

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4761

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4761-chapter will update soon

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4762

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4762-Wynton was watching the battle.

After sensing Wynona's current strength, he weighed it in his heart.

In his previous battle with James, he had exerted all his power but refrained from utilizing the Supernatural Signature Skills.

He held the belief that he could overcome Wynona in her current state.

In the battle arena, the fierce battle raged on.

Sword Energy crisscrossed and continually impacted the surrounding formation.

Despite the efforts of many powerhouses to stabilize the formation from the outside, it was on the verge of collapsing.

'They're so strong, I really underestimated both James and Wynona.'

Lothar said, "If this continues, the formation will inevitably be broken sooner or later, and it will spell disaster for this universe."

He immediately yelled out, 'This place can no longer sustain your battle. If you truly wish to determine a winner, go to the Endlos Void and continue there. If you persist in fighting here, not only the Five Houses of the Verde Academy but even this universe will be destroyed by your clash.'

Upon hearing this voice, Wynona could not help but stop.

As she halted, James gained a moment to catch his breath.

Wynona's every movement was lethal, and her strength was formidable.

After wielding the Chaos Sword, he was fully committed to the battle, not daring to be the slightest bit careless as any lapse in concentration could result in injury.

"Let's battle in the Endlos Void," Wynona declared, her gaze fixed on James. "It's either your death or mine."

"Damn it," James could not help but curse. "Lady, we're just sparring. It doesn't have to be a matter of life and death."

"Enough talking," Wynona said in a cold voice.

She promptly vanished from her original position, and in the next moment, reappeared outside the universe.

James had no choice but to follow.

Together, they left this universe and entered the Endlos Void. Soon, they arrived in a region of the Endless Void.

Despite remnants of universes, they were all in ruins, devoid of life for countless ages. Wynona stood on a planet, her aura so terrifying that the planet could not bear it. It shattered into pieces, fading away into nothingness.

James appeared, holding the Chaos Sword.

Other powerhouses also came to witness the battle.

The disciples of the Five Houses of the Verde Academy did not have the qualifications to be present. Even if they could come, they dared not, as there were no protective formations here. If they were caught in the aftermath of the battle, they would instantly lose their lives.

Now in the Endlos Void, James could not help but suggest, "What if we end this battle here? I'll concede, and you can have the position of the Head. I'll leave the Tempris House, and as for being your servant, let's forget about that, shall we?"

James could tell that Wynona was getting a bit anxious. He really did not want to push this battle to the bitter end with her.

"I don't want your so-called surrender. I want to defeat you fair and square. Even if it costs me my life, I will defeat you," Wynona's voice echoed.

Hearing this, James was quite speechless. If he had known this would be the case, he would not have accepted the challenge in the first place.

Before he could react, Wynona launched another attack.

This time, her Sword Energy was even more ruthless.

James was forced to continuously retreat while launching counterattacks. However, Wynona seemed to have employed some kind of secret art, making her strength even greater and more terrifying than before. Even James found it impossible to withstand her momentarily.

He had no choice but to use the Chaos' Nine Voices. His sword emitted a mysterious sound, which gathered and formed a terrifying Sword Energy.

However, Wynona, with her immense strength and the Caelandor Sword, forcefully withstood the Nine Voices' First Tone.

James continued to unleash the technique. When he reached the Nine Voices' Seventh Tone, Wynona was finally pushed back, and her Caelandor Sword was sent flying.

"You've lost," James' voice resounded.

"I won't lose."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4763

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4763-Wynona spoke coldly.

In that moment, she had begun to burn her own Blood Essence. The Caelandor Sword, which had been knocked away, flew back to her. She grasped the sword and walked toward James step by step, each step causing the void beneath her feet to shatter. After burning her own Blood Essence, her strength increased, and she charged at James once more.

James unleashed the Chaos' Nine Voices, but it could not harm Wynona. All of his attacks were completely blocked by her.

‘This girl.’

In the distant void, Lothar watched this scene with helplessness and said, “This girl’s determination runs deep. Without such determination, how could she have broken through to the Quasi Boundless Rank? However, she will be crippled after this battle. Even if she defeats James, she will fall from her current rank and maybe never return to the Quasi Boundless Rank again.”

“Swish!”

In the Endlos Void, a dazzling Sword Energy burst forth.

James sensed the dangerous aura. With a thought, he unleashed the Blossoming. Instantly, the Sacred Blossom manifested, attempting to block the dreadful Sword Energy.

Swish!

The Sword Energy resembled an untouched realm, advancing relentlessly.

Even the Sacred Blossom could not withstand this terrifying sword.

James immediately evaded using the Blithe Omniscience.

However, Wynona had already locked onto him with her aura. Despite his disappearance and reappearance in another region, Wynona followed, and a second Sword Energy materialized.

Wynona’s Blood Essence was burning, granting her immense power.

James raised his sword to resist, but his Chaos Sword was sent flying.

He was struck by a sword.

His body continually retreated, and the void behind him collapsed, revealing the bottomless Spatial Black Holes. His body was deeply ensnared within the void’s Black Holes.

“Is he dead?”

“Is it over?”

In the Endlos Void, many powerhouses observed the battle.

Seeing this scene, they believed that James had perished. Even Waleria was worried about him.

Just as everyone, including Wynona, thought that James had been killed, a figure emerged from the Black Holes of the Endlos Void.

This person looked miserable, covered in blood with a terrifying wound caused by the formidable Sword Energy.

Wynona glared at the appearing James, feeling a sense of shock.

She found it hard to believe that James, who had only reached the early stage of the Terra Acme Rank, was this powerful. He could not be killed even when she burned her Blood Essence.

‘The battle is over.’

James stood in the Endlos Void.

At that moment, he activated the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and raised both his hands.

His left hand gathered the power of the Greater Paths, forming Chaos Power, while his right hand manifested the Verde Power.

Chaos and Verde. Two supreme powers were revealed.

However, even this was not enough to defeat Wynona or make her yield.

Under the influence of the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, these two powers gradually merged to form a new force.

Before this force could fully manifest, the space around James had already collapsed. This Endlos Void could not withstand this force.

At that moment, Wynona felt a palpable power, even though she was at the Quasi Boundless Rank and had burned her Blood Essence. She felt fear, despair, and the daunting impossibility of overcoming James.

‘That’s enough,’ a voice echoed.

Immediately, Lothar appeared. He looked at James, who had merged the Chaos and Verde powers, and said, “James, Wynona has lost this battle. Withdraw this power of yours. Even I am terrified by it and dare not face it head-on.”