The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4746-In the past, he had also shown great kindness.

Since Zula was a disciple from Tempris House, James wanted her to return home.He firmly believed that Wael would also support his decision.

Wael even accepted Saachi, who had Demonic Energy.

How could he stand his sister living outside? Wynton stood up and said, "You can deal with this alone.I don't want to interfere.I'm also going to cultivate.Lend me the Boundless Rock.I want to use it for a while."

After speaking, Wynton left without waiting for James' approval.

Saachi was the only one who remained.She smiled brightly and said, "Since you want her to return to the Tempris Hous, I'll accompany you."

"Alright."

James nodded.

Afterward, they left Tempris House.

James cast the Blithe Omniscience and arrived at the Tarbitha Sect instantly.

Standing outside the mountain gate, James shouted, "It's me, James Caden.I've come to visit again."

Swoosh! A red ray of light descended from the sky and manifested into a mesmerizing woman ina red dress.

She looked at James and said lightly, "What are you doing here again?"

James said smilingly, "Is this how the Tarbitha Sect treats their guests? You should invite me inside."

"Just cut to the chase."

Zula was getting impatient.

She wanted to avoid coming in contact with members of the Verde Academy, especially those from Tempris House.

James immediately went straight to the point, saying, "After I returned, I verified that you were indeed a disciple of Tempris House. As the Head of Tempris, I've come to welcome you home."

"Haha!!!"

Zula burst out laughing. She looked at James as if he was a clown.

"What did you just say? You're here to welcome me back to Tempris House?"

James replied earnestly, "That's right. No matter why you've left Tempris House, I will bring you back."

Zula laughed again and sneered, "You're ridiculous."

"I don't want to return to Tempris House. Even if I wanted to, would you really be able to bring me back? You're the House of Tempris, but you don't have the final say in the Verde Academy."

James reassured her, "When Weal asked me to take over as the Head of Tempris, the other houses objected to it. In the end, I still became the Head of Tempris."

The smile on Zula's face froze, and she looked at James solemnly. She thought to herself, 'Returning to Tempris House? I've dreamed of it before. But there's no going back after I decided to leave. To them, I'm a corrupted cultivator and the Malvada Sect's Leader. The Verde Academy would never let me return'

James could tell from Zula's hesitation that she definitely wanted to return to Tempris House.

He continued saying, "Your intention was to fulfill the Immortal Sect's Leaders's wish. You've established the Malvada Sect to better restrain powerhouses in the Verde District that cultivate corrupted arts."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4747-“Haven’t you realized that on the surface, you’ve been restraining these powerhouses as the Malvada Sect’s Leader? However, the powerhouses of your sect have been secretly slaughtering countless living beings.As the Malvada Sect’s Leader, you’ve been contaminated with powerful Karma.Returning to Tempris House is your only way out.”

Zula sighed helplessly and said, “Returning to Tempris House is easier said than done.”

James reassured her, “As long as you want to come back, I’ll make it happen.As for the Malvada Sect, I agree that justice and evil will always coexist.Everyone has two sides to them.Even a righteous cultivator might harbor evil thoughts.The same goes for a corrupted cultivator.I’m sure they can return to the right path with some guidance.That’s precisely what the Verde Academy is about.”

Seeing that Jams was sincere, Zula took a deep breath and said, “Alright.I’ll come back with you.”

Zula had always dreamed of returning to Tempris House and her brother coming to welcome her with open arms.She wanted him to support her actions.

However, neither the Verde Academy nor Wael agreed with her.She looked at James and said, “I’m only returning because of you.If those old guys make it difficult for me, I won’t compromise.”

“Let’s head back first.”

After successfully convincing Zula, James brought her back to the Verde Academy.

Powerhouses from the Verde Academy’s Five Houses gathered in the main hall with murderous intent.

All of them had their weapons out.

Since Lothar was in seclusion, Parthias was temporarily in charge of the Verde Academy.

Parthias sat in the highest seat, looking down at James and Zula inside the main hall. He shouted coldly, "Do you understand what you're doing, James?"

James raised his head confidently and replied, "Yes. Zula used to be a disciple of Tempris House. I've brought her back home."

"She's the Malvada Sect's Leader!"

"Over the years, countless of the Verde Academy's disciples have died at the hands of the Malvada Sect."

"Since this demon has come to the Verde Academy, we shall eliminate a scourge for the Verde District!"

Many of the Verde Academy's powerhouses expressed their opinions, suggesting to kill Zula.

"You think I'm scared of you guys?"

Zula was infuriated by them and unleashed a terrifying aura.

Swoosh! The hundreds of powerhouses in the main hall gripped their weapons.

"Stop it."

James stepped forward and mobilized his Verde Power.

The powerhouses in the main hall were stunned, and nobody dared to make a move.

James turned to the hostile Zula and said, "I brought you here to resolve the misunderstanding, not to fight."

Hearing this, Zula dispersed her aura.

James looked at Parthias in the highest seat and said, "The Verde Academy's rules state that one that had gone down the wrong path is allowed to join as long as one turns over a new leaf."

Parthias said resolutely, "It applies to everyone else but her."

James said, “Zula isn’t even cultivating corrupted arts. She simply joined the Immortal Sect for the sake of the Verde District. The Immortal Sect isn’t corrupted, either. Their Sect Leader had a heart for everyone and accepted corrupted sects under their wings to better constrain them.” His voice resounded throughout the hall.

“Haha!”

Parthias laughed.

Then, he said disappointedly, “James, James. Wael had so much trust in you, thinking you could differentiate right from wrong. Yet you’ve been bewitched by that demon’s words.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4748-In the eyes of the Verde Academy’s powerhouses, Zula was a corrupted cultivator, and James had been bewitched.

“I don’t want to return to Tempris House anymore.”

Zula was heartbroken by their reaction.

Instead of returning to the Tempris House, living comfortably and leisurely in the Tarbitha Sect would be a better choice.

However, James grabbed her and prevented her from leaving.

Then, he said, “And what if I insist on bringing her back to the Tempris House?”

Parthias said coldly, “Come to your senses, James. If you insist, then bear her karma. She has been the Malvada Sect’s Leader for many years. The Malvada Sect’s powerhouses have killed countless living beings, and she must’ve contaminated a great amount of karma. If you take it on her behalf, I’ll approve her returning to Tempris House.”

James said decisively, “I’ll do it.”

Zula quickly dissuaded him, “Don’t, James.”

She was aware of the tremendous amount of karma she carried.

As the Malvada Sect's Leader, she had to bear a certain amount of karma when her disciples took the lives of others.

However, she felt it was because she could not manage them well.

Even though each time would only bring about a small amount of karma, it accumulated over time.

Moreover, she also bore the Immortal Sect's karma.

The Verde Academy and Immortal Sect were enemies, and the karma involved was terrifyingly strong.

However, a powerful force had already emerged after James had finished speaking.

It was the Karma Power that Zula had been contaminated with throughout the years.

The Karma Power did not affect Zula because she could suppress it with her powerful cultivation base.

However, James' cultivation rank was lower than hers.

Unable to suppress the Karma Power, James was covered with injuries.

The powerhouses watched James being surrounded by the karma in shock.

The Karma Power was corroding his body, Path, and very existence.

"From now onward, Zula is officially a disciple of Tempris House. I won't hold back if anyone dares to object to her being here."

After James left a threat, he quickly grabbed Zula and left.

The next moment, they appeared at the main mountain of Tempris House.

James' cultivating comrades immediately sensed the terrifying Karma Power upon his return.

Waleria was the first to show up. She looked at the Karma Power surrounding James and took a few steps backward. She stared at James warily and said, "What the hell happened? Why are you surrounded by such potent Karma Power?"

"I don't have time to talk. I need to head into seclusion immediately."

James left a few words and hurriedly left.

Everyone was left looking at each other in confusion.

Ultimately, their gazes fixated on Zula.

Zula wore a troubled expression as she explained everything.

Waleria immediately grumbled, "Reckless! That brat really overestimates himself. As a cultivator, he should be well aware of what karma is. No powerhouse in the Endlos' Nine Districts would want to be contaminated by such terrifying Karma Power. Everyone would avoid it at all cost."

She disapproved of James' actions.

Wynton said, "Let's just wait and see. Perhaps he is capable of neutralizing Karma Power."

Waleria said furiously, "Neutralize my ass! It's Karma Power accumulated in the body of a powerhouse at the Quasi Chaos Rank over countless years we're talking about. At his cultivation rank, how is he going to neutralize it?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4749

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4749-Although Waleria was furious about James' reckless behavior, she was concerned about his safety and glanced in the direction of where James went to cultivate.

Concurrently, the powerhouses of the Verde Academy were still gathered inside their main hall.

The Tactir House's Head stepped forward and said, "What should we do now, Sir Parthias? Are we really allowing Zula to return to Tempris House? I doubt she returned with good intentions. I'm worried the Verde Academy's peace won't last long."

The Tactir House was incredibly ambitious.

They had finally weakened the strongest of the Five Houses, Tempris House.

However, Tempris House gradually regained its strength, and the Tactir House's Leader was anxious.

Parthias stroked his white beard and said, "Since James has bore Zula's karma, this matter is over. From now onward, she's no longer the Malvada Sect's Leader but the Zula from Tempris House."

After concluding, Parthias left the main hall.

Meanwhile, James had found a quiet place in the back mountain of Tempris House and set up a formation to prevent the Karma Power from leaking out.

Then, he also constructed a time formation.

The Karma Power was potent and managed to seep through his formation.

The Karma Power spread out and gathered above Tempris House to form black clouds.

The black clouds gradually covered the entire sky, causing panic among the disciples.

"What's happening to Tempris House?"

"That's a tremendous amount of Karma Power. I should stay away. If I were to get contaminated with even a bit of that Karma Power, I'd be wiped out of existence."

Many of Tempris Houses' cultivators quickly left to the other houses and observed from afar.

Inside the formation, James sat in a lotus position on the ground.

A significant amount of Karma Power surrounded his body and gathered into a black mist.

They entered his body through his pores and began rapidly destroying his body.

James' body was covered in wounds and soaked in blood.

He activated The Answers, a mysterious Secret Art he acquired that allowed him to neutralize Karma Power.

Despite cultivating the Karma Path and having such an exceptional Secret Art, it was still hard to offset the Karma Power.

“Since I can’t neutralize it, I’ll have to absorb it to enhance my physical body.”

James entered the Terra Acme Rank, and his physical strength could be improved again.

Next, he had to suppress the Karma Power and prevent it from destroying his body and soul.

Then, with some time, he could slowly refine the Karma Power within him.

Time passed imperceptibly.

Ten thousand epochs passed in the blink of an eye.

Meanwhile, James had spent even more time cultivating while inside the time formation.

Tempris House was shrouded in powerful Karma Power during the past ten thousand epochs.

Initially, the disciples were terrified.

However, they discovered that Karma Power was well-controlled.

Even if they were to get close to where James was cultivating, they would not be contaminated.

Everyone was relieved.

In the past ten thousand epochs, Saachi, Wynton, and the others took turns cultivating on the Boundless Rock.

Wynton successfully entered the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Meanwhile, Saachi's improved rapidly after her Dobro Eyes were restored, and she also reached the Caelum Boundless Rank.

As for Waleria, she had yet to enter the Chaos Rank.

However, her strength had improved significantly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4750-While James practiced in the time formation, ten thousand epochs passed in the outside world.

James absorbed the Karma Power during these long years and reached the Terra Boundless Rank.

At the same time, he had also used the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra to cultivate.

His achievements in the Terra Boundless Rank had reached a terrifying level.

The Karma Power that had covered Tempris House's sky had also dispersed.

James sat in a lotus position in a quiet location of the back mountain.

His eyes were closed, and a terrifying aura emerged from his body.

He suddenly opened his eyes, and some magical scenes flashed through his eyes.

He took a deep breath, stood up slowly, and stretched his body, Crack! Creak! Crack! His bones popped as he stretched.

James murmured, "I improved my physical strength significantly after refining the Karma Power.

"Using the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, I managed to enter the Terra Boundless Rank. I wonder if I can defeat someone at the Caelum Boundless Rank.

"I should have a chance, right? Moreover, I've also improved my bloodline power with the Blood Mantra to its limit. To continue improving, I must enter the Caelum Acme Rank."

James was unsure about how strong his physical body was now.

Meanwhile, Waleria was inside a manor at the back mountain. She sat on a rocking chair and leisurely chewed on some nuts.

Initially, she was worried about James.

However, she gradually relaxed after seeing that the Karma Power in the area had weakened and dispersed.

"The Hazeaf District's Nine Districts Conference is about to begin soon. Why isn't James leaving seclusion yet? If he doesn't come out soon, I'll personally go look for me."

Waleria turned to Saachi, who was in a daze, and said, "How about we go find him and drag him to the Hazeaf District?"

Saachi shook her head and said.

"I'm not doing it. You go ahead."

"I'm so bored. I want to head to the Hazeaf District right away!"

Waleria looked to the sky and sighed.

Swoosh! At that moment, a ray of light fell to the ground and materialized into a man wearing a black robe.

Seeing James, Waleria jumped up from her chair and approached him instantly.

She scanned him up and down and said, “I don’t sense any Karma Power coming from you. Impressive. I can’t believe you really neutralized it.”

James walked over to the rocking chair and sat down.

Then, he asked, “I heard you talking about wanting to go to the Hazeaf District. What do you want to do there?”

Waleria said smilingly, “The Hazeaf District’s Leader, who’s also the strongest cultivator of the Endlos, Jagan Hafford, is about to hold a grand conference. He invited powerhouses of the Nine Districts to the Hazeaf District to attend. I’ve already grown much stronger and am eager to fight. I want to defeat all the other powerhouses at the conference!”

“You’re out of seclusion?” A voice resounded.

James looked over and saw a woman in a red dress approaching him.

With just a few steps, she appeared in front of him.

Zula had a slender figure and was incredibly beautiful.

She stared at James.

For the past ten thousand epochs, she constantly worried about James because she knew how potent the Karma Power was.

James nodded lightly and replied, “Yeap.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4751-“James, I’ve been waiting for you.I’ve entered the Caelum Boundless Rank, and I believe I can rival any Caelum Boundless Rank cultivator.I refuse to accept my loss in our previous match.Since you’re out from seclusion, let’s have a rematch.”

Wynton challenged James as soon as he appeared.

“Sure.”

Immediately, James stood up.He wanted to test his power.It would be great if he could have a practice partner.

“Let’s have a duel at the Tempris Arena.”

Then, James disappeared and appeared at the arena of the Tempris House.

Wynton followed James.

Meanwhile, Waleria, Saachi, Zula, and other powerhouses appeared in the audience seats outside the platform.

There were disciples sparring on the platform.

When James and Wynton showed up, the disciples instantly moved aside, freeing up the platform.

“I-It’s Sir James and Mr.Wynton.”

“Mr.Wynton entered the Caelum Boundless Rank long ago.I’ve been in the Tempris House for thousands of epochs but have yet to see Mr.Wynton fight.I finally have the chance to see it.”

The two disciples were excited.

At the same time, they spread the news.

“Hurry up.Sir James is out from seclusion.He’s at the arena, and he’s going to have a duel with Mr.Wynton.”

“Really?”

“Let’s go and have a look.Let’s see how strong the head of our house is.”

In an instant, everyone in the Tempris House knew about the duel.

At once, many disciples of the Tempris House showed up outside the platform.

The audience seats were full of people.

As for those who could not get a seat, they watched from afar.

Wynton stood on the platform, dressed in white.

He looked graceful.

With his hands behind his back, confidently and calmly, he said, “James, I worked tirelessly for ten thousand epochs.Be careful.I shall defeat you this time.”

Nonchalantly, James said, “I’m only in the Terra Boundless Rank.Defeating me is nothing to be proud of.Besides, are you really confident you can do that?”

He smiled.

All Wynton did was cultivate on the Boundless Rock, which increased his cultivation speed.

However, using the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, James’ cultivation was sped up even more.

“You may begin.”

James made a gesture.

Then, Wynton appeared before James.

Wynton was in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

The spatial fluctuation his move created was very weak.

James could only sense a minor ripple before seeing Wynton.

Once Wynton materialized in front of James, he clenched his fist and punched James.

James stood in the same spot and let Wynton attack him.

Boom! The terrifying power landed on James.

Although he was not injured, the void behind him cracked.

The crack spread out like a spider web.

When the crack reached the edge of the platform, the power of the formation repaired it.

Wynton felt as if he had hit something solid, and his fist went numb.

He could not help but stumble backward.

Meanwhile, James stayed still with a calm expression.

Reaching out his hand, he patted his chest and smiled.

“Is that all you got? You’re too weak.”

“Weak?”

Upon hearing that, Wynton wanted to spit out blood. He was in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How could James call him weak? Even though Wynton did not muster his full strength, there were only a few people in the Verde District who could take this punch. He was not weak.

James was just too strong.

Wynton found it hard to believe that James' body had become so powerful.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4752-Even without using his full strength, Wynton's punch was considered almost invincible in the Verde District.

Now, not only did James withstand Wynton's attack with his physical body, but he also made Wynton stumble backward.

Immediately, Wynton's expression turned fiery, and his aura grew stronger.

"Great. Let's see if you can handle one more move."

Wynton attacked James again.

James stood in the same spot.

In an instant, he was surrounded by shadows that threw him countless punches.

Even though his body was extremely strong and powerful, he could not withstand Wynton's attack.

Soon, several cracks appeared on his body, and blood seeped out.

James used Path Energy to heal his injuries.

At the same time, he activated the Thousand Paths Holy Body.

The Greater Paths emerged from his body.

With the protection of the Thousand Paths Holy Body, he allowed Wynton to attack him.

Wynton's attacks no longer harmed James.

Wynton kept harnessing more and more of his strength until he was finally using his full strength.

He garnered his physical power and Path Energy in his fists.

Then, he smashed James.

His attack broke James' Thousand Paths Holy Body.

James stumbled backward.

At this point in the battle, Wynton had lost his confidence.

Although he had not used any weapons or Supernatural Signature Skills, he had to admit that he was not James' match.

He stopped and asked, "How did you cultivate? Why is your body so powerful?"

James smiled and said, "I cultivated as usual."

"Let's stop the duel. I'm not your match."

Wynton felt sad.

Losing to James twice took a toll on him.

After losing the previous battle, he believed he could defeat James as long as he entered the Caelum Boundless Rank and continued cultivating.

Now, even after mustering all his strength, he could only break James' physical body.

Besides, James did not use any Path Energy during the duel.

James only used the Greater Paths, which were a hidden power in his body and considered his physical power.

Outside the platform, Waleria was watching the match with interest.

She knew how strong Wynton was.

When she saw that Wynton could only break James' protection after using all his strength, she had the urge to duel James.

Swoosh! Her body flashed and appeared on the platform.

"What are you doing here?"

Upon seeing Waleria, James had a bad feeling and stepped back.

With her arms behind her back, Waleria said arrogantly, "I see you've been cultivating for the past ten thousand epochs. I'm here to check your strength."

"I won't fight against you."

James felt that he was not Waleria's match.

No matter how confident he was in his strength, he dared not fight against a powerhouse who almost entered the Chaos Rank.

Numerous disciples saw what was going on outside the platform.

They were all stunned by James' ability.

"How is he so strong?"

"I heard he wasn't very strong when he first entered the Tempris House. He could only defeat Wynona of the Verdett House."

“Now, he’s so powerful that even Sir Wynton of the Caelum Boundless Rank could only break his protection after using all his strength.”

Many disciples started talking outside the platform.
