The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4676-James ignored the monsters outside the city. He knew killing them would be futile since a new wave would appear.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and came to one of the black holes. Its size was equivalent to the old Earth.

Monsters continued rushing out of the black holes.

James stood in the starry sky and observed them.

The monsters were not intelligent but could sense James was powerful. Thus, they avoided them and chose to bypass him. Then, they continued charging toward Taerl City.

James murmured, "I wonder what's on the other side?"

Immediately afterward, he entered the Blithe Omniscience and stepped toward the black hole.

As soon as he got close, he sensed a terrifying force. A shiver ran down his spine and he felt like retreating instantly.

However, he could not back down now that he had already arrived here.

James stepped forward, entering the black hole.

A suction force immediately emerged, making him feel uncomfortable and excruciating pain despite his potent physical strength.

A cultivator weaker than him would definitely be obliterated.

James forcibly endured the pain. Soon, he passed through the black hole and appeared unfamiliar.

It was a vast space full of monsters.

The monsters rushed out of the exits within the space.

James released his Divine Sense, scanning the area.

He noticed a strange creature nearby. The creature was about the size of a galaxy. It had countless holes in its body, and the monsters kept appearing out of it.

James used the Blithe Omniscience to appear near it. He analyzed the creature for a while but could not figure out what it was.

“Mr. Xrival, do you know what this is?”

The Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom observed the creature from the space within James’ body.

The creature was full of vitality but seemed to have no consciousness.

The Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom replied, “It’s probably a Mother.”

“Mother?”

James was slightly taken aback. He asked, “What is that?”

The Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom explained, “It’s a creature with incredibly productive abilities. It’s capable of producing countless offspring instantly. The monsters coming out from it are its children.”

James asked, “So these monsters won’t be produced after I kill the Mother, right?”

“Theoretically, yes. You can give it a try.”

James summoned the Chaos Sword instantly.

He grabbed onto the sword and unleashed a blue Sword Energy.

His Sword Energy slashed at the Mother and split it in half. The Mother gradually lost its vitality.

James put away the Chaos Sword and murmured, “That’s it? It’s so weak. I can’t believe it produced so many powerful monsters.”

After speaking, James let out his Divine Sense.

He discovered there were at least one hundred thousand of these creatures called Mother throughout the space. Each of them had a different appearance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4677-Just when James was about to head out to kill the other Mothers, James noticed the creature he had killed moments ago began rapidly decomposing. Then, a black crystal floated above it.

The black crystal was relatively small, only the size of a fist. It emitted black light and a strange power.

James approached the crystal and examined it. He sensed that the aura was identical to the monsters. It was an evil aura that made him disgusted.

“What the hell is this?” James frowned.

He reached out and grabbed the black crystal. When he came in contact with the crystal, an evil force permeated his body and tried to invade his consciousness.

James instantly urged his strength to block out the evil force.

The crystal in his hand had residual warmth. He could sense the terrifying and endless power contained within it.

“Mr. Xrival, do you know what this is?”

“I don’t. I’ve never seen it before.”

James stopped asking questions. He casually put the crystal away in his storage space with the Ancestral Blood Master.

“Could you study it? I suspect it’s related to the monsters.”

“Alright. I’ll research and let you know the results.”

After the Ancestral Blood Master replied, he began his research.

Meanwhile, James located another Mother and quickly destroyed it with the Chaos Sword.

Even though these creatures could breed powerful offspring, they were powerless and had weak defenses. Thus, James was capable of easily killing them.

After killing the Mother, James obtained another black crystal. He was not sure what the black crystal was, but the energy contained it was abundant.

James put it away.

He appeared throughout the space and continuously killed the other Mothers. The number of Mothers decreased, and the monsters appearing also slowed down.

“Taerl City’s crisis will be over once I kill all these Mothers. The first trial is easier than I thought it’d be. If I knew it was so easy, I would’ve come here immediately and completed the trial,” James murmured.

Suddenly, he felt a dangerous aura approaching him. He quickly cast the Blithe Omniscience and retreated to the distance.

As soon as he left, a figure appeared with a long sword and slashed at the space.

James looked at the sliced void and the figure that appeared from a distance. His expression darkened, and he asked coldly, “Are you the mastermind behind everything? Were you the one who created these Mothers? What are you trying to achieve by creating so many monsters?”

“I wasn’t expecting someone from the Taerl City to be strong enough to arrive here.”

The blurry figure gradually materialized into a man wearing a black robe.

The man had a very ordinary appearance. However, the aura emitting from his body was incredibly corrupted and made James uncomfortable.

“Who are you? Are you the Extraterrestrial Demon?” James glared at the man.

He was unsure if his trial was an event that had happened in the past or was just a made-up illusion.

However, he strongly felt it was an event of the past. He wanted to find out the origin of the so-called monsters.

“Hehe!!!” The man let out an eerie laughter.

Then, he began to attack. He raised his hand and slashed his sword. Sword Energies instantly surrounded James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4678-James came to the unknown space and found himself faced with the Extraterrestrial Demon’s powerful Swordsmanship.

Sword Energies instantly enveloped James and formed a sealed space, somewhat similar to a Sword World.

James felt a terrifying force and pressure within the space. Unable to bear the force, his body plummeted from the sky. Some matter on the ground was instantly destroyed by his fall.

James instantly mobilized the strength of his Thousand Paths Holy Body and forcibly resisted the pressure.

Then, he activated the Blithe Omniscience and left the area.

Rumble!!!

As soon as he escaped, the area exploded.

James appeared behind the Extraterrestrial Demon and swung the Chaos Sword. However, his sword slashed an afterimage.

The Extraterrestrial Demon had already appeared in the distance.

Even though James had cast the Blithe Omniscience and could move through space without a sound, the Extraterrestrial Demon detected him immediately after he reemerged and dodged the attack.

“He’s so strong.”

James immediately recognized the strength of the Extraterrestrial Demon. The Extraterrestrial Demon was much stronger than the Verde Academy's Wynona.

"Impressive." A cold voice came from the distance.

The Extraterrestrial Demon was shocked by James' strength.

"Hmph." James snorted.

He immediately appeared near the Extraterrestrial Demon. Then, he raised his hand, unleashing powerful Sword Energies and several inscriptions.

The Sword Energies and inscriptions merged to form a powerful Sword World.

James did not hold back against his opponent. The Sword World was formed with the Universal Sword Art and the power of his Thousand Paths Holy Body.

The Extraterrestrial Demon was trapped inside his Sword World and attacked by countless Sword Energies with terrifying strength.

The Extraterrestrial Demon waved his long sword and resisted the attacks.

Boom!!!

Explosions resounded throughout the Sword World.

"Break."

The Extraterrestrial Demon's aura suddenly skyrocketed, and a bright Sword Light burst out and obliterated the Sword Energies around him.

Then, he flew toward the sky in an attempt to break the Sword World.

James watched everything unfold in shock. He knew holding back would not do him good and quickly cast the Nine Voices of Chaos.

A magical sound wave passed through the Chaos Sword, transforming into a Sonic Sword Energy.

A strange sound resonated throughout the Sword World.

The First Sonic Sword Energy, which contained the power of the First Tone of the Chaos' Nine Voices, dashed at the Extraterrestrial Demon's head.

The Extraterrestrial Demon raised his long sword to parry the attack.

Creak!!!

His long sword cracked, and he suffered a terrifying backlash. His body fell from the sky and crashed into the ground.

Shortly after, another Sonic Sword Energy, which contained the power of the Second Tone of the Chaos' Nine Voices, shot toward him.

The Extraterrestrial Demon immediately stood up and charged at the Sonic Sword Energy.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4679-The Extraterrestrial Demon used all his strength to resist the second Sonic Sword Energy.

Boom!!!

Two potent forces clashed.

The Extraterrestrial Demon's long sword was shattered instantly, and he sustained another backlash. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

The third Sonic Sword Energy fell.

The Sonic Sword Energies were accompanied by a blaring sound, causing the Extraterrestrial Demon's mind to buzz.

He threw out a piece of iron at the critical moment to block James' Third Sonic Sword Energy.

The iron was blasted into the distance.

The stele was incredibly strong, and even the Chaos' Nine Voice's power could not destroy it.

Soon, the fourth Sonic Sword Energy fell.

The Extraterrestrial Demon mobilized all his strength to form a protective barrier on the surface of his body.

The fourth Sonic Sword Energy shattered his barrier and severely injured him.

The Extraterrestrial Demon felt like he was about to die, and a trace of fear rose in his heart. He wanted to escape, but the Sword World was too powerful, and he could not break it.

The Fifth Sword Energy shot at him.

Swoosh!!!!

A strange voice instantly permeated the area.

The Sword Energy instantly pierced through the Extraterrestrial Demon's body.

The Sonic Sword Energy instantly killed the Extraterrestrial Demon.

His body collapsed to the ground, and the Sword Energy exploded in his body. He was blasted into pieces, then obliterated by the remaining force of James' Sword Energy.

James took a relieved breath.

"The Chaos' Nine Voices is terrifying. The Fifth Tone was enough to kill the Extraterrestrial Demon. The strength of the Chaos' Voices got stronger with each tone."

James put away the Chaos Sword and dispersed the Sword World.

He had successfully eliminated the Extraterrestrial Demon with the Chaos' Nine Voices.

James saw the piece of iron in the distance and walked over to pick it up.

The black iron was about the size of a palm and had a few magical inscriptions engraved on it.

James had never seen such inscriptions before. On the back of the iron was a mysterious pattern.

He stared at the iron for a long time but could not figure it out. James felt like it was a token of some sort but had yet to learn its purpose.

He put it away despite being unsure whether he could take out items from within the trial.

Despite not knowing it was possible, James put it away.

James began wandering the space to kill the remaining Mothers.

Although these Mothers could breed many powerful monsters, they lacked combat strength. Thus, James could easily get rid of them.

With each Mother he killed, James obtained a black crystal.

James put away the crystals.

After killing the last Mother, he did not sense any more creatures were in the area.

“Finally, it’s over.” James was relieved.

The first trial turned out to be very simple.

James left the weird space and returned to Taerl City.

Although James eliminated the Mothers, the monsters already produced did not disappear.

Taerl City’s army was unable to wipe them out.

After James returned, he saw the wounded generals standing on the city walls. He said smilingly, “Activate the formation. After we get rid of the remaining monsters, the city will be safe.”
