Chapter 4549

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4549-Saachi made a considerate suggestion to James.

Since she strongly discouraged the idea, James no longer insisted on following her to the Daemonium Sect.

James looked at Saachi and said, "If that's the case, I'll head to the Theos Sect and cultivate there. By the way, we'll be meeting again, right?"

Unsure of her fate, Saachi gently shook her head in response.

"It's best we don't see each other anymore. In the future, I might become a ruthless person who won't hold back against anyone. I've never had any real friends in my life. You might just be the only friend I've had. I'd like to cherish this friendship in my memories."

Saachi disappeared from James' sight, but her voice resounded in the area.

"Thank you for saving me. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have survived. I'm really grateful that you've accompanied me these several Epochs. It's time we go our separate ways. We might never meet again. I don't have much, but I'd like to give you the Aeternus Mantra.

"Although the Aeternus Mantra isn't comparable to the Theos Sect's Forbidden Art, it's still a well-known signature skill in the Endlos' Nine Districts. The Aeternus District's powerhouses are after the Aeternus Mantra, so you must be careful in the future. Don't recklessly use it in front of opponents. If you ever do, you mustn't let any eyewitnesses live."

Saachi's voice gradually dissipated.

James took the book floating before him, looked in the direction where Saachi left, and murmured, "I have a feeling we'll meet again. I wonder what will become of you when we meet in the future. I hope you don't let hatred destroy your conscience."

James was worried about the changes in Saachi. During these few Epochs, he suspected she had secretly cultivated some kind of corrupted art. However, he was in no place to intervene with her matters.

Without going through the Aeternus Mantra, James stored it away as he did not intend to cultivate it soon. There were still many other signature skills he had to master.

Shortly after parting with Saachi, James also disappeared from the void.

He entered the Theos District and could sense the Heavenly Path's Power getting stronger. At the same time, he could sense powerful Path Powers.

James detected various universes in the Theos District. The universes on the outermost region were relatively weak, and even he could easily destroy their Heavenly Paths.

He was exhausted from traveling through the Endlos Void for the past Epochs. Therefore, he quickly located a universe and entered it.

The universe had various inhabited planets. The living beings ranged from strong to weak, with the weaker ones being ordinary humans or creatures. Meanwhile, the powerful living beings were Ancestral Gods.

Ancestral Gods were considered rather powerful, as they could pass through the Endlos' Void to most of the other universes. However, they could not transverse the Endlos' Void to the Theos District's core region.

James was physically and mentally drained. Thus, he was in no hurry to reach the Theos District's core region. Instead, he wanted to find a place to rest for some time.

While traveling in the Endlos Void, he could hardly improve his cultivation base as there was no energy. After reaching the Theos District, he was confident about improving his strength rapidly.
