

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4731

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4731-Despite not participating in the battle against the Chaos District, Waleria was well-informed about the Chaos' Nine Voices since the Theos Sect was eager to investigate it. So, James was worried about revealing the Chaos' Nine Voices to her.

Waleria replied angrily, "What do you mean I can't control it? There's no weapon I can't wield."

James quickly followed up with flattery to calm her down. "You're right. I believe there isn't any weapon you can't wield. What I mean to say is that you can kill Laduni effortlessly, even without my sword. After all, he's only at the Caelum Boundless Rank. Meanwhile, you're at the Quasi Chaos Rank."

"I'll be more confident if I have your sword." Waleria dropped her arrogant demeanor.

Saachi also persuaded him, saying, "Just give it to her, James. After all, she's the main force of our group, and we need her to hold back or even kill Laduni Hagar."

She supported Waleria regarding this matter in order to increase their mission's success rate.

James wore a troubled expression. He would gladly lend it to her if he could, but he was worried about being exposed. He fell into deep thought and decided to explain that he had obtained the Chaos Sword from a Sword Mound. Moreover,

Yardos had already entered the Chaos Rank, so he had nothing to worry about.

After thoroughly thinking about it, James summoned the Chaos Sword. However, he had specifically changed the Chaos Sword's appearance to prevent it from being recognized. Then, he handed the sword over to Waleria.

Waleria took the Chaos Sword, but it hummed in her hands as if it was resisting her. She immediately urged her strength and suppressed it. After sensing the power within the Chaos Sword, she glanced at James and said, "No wonder the sword's aura felt so familiar. It's the one we encountered in the Yhala Realm. I wasn't expecting you to have obtained it."

Waleria tossed the Chaos Sword back to James and said, "I don't need a legendary sword. I just wanted to verify the sword since its aura felt familiar when I saw you using it."

James caught the Chaos Sword, put it away, and said with a chuckle, "It's a magnificent sword. After I separated from you, I went back to search for it. I found Wynne's Sword Mound and obtained a sword technique along with the sword."

"It's nothing worth hiding," Waleria said disdainfully after sensing James' attempt to hide its aura.

"Okay, let's drop the subject and get to business." James swiftly shifted their conversation's topic.

Waleria said excitedly, "Alright!" She quickly appeared outside the mountain gate of the Malvada Sect's base and shouted, "Laduni! Get your old ass out here!"

After her unfriendly greeting, she immediately raised her aura. A purple radiance emitted from her body formed a mysterious and mesmerizing purple lotus above her head. Then, she raised her hand, and a powerful force emerged from her fingertips to strike the formation.

Boom!!!

The formation around the Malvada Sect's base was instantly shattered. Immediately afterward, the universe's unrelated inhabitants were teleported to a safe universe.

Powerful auras were immediately released from inside the Malvada Sect's base, and countless cultivators rose into the sky. Standing in the forefront was the Malvada Sect's Deputy Leader, Laduni.

"Who are you? How dare you cause trouble in our sect? No matter who you are, today will be the death of you!"

Laduni glared at Waleria. After a while, he recognized her face. "You're the Grand Sect Elder of the Theos Sect and an elder of the Verde Academy's Tempris House, Waleria Zavee?"

His expression immediately changed. He knew he had no chance of winning Waleria and wanted to escape.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4732

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4732-Laduni was the Malvada Sect's Deputy Leader and held significant authority.

The Verde Academy has been constantly suppressing the Malvada Sect. Naturally, they paid careful attention to the Verde Academy's affairs. Thus, they knew Waleria, the Grand Sect Elder of the Theos Sect, had become an elder in the Tempris House. Laduni immediately thought of fleeing after seeing Waleria outside their mountain gate.

After realizing the identity of his opponent, he quickly disappeared without any hesitation. The next moment, he appeared at the universe's border. However, Waleria had already set up a formation, and he found himself trapped. He urged his strength and struck the formation.

Boom!!!

His attack caused a massive explosion, and countless cracks spread throughout the void of the universe's border. Despite being a powerhouse, he could not destroy Waleria's formation.

"Go on. If you want to escape, you should try harder." Waleria's voice came from behind him.

Laduni's face darkened, and he said coldly, "Damn it. You think I'm scared?"

After failing to escape, Laduni summoned a bizarre-looking red knife. The two immediately engaged in an intense battle.

Meanwhile, the Malvada Sect's other powerhouses stood highly on guard after Laduni escaped.

"Which one of us should do it?" Wynton glanced at Saachi and James.

With a faint smile, James said, "Leave these weaklings to me. You two can watch from the sidelines."

James had already set up a Universal Sword Formation around the base. He could activate it and instantly kill most of the base's members. Only a few stronger elders would be able to resist the formation's attacks. However, Even if they were to survive, they would lose their combat effectiveness.

Suddenly, terrifying shock waves spread toward them.

James immediately knew Waleria and Laduni had engaged in battle.

“Remember to help me record everything with your Path Powers. I will make a name for the Tempris House with this mission.”

After speaking, James leaped into the air. Then, he activated the Universal Sword Formation. Countless Sword Energies immediately emerged from the formation.

“Destroy them,” James commanded loudly.

The Sword Energies shot toward the Malvada Sect's base. Wherever they passed, members of the Malvada Sect would be obliterated. A few powerful cultivators activated all their defensive means to block the attacks. Unfortunately, even if they survived the first wave, they perished under the second wave of attacks.

“Argh!!!”

“No!”

“I don't want to die!”

“I want to live!”

The wails of the Malvada Sect's members echoed.

The number of casualties kept growing under the formations ' consecutive attacks.

A few seconds later, the entire base collapsed to the ground. Within the crumbled ruins, only one cultivator had survived.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4733

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4733-The sole survivor was an elderly man wearing a black robe. He was disheveled and covered in wounds. His breathing was also weak. The man was a relatively strong cultivator. Although he withstood the Universal Sword Formation, he was severely injured and lost his combat effectiveness.

After seeing the last elder of the Malvada Sect standing, James said calmly, "I thought there would be two or three who could resist the Universal Sword Formation. I wasn't expecting just one survivor. The Malvada Sect isn't as strong as I thought.

"Die." James' voice resounded.

An inscription appeared and hovered above the Malvada Sect's elder. Immediately afterward, a powerful force erupted from it.

Sensing the terrifying force, fear rose in the elder's heart. His eyes squinted, and his face was full of terror. He shouted, "No..."

As his voice echoed, his body was annihilated and completely disappeared.

Since Laduni escaped, James wiped out the Malvada Sect's base effortlessly.

After destroying the Malvada Sect's base, he reunited with Saachi and Wynton. Then, he boasted smilingly, "What do you think about my Universal Sword Formation?"

Wynton praised him, saying, "It's really strong."

James asked again with a smile, "If I fight you with it, will you be able to resist its power?"

Wynton smiled in response without saying a word. James' Universal Sword Formation was truly powerful, but Wynton also had a terrifying trump card up his sleeves.

Saachi cast a meaningful glance at James. She recalled her first encounter with him in the Endlos Void. Back then, he was incredibly weak. To her surprise, James had grown so powerful in just a few Epochs.

After destroying the Malvada Sect's base, James turned his attention to the battle in the universe. Waleria emitted a purple light, and a dazzling purple lotus flower hovered over her head. She was overpowering Laduni and had the upper hand.

However, Laduni was a powerhouse at the Caelum Boundless Rank. Even though he was weaker than Waleria, he was not going down so easily.

Waleria unleashed her terrifying strength, and the purple lotus flower floated above the Laduni's head. Purple rays emerged from the lotus flower, forming a spatial cage to trap Laduni.

Even though Laduni was a powerhouse in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he could not break free.

"It's time for me to take action."

After seeing that Laduni was trapped, James knew his chance had come.

'Wynton, remember to record this.'

After James left a reminder, he appeared in the Endlos Void and approached Waleria.

Seeing James, Waleria said condescendingly, 'What are you doing here?'

James replied helplessly, 'You think I want to be here? I promised the former Head of Tempris that I'd make a name for them. Now's the perfect chance.'

Waleria looked at him disdainfully and said, 'You sure know how to take advantage of others.'

James chuckled and said, "You can step back for now. I'll finish him off."

Waleria rolled her eyes and said, "You're underestimating the strength of the Caelum Boundless Rank. Even though he's trapped, you're not strong enough to kill him."

'You never know,' James replied confidently.

He immediately cast the Blithe Omniscience and appeared above the purple cage.

Waleria stood in the distance and folded her hands, looking forward to how an early-stage Permanence Acmean would kill a powerhouse at the Caelum Boundless Rank. Even though Laduni was trapped, his physical strength was exceptional. Thus, she doubted James would be able to break through his defenses.

James floated in the Endlos Void, raised his hand, combined his Path Powers to form a radiant Sacred Blossom, and uttered, "Blossoming."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4734

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4734-James unleashed his Path Powers and merged them into a Sacred Blossom with petals that emitted bright, colorful rays. Each petal represented a different Path in its ultimate stage. However, terrifying power was hidden under its beautiful appearance.

Blossoming was a Forbidden Art created by Jabari.

However, he did not possess a Thousand Paths Holy Body and could not cultivate all the Paths of heaven and earth. In the past, he had only used it once and sacrificed his body to fill in the remaining Paths, which he lacked.

On the other hand, James could use it limitlessly since he had cultivated the various Paths of heaven and earth.

Blossoming was a Supernatural Power with great potential. As James' comprehension of the different Paths improved, the more potent the Blossoming's strength.

Even though James' comprehension of the various Paths was inferior to Waleria's, he was still considered profound in them. Therefore, the strength of the Blossoming he had cast was enough to make Laduni tremble.

Laduni, who was trapped inside the purple cage, felt a terrifying force pervading the area. He knew his physical body would be obliterated if he was struck. He could feel death closing in on him.

Terrified, Laduni begged, "P-Please don't kill me! I have countless treasures. I'll give you everything, so please let me live!"

While pleading for his life, he tried to break Waleria's cage. Unfortunately, Waleria's purple lotus flower was extraordinary and contained immense power. Even after using all his strength, he could not escape.

Meanwhile, Waleria's face was full of astonishment after seeing James' Blossoming. "He was hiding such an amazing skill all this while."

She was amazed to have witnessed James using the various Paths of heaven and earth to form a Sacred Blossom.

After seeing the Sacred Blossom in the distance, Wynton and Saachi looked at each other in surprise.

James hovered in the void, looked at Laduni, and said solemnly, "You're the Deputy Leader of Malvada Sect and have cultivated a very evil art. You've taken the lives of many living beings. Today, I'll act on behalf of heaven and earth and serve justice by killing you."

After speaking, the Sacred Blossom rapidly descended.

"Don't you dare hurt my Natal Lotus!" Waleria quickly withdrew her purple lotus.

After the cage dispersed, the Path Powers contained with the Sacred Blossom spread out and destroyed the area. Then, the powers formed a cage to trap Laduni again.

"Break!!!"

Laduni was aghast. He quickly summoned all his strength and destroyed the cage.

The Sacred Blossom bloomed as soon as Laduni broke free, and a destructive force struck him.

Boom!

Laduni's body immediately sustained severe injuries.

The surrounding area was shattered, and cracks began to spread out. Countless universes were destroyed as a result.

Laduni hovered in the Endlos Void. His hair was disheveled, and his body was soaked in blood.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4735

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4735-The Sacred Blossom was potent, but Laduni survived because of his exceptional strength. Despite that, he was severely injured and lost his combat effectiveness.

“He’s not dead yet?” James was surprised by Laduni’s physical strength. He immediately summoned the Chaos Sword and said, “Let’s see how many more blows you can withstand.”

James was about to take action, but a figure suddenly flashed before him.

Swoosh!

Waleria blocked his path and said, “It’s better not to kill him.”

“Huh?” James looked at her, confused.

Waleria explained, “Your real motive isn’t to wipe out the Malvada Sect but to make a name for Tempris House. You should capture him, bring him back to Tempris House as a captive, and publicly punish him.”

“Sounds like a good idea.” James put away the Chaos Sword.

Waleria immediately appeared before the frail Laduni and sealed his cultivation base.

Laduni hovered weakly in the Endlos Void like an ordinary person without any power.

James approached him but was met with a hostile glare.

Laduni said coldly, “Don’t celebrate so soon. Our Sect Leader will surely avenge me. The Verde Academy will meet its doom when she enters the Chaos Rank.”

“You talk too much,” James replied calmly.

Immediately, he grabbed Laduni and threw him into a small space within his body.

The Ancestral Blood Master's phantom was residing within the small space. Therefore, James was not worried about Laduni causing trouble. Even if the Ancestral Blood Master was not there, Laduni's cultivation base was sealed, so there was nothing to be worried about.

At that moment, Wynton and Saachi reunited with them.

Waleria looked at James and asked, "What Supernatural Power did you use just now? You gathered the Paths of heaven and earth to form a Sacred Blossom. It seems like something only you would think of. In fact, you might be the only one to be able to cast."

James chuckled and said, "I know a lot of Supernatural Powers, and Blossoming is just one of them."

Waleria commented, "Blossoming? That's a nice name. However, it's a bit lacking in strength."

James said with dissatisfaction, "Is it really lacking? It's probably because my cultivation rank is relatively low. If I enter the Boundless Caelum Rank, the Blossoming's strength will be formidable. Nobody in the same rank as me will be able to resist its power."

He was confident that he was invincible against others in the same cultivation rank. Even Wynton, who used to overpower powerhouses at the same cultivation rank, was no match for him.

Swoosh!

Waleria said disdainfully, "Who would care about ranks in a life-and-death battle? If we're in a death duel, I'll crush you with just a finger."

"Sure, sure. You're the strongest."

James did not want to bicker with Waleria, who was too competitive.

Wynton interjected and said, "Alright, enough of this. Now that we've destroyed one of the Malvada Sect's bases, which will be our next target? There are still many powerhouses within the Malvada Sect."

James asked smilingly, “Did you record the battle like I asked?”

Wynton shook his head and answered, “No, I thought you were joking.”

“What the fuck?” James cursed and said, “You’re not reliable at all! In the end, I have to do it myself.”

James stood in the Endlos Void and unleashed his Path Powers. The scenes that happened moments ago reemerged. Everything from when the Universal Sword Formation was activated and him using the Blossoming replayed before them. However, Waleria, Saachi, and Wynton had appeared in these scenes.

However, James used his Path Powers to erase them from these scenes. Ultimately, he edited it to make it look like he single-handedly took on and injured the Malvada Sect’s Deputy Leader, Laduni.

Waleria criticized him, saying, ‘You’re so shameless.’”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4736

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4735-Waleria had contributed significantly, but James wanted to take full credit. Despite expressing her contempt, she did not stop James.

Saachi said, “We’ve already wiped out one of the Malvada Sect’s bases and captured Laduni. It won’t take long before their headquarters hear the news. We should get moving as soon as possible.”

James took out a list and reviewed it.

“Our next target will be this elder.”

There were many powerful Malvada Sect elders on his list. However, they would not be difficult opponents now that their biggest problem, Laduni, had been captured. After dealing with these elders, they would go after Zula. Without the elders, Zula would be much easier to deal with.

The group had a brief discussion and then left the collapsed universe, heading for the next targeted base. The person watching over it was a powerful elder of the Malvada Sect.

The Malvada Sect had established many bases to avoid being completely wiped out by the Verde Academy.

However, the Verde Academy already had clear information about their bases' locations.

With the Verde Academy's intel, James and his group easily got rid of another base of the Malvada Sect. Then, they quickly moved on to their next target.

The group acted swiftly and wiped out dozens of the Malvada Sect's bases in a very short time, significantly weakening the Malvada Sect's strength.

The Malvada Sect was left with only their main headquarters, where their Sect Leader and a few elders resided.

James and his comrades gathered in the Tarbitha Universe, a relatively strong universe located in a remote area of the Verde District. Within one of the universe's cities, they sat together around a table and held a discussion. A map was laid out on the table, and the Malvada Sect's headquarters was precisely marked out on the territory of the Tarbitha Sect.

"Based on the information we received from the Verde Academy, the Malvada Sect's headquarters is in this universe. They've disguised themselves as the Tarbitha Sect. On the surface, they pretend to be a righteous sect. However, they're actually the Malvada Sect's headquarters. Also, their Sect Leader is using a different name, Yevari Welch."

James turned to Waleria and asked, "What should we do? Should we launch a direct attack or take a long-term approach?"

Waleria fell into thought. She shifted her gaze to Wynton and Saachi, then asked, "What do you two think?"

Wynton replied, "I think we should play the long game. After all, the Malvada Sect's Leader is a powerhouse at the Quasi Chaos Rank. Even though she used evil means to improve her strength, her cultivation base is still terrifying. Except for Waleria, the rest of us are no match against her."

Saachi nodded lightly and said, "Yeah. I don't think we should be reckless."

Waleria asked, "Then what's the plan? Don't tell me we sneak into the Malvada Sect's headquarters to get a grasp of the situation first."

“Great idea,” James, Wynton, and Saachi agreed simultaneously.

Waleria was disappointed by their approach and said lazily, “Go ahead and get it done. I’ll just wait here.”

She was not interested in sneaking into the Malvada Sect’s headquarters.

Saachi said, “I don’t want to go either.”

James looked at Wynton. ‘Then, it’s just the two of us?’

“Sure.” Wynton nodded.

Waleria waved her hand and said, “I’ll be waiting for the good news. Also, be careful not to expose yourselves. I can’t be bothered with having to save you guys.”

James had no interest in bickering with Waleria and quickly headed out with Wynton. The two hid their auras and changed their appearances. Then, they left the city.