Chapter 4546

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4546-Saachi sat in an unknown area of the Endlos Void, and a white light emerged from her body. She was cultivating to heal her injuries. Soon, the external trauma on her body had healed. However, she had suffered multiple internal injuries and would need more time to fully recover.

James had followed on her journey. Seeing that Saachi was wholeheartedly treating her wounds, he did not bother her.

He sat aside and performed the cultivation method from the Blood Mantra to enhance his bloodline power.

Unfortunately, his bloodline power improved relatively slowly with the cultivation method. To speed up the process, he would need to absorb the strength of Empyrean herbs.

However, when his bloodline power had reached a specific limit, it would no longer improve with Empyrean Spiritual Energy. Then, the cultivation method would finally come into play in enhancing his bloodline power.

After a long period passed, Saachi finally stopped cultivating. She stood in the Endlos Void and looked into the distance in a daze.

James also halted his cultivation. He stood up, walked over to her, and asked, "Are you alright?"

Saachi gently shook her head and said softly, "I'm fine."

Unlike her words, her expression contained immense sorrow. She looked like a lost child, with despair and helplessness in her eyes.

James changed the subject, asking, "Where do we go now?"

Saachi took a deep breath and suppressed her turbulent emotions. After recomposing herself, she replied, "I plan to go into seclusion and concentrate on improving my cultivation base."

Her simple words contained deep hatred.

James said, 'You'll still need to find a place to cultivate, right? You can't just do it in the Endlos Void. Energy doesn't exist here, so how will you cultivate here?'

Saachi fell into thought. She never imagined herself wandering in the Endlos Void. Now, she had to plan for her future.

She wanted to improve her cultivation and return to the Aeternus District for revenge.

After thinking about it, Saachi replied, "Let's head to the Theos District. The Aeternus District is the weakest among the Endlos' Nine Districts. The Theos District is also the furthest from the Aeternus District. We can hide there and cultivate."

"Sure, I'm fine with anything you decide," said James.

In the first place, he could no longer stay in the Chaos District and was sent to the outer bounds by Wyndael. Thus, he did not have a specific destination.

One of the reasons he came to the outer bounds was to cultivate. Secondly, he wanted to investigate the real reason the powerhouses from the outer bounds attacked the Chaos District in the past.

It did not matter where they went as long as he could accomplish his goals.

Saachi looked at James and said, "Let's go. Even with our strength, reaching the Theos District will take some time."

James only knew about the Endlos' Nine Districts and had minimal information about the details. Therefore, he gestured to Saachi and said, "Lead the way."

Saachi wasted no time and began quickly advancing through the Endlos Void. Although she was moving at really high speeds, James could easily catch up with the Blithe Omniscience.
