The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4486-Wyot was unsure of James' condition but was afraid to stay in the area any longer.

Supposing that James had survived the attack, Wyot knew he could not stand against James in his current condition.

James, on the other hand, had completely passed out. His flesh had been obliterated, and only his bones remained.

He only managed to survive because the copper coffin absorbed some damage. James would never have been able to withstand the Chaos Sacred Art's Forbidden Art without the copper coffin.

Meanwhile, the human powerhouses remained outside of the Human Universe.

Unfortunately, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could not sense the battle in the Chaotic Void and could only feel the force permeating toward them.

Thea, and the other powerhouses above the Terra Acme Rank, however, could see the battle with their senses.

"What's the situation now?"

"Wyot escaped. I think the person inside the copper coffin won?"

Even Thea and the other powerhouses could not conclude the battle's outcome, as they could not verify whether the person inside the copper coffin was still alive.

Concurrently, Soren was besieged by the powerhouses of the Dooms in the Doom Universe.

After seeing that Wyot was injured and escaped, Soren laughed, "Haha! Wyot has been defeated and has fled after losing his combat power. I can finish him off if I head to the Dooms' headquarters now."

The Dooms' powerhouses immediately stepped forward to stand in his way.

Youri said coldly, "I dare you."

Hirah also threatened, saying, "I'll kill you before you can lay a hand on him."

"Haha!!!" Soren laughed wildly and said, "If I want to kill a helpless cultivator, none of you can stop me."

Soren was confident, but he did not immediately take action.

In their current circumstances, killing Wyot was not the most important matter. Instead, the merging of the Human Universes was much more crucial. If they could form a Super Heavenly Path, it would be the strongest Heavenly Path in the Chaos.

Then, the Human Race's prosperity would be guaranteed, and they would eventually surpass the Dooms.

Soren looked at Yuri and said smilingly, "Wyot has already been defeated. Now I'll give you two options. You can choose to continue this battle or retreat to recuperate the damages. If you decide to fight, we will fight till the end.

"I admit the Dooms are indeed strong, with many Caelum Acmeans. However, the humans aren't weak either. Thea has already entered the Caelum Acme Rank as well. Even if you manage to destroy us, the Dooms will suffer terrible consequences from the battle."

Yuri had a solemn expression as he glanced at Hirah.

However, Hirah remained silent. Instead, Xezal stepped forward and said, "Sir Yuri, at how things are right now, we're incapable of preventing the humans from creating their new universe. It's better we temporarily come to a truce instead of fighting to our deaths. We should wait until Wyot recovers and enters the Caelum Acme Rank."

However, Yuri had an uncertain look. It was not easy for them to have gained such an opportunity, but there was a turn of events with the sudden appearance of the copper coffin.

Yuri was unsatisfied with the outcome. If he knew things would have come to this, he would have destroyed the Human Race at all costs after the battle in the Cloud Universe.

"Retreat," Yuri said reluctantly.

Immediately afterward, he issued an order to Dolph, who was near the Human Universe.

“Retreat with the army, Dolph.”

The Dooms’ attempt to obliterate the humans resulted in heavy losses.

James almost wiped out their army, and only a few Permanence Acmeans survived.

Although the number of casualties was high, most of those that died were Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, and the Dooms did not lose any of their strongest cultivators.

After the Dooms withdrew from battle, the humans’ powerhouses were relieved.

Some of the cultivators began to rejoice.

“We won!!!”

‘The Human Race has come out victorious!’

“After this battle, we can finally complete our new universe and gain a foothold in the Greater Realms!”

“Yeah! The Human Race that used to lurk pitifully in the Greater Realms will have a home of our own!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4487-Cheers and applause resounded outside the Human Universe.

Swoosh!!!

Soren appeared out of nowhere and stood before everyone.

“Master!”

“Sir Soren!”

Everyone immediately greeted him.

Thea stepped forward and said, "Thank you, Soren."

Soren slightly waved his hand and said, "I only held back the Doom Race's powerhouses. The real hero is the powerhouse inside the copper coffin. Without him defeating Wyot, we'd have been doomed."

"Was it James?" Thea asked uncertainty.

Even though many indications proved the person inside the copper coffin to be James, he did not show himself, so Thea was still slightly doubtful.

Soren shook his head, not able to give her a precise answer.

"Let's go check it out."

Thea turned to Jacopo and the others, saying, "Jacopo, stay here just in case the Dooks try to sneak an attack on us.

Meanwhile, Soren and I will check out the battlefield just now."

"Alright." Jacopo nodded.

Swoosh!!!

Thea and Soren appeared in the depths of the Chaos.

The area was chaotic. Even though the Chaos was shattered and turbulent, it could not hurt them.

The two spotted the copper coffin in the Chaotic Void.

Thea immediately asked, "Is it you, James?"

The copper coffin was covered with cracks and looked like it would break anytime soon.

Thea asked again a few times, but there was no response from the copper coffin. She glanced at Soren and asked, "Could something have happened to him?"

Soren shook his head and said, "I'm not sure. Wyot has already mastered the Chaos Sacred Art. There's a Forbidden Art recorded inside. Even though I'm at the middle stage of the Omniscience Path's Ninth Stage, I would've been killed if struck by it."

Even Soren feared the Forbidden Art recorded inside the Chaos Sacred Art.

Thus, he could not be sure whether the person in the copper coffin survived.

"Let's bring it back."

Thea's face had a touch of sadness. Although they had not confirmed the person's identity, Thea was sure it was James.

She appeared before the copper coffin in a flash and tried to wrap her force around it.

The Human Universe was about to become a Super Universe soon, and the Human Race's luck would increase.

Therefore, Thea planned to use the Human Race's luck to nourish the copper coffin.

Suddenly, the copper coffin moved and disappeared from sight.

Thea panicky searched for the copper coffin's aura. However, it had disappeared without leaving any traces.

Although Thea was a Caelum Acmean, she was unable to locate it.

"What happened?" Thea turned to Soren.

Soren shook his head and said, "I don't know. Since it's disappeared, let's leave. If it's really James, he must be fine since he even survived the Cloud Universe's battle. It's probably not the right timing yet."

With Soren's comforting words, Thea was temporarily relieved.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4488-Youri sat in the highest seat with a gloomy expression. He raised his hand and slammed the table in front of him. The table made of special materials instantly fell apart.

“Damn it! I’m fucking pissed!”

Youri’s wrinkled face was furious. The Dooms were so close to conquering the Greater Realms and creating a new prosperous world under their reign. However, their plans had fallen short.

The powerhouses in the main hall remained silent.

Qimat broke the silence, saying, “Sir Youri, are we really going to just step back and watch the humans grow? We’ve waited so long for such a great opportunity and shouldn’t let it pass us by. If we give the humans a chance to breathe and create a Super Universe, it will be even more challenging for us to obliterate them in the future.”

Naturally, Youri was displeased by having to give up the opportunity. However, the Dooms would suffer heavy losses if they insisted on a desperate fight with the humans, even if they were to win.

Youri looked at Hirah and asked, “What do you think, Sir Hirah?”

Although Youri was the patriarch, Hirah had the highest seniority in the Dooms.

Hirah sat aside and fell into thought. After a while, he said, “Actually, it’s not difficult to wipe out the humans. The humans only have Thea and Soren. If we were to mobilize all our forces, killing Thea should be easy. Our biggest obstacle is Soren. If we obliterate the humans but he escapes, it’ll be easy for him to kill us while lurking in the dark.”

Soren’s cultivation rank was nothing impressive, but the Omniscience Path and Blithe Omniscience made him a difficult opponent. With these two signature skills, he could easily escape the battle, and nobody would be able to kill him.

Hirah expressed his opinion.

Youri took a deep breath and said, “That’s it for now. I’ll go check on Wyot.”

After dismissing the meeting, Youri stood up and disappeared from the main hall.

The next moment, he appeared on Mount Doom.

A formation had been set up in the back of Mount Doom.

Youri approached and stood outside of the formation. Even if he was incapable of breaking Wyot's formation.

He shouted, "It's me, Youri."

After announcing his presence, a gap appeared in the formation.

Youri strode through the formation.

Wyot was sitting on a rock at the mountain foot inside the formation.

His traumatized body had recovered, but his hair was still scattered messily. His face was pale, and his aura was still fragile. A foreign power ran wild in his body, constantly destroying his cells.

"Are you alright, Wyot?" Youri walked over with a concerned expression.

Wyot was the Doom's strongest powerhouse. Even Youri was no match for him. The Doom Race would be heavily affected if something happened to Wyot.

Wyot attempted to stand up, but it worsened his injuries and caused him to spit out a mouthful of blood.

He took a deep breath and said solemnly, "The being inside the copper coffin is too powerful. After he made a breakthrough, he became significantly stronger. Although I broke through his Sword World, I was still severely injured."

Since Wyot returned to the Doom Race after being rescued, it was the first time he had been so severely injured. During the battle, he was worried about dying if he continued to fight. Left with no choice, he fled.

"Was it James?" asked Youri.

Wyt shook his head lightly and said, 'There are many signs indicating the being inside the copper coffin is James. However, he didn't show himself. Thus, I can't be sure whether it's him."

Youri said, "What should we do now? I've already decided to a truce with the humans. However, it means we'll be giving the humans a chance to grow stronger. After we lose this chance, another one will not come by easily."
