The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4517-“Bring him in.”

The Ancestral Blood Master pondered for a while before speaking up.

He knew that there were many hidden powerhouses in the Greater Realms now. Some of them were hoping for James to resolve the Mega Sky Burial.

The Invincible Sect was one of them.

However, the Ancestral Blood Master did not want to put his hope on James. He also did not want James to become stronger. If James got stronger, he would become a threat to the Chaos of the Greater Realms.

Nonetheless, he was not afraid of other powerhouses.

In the outside world, James’ aura was overflowing, and his voice was loud.

At this moment, a shadow appeared.

The shadow was Xanthus, the person who brought Thea away.

James looked at the person who appeared. He could not help but be vigilant. The person showed a terrifying ability. Even though James was strong, he did not stand a chance against the person.

“You came earlier than I expected.” Xanthus smiled and said, “Since you’re here, please come in.”

He made a gesture to James.

Then, the size of the spatial rift in the distance increased. A fantasy portal appeared. Without any hesitation, James stepped into the portal.

When James entered the portal, the scenery changed. A dazzling world appeared before him.

Under Xanthus’ lead, James arrived at the main hall of the Callahans’ spiritual mountain.

A middle-aged man in red was sitting in the main seat of the main hall. Upon looking at him, James knew that he was the great Ancestral Blood Master. Even during the first Sky Burial Age, the Ancestral Blood Master was well-known.

With a bright smile, he said, "Father."

"Hmph."

The Ancestral Blood Master scoffed and said, "I have never acknowledged you as my son-in-law."

James felt awkward.

He scratched his head and said, "I came to bring Thea back with me. Thea is the Human Race's matron and one of the founders of the Human Realm's Heavenly Court. She needs to lead the Human Race."

"No way." The Ancestral Blood Master continued, "Thea won't go anywhere. She will stay here."

James talked politely, but the Ancestral Blood Master did not relent.

Thus, he had no choice.

Since negotiating did not work, he could only use force.

"What do I need to do to take Thea back?" He probed.

The Ancestral Blood Master glanced at James and said, "You came from the Invincible Sect. I'm sure the Invincible Sect has told you about your identity."

James nodded and said, "Wyndael did tell me my identity. However, I was born into the Human Race. My family and friends are in the Human Race. I won't betray the Human Race and the Chaos."

"Is that so?" The Ancestral Blood Master asked, "If your memories recover one day, what will you do if your friends and family in the outer bounds dies if you don't destroy the Chaos?"

James fell into deep thought.

He had never considered this problem.

“Father, you’re worrying too much. I’m very strong now, but I have no recollection of my past life. I believe I have no past life. Even if I came from the outer bounds, I should not be the reincarnation of a powerhouse.”

“We can’t be certain.”

The Ancestral Blood Master said, ‘The cultivation base of the outer bounds’ powerhouses is unfathomable. They have all kinds of tactics. To be safe, I have to be cautious. Since you’re here, don’t leave. Stay in our race and wait for the arrival of the Mega Sky Burial.”

While speaking, he waved his hand. A mysterious power emerged in his palm. Then, the power engulfed James.

Immediately, James sensed that he was locked up. He tried to open the seal, but its power was too strong. It seemed to have entered his veins. He attempted to break free, but it resulted in a painful sensation filling his veins. It was so painful that he began sweating profusely.

“Stop struggling. It’s useless. With your cultivation rank and power, you can’t open my seal.”
