

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4616

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4616-The Daemonium Palace was situated atop a spiritual mountain in the central region of the Yhala Realm.

Saachi led James to the Daemonium Palace.

Inside the Daemonium Palace's main hall was a man sitting in the highest seat.

Yvan casually played with a sharp dagger that emitted cold energy.

Saachi entered the hall, knelt on one knee, and said respectfully, "I've come to see you, Sir."

James also knelt behind her without saying a word.

Yvan looked at Saachi kneeling inside the hall and said casually, "Where have you gone for the past hundred thousand years?"

Saachi immediately replied, "I was injured in a previous battle and had to find a place to recuperate. I rushed back to see you right after recovering."

"I see." Yvan did not doubt her words.

He immediately ordered, "The powerhouses trapped inside the Yhala Realm have learned of our plans and are trying to destroy Yhala's body. I need you to head to the spiritual mountain in the central region and assist the Deputy Leader to prevent them from attacking the spiritual mountain."

"Understood." Saachi nodded, stood up, and left the hall.

James stood up and followed Saachi out of the hall.

Yvan issued an order. "Pass down my order for all of the Daemonium Sect and Yhala Sect's disciples, except those guarding the spiritual mountain in the central region, to head out and kill the powerhouses trapped inside the Yhala Realm within a million years."

Shortly after his order was relayed, the Daemonium and Yhala Sect's disciples sprung into action.

Meanwhile, Saachi brought James to the central region. Upon arrival, Saachi met up with the Daemonium Sect's Deputy Leader.

After reporting to the deputy leader, the two temporarily settled down.

Saachi also successfully assigned James as a Guardian of one of the zones in the central region, allowing him to get close to the formation. Due to his position, the other disciples of the Daemonium Sect did not dare to say anything about him getting close to the formation.

Three months passed in the blink of an eye.

For the past three months, James had been guarding the central region and frequently went to examine the formation.

After observing the formation, he would return to his residence to decipher it. However, the formation was personally set up by Yvan. Thus, James was unable to break it so quickly.

James visited the formation once again. He stood far away and examined the mysterious words filled with magical power circulating in the formation.

James converted the mysterious words in his mind into their simplest form of inscriptions and slowly transformed them into advanced formation inscriptions.

He went through everything he had understood about the formation.

"What are you doing?"

Suddenly, a voice interrupted his thoughts.

James immediately snapped back to reality. He turned around and saw Zeloneth approaching him.

Fortunately, James had already changed his appearance and aura before entering the Daemonium Palace.

He immediately knelt on one knee and said respectfully, "Sir."

Zeloneth asked, "What are you doing sneaking around here? Who do you serve?"

James replied truthfully, "I serve Elder Salinese. I was patrolling the area and noticed the formation here exuded a mysterious power and couldn't help but take another glance at it."

Zeloneth said, "You may rise."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4617

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4617-James stood up but lowered his head, avoiding Zeloneth's gaze.

Zeloneth said casually, "The Deputy Leader personally laid down the formation. With your cultivation rank, you might not be able to understand it even after cultivating for eons."

"Yes, of course." James nodded repeatedly.

"It's safe here. Go patrol the other areas."

After Zeloneth left a few words, he crossed his hands behind his back and left the area.

James did not stay any longer and quickly left to patrol the other areas.

After completing his patrol, James returned to his residence.

As soon as he returned home, Saachi came to see him. She pushed open his door, walked into the residence, and entered his room.

Saachi set up a formation to block out other cultivators' detection and asked, "How's the progress?"

James sat on a chair beside her and said solemnly, "The formation is powerful and profound. My cultivation base is limited, so I need a bit more time."

"Is this going to work?" Saachi was slightly impatient after waiting for several months.

James replied confidently, "Of course. Give me another ten years. I'll definitely be able to decipher the formation in ten years. I promise we'll be able to enter the formation without triggering it or arousing any attention."

“Alright. I’ll give you another ten years. If you can’t decipher it, I’ll find another way.”

After leaving a few words, Saachi dispersed the formation and walked out the door.

James set up a time formation around his residence and began to study the formation.

Time passed day by day. Fierce battles continued to break out throughout the Yhala Realm.

When the Yhala Realm was opened, many cultivators entered. However, most of them were killed during the past hundred thousand years. Those still alive were real powerhouses that had reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

However, even ordinary Caelum Acmeans were easy targets to the Daemonium Sect.

The Daemonium Sect’s top powerhouses Yvan, Zeloneth, and the Four Grand Mages, had yet to participate in the battles. Nobody in the Yhala Realm could survive if they were to get involved.

The remaining powerhouses knew how things would play out in the end. Unwilling to give up, a few stepped up and gathered the remaining creatures in Yhala Realm.

Apart from a few powerhouses that chose to stay hidden, almost everyone joined forces to fight back against the Daemonium and Yhala Sect.

The Daemonium and Yhala Sect’s powerhouses quickly gathered in the central region to resist them.

Ten years passed by in a flash. James devoted his time to studying the formation during that period.

Boom!!!

A deafening explosion happened outside.

James’ residence trembled violently, and a shock wave swept toward him.

He quickly dodged the shock wave, but his residence was instantly split in half. The force had also damaged the void and ground.

Saachi immediately came to him and asked anxiously, “Are you sure about deciphering the formation?”

James detected the shock waves from the battles happening outside and asked, “What’s going on?”

Saachi said, “Among the creatures that entered the Yhala Realm, there’s a powerhouse called Faelon Snyder. He’s on par with the Daemonium Sect’s Grand Mages. He had gathered a large group of powerhouses and launched a counterattack. It’s the perfect opportunity to enter the formation and destroy Yhala’s body.”

James quickly performed a scan on the situation outside. He saw members from the Daemonium Sect and Yhala Sect had gathered together to fight off the group of powerhouses.

“I can open the formation now,” said James.

He also knew they had to seize the chance.

“Let’s go.” Saachi’s face lit up.

□

□

□

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4618

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4618-James’ goal was to disrupt Yvan’s plan and save the cultivators that entered the Yhala Realm.

Although many of them had died tragically in the past 100,000 years, there were still survivors.

James wanted to save as many as possible, even if it was only one life.

Saachi, on the other hand, wanted to replace Yhala's corpse to absorb the deceased cultivators' energy to get stronger so she could return to Aeternus District for revenge.

James led Saachi to the formation.

The distant battle had caused mass destruction, and the Yhala Realm was on the verge of collapsing.

However, Yhala had set up a formation around the Yhala Realm before her death, which prevented it from complete destruction.

Meanwhile, the central region where her body was stored had a formation, making it a relatively safe zone.

Saachi said impatiently, "Hurry up."

When with James, Saachi used her real name. However, she maintained her identity as Salinese Maignes in the Daemonium Sect.

James stood before the formation, raised his hand, and a magical inscription emerged. It was an inscription that he converted from the formation's inscriptions.

The inscription was identical to that used to make up the formation. It flew toward the formation and submerged.

Suddenly, a crack formed in the formation. Before James could react, Saachi had rushed through the crack.

James quickly followed behind her. As soon as they entered the formation, the crack merged.

After entering the formation, a spiritual mountain came into view.

James sensed an abundant Empyrean Spiritual Energy and the energy of the dead cultivators that accumulated in the area.

The spiritual mountain was a powerful Accumulation Formation. After having existed for so long, the Empyrean Spiritual Energy of the Yhala Realm had accumulated.

James exclaimed, "The energy here is so abundant."

Saachi, on the other hand, quickly located Yhala's corpse atop one of the mountains.

She hurriedly ascended the mountain in a flash.

The formation's core was situated on an open area atop the mountain. The core region was surrounded by magical inscriptions that continuously circulated it.

A crystal coffin could be seen in the center of the core.

A woman in a white dress lay peacefully inside the coffin.

Although she was supposedly deceased for eons, her body had not rotted, and her face was rosy. It looked like she had fallen into a deep slumber.

James sensed the Nine Voices of Chaos's power within her body. It was a terrifying force created by the fusion of the Nine Tones.

"I'll be taking over this place." Saachi beamed with a bright smile and waved her hand. A terrifying force emerged, moving the crystal coffin away from the formation's core.

Saachi quickly walked toward the core and was immediately surrounded by a mysterious formation.

She shouted ecstatically, "It's so powerful! The energy here is so majestic. If I absorb everything, I'll be able to perfect my Damon Eyes and finally take revenge on the Aeternus District. Finally, I'll be able to regain everything I've lost."

Saachi finally revealed a smile. She cast a cultivation method and began absorbing the energy in the area. Her eyes darkened and began rapidly devouring the surrounding Empyrean Spiritual Energy.

Meanwhile, the killing happening outside had not come to a stop.

Apart from the powerhouses trapped inside the Yhala Realm, many of the Daemonium and Yhala Sect's disciples had also succumbed in battle.

Regardless of their identity, the deceased's energy would gather toward the spiritual mountain in the central region and ultimately become Saachi's power.

James frowned at the sight but did not intervene.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4619

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4619-James approached the crystal coffin and looked at Yhala's body.

Yhala had beautiful facial features and pearl-like skin with a touch of ruddiness, looking nothing like someone deceased for a long time.

James murmured, "Waleria wants to bring Yhala's body back because the Theos Sect's Leader wants to study the Chaos' Nine Voices' power. Once he understands it, the Chaos District's biggest weapon will be rendered useless against the Endlos' Nine Districts. In the future, the Chaos District will be at a huge disadvantage if a battle breaks out."

He was from the Chaos District, so he wanted the best for the Chaos District. Therefore, he concluded it was necessary to destroy Yhala's body.

He concentrated his powers into his palm and struck the crystal coffin.

Crack!!!

His terrifying force hit the crystal coffin and caused a massive explosion. The crystal coffin shattered into fragments, and the corpse fell to the ground.

James' powerful attack destroyed the crystal coffin, but Yhala's body remained unscathed.

He raised his hand again and gathered all his strength.

Boom!!!!

His powerful force attacked the corpse and caused a rumbling sound to spread out. The permeating force damaged the formation around the spiritual mountain.

Meanwhile, Saachi floated in mid-air, silently absorbing the energy in the area. She was ecstatic about getting stronger and could not be bothered with James.

After James' attempt to destroy Yhala's body failed, the body suddenly floated away into the distance.

It escaped rapidly, and even James could not react in time.

The spiritual mountain suddenly collapsed into ruins. James floated in the air, but the body was nowhere in sight. He murmured, "I must've successfully destroyed her body, right?"

Suddenly, James felt a shiver down his spine as if someone was glaring at him.

He abruptly turned around and saw a beautiful woman wearing a white dress that exuded an ethereal aura floating in the distance.

The woman stared directly at James.

"You're quite ruthless, young man. I've no grievances with you, so why did you try to obliterate me?"

Her dainty voice resounded.

James squinted his eyes and took a few steps backward. He could sense terrifying energy coming from her and stared warily at the woman before him.

"Be careful, James. This woman is incredibly strong."

The Ancestral Blood Master's phantom body reminded him.

"She's someone who has surpassed the Caelum Boundless Rank. I've never sensed an aura like hers before, and I can't be sure what rank she is. Perhaps she has already entered the Chaos Rank, or at the very least, she's at the Quasi Chaos Rank."

James was horrified by his words. He pondered, 'Yhala is alive?'

From his understanding, Yhala was already at the Quasi Chaos Rank in the Sky Burial. Even though the Chaos Master killed her, she was a potent existence. She was just unlucky that the Chaos Master was stronger than her.

"A-Are you Yhala?" James looked at her warily.

He was unsure of the woman's identity. Yhala was supposed to be dead. Before her demise, she formulated a plan to absorb a tremendous amount of energy to perform the Death Ephialtes.

James thought to himself, 'Could it be she has already completed the Death Ephialtes and has been resurrected?'

Many thoughts began to flood James' mind. He stared at Yhala warily as he waited for her answer.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4620

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4620-The tall, slender woman in the white dress floated silently. She looked very elegant, and her eyes were crystal clear. Her aura was ethereal and pure, very different from what James heard about her.

James knew very little about Yhala. However, her disciple, Yvan, had created the Daemonium Sect, a corrupted sect. Moreover, it was rumored Yhala arranged for her resurrection before her death. Therefore, James concluded she was not a good person.

"Haha," Yhala chuckled and said, 'You're really amusing, Young Man. You wanted to kill me but are unsure of my identity?'

Although the woman did not directly answer his question, James could tell he was right.

"What do you want?" James looked at her warily.

"Haha..." Yhala laughed at his words. 'You're hilarious. You tried to kill me but now you're asking me what I want?'

After the brief conversation with James, she looked at Saachi, who was not far away, and noticed she was absorbing the Empyrean Spiritual Energy in the area.

After sensing the corrupted aura from Saachi, she frowned and said, "She has very Demonic Energy and is improving rapidly right now. She'll undoubtedly become a scourge of the Nine Districts in the future."

At that moment, Yhala expressed hostility toward Saachi, and it was evident she planned to kill Saachi.

James immediately sensed her murderous intent.

He quickly flashed in front of Yhala and said, "She's a very pitiful person and had no choice but to walk down such a path."

Yhala smiled teasingly and asked, "Do you think you can stop me?"

James replied, "Of course not. But she isn't your main concern right now. You should resolve the battle outside. Everyone outside is fighting because of you. Your disciple, Yvan, has killed countless lives to resurrect you."

Yhala replied lightly, "What does it have to do with me?"

James was rendered speechless.

"Isn't Yvan your disciple? Aren't you the founder of Yhala Sect?" asked James.

Yhala descended from the sky and landed on the ground. She looked at the ruins ahead and stretched out her slender fingers. Then, she lightly tapped the air, and the ruins split open to reveal a bottomless pit.

A formation was within the deep pit, and in the center was another coffin. Unlike the first coffin, this was black and emitted a black radiance.

"What the hell?" James was stunned and had no idea what was going on.

Yhala replied softly, "The Yhala you're talking about is probably her."

James looked at her puzzledly and asked, "What do you mean?"

Yhala sighed softly and explained, "It's a long story. She's my twin sister, Xuri Samaris.

"Although we're twins, we were born completely different. I was born with a Divine Path Body, but she had a Demonic Body. Nobody knows I have a twin sister. I did indeed create the Yhala Sect, but she often impersonated me while getting around in the sect."