The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4552-James appeared in the Welkin District's Endlos Void.

A powerful force instantly struck the place where he appeared, and everything around him was destroyed. A few surrounding universes were shattered into pieces, their Heavenly Paths collapsed, and the surrounding space became distorted. As a result, countless beings died.

James was not even at the battlefield yet, but the destruction capacity of the permeating force was terrifying.

Judging from the battle's shock waves, James could tell it was a fight between powerhouses that were at least at the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank. They probably had also entered the Boundless Rank at some point in their cultivation. Otherwise, an ordinary powerhouse that entered the peak of the Caelum Acme Rank would not have such destructive power.

James continued to advance using the Blithe Omniscience since no other living beings were in the area.

Soon, he was near the battlefield. When he arrived, the battle was already over. The Endlos Void in the area was shattered, and there were countless cracks and black holes, rapidly devouring everything around them.

The sight of the shattered universe fragments being swallowed by the black holes was terrifying.

"What a powerful aura."

After scanning the surrounding, James took a deep breath.

He let out his Divine Sense to analyze the area. However, he found no signs of life.

James said regretfully, "It's a pity I can't use my Path Powers. Otherwise, I could gain insight into what had happened here."

His desire to become stronger deepened and the urge to break the seal in his body grew more assertive.

Since the battle was over, James no longer stayed in the area.

Many years after he had left, the other powerhouses finally found the battlefield.

He wandered the Endlos Void in search of the so-called

Yhala Realm. He suspected the entrance to the Yhala Realm was in this area because of the battle that happened nearby a few years ago.

However, he found no life forces after searching for many years, nor did he find the Yhala Realm.

Suddenly, he arrived at a shattered universe destroyed by a powerful aura. Countless planets of the universe were destroyed, and many lives were taken.

"Someone's here."

James wanted to leave but sensed a faint trace of life. After a brief shock, he quickly stepped forward and entered the universe. However, he immediately lost track of it when he entered the universe.

His brows furrowed, and he began to focus on sensing the surroundings.

Soon, he located the life force and came to a massive planet. Just as he was about to pinpoint the life force, it suddenly disappeared again.

James entered the planet and wandered around, trying to find the life force.

After some time, he tracked it down to a large canyon in an extensive mountain range.

He appeared in the canyon but discovered a profound formation blocking his path. He investigated it and found the Formation Inscriptions used were very complicated.

Given that he could use his Path Powers and the Primal Mantra, he might just be able to break the formation.

Unfortunately, his original vein system had been sealed, and his new bloodline power was still very weak. Thus, it was impossible for him to break the formation.
