The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4541-After gathering a decent amount of herbs, James used them to enhance his bloodline power again.

As James' bloodline power grew stronger, he found it harder to improve. He refined plenty of herbs, but the power had yet to reach the Divine Rank.

James continued venturing into desolate places in search of Empyrean herbs.

Thirty million years passed by in a flash.

After James had opened a new vein system, he searched for herbs and improved his bloodline power. Through his continuous efforts, his bloodline power reached the Emperor Rank after 30 million years.

Meanwhile, Saachi had been trying to restore her Dobro Eyes. To achieve her goal, she consumed countless Caelum Acme Herbs. However, her Dobro Eyes did not heal.

She stood in front of her spiritual mountains' cliff discouragedly, and standing behind her was a rather handsome man.

"What has James been up to in the past thirty million years?" asked Saachi.

Leif replied, "Nothing much. He's been wandering the different planets in this universe for Empyrean herbs. Unfortunately for him, this universe has already been damaged, and it is rare for high-quality Empyrean herbs to form. The herbs he found were all of low quality."

"Hmm?" Intrigued, Saachi turned to Leif and asked, "He's already a powerful cultivator, so why is he collecting low-quality herbs?"

Leif replied, "It seems like he's trying to enhance his physical strength or bloodline power. I'm not exactly sure. I tried asking him, but he told me it was a secret art from his sect. He even warned me not to spy on him, so I stayed away."

"Interesting." Saachi smiled faintly. "Alright, you're dismissed. I'll pay James a visit." She waved her hand.

“Understood.” Leif turned around and left.

Saachi also descended the spiritual mountain and headed to James’ residence.

Meanwhile, James was soaking in his bathtub. His body glowed with a crimson ray, which contained a weak force at the Emperor Rank.

‘What are you up to?’ Saachi approached and stared at James inside the bathtub.

James turned to her and said lightly, “Can’t you see I’m cultivating?”

“Is that so?” Saachi stared at James, puzzled. James’ physical strength was supposed to be exceptional, but the aura he was exuding seemed weak.

“If there’s nothing important, stop bothering me.”

James ignored Saachi’s confused gaze. He had to continue persisting to break through the restrictions in his body. Once he succeeded, both his vein system could merge, and he would be ridiculously strong when using the Blood Mantra.

Saachi stared at James, saying, “I can give you some Empyrean herbs if you need them.”

James stood up from the bathtub excitedly, completely forgetting he was not clothed. He instantly approached Saachi.

Startled, Saachi flushed red and turned away from him.

“Hehe!” James chuckled.

A black light flashed across his body and covered him with a black coat.

James asked ecstatically, “Are you serious? Will you really let me harvest the herbs from the herb garden?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4542-For the past thirty million years, James had desired the herbs inside the herb garden. However, his new vein system was still frail, so he did not need high-quality herbs yet. Even if he were to use them, they would go to waste.

He secretly planned to raise his bloodline power, then find an opportunity to run off with all of the herbs from the herb garden.

To his surprise, Saachi was offering the herbs to him.

Saachi nodded lightly and said, "You can take a few, not all of them. I need some for myself, so I can't give you everything. I would've allowed you to have everything if this were in the past."

In the past, Saachi was the Aeternus District's Saintess. The herbs in the herb garden were of value to her.

Now that she had wandered to this place, she wanted to use her resources sparingly.

While the two conversed, a universe appeared in the Endlos Void. The patrolling soldiers immediately noticed the unfamiliar universe and sounded the alarm.

Suddenly, James and Saachi heard a siren ringing throughout the universe.

Saachi's face darkened. She frantically turned to James and said, "My enemies have found me. This has nothing to do with you. Hurry and leave!"

After speaking, Saachi disappeared from James' sight.

The situation took James aback.

He knew a bit about Saachi. She used to be the Aeternus District's Saintess. However, her father was killed, and she was put on the wanted list. Her enemies had found her.

James did not leave. If a battle were to break out, he was confident nobody would be able to stop him. Although there was a seal on his Path, he could use the Blithe Omniscience to leave.

After slightly contemplating it, James followed Saachi to a core city of the universe.

An army of soldiers had already assembled.

Meanwhile, the City Lord's Mansion was full of generals, with Leif standing in the lead.

Upon noticing Saachi, Leif immediately reported solemnly, "Ms. Saachi, our enemies are already close. Your Dobro Eyes have been injured, and you can no longer fight. You should evacuate in advance. We'll block them."

Saachi said coldly, "Never. I'd rather go down with my army!"

James had followed into the main hall but silently stood aside.

At that moment, the universe that had appeared outside slowly approached them. Countless powerful troops emerged from the universe, emitting terrifying auras.

"Come with us, Saachi!"

A booming voice came from outside the universe.

"If you come with us, we'll spare your life. If you refuse, you'll be killed without mercy."

The voice spread throughout the universe.

Saachi was livid after hearing the voice. She immediately summoned a long sword and pointed it toward the sky. A dazzling Sword Energy burst out from the universe into the Endlos void.

"My soldiers, we fight together!"

"Attack!!!"

Saachi charged out of the universe and appeared in the Endlos Void. Her army followed closely behind her. Tens of thousands of troops gathered in the air.

The two armies stood opposite each other between their universes.

The enemy army commander was a middle-aged man dressed in black armor. He looked at Saachi calmly and said, "I don't want to kill you, Saachi. Our District Lord has promised to spare you if you surrender."

Saachi replied coldly, "You think you can kill me? Let's see if you have what it takes!"

The middle-aged man's face darkened, and he said coldly, "Wipe them out."

Following his order, the soldiers behind him charged out.

A fierce battle took place.

Meanwhile, James watched from inside the universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4543-James seized the opportunity to return to Saachi's spiritual mountain. He headed to the herb garden but was blocked by a powerful formation. Despite having extraordinary physical strength, James' Blood Energy churned. Unable to suppress it, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Damn it. I wasn't expecting the formation to be so powerful," James cursed.

"Come on, break!"

He clenched his fist and swung it at the formation.

His physical strength concentrated in his palm, and an explosive strength equivalent to a Caelum Acmean struck the formation.

The surrounding area was destroyed, but the formation remained unscathed. James' physical strength was useless against it.

He clicked his tongue and murmured, "This is troublesome."

James was capable of breaking the formation with his profound knowledge of them. However, his original bloodline power had been sealed, and he could not use his Path Powers. Meanwhile, his new vein system was weak, thus, limiting his capacities.

Unwilling to give up, James tried to strike the formation again.

Thousands of blows fell on the formation. Unfortunately, James' exceptional physical strength was not enough to destroy it.

James wanted to seize the chance to steal everything from the herb garden to enhance his bloodline power. However, Leif's formation was unexpectedly robust, and he failed to break it with brute force.

Meanwhile, the two armies had engaged in an intense fight outside the universe. Shock waves from the confrontation swept toward the universe, and spatial rifts began to form throughout the universe.

The universe was at risk of falling apart at any given moment.

"It seems I won't be able to acquire herbs from this place." He looked outside of the universe and sneered. "What bad timing."

Saachi was about to lead him into the herb garden, allowing him to harvest a few.

James activated the Blithe Omniscience, attempting to transverse into the herb garden.

Unfortunately, even with the Blithe Omniscience, he could not pass through the formation. With his current comprehension of the Blithe Omniscience, he was incapable of passing through the formation.

Boom!

The void around him was constantly being shattered by the shock waves from outside the universe.

The Heavenly Path of the universe was also about to collapse.

James instantly left the universe without any hesitation.

He planned to leave immediately but halted after seeing the battle in the Endlos Void. Saachi's opponents were incredibly powerful. She had already sustained injuries and was being besieged.

On the other hand, Leif was also surrounded by about eight powerhouses.

Leif was also a terrifyingly powerful cultivator. From his aura, James could tell he was at the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank. The power he displayed was even more potent than Wyot. Despite that, he was no match against so many opponents. Unable to withstand them, he constantly sustained severe injuries.

Meanwhile, Saachi's troops were also surrounded.

Many had already sacrificed, and the remaining soldiers were also wounded.

Swoosh!!!

Sword Energy pierced through the Endlos Void and slashed at the universe in which Saachi resided.

The destructive force shattered the universe, and its fragments disappeared into the Endlos Void.

"My herbs..."

James' eyes twitched in anger after witnessing the herbs disappear before him.

"Please take Ms. Saachi away, James! I beg you!"

Leif called out to James from a distance. He was surrounded by opponents, and about eight swords pierced him. Suddenly, a powerful force erupted from his body, blasting the swords away.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4544-Despite being incredibly powerful, Leif was unable to withstand multiple opponents of a similar rank as himself. At this point in the battle, he was already severely injured.

Saachi was also besieged by many powerhouses, and her white dress was stained red.

Many of her soldiers were mercilessly slaughtered.

The fierce battle continued in the Endlos Void.

James' brows furrowed as he watched the battle.

Saachi's enemies were powerful, and many of them had similar strength to him in his most potent combat form.

James could not exert his full strength with the seal in his body. He could only mobilize the Blithe Omniscience.

Unfortunately, his comprehension of the Blithe Omniscience was still lacking, and he was not confident to even face one of the powerhouses around Leif, let alone all of them.

Initially, James had no intention of getting involved in Saachi and the Aeternus District's conflict.

However, he could not bring himself to walk away since Saachi did indeed save him.

James activated the Blithe Omniscience and appeared in front of Saachi instantly.

Saachi held on to her long sword and kept slashing the void.

Several bright Sword Energies erupted, charging directly at her opponents.

Unknowingly, a man had already sneaked behind Saachi. He raised his broadsword and slashed a fatal blow at her.

James appeared out of thin air and grabbed Saachi at the last second.

"Let's go!" He activated the Blithe Omniscience again and disappeared with Saachi.

The attack missed its target, and the powerful force split apart the void.

James brought Saachi to an extremely remote area, and they were temporarily out of danger's way. Saachi was ragged and looked incredibly worn out.

Despite that, she growled at James, "Why did you save me?!! You should've let me be! I will go down with my army!"

James let go of her hand, gestured toward the battlefield's direction, and said, "Since you insist on dying, go ahead. But think about who is going to avenge your soldiers. Who will avenge your father?"

Saachi immediately calmed down at his words.

“ARGH!!!” she roared in despair.

James said helplessly, “I’m sorry I couldn’t save your subordinates. With my current strength, I could only get you out of there with my current strength.”

Unable to exert his full strength, James could only save one person.

“Please save Leif!”

Saachi looked at James pleadingly as if he was her only hope.

James frowned slightly at her request. He thought to himself, ‘I should be able to save one more.’

“Stay here, and don’t go anywhere. I’ll be back very soon.”

James was not very close to Leif. Despite that, he felt that Leif was a relatively good person.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience once again and left the area. The next moment, he appeared on the battlefield. He flashed before Leif grabbed his arm, and the two of them vanished.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. Even the enemy army’s commander could not react in time. He wanted to chase after Saachi and Leif’s auras, but James’ Blithe Omniscience left behind no traces. Moreover, there were no Path Powers in the Endlos Void, making it impossible for him to locate them.

The commander’s face darkened.

After Saachi and Leif escaped, their subordinates were quickly slaughtered.

After the battle ended, a soldier approached and reported, “Sir, Saachi and Leif were rescued by a mysterious being. We can’t trace their auras. What should we do now?”

The commander looked into the Endlos Void solemnly and murmured, “He did not use any Path Powers, nor did he cause any spatial fluctuations. Yet, he easily slipped away from our grasp. Could he be someone from the Welkin District?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4545-The commander leading the army to hunt down Saachi was a general of the Aeternus District. He was well-informed in various aspects. After witnessing James' Blithe Omniscience, he was reminded of a powerhouse from the Welkin District.

"Let's head back to report this to the District Leader."

Meanwhile, James brought the injured Leif somewhere in the Endlos Void. The two appeared in front of Saachi.

As soon as they reunited, Leif knelt on one knee and said with remorse, "I'm sorry, Ms. Saachi. I've failed to protect you because of my incompetence."

Saachi endured the pain from her injuries and pulled Leif back to his feet. She replied, "Don't blame yourself. You did what you could."

"What a waste of the countless herbs in the herb garden," James said regretfully. Then, he turned to Saachi and asked, "What will you do now?"

Saachi shook her head perplexedly, completely unsure of the future.

Leif said, 'You must keep going, Ms. Saachi. As long as you're alive, they will be wary. Sooner or later, you'll be able to return to the Aeternus District and avenge your father.

"I'm willing to sacrifice my cultivation base to repair your Dobro Eyes."

"Don't!" Saachi immediately tried to stop him.

However, it was already too late. Leif had already taken action and sealed her cultivation base.

In terms of cultivation rank, Leif was slightly above Saachi. Thus, his sudden movement caught her by surprise.

Saachi was immobilized in the Endlos Void, unable to exert her strength. Meanwhile, Leif's body erupted with a terrifying aura. He had ignited his life force in exchange for great power.

“Leif!!! Please don’t do this! Don’t sacrifice for me!” Saachi shouted desperately.

Leif’s face gradually became translucent and fluttered in the void.

“Ms. Saachi, you must return to the Aeternus District and avenge me.”

After speaking, Leif’s body dispersed into a wave of energy and submerged into Saachi’s body.

James silently watched from aside. Even if he intervened, it was useless. With his current strength, there was nothing he could do to stop Leif’s decision.

Leif’s cultivation base transformed into pure energy and completely submerged into Saachi’s body.

Saachi’s injuries were healed instantly.

Gradually, the area returned to calm.

Saachi stood in the Endlos Void in despair, her eyes filled with hatred and murderous intent.

“A-Are you alright?” James asked tentatively.

Saachi took a deep breath and suppressed the burning anger in her heart. She relaxed her expression and turned toward James. Shaking her head lightly, she replied, “I’m fine. Why would I not be?”

Despite her calm words, James could sense Saachi had changed drastically, and her heart was full of hatred. However, it was not something he could resolve.

“Where are you headed?” asked James.

Saachi responded calmly, “The Endlos’ Nine Districts is a vast territory with countless universes. Although the Aeternus District is powerful, they are ranked at the bottom of the Endlos’ Nine Districts. If I escape to another district to hide, the powerhouses of the Aeternus District might not necessarily be able to find me.”

While speaking, Saachi advanced in the Endlos Void.

“I’ll return to the Aeternus District eventually and regain everything they’ve taken from me.”

Her voice was flat but contained evident anger toward the Aeternus District.

James followed her and said, “I’ll come with you since I’ve nowhere to go anyway.”
