The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4511-When the time came for the second Sky Burial, Wyndael chose to sit out as well.

“It may be for resources or just pure invasion. When a new space or realm is discovered, invasion is a must. Rumor says that during the third Sky Burial when the Chaos ends, a Chaos Core will be left behind. When one consumes the Chaos Core, one can enter the Chaos Rank. Perhaps the Chaos Rank doesn’t exist in the outer bounds. Maybe it’s to pursue a higher cultivation rank.”

Since ancient times, there had been two Sky Burials. Many legends were left behind.

Some were passed down by word of mouth, while some were recorded in the books left behind by ancestors.

Whether or not the legends were true, no one knew.

Only one thing was certain-there was space outside the Chaos.

In that space, powerhouses were trying to invade the Chaos.

The only chance for the powerhouses in the outer bounds to invade the Chaos was to wait until there were enough powerhouses in the Chaos so the aura would be strong enough to flow out. Then, the powerhouses of the outer bounds would be able to sense it and invade the Chaos.

“Huff!”

When James learned about the truth, he could not help but take a deep breath.

“It’s my last chance.” Wyndael’s expression turned grave.

“For what?” James asked.

Wyndael answered, “I can’t run away anymore. The Invincible Sect can’t keep running away too. Even if we want to escape, we can’t. The third Mega Sky Burial is coming. Perhaps the lifespan of the Chaos is coming to an end.

However, if there's a space in the outer bounds, even if the Chaos is destroyed, we won't disappear. We just need to go to the space outside the Chaos.

"Nonetheless, the Invincible Sect, those hidden sects, and I are worried that the powerhouses in the outer bounds won't let us live when the third Mega Sky Burial comes and the Chaos is destroyed.

"We could resist.

"We could also enter the Chaos Rank and prolong the lifespan of the Chaos Heavenly Path.

"Or, we could kill the powerhouses of the outer bounds.

"This is our last chance.

"The hidden sects are growing anxious, which is why they've decided to show themselves. They're looking to preserve their lives."

As Wyndael spoke, he looked at James.

"I looked for you because I was looking for an opportunity." "Me?" James was taken aback. He said, "My cultivation rank isn't high. What opportunity could result out of looking for me?"

"Even though you aren't strong now, you're special," said Wyndael.

"I'm special?" James was bewildered.

"Yes." Wyndael continued, "Because you aren't a human from this Chaos. You're from another realm."

James was stunned.

He was from another realm?

How could that be?

"It's true." With certainty, Wyndael said, "During the first Sky Burial, the Patriarch of the Doom Race broke through the Chaos and injured the powerhouses outside the Chaos. At the same time, a crack appeared. A ray of Life Power entered the Chaos. The Life Power formed you.

“However, the Life Power floated in the Chaos for a long time before reincarnating in the Human Universe. Several powerhouses of the Greater Realms saw everything that happened. They observed you in the dark. They wanted to see if there were any differences between them and the powerhouses from the outer bounds.

“I don’t know what you were in the outer bounds, but since you were reborn in this Chaos, you’re a human of the Chaos. You’re also responsible for the life of the Chaos.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4512-Wyndael told James a secret.

James was not from this Chaos. He came from another realm.

James could not accept this fact.

“A few powerhouses guessed that you were the Life Power left behind by a fallen powerhouse of the outer bounds. You could reincarnate safely because the powerhouses here wanted to use you as a threat to the powerhouses of the outer bounds once you successfully reincarnated.

“I don’t agree with those powerhouses. I don’t care what your identity was before. You’re now a living being of this Chaos. I believe that your heart is here and not in the outer bounds. You wouldn’t help the outer bounds attack this Chaos, right?”

Wyndael looked at James.

For a moment, James had no idea how to respond to the question.

After pondering for a while, he said, “I don’t know about the rest, but I know my home is in the Human Realm. My family and friends are in the Human Universe. I won’t stand by and watch the outer bounds attack this Chaos.”

Wyndael smiled, satisfied.

He was assured by James’ words.

“Can you tell me more?” James asked.

Wyndael said, “I’ve told you everything that could be said. The truth of the Sky Burial is as so—the Sky Burial refers to the invasion of the outer bounds. At the same time, it’s also the Chaos’ form of self-protection. That’s the rough explanation.”

“What kind of family is Thea in?” James asked.

He came here to find out the situation of the family Thea was in. He wanted to look for Thea, his wife.

“I advise you not to go there,” answered Wyndael.

“Why not?” James questioned.

Wyndael explained, “You have a unique identity. You came from the outer bounds. Many powerhouses assumed that your appearance was a scheme of the outer bounds. The powerhouses of the outer bounds sent you to the Chaos to destroy the place. Meanwhile, the family Thea is in is looking to kill you to prevent any future troubles. You used to be very weak, so they didn’t care about you. However, you’re currently strong enough to endanger this Chaos. If you go to her family, they’ll take action and lock you up. You’re only safe in the Invincible Sect.

“By the way, do you know who the founder of the Invincible Sect is?”

“Who?” James asked.

“You’ve met him before.”

“I’ve met him before?”

“Yeah. You met him in the Heavenly Awakening’s realms.”

Upon hearing that, James was taken aback. He met many powerhouses in the Heavenly Awakening’s realms.

However, the powerhouses he had met before the first Sky Burial Age were only Yardos and some others.

“Is it Yardos?” James was stunned.

Wyndael shook his head and said, "Yardos is my teacher. The founder of the Invincible Sect is the Boundless Master, my grandteacher. My uncle is Saewald. In the Mega Sky Burial Age, my teacher and grandteacher died in battle, while my uncle survived.

"That year, my uncle wanted to participate in the battle, but my grandteacher stopped him because he wanted my uncle to face the third Mega Sky Burial."

"Huff."

James took in a deep breath.

He did not expect the founder of the Invincible Sect to be the Boundless Master. He did not expect Wyndael to be Yardos' disciple.

"No matter what happens, I'm going to find Thea."

James was determined.

Even if Thea were in a tiger den, he would still go.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4513-Thea was James' wife. He had to find her.

"Whatever floats your boat."

Wyndael did not force James to stay back since James was already a true powerhouse. His actions had to be carefully weighed.

"Is Thea's family powerful?" James asked.

Wyndael nodded his head and said, 'They're quite strong. Although Thea's father is also a human, he was a devil before the first Sky Burial Age. He was my teacher's enemy. My teacher was not his match. Only by entering the Caelum Acme Rank and comprehending the Blithe Omniscience was my teacher able to beat him. Nevertheless, my teacher couldn't kill him. When the Sky Burial arrived, my teacher was finally strong enough to kill him.'

Hearing that made James' expression darken.

If Thea's father could crush Yardos in the past, he must have been a terrifying existence.

"So, are you still going to go there?" Wyndael asked.

"Of course. Why wouldn't I?" James said, "After all, Thea is my wife. Even if her father is a devil, he's our child's grandfather. I'm sure he won't kill me."

"Even though he may not kill you, he may lock you up. He wants to live, so he may use you to threaten the living beings in the outer bounds," said Wyndael.

"Where's Thea's family?" James questioned.

Even though he knew Thea's family might kill him, he still wanted to go.

He needed to face those problems sooner or later. He could not keep running away from them.

"Great. You're courageous." Wyndael gave James a thumbs up and said, "If you get locked up, I'll think of a way to save you. You share a connection with my teacher. My teacher comprehended the Blithe Omniscience because of your guidance."

Even though Wyndael was the sect leader of the Invincible Sect, he was kind toward James.

That was because James and Yardos used to carry out closed-door meditation in the same cave.

Yardos also comprehended the Blithe Omniscience after speaking to James.

Wyndael waved his hands, and a map appeared.

James took the map and opened it. Immediately, he knew where Thea's family was.

At once, he got up. Gratefully, he said, "Thank you for your guidance."

"Go ahead." Wyndael waved his hand.

James' body flashed and disappeared.

After he left, Saewald appeared.

“Why did you tell him those things?” With a grave expression, Saewald said, “Aren’t you afraid of stirring up his old memories? If the powerhouses of the outer bounds arranged for him to be here, the Greater Realms would be doomed once he recalled everything.”

Wyndael smiled and said, “If my teacher trusted him, I will too. I believe he’s formed a connection with this Chaos.

Even if he were sent by the outer bounds, he wouldn’t watch the Chaos get destroyed.”

“Sigh.”

Saewald sighed and said, “I hope you’re right. Otherwise, we will die.”

Without saying anything else, Seawald left.

Meanwhile, James never stopped advancing since obtaining Thea’s family’s address.

There were remarks on the map.

The remarks were about Thea’s family. James glanced at them and learned about the things Thea’s father did.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4514

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4514-James now had a rough understanding of Thea’s father.

Thea’s father’s name was unknown, but he had a nickname. He was known as the Ancestral Blood Master.

At the same time, he was the founder of the Blood Mantra.

The Blood Mantra was a supreme secret art from the first Sky Burial Age. It was one of the Ten Great Ancient Signature Skills. It was on par with the Blithe Omniscience and the Chaos Sacred Art.

Xezal once said that if each of the Ten Great Ancient Signature Skills was cultivated to its extreme, it would be on the same level as the rest. The skills were just in different fields.

Thea's father did many evil things in the first Sky Burial Age, earning him a bad reputation. He was constantly being suppressed by the righteous powerhouses.

Nonetheless, he was powerful. There were only a few powerhouses who could suppress him in that age.

Yardos was one of them.

When Yardos was at his peak, he could even kill Thea's father.

However, that was during the first Sky Burial.

Now, many years passed since the first Sky Burial, and the Ancestral Blood Master had been cultivating. No one knew how strong he currently was.

At least, no one in the Invincible Sect was his match.

Even Saewald, Yardos' senior, could not defeat the Ancestral Blood Master.

"Unfathomable."

This word was at the end of the information Wyndael gave.

It meant that the strength of the Ancestral Blood Master was unfathomable.

"Huff!"

After learning about these matters, James could not help but take a deep breath. He never expected Thea's father to have such a powerful background.

In the depth of the Chaos were countless spatial rifts. These rifts were the result of a fierce battle. The base camp of the Ancestral Blood Master was the only mysterious place in the Chaos. The base camp was in one of the rifts. In this rift, there was a realm.

The realm was known as the Blood Realm.

Only a few living beings from the outside world knew about the Blood Realm.

At this moment, at the back of a spiritual mountain in the Blood Realm, a man was standing in the manor. He appeared to be around thirty years old. He wore a red robe and looked handsome. He put his hands behind his back angrily.

To the side, a lady in black lowered her head and dared not look at him.

“Father.”

Thea, who was wearing a black dress, called out softly.

The man in red raised his hand and wanted to slap Thea. At that critical moment, he stopped. After all, Thea was his precious daughter.

The Ancestral Blood Master sighed helplessly.

“Father, is the Mega Sky Burial coming?” Thea could not help but ask.

She did not know these matters in the past.

However, after following James, she learned a lot. She also heard about the rumor of the Sky Burial.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4515-“What’s the truth about the Mega Sky Burial?”

When the Ancestral Blood Master heard her say that, his expression turned grave. Slowly, he sat down.

“There is still space outside the Chaos. The space is known as the outer bounds. There are peerless powerhouses in the outer bounds. In the first Sky Burial Age, countless powerhouses were born in the Chaos. The aura of these powerhouses broke the Chaos and made the aura flow out, attracting the powerhouses of the outer bounds. It was only then that a battle was initiated...”

The Ancestral Blood Master told Thea about the details of the Sky Burial.

Upon hearing about it, Thea was stunned.

She had no idea the Sky Burial was so terrifying.

She also did not know there were several meanings to the Sky Burial.

The Ancestral Blood Master continued, “The rise of the Human Race and the strengthening of the Human Race’s providence are the development trend. The Primordial Realm and Human Race were wiped out to deter the Mega Sky Burial. Now, no one can stop the Human Race from rising. So, the Mega Sky Burial will come.”

“Huh?”

Thea was once again shocked.

She did not expect the races of the Greater Realms to try to wipe out the Human Race to deter the Mega Sky Burial.

“What’s behind the massacre of the Human Race and the Primordial Realm?” Thea asked.

The Ancestral Blood Master explained, “During the first Sky Burial, the Patriarch of the Doom Race used the Heaven Piercing Sword Art to pierce the Chaos and injure the powerhouses of the outer bounds. At the same time, a ray of Life Power entered the Chaos from the outer bounds.

“The Life Power traveled in the Chaos. Many years after the second Sky Burial, several powerhouses extrapolated the track of the Life Power. They found out that the Life Power would reincarnate to the Human Race. Once he reincarnated into the Human Race, the providence of the Human Race would reach its extreme. Then, the most dazzling era of the Chaos would come. Countless powerhouses would be born, and the Mega Sky Burial would arrive.

“So, some powerhouses intervened in the reincarnation of the Life Power and planned to wipe out the Human Race.

“Nevertheless, even if the Human Race were wiped out, meddling with reincarnation would only prolong the time. Since the Life Power came from the outer bounds, the Chaos Heavenly Path could not intervene in its tracks much.

“When intervention couldn’t be done, the Life Power reincarnated into the Human Race and became James.”

“What?”

Upon hearing the name, Thea could not help but be surprised.

“James? H-How could this be?”

She could not believe it.

“It is him.” The Ancestral Blood Master continued, “James is the reincarnation of the outer bounds’ living being. Now, he has grown. He led the Human Race to glory. From now on, the providence of the Human Race will reach its extreme. The most dazzling era of the Chaos will also come. In the next era, countless Caelum Acme Rank powerhouses will be born.

“When the aura of the Caelum Acme Rank powerhouses gathers, it will break the Chaos and flow out. The Mega Sky Burial will come when the powerhouses of the outer bounds sense it.”

When Thea heard that, she was bewildered.

After a while, she asked, “What should we do now? Are the powerhouses of the outer bounds frightening? Can we defeat them?”

The Ancestral Blood Master shook his head and sighed.” Based on the current situation, the powerhouses of the outer bounds can’t be defeated. In the first Sky Burial Age, the powerhouses of the outer bounds only projected their aura to the Chaos. Nonetheless, it made the Chaos restless. It can be seen that the powerhouses of the outer bounds are invincible. At least, the known cultivation ranks in the Chaos can’t defeat them. Unless there’s a powerhouse in the Chaos Rank.

“Besides that, rumor says that the third Mega Sky Burial is the end of the Chaos Heavenly Path. Many powerhouses are thinking of a way to prolong the lifespan of the Chaos Heavenly Path.”

The Ancestral Blood Master told Thea a few secrets.

Thea was currently a Caelum Acme Rank powerhouse. She had the right to know these secrets.

“So, what should we do?” Her expression was grave.

The Ancestral Blood Master glanced at Thea and said, “James is the key. James is the reincarnation of the outer bounds’ powerhouse. He must have a high status in the outer bounds. The only way now is to trap him and stop him from growing. That way, when the Mega Sky Burial comes, our race can negotiate with the powerhouses of the outer bounds. When the time comes, even if the Chaos is destroyed, we can move to the outer bounds and have a chance at survival.”

“No.”

Thea immediately refused and said, “James is my husband. Even if he came from the outer bounds, his heart is with the Chaos. He won’t betray the Chaos.”

“What do you know?” The Ancestral Blood Master reprimanded her, “His reincarnation is a scheme of the outer bounds. Its aim is to destroy the Chaos from the inside out.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4516

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4516-Based on the Ancestral Blood Master’s opinion, James’ reincarnation was the scheme of the outer bounds.

“Father.”

With a pleading expression, Thea said, “Please let James go. He isn’t what you think he is. He’s loyal to the Human Race. How could he be a living being from the outer bounds? How could he ally with the outer bounds and attack the Chaos?”

The Ancestral Blood Master sneered, “He hasn’t done anything yet because he hasn’t recalled his memories. If he remembers what happened in his past life, he will destroy the Chaos. By then, the Chaos of the Greater Realms will become nothingness.”

“That’s impossible.”

Thea did not believe her father.

She did not believe that James was this kind of person.

“Since you’re back, don’t go anywhere else. Stay at home. You don’t need to participate in the upcoming matters. I have my arrangements.”

After speaking, the Ancestral Blood Master left.

“Father...” shouted Thea.

She wanted to go after her father, but she was stopped by a restriction after taking a few steps.

The restriction was set up by the Ancestral Blood Master. Even though Thea had entered the Caelum Acme Rank, she could not break it.

At the same time, James had arrived in the Blood Realm following the map given by Wyndael.

The void of this place had collapsed.

There were countless rifts in the void. The rifts were like spider webs spreading in the void. Upon seeing that, James frowned.

The map Wyndael gave showed that James was in the Blood Realm. Among the countless rifts, one of them was the entrance of the Blood Realm.

Nonetheless, James could not sense any space here.

At his cultivation rank, he could sense locations over long distances. However, he could not sense the Blood Realm. He frowned and thought of another way.

After a moment of thought, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

The aura flowed out and entered the countless spatial rifts.

“Greetings, I’m James.”

Then, James spoke up.

His voice was loud and clear as it resounded through the countless rifts.

If the map Wyndael gave was correct, the Blood Realm was here. James only needed to leak his aura, and the powerhouses of the Blood Realm would show up upon sensing his aura.

In the Blood Realm, the man in black, who brought Thea away from the Heavenly Court previously, appeared in the main hall of the spiritual mountain where the Callahans were. Respectfully, he said, "James has appeared in the outside world."

The Ancestral Blood Master sat in the main seat and rubbed his temples. He said, "If he could find our location this easily, he must have gone to the Invincible Sect. It seems that he has met the powerhouses of the Invincible Sect."

"What should we do?" The man in black, who was the Ancestral Blood Master's brother, asked.

The Ancestral Blood Master was Thea's father. He was her real father and not a clone.

His real name was Xrival Callahan.

He gave himself such a name.

When he was weak, he had enemies.

However, he could not find them, leading him to create this name. He wanted to find his enemies and take vengeance.

Meanwhile, his brother's name was Xanthus.

Xanthus used to be more powerful than Xrival.

Unfortunately, he deserted his cultivation base due to personal reasons. As a result, the Ancestral Blood Master surpassed him.

Xanthus' expression was grave.

He did not expect James to find the Callahans so quickly.
