptions in the copper coffin restricted his movements. With his current strength, he could not destroy them.

Although Wyot broke through James' Sword World, he also suffered severe injuries while inside the Sword World. His body was covered with wounds, and his flesh had been torn apart, exposing his bones that had countless scars.

Wyot held onto his dazzling long sword. At that moment, his hair was scattered, and his body was covered in blood.

Although he was injured, his aura was still on par with James.

The Greater Realm's powerhouses watched the ongoing fight.

They were shocked by the strength of the mysterious powerhouse and Wyot.

All of them were powerhouses that had reached the ultimate pinnacle of the cultivation rank that has existed since the Space Race Era.

"A Sword World? It really must be James."

Thea watched from her clone and was sure the person inside the copper coffin was James. She had seen James cast the Sword World in the Cloud Universe before.

Back then, James used the Sword World to trap the powerhouses on the Cloud Universe and even temporarily confined Xezal.

"Is that really James?" Jabari asked excitedly, "He's not dead?"

"It's Dad? Then why isn't he showing himself but hiding inside the copper coffin?"

Thea did not have the answer to these questions either.

Meanwhile, another shadowy figure with a long sword appeared outside the copper coffin.

Wyt's aura was compelling. He stared at James' shadowy clone grimly and said, 'Your strength has exceeded my expectations, James. However, no matter what kind of Supernatural Powers you have, you will die here.'

James could hear Wyt from inside the coffin but could not respond vocally.

"Bring it on."

A few mysterious inscriptions appeared before the shadowy clone, turning into a few comprehensible texts.

Wyt's body immediately disappeared and reappeared before the shadowy clone in a flash.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4485-As soon as he reappeared, a bizarre sound spread throughout the area.

The sound waves permeated the air and sealed the area. James' shadowy clone was obliterated instantly.

Meanwhile, James felt tremendous pressure from inside the copper coffin. He heard from Xezal before that the Chaos' Nine Voices were only the basics of the Chaos Sacred Art. Different combinations of the Nine Tones would produce various unique powers.

Wyt had cast the most potent technique of the Chaos' Nine Voices. The mysterious sound waves had sealed the area. Although James had mastered the Blithe Omniscience, he could not escape the confinement.

James felt that the Blithe Omniscience was not inferior to the Chaos' Nine Voice and that he could not gain the upper hand only because his comprehension of the Blithe Omniscience was not profound enough.

Before the Sky Burial Age, the founders of the Blithe Omniscience and Chaos Sacred Art had fought before. They were evenly matched, and the two could not kill each other while in the same cultivation rank.

“Obliterate his powers, flesh, and soul.”

Wyot performed the most terrifying Forbidden Art recorded in the Chaos Sacred Art.

The continuous gathering of soundwaves and Sword Energy gathered to form an ancient and forbidden Supernatural Power. The mysterious power surrounded the copper coffin, dealing a decisive blow.

James felt his soul and body suffering a terrible blow.

He was instantly injured severely and was getting close to death.

‘That was terrifying. The Chaos Sacred Art sure is powerful.’

James was shocked.

“Split the sky, break the earth, and destroy everything.”

A powerful force surrounded the copper coffin. The force seeped through it and hit James, destroying his flesh.

Inside the coffin, only his bones remained.

Even though the forbidden technique performed by Wyot was terrifyingly strong, it could not destroy James’ bones.

Meanwhile, James retained some consciousness despite only being left with bones.

After 30,000 Epochs of recovering, he still had the power to fight despite only being left with bones.

At that moment, James urged all his strength. His powers concentrated and shot out of the copper coffin, passing through Wyot’s Forbidden Power.

James’ powers pierced Wyot’s chest, and a destructive force permeated Wyot’s body. Most of his flesh was blasted apart, leaving him with white bones and hanging flesh.

Wyot’s Genesis was severely injured.

Meanwhile, James also passed out after exerting all his force to deliver the fatal blow.

James no longer had any strength to fight and fell into slumber. It was uncertain whether when he would wake up again.

Wyt was also drained of energy. He had unleashed his formidable Forbidden Art but still failed to crack open the copper coffin. Moreover, he was not sure whether James was still alive or dead.

However, he had already sustained severe injuries. If Soren were to appear, he would definitely be doomed.

After losing his combat strength, Wyt had to heal his injuries immediately. Even if Soren did not show up, he would die if Thea were to come finish him off.

Wyt was afraid to stay longer and disappeared into the Chaotic Void with a flash.

The Chaotic Void was shattered and left with countless holes that swallowed everything in the area, making it a terrifying sight.
