The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4631-James used his power to suppress his internal injuries.

Scanning his surroundings, he noticed that the battle had ended.

Many powerhouses stood in the sky, observing each other.

It was unknown how long the battle had been going on and how many powerhouses had approached the spiritual mountain.

Even though they had gone near the Path Tree, no one could take it away.

The Path Fruit was even more magical.It was unpickable.

Besides, whoever approached it would be attacked.

Thus, no living being dared to go near it.

After learning the situation by looking at his surroundings, James looked at Zeno and said, "If you lie to me, I will deal with you later."

Then, he used the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

At the next moment, he appeared before the Path Tree.

Considering his previous experience, James was extremely cautious this time.He used the Omniscience Path once he appeared, exuding a white halo.

At once, his aura reached the extreme.

At the same time, countless inscriptions appeared around him.

The inscriptions gathered and formed a protective shield.

Numerous powerhouses sensed him when he showed up.

All of them launched attacks at him.

At that moment, James was already pulling and rotating the Path Tree.

As the Path Tree spun, a mysterious six-pointed star figure appeared at the top of the mountain.

When the star appeared, James sensed a strange power. He was immediately absorbed by the power and disappeared.

A large magnitude of power landed the moment he disappeared.

Boom! Explosions filled the top of the mountain.

“Huh?”

“What’s going on?”

“How did he suddenly disappear?”

The powerhouses around James were shocked.

They did not know there were formations at the top of the mountain and that James had already opened the formations.

From their viewpoint, James had only entered the spiritual mountain to pull out the Path Tree with its roots.

James was absorbed into the formation by a mysterious power.

When he appeared again, he was already in another world.

There was another cosmos in the spiritual mountain. It was another world.

With his Zen, James found out that the space was not huge. It was only the size of Earth.

There were powerful formation inscriptions in this area.

“Is this the inside of the spiritual mountain?”

Puzzled, James looked at his surroundings and mumbled, “How should I break the formation?”

He tried to observe the formation inscriptions around him.

The formation inscriptions were profound.

They were more powerful than the formations guarding the forbidden area previously.

This formation was not one James could break in a short time.

Instead, he needed to settle down and comprehend the formation inscriptions.

Only by comprehending them could he break the formation.

“How troublesome.”

James frowned and said, “I need to meditate in seclusion again to comprehend the formation inscriptions.”

He did not begin meditating in seclusion immediately.

Rather, he found a mysterious place in the space.

It was a place his Zen could not penetrate.

Stepping forward, he headed to the mysterious place.

Soon, he arrived in the area. It was the core of the formation and was filled with formation inscriptions.

The rows of these inscriptions intertwined with one another. They appeared uncanny.

Although James’ Zen could not penetrate the place, he saw a black ball of energy in the central region of the formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4632-Looking at the black energy sealed in the formation, James rubbed his chin in confusion.

“Could it be that the seal of this formation is this black ball of energy? What is this?”

James stared at the black-colored energy.

The shape of the energy was not fixed. It was like a black cloud that kept changing in form.

The energy could not be a living being since James did not sense any vitality from it. It was exuding terrifying energy despite not being a living being.

Even with the formations around, James still felt his heart race.

He felt as if he were going against a powerful powerhouse.

This made James hesitate.

He considered if he should open the formation.

If he did and a peerless demon was sealed inside, would that not cause a disaster? For a moment, he did not know what to do. He began to ponder and weigh the pros and cons.

After thinking for a while, he decided to open the formation.

If it were a demon, even if he could not defeat it, there had to be a powerhouse who could, considering how abundant they were in this world.

Now, James needed to open the formation and obtain the Path Fruit.

With the Path Fruit, he would have enough energy to enter the Eternal Boundless Rank.

Once he entered the Boundless Rank, he would become stronger.

Once he knew what to do, he sat on the ground with his legs crossed and set up a time formation around him.

Then, he began to study the formation inscriptions.

The more formation inscriptions he studied, the more profound his comprehension of the formation became.

Although the formation was strange, after comprehending the Primal Mantra, he could break down any formation into the most primal and simplest formation inscriptions.

After that, he only needed to deduce them.

This method made it easy for him to break formations.

In the time formation, days flew by.

Soon, James was able to comprehend the formation in this place.

Dispersing the time formation, he sensed the time and found that only ten thousand years had passed.

He wondered if the living beings outside had already left.

Looking at the formation ahead, he stepped forward.

As he raised his hands, the most primitive formation inscriptions emerged from his palms.

These formation inscriptions entered the formation and continuously transformed.

In the blink of an eye, they turned into mysterious and complicated formation inscriptions.

The formation inscriptions were like a key.

In an instant, the formation was opened.

When the formation opened, a crack formed, and the black- colored energy flew out.

The energy appeared before James, forming an unknown beast.

The beast was an illusion.

James could sense a terrifying and evil energy.

He stared at the black cloud.

After a while, he confirmed that it was not a living being but a ball of energy.

It contained an energy of extreme evil.

"I wonder which living being sealed this energy here," mumbled James.

The energy floated before James before turning into black fog and flying toward the sky.

Even though the formation was broken, James had not opened the formations of this world.

Hence, the black- colored energy could not leave the small space.

“This energy is magnificent.If I can take it with me, my power will increase after refining it.”

Rubbing his chin, James thought of using this energy for cultivation.

The energy was powerful.It was so strong that James feared it.It was not weaker than a peerless powerhouse.It was on par with the lifelong power of a Caelum Acmean or even stronger.

“I won’t hold back.”

After a moment of consideration, he thought of an idea.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4633-James raised his hand, and an illusive palm appeared, forcefully pulling the black fog in the air.

Once the fog was grabbed, it exploded, exuding a terrifying power.It shattered the illusive palm James created.

The power made James fly backward.He even coughed out blood.

He could not help but be surprised.

At that moment, a crack appeared in the formation before it vanished.

The black ball of energy left the world along with the disappearance of the formation.

Meanwhile, James sensed a battle happening in the outside world.

Immediately, he flew out and appeared in the outside world.

Once he arrived, he noticed many powerhouses surrounding Zeno.

The old staff in his hand had turned holy, exuding a ray of light and frightening power.

James knew that Zeno had obtained the Path Fruit.

He used the Blithe Omniscience and appeared at the battle instantly.

At once, he grabbed Zeno and disappeared.

The next moment, they arrived in the deepest part of a mountain range.

In the deepest part of an uninhabited valley, James let go of Zeno.

Then, he reached his hand out and said, "Give it to me."

With a bright smile, Zeno took out the Path Tree and plucked three fruits before giving the Path Tree to James.

After keeping the Path Tree, James asked, "Do you know what's the black-colored energy sealed in the space inside the spiritual mountain?"

"I know little about it," Zeno answered casually.

"What is it?"

James asked, "If I let it out now, will it be a danger to the world?"

"Why would it be dangerous?"

Smiling, Zeno said, "Even though the energy is powerful and evil, it won't do evil. It will only look for its master."

Upon hearing that, James became interested.

He asked, "Who's its master? Is it the peerless powerhouse you mentioned previously?"

"Haha."

Zeno laughed and said, "You're still too weak. You aren't capable of understanding the most important secrets in the ten districts. You only need to know that peace was achieved in the ten districts because of that peerless powerhouse."

As he spoke, his body disappeared from James' sight. Although his body was gone, his voice still resounded in the area.

"I'm leaving. I need to follow this ball of energy and find my old friend. We will see each other again when the time is right."

Zeno's voice grew weaker until it died down.

Looking at the void in the distance, James frowned and mumbled, "What a mess."

He ignored these matters and took out the Path Tree.

He stared at the mysterious tree and its fruits, sensing Path Energy and strong power in the Path Fruits.

"The energy of one Path Fruit is enough to help me enter the Eternal Boundless Supreme Path Rank," muttered James softly.

The energy of these Path Fruits was extremely powerful. It was greatly sufficient for cultivation.

However, he needed to find the Chaos Sword. He would only meditate in seclusion and try to enter the Boundless Supreme Path Rank after finding the Chaos Sword.

Just as he was about to look for the Chaos Sword, he realized that the space he was in had been sealed, followed by the appearance of many powerhouses.

"You're here earlier than expected." James frowned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4634-Just as James was about to look for the Chaos Sword, his surrounding space was sealed.

Then, a large number of powerhouses showed up in the area, encircling James.

James immediately used the Blithe Omniscience to escape the area.

However, the seal on the space was powerful, and his Blithe Omniscience was in effective against it.

James could not escape.

Instead, his body collided with the seal. His head began to spin as though he had hit a hard object. He urged some of his power, and the dizziness faded.

“Hand over the item.”

“If you want to live, hand it over.”

Many voices sounded from around James.

James knew that the powerhouses were here for the Path Fruit. It was just that they did not know the background of the Path Fruit.

James scanned his surroundings.

There were at least one hundred living beings here.

Most of them were in the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank.

Some had even reached the Boundless.

Their auras were powerful.

James frowned.

“It seems there will be an intense battle today,” mumbled James.

Then, he looked at the living beings surrounding him.

With a smile, he said, “I have nothing on me.

The monk has taken everything.

Why aren’t you going after him? Even if you kill me, I have nothing to hand over to you.”

“Quit pretending.”

“All of us saw the monk giving the tree to you. There are several fruits on the tree.”

Hearing them say that gave James a headache.

With a smile, he said, “Even if I have it, there are so many of you here. Who should I give it to?”

“Me, of course.”

“Give it to me.”

Many powerhouses spoke up one after another.

Everyone wanted the Path Fruit.

At that moment, a man walked forward and appeared near James.

He said, “I am a disciple of the Theos Sect. Please hand over the Path Tree. I will bring it back to the sect.”

The man wore a blue robe.

He appeared young and elegant.

James glanced at him and said, “Why would I give it to you?”

“Why are you wasting your time on him? Just get rid of him.”

Some of them could no longer stand and wait. They unleashed their strength, holding a dazzling sword in hand. Their bodies flashed and appeared before James.

The moment they appeared, Sword Energy exploded and headed right at James.

James sneered. He raised his hand, and power emerged from his palm.

Forcefully, he resisted the Sword Energy and dispersed it.

In an instant, the Sword Energy was nowhere to be seen.

James knew that a battle to obtain the Path Tree would ensue.

Immediately, he entered the state of the Omniscience Path. His body became warm, and he exuded a white halo. His Spiritual Power also started to increase. He loosened up his muscles.

“It’s been a long time since I fought.”

Ever since coming to the outer bounds, he had not had a proper battle. He would either end up crushed or on the run.

Among the living beings present, not one of them was a true powerhouse.

None was on par with the Daemonium Sect’s deputy leader and leader.

James believed he would not lose to them.

Rather, he could crush them.

“Who’s going first?”

James was calm as he asked, “Or do you want to come at me altogether?”

“How arrogant.”

“You know nothing.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4635-James’ words angered the powerhouses present.

Countless powerhouses pulled out their swords.

Just then, James’ body disappeared.

Then, he appeared behind the powerhouses and struck their backs with his palm force.

Almost instantly, hundreds of powerhouses were injured.

Even though the place was a sealed space and James could not leave, he could still use the Blithe Omniscience within the space.

He immediately catalyzed it and attacked hundreds of powerhouses.

Even though most powerhouses were in the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank, they were not James' match.

"You're too weak."

After James made a move, he appeared at the border of the seal.

Casually, he said, "Did you think the spatial seal could trap me?"

Then, a sword appeared in his hand.

It was the Death-Celestial Sword which was refined using the Light of the Terra Acme Rank.

Holding the sword, James used all his strength to attack the spatial seal.

Crack! The spatial seal immediately broke, and a crack appeared.

Meanwhile, James' body disappeared from the sights of the powerhouses.

Calmly, he left.

The powerhouses could not make him stay.

After James left the place, he deliberately hid and concealed his aura.

To prevent unnecessary trouble, he changed his aura and appearance.

In the next moment, he appeared as a chubby cultivator.

He was wearing the appearance of Henrik.

Although James was not afraid of the living beings here, he did not want to fight them.

Currently, he needed to find the Chaos Sword and leave the place.

Once his safety was ensured, he began to sense the aura of the Chaos Sword.

The aura of the Chaos Sword was weak, but he could still sense it as he had cultivated the Chaos Sacred Art and the Nine Voices of the Chaos.

Following his senses, he advanced forward.

Soon, he arrived at a strange place.

Upon approaching the place, James sensed a powerful Sword Intent.

“Sword Mount.”

James saw a large stone tablet.

There were two words on it.

The words were not left behind by living beings.

They were formed by the Sword Energy here.

Glancing at the tablet, James noticed countless weapons stuck in the ground.

The weapons exuded powerful energy.

On the other hand, there were many living beings on Sword Mount.

The living beings were trying to pull out the Divine Swords on the ground, but none succeeded.

“What’s the history of Sword Mount?”

James rubbed his chin.

“This is where the Ancestral God Weapons belong.” A voice sounded from the back.

James turned in the direction of the voice and saw Zeno walking over with a walking stick.

Having changed his aura and appearance, James could not help but mumble, “Did he recognize me?”

“You are?”

James pretended to ask.

“Save it.”

Zeno rolled his eyes and said, “You can hide from other living beings, but you can’t hide from me.”

James was taken aback.

“How did you recognize me?”

Then, he changed the topic and asked, “Didn’t you leave? Why are you here? And what’s the history of Sword Mount?”

Sternly, Zeno responded, “I did leave. I went to find the black ball of energy, but it led me here. As for this place, have you heard of the Sword Demon, Wynne Dalganus?”

James shook his head. He knew a few famous powerhouses in Endlos’ Nine Districts, but he had no idea who Wynne was.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4636

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4636-“What’s Wynne’s background?”

Confused, James looked at Zeno.

Zeno explained, “Wynne was Emperor Raiah’s subordinate and friend. They battled together and blessed Endlos. Emperor Raiah broke through Endlos and headed to the outer bounds of Endlos to fight against the enemy.”

James was puzzled.

The outer bounds of Endlos? Did that mean there was space outside Endlos?
“Sigh.”

Zeno sighed and said, “No living being remembers these matters.”

“Stop confusing me,”

James could not help but shout.

“Cough, cough!”

Zeno came back to his senses and changed the topic. He said, “Wynne is the number one powerhouse in the Sword Path. At the very least, I’ve never seen someone who has higher attainment than him in the Sword Path.”

“Is that so?”

James doubted Zeno’s words as he asked, “Is the previous sect leader of the Saber Sect not stronger than him?”

“About this...”

After thinking for a while, Zeno said, “I’ve heard of the Saber Sect before. That guy is talented. He even tried creating the Universal Sword Art. Sadly, he failed to create it and only exhausted his mind. If he completed the Universal Sword Art, he might have a chance of winning against Wynne.”

James did not believe Zeno.

Meanwhile, Zeno did not bother to explain further. He continued, “I was led here from following the black-colored energy. The energy entered the deepest part of Sword Mount. If I’m right, the place should be sealed by Emperor Raiah. He must have used Wynne’s sword to seal the place.”

James was very confused.

Without saying anything else, Zeno walked forward with the walking stick.

Then, he disappeared from James’ sight.

James watched Zeno leave.

“Who’s Emperor Raiah? Is he the senior Zeno mentioned?”

James shook his head and stopped thinking about the matter.

Stepping forward, he entered Sword Mount.

After entering Sword Mount, he noticed many weapons.

The Divine Swords were of high quality.

Even the weakest weapons were Acmean God Weapons.

Besides, each Divine Sword contained a terrifying power.

Many living beings wanted the weapons here, but the weapons were stuck in the ground.

No matter how strong the living beings were, they could not pull the weapons out.

James also tried to pull out the sword from the ground.

Nevertheless, even after urging all his power, he still could not pull the weapon out.

After several tries, he gave up.

He began searching for the aura of the Chaos Sword.

Soon, he arrived at the depth of Sword Mount.

There were standing stone tablets in the area.

In front of each stone tablet was a sword, and supreme sword techniques were recorded on every tablet.

James stood before a random stone tablet and stared at the Sword Path recorded on it.

While he stared at the stone tablet, he sensed a powerful Sword Intent.

All of a sudden, he seemed to have entered a bizarre space.

In there was a peerless powerhouse holding a wooden stick.

He was using the wooden stick as a substitute for a sword.

With a single slash, he shattered the area.

The power of the slash was strong.

Even James could not help but be impressed upon seeing it.

Nevertheless, he did not learn or cultivate it.

It was because he had learned the Universal Sword Art in the Saber Sect.

He already comprehended the Samsara.

He only needed to fully comprehend the Universal Sword Art.

The Universal Sword Art was sufficient for him. He left in a hurry and sensed the Chaos Sword.

When he sensed the aura of the Chaos Sword, he hurried over.

Soon, he disappeared and appeared before a stone tablet.

The Chaos Sword was right in front of the stone tablet.

James walked over and grabbed the Chaos Sword.

Using all his power, he tried to pull it out.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he could not pull it out.

It was as if the Chaos Sword was glued into the ground.

After trying to pull it out a few times, James gave up.

Sitting on the ground, he looked at the stone tablet before him.

The inscriptions recorded on the stone tablet were mysterious.

When James looked at them, he was bewildered.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4637

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4637-Were these inscriptions not the supreme Chaos Script? James continued looking at them. He was shocked.

The inscriptions were the cultivation inscriptions of the Chaos’ Nine Voices.

“Do I need to learn the Chaos’ Nine Voices recorded on the stone tablet and use the power of the voices to pull out the Chaos Sword?” James muttered softly.

At the same time, James was confused.

The Sword Mount was left behind by Wynne years ago, so why would the Chaos Master’s Nine Voices of Chaos be here?

“This is Sword Mount.” A voice sounded from behind James.

James turned around and saw Zeno behind him.

“Before any Sword Path powerhouse dies, their spirits will sense the existence of Sword Mount and fly here. They will leave their legacy behind. The swords before every stone tablet are swords the powerhouses used when they were alive. The swords will follow the aura and come here, waiting for the new, destined people.”

Upon hearing that, James understood the situation.

Confused, he asked, “Is Sword Mount so mysterious? Even the Sword Path powerhouses will come here after death?”

“Haha.” Zeno laughed.

“Since you don’t know how powerful Wynne is, you will never understand all this.”

“How strong is he? Is he stronger than the Chaos Rank?” James probed.

However, Zeno only smiled before disappearing.

“Sword Mount’s reappearance means a new disaster is on the way. Chaos will happen in the nine districts, no, the ten districts.”

Zeno’s voice grew weaker before disappearing completely.

“You talk too much.”

James did not take Zeno’s words to heart.

Looking at the Chaos Sword before him, he took a deep breath and activated the Chaos' Nine Voices.

With the Chaos "Nine Voices, he grabbed the Chaos Sword again. Right then, he felt the Chaos Sword shaking. Urging his strength, he slowly pulled out the Chaos Sword. As he pulled out the Chaos Sword, the dazzling light of the Universal Sword Art shone from the Chaos Sword. A terrifying Sword Intent engulfed Sword Mount.

The commotion attracted the attention of the powerhouses nearby.

In an instant, hundreds of living beings surrounded James.

Under the gaze of the living beings, James slowly pulled out the Chaos Sword.

With the Chaos Sword in his hand, he looked like a peerless swordmaster.

"What great power."

James could not help but be shocked.

However, he suddenly sensed an unusual aura and Murderous Energy around him.

Scanning his surroundings, he noticed many powerhouses staring at him greedily.

James clenched the Chaos Sword in his hand. He did not plan on staying for long. He had come here to obtain the Chaos Sword.

Now that he had it, he did not care if there were other weapons or signature skills present.

He wanted to leave.

"Fellow cultivator, please wait for a moment." A voice sounded.

Then, a man walked toward James.

Soon, he appeared before the latter and stopped him from leaving.

"What do you want?" James glared at him.

The man said, "I'm Sir Partholon of the Theos Sect. I sense Chaos Power on your sword. The sword must be from the Chaos. Please hand it over to me. I'll bring it back to my teacher. How about that?"

An uproar followed upon the mention of the man being Partholon. Many of the powerhouses present took a few steps backward.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4638

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4638-The Theos Sect was the most powerful sect in the Theos District.

Excluding the District Leader of the Theos District, there were only a few invincible living beings.

Aside from the elders of the Theos Sect and several powerhouses of the Daemonium Sect, only a few immediate disciples of the District Leader of the Theos District were invincible.

Meanwhile, Partholon was the oldest disciple of the Theos District's Leader.

Partholon was famous in the Theos District. He represented the Theos District's Leader and the Theos Sect.

Thus, after he said his name, the living beings who wanted the sword in James' hand gave up.

They knew they could not obtain the sword if the Theos Sect were involved.

James stared at Partholon.

Partholon looked young and handsome. He was in a blue robe.

When he appeared before James, he put one arm behind his back and used the other to block James.

"I don't care who you are."

James' face darkened as he said, "Get lost. I will beat you up no matter who you are."

Partholon was taken aback.

He did not expect a living being to refute him. He even announced that he was the disciple of the Theos District's Leader, yet James did not care.

In the entire Theos Sect, he had never met someone so arrogant.

"Do you understand what you're saying?"

Partholon's face darkened as well.

Enunciating each word, he said, "I said, I need to bring this sword to my teacher."

"What if I don't give it to you?"

James looked at Partholon. He had gone through so much to obtain the sword.

The sword originated from the Chaos, and he was also from the Chaos.

Hence, this sword had to be his.

With the sword, the power of the Chaos' Nine Voice would be much stronger.

"Don't blame me for not holding back, then."

At once, Partholon's face changed, and he exuded a terrifying aura.

Instantly, the aura formed an energy wave.

As James was not paying attention, his body flew backward.

While flying backward, he used the Omniscience Path to warm up his body.

Following that, his Spiritual Power increased, and a faint white halo appeared on his body.

James looked like a saint.

Standing in mid-air, he held the Chaos Sword and pointed at Partholon in the distance.

"If you want my sword, let's see if you have the capability to take it from me."

Then, the voice of the Ancestral Blood Master sounded in his mind.

“James, be careful. Partholon is quite strong. He’s on par with Wyndael of the Invincible Sect. You aren’t his match.”

Upon hearing that, James was no longer in the mood for battle.

Even though he was very strong, he had no chance of winning against Wyndael. He thought of what to do.

“Partholon, we’ll meet again next time.”

James’ voice was still ringing in the area, but he was already gone. He used the Blithe Omniscience and left the area immediately. He was nowhere to be seen.

Since he had obtained the Chaos Sword, there was no need for him to stay there.

At the next moment, he appeared in the vast Endlos Void.

After sensing the aura nearby and realizing Partholon did not follow him, he let out a sigh of relief.

Nonetheless, he did not stay for long.

Hurriedly, he left the place.

After making it far away from the area, he returned to his original aura and appearance. He continued using the Blithe Omniscience to travel.

In the end, he headed toward a powerful universe in the Theos District.

The universe was the central universe of the Theos District.

In that universe were Teleportation Formations connected to other districts.

James stayed in the city.

Several months later, he felt that he could no longer stay idle. He had to find a place to cultivate. He needed to enter the Eternal Boundless Supreme Path.

“Where should I go?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4639

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4639-James became anxious.

Walking on the bustling street and looking at the busy crowd, he was filled with worry.

The city was prosperous, but he did not know anyone.

He missed his home.

He missed the Chaos District. He wanted to go back to the Chaos.

However, he knew he could not leave.

‘The academy is accepting disciples.’

Walking on the street, James heard the conversation of the living beings beside him.

At once, he knew where to go.

He knew about the academy.

Among the Endlos’ Nine Districts, based on strength, from the weakest to strongest, were Hazeaf District, Theos District, Welkin District, Verde District, Sky District, Kapron District, Sirius District, Presta District, and Aeternus District.

The name of the academy was Verde Academy. It was located in the Verde District. It was the most powerful sect in the Verde District.

James had seen a few records of the Endlos’ Nine Districts before. Thus, he knew a few sects in the Endlos’ Nine Districts. Among the many sects, the Verde Academy was the strongest.

Although the top powerhouses in the Verde District were weaker than the ones in the Hazeaf, Theos, and Welkin Districts, they had the most powerful background.

Besides, the academy was a peaceful place.

If one could become a disciple of the academy, one would gain the protection of the academy.

Now, James needed a quiet place for cultivation. He did not want outsiders to disturb him.

If he stayed in the Theos District, the powerhouses of the Theos District might find him. Hence, it was better for him to leave the Theos District and go to the Verde District.

After weighing the pros and cons, James decided to head to the Verde District.

There was a Teleportation Formation in the city he was in. He could teleport to Verde District right away. It was just that teleportation would cost him quite a bit. He needed to put powerful energy into the Teleportation Formation.

He also needed many Genesis Stones.

Even if James took out all the Genesis Stones he had, it would not be enough.

Thus, he began to gather Genesis Stones.

Several thousand years later, after obtaining a large number of Genesis Stones, he entered the Teleportation Formation to leave the Theos District.

He could not see anything upon entering the Teleportation Formation. Soon after, he appeared in a strange spatial passage. He traversed in the spatial passage for three years.

Three years later, the passage stopped, and he walked out of the Teleportation Formation.

When he appeared again, he found himself in an unfamiliar city.

He was in the Teleportation Formation area of the city. The Teleportation Formations around him kept flashing as living beings walked out of them.

“It’s so happening.”

James looked around and could not help but be surprised.

Once he walked out of the area, he saw several stalls by the streets in the city. There were tables at the stalls where a few young men and women in white clothes were sitting.

To the side was a flag with words written on it.

“Verde Academy Disciple Recruitment.”

Upon seeing that, James rubbed his chin.

‘Does the Verde Academy not have dignity? Why are they recruiting disciples on the street?’

James was confused.

The Verde Academy was a supreme sect filled with powerhouses. There should be many living beings wanting to join the Verde Academy. Why were they recruiting disciples on the street?

Confused, he walked over to the flag and appeared before the stall.

“Hey, are you from the Verde Academy?” James probed.

A young man sat in front of the table, his head resting on his arms, listless.

In front of the wall, a man was squatting on the ground.

On the other hand, the female disciples were hardworking. They were handing out flyers to everyone.
