

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4550

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4550-After traveling for a long time, James decided to temporarily rest in a universe at the outer perimeter of the Theos District.

He stayed in the universe for three hundred years. During this period, James relaxed his body and mind. After having enough rest, James was ready to continue on his way to the Theos District's core region to find the Theos Sect so he could focus on improving his cultivation.

Just when he was about to leave, James noticed a powerful aura entering the universe.

He was slightly taken aback after realizing it was the aura of an Acmean.

He was in a remote and weak universe of the Theos District. What was a powerhouse doing in this universe?

James knew something must have happened for an Acmean to show up.

Usually, James would not waste time on unrelated matters. However, he did not have much to do.

He disappeared from the area in a flash. The next moment, he arrived at a relatively prosperous planet of the universe.

James entered a restaurant in a bustling city. Sitting on the highest floor by the window, he leisurely drank wine.

On the ancient streets outside the city, an elderly man and a younger woman appeared.

The elderly man was dressed in a black robe. Meanwhile, the woman that looked to be in her twenties wore a black dress. Despite her youthful appearance, the woman had a terrifying aura of an Acmean.

No Acmeans resided in this universe. Thus, none of the inhabitants could detect the duo's strength. However, James immediately noticed how powerful they were.

The woman asked, "Sir, is it really in this area? We've been searching this place for so many years already. I don't think it's here."

The elderly man halted in his tracks and said, "It has to be here. Countless powerhouses from various forces have gathered here, so it must be somewhere here. We've simply come to try out our luck anyway. We're nowhere near strong enough to obtain the Blessed Land's boons."

The woman replied, "I heard the Theos Sect's Waleria Zavee has also shown up. She fought with a powerhouse from the Daemonium Sect, and their battle has caused mass destruction."

The duo chatted as they entered the city.

Even though James was inside the city, he could clearly hear their conversations.

He frowned slightly and murmured, 'The Blessed Land? What kind of place is that? Powerhouses from various forces have gathered? Who's Waleria Zavee and this powerhouse from the Daemonium Sect?"

Although James was clueless about the Blessed Land, he knew it was not an ordinary place since even powerhouses from the Theos and Daemonium Sect had shown up.

James was about to leave the universe to head toward the Theos Universe's core region to find the Theos Sect.

However, he changed his mind after learning of the Blessed Land. He wanted to stay for a bit more and uncover the truth.

He was curious about what the Blessed Land was.

James continued to stay in the universe and secretly watched the elderly man and young woman.

Three years passed by in a flash.

About a hundred or so powerhouses had entered the universe during that time.

These powerhouses had incredibly high cultivation ranks. The weakest was at the Terra Acme Rank. However, there were quite a few Caelum Acmeans.

Many powerhouses around the Theos District gathered inside a luxurious tavern in a booming city. Their conversations were related to the same thing.