The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4810-James drifted along the River of Time and soon arrived at where he came from.

He jumped out and appeared in the Endlos Void outside the Hazeaf Universe.

As soon as he left the River of Time, the Karma Power he had been suppressing immediately dispersed.

Although the Karma Power had disappeared, it had already corroded his body.

He had several internal injuries.

Even worse, some Karma Power had contaminated his bones, flesh, and blood.

James stood in the Endlos Void.

After sensing his body's condition, he quickly urged his powers to refine the Karma Power.

The process only lasted seconds.

After absorbing the Karpma Power, James returned to the Hazeaf Sect.

There was only less than a hundred years before the Hazeaf Gathering.

Powerful cultivators from all over the Endlos' Nine Districts had gathered inside the Hazeaf Sect, waiting for the event to begin.

Everyone was eager to compete for a spot on the two rankings.

Time passed day by day.

The day for the Hazeaf Gathering finally arrived.

A few spectral chairs appeared in the sky throughout the Hazeaf Sect.

The chairs were scattered throughout the locations where the participants resided.

Everyone who was staying in the Hazeaf Sect was given a designated seat.

“Welcome to the Hazeaf Sect, my fellow cultivators.” A voice echoed throughout the Hazeaf Sect.

“Please take your seats.” The cultivators flew up to the sky and sat in their respective chairs.

In just a short moment, the sky was densely packed with cultivators.

A middle-aged man who looked to be in his forties sat down.

He wore a golden robe and had a calm, confident smile.

It was none other than the Hazeaf District’s Leader, Lucius, the number one powerhouse of the Endlos’ Nine districts.

He was the one who had ambushed the Chaos District’s Leader and caused him and the Chaos District to go into hiding.

He scanned his surroundings and said, “The Hazeaf Gathering will begin as scheduled.

During the past years, many powerhouses have risen in the Endlos’ Nine Districts.

Countless cultivators have entered the Caelum Boundless Rank, and some have also entered the Quasi Chaos Rank as well as the Chaos Rank.” “I’m looking forward to seeing who will make it to the Boundless and Chaos Ranking.

“ After a brief pause, he continued, saying, “The competition for the Boundless Ranking will take place first, then only will the competition for the Chaos Ranking begin.

I know many cultivators in the Boundless Rank are focused on reaching the limits of cultivation and strength.

Therefore, many aren’t interested in competing.

To attract more participants, I've decided to take out some treasures as rewards." His words immediately intrigued many cultivators.

Lucius was the most powerful cultivator in the Endlos' Niner Districts and occupied Mount Hazeaf, the core of the Nine Districts.

He had remained in the number one spot for a long time and gathered many treasures.

Everyone stared at Lucius, curious about what he would be offering as a reward.

"The top ten on the Boundless Ranking will be permitted to enter Mount Hazeaf's holy site to cultivate." The crowd was shocked, and their passion was immediately ignited.

Lucius explained, "As everyone already knows, Mount Hazeaf's holy site has inscription sigils left behind after the evolution of the Heavenly Path.

I'm sure it's every cultivator's dream to see them.

After all, whoever can comprehend even a bit of it might be able to enter the Quasi Chaos Rank or even the Chaos Rank.

It greatly increases one's chances of becoming a peerless powerhouse of the Nine Districts."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4811-"Also..." Lucius paused before continuing, "Every district in the Endlos' Nine Districts has a sacred scroll.

The Nine Heavens Scroll is in my hands.

I spent ages studying it and have comprehended the signature skill, Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf." His words shocked everyone.

"A sacred scroll?" "So it seems Sir Lucius comprehended the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf from the sacred scroll." The powerhouses discussed amongst themselves.

Lucius smiled and said, "Whoever enters the top three of the Boundless Ranking in this gathering will see the sacred scroll of Hazeaf.

I will also take them in as my disciple and guide them." Lucius's voice sounded throughout the Hazeaf Sect.

"Becoming the disciple of the strongest powerhouse in Endlos is undoubtedly a terrifying feat." "Becoming the disciple of the strongest powerhouse in Endlos isn't the main point.

What's important is the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf.

Sir Lucius only became the strongest powerhouse in Endlos because of it." "I want to participate in the gathering.

Even if it means risking my life, I have to get into the top three." After Lucius announced the prizes, many powerhouses became excited.

James was also quite excited after hearing Lucius' words.

Sacred scrolls were something he had always dreamed of.

He had already cultivated six kinds of power.

He did not expect the sacred scroll of Hazeaf to be so easily obtainable.

He only needed to get into the top three of the Boundless Ranking.

If he could get the sacred scroll of Hazeaf, he would have seven kinds of power.

Initially, he wanted to go directly to the Chaos Ranking.

Now, he needed to fight for the Boundless Ranking.

"what are you thinking about?" Waleria's voice sounded from the side.

James snapped out of his thoughts and said, "I didn't expect the Hazeaf District Leader to use the sacred scroll as a reward." "Isn't this what you wanted?" Waleria smiled.

"you understand me well." James smiled.

As the two conversed, Lucius' voice sounded again.

“Everyone, the fight for the Boundless Ranking is about to begin.

The rules are the same as before.

For the living beings who have never participated in the fight for the Boundless Ranking, please go through the rules.” Then, Lucius waved his hands, and several mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palms.

The inscriptions floated in mid-air.

James read through the rules.

After that, he learned the origin of the Boundless Ranking.

On an ancient battlefield, a stone tablet was left behind by a powerhouse.

The stone tablet was called the Boundless Tablet.

The Boundless Tablet was in the central region of the ancient battlefield.

On the other hand, the fight for the Boundless Ranking was quite simple.

One only needed to go to the central region of the ancient battlefield and find the Boundless Tablet.

Once enough living beings showed up near the Boundless Tablet, the Boundless Arena would appear.

The living beings near the Boundless Tablet could enter the Boundless Arena and participate in the battle until the top one hundred of the Boundless Ranking were selected.

The rules were simple.

There were two steps.

First, one needed to find the Boundless Tablet.

Second, one needed to enter the Boundless Battlefield and participate in the arena battle.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4812-They simply stated that it was a very ancient battlefield.

The history of the battlefield was a mystery.

Besides that, the battlefield had many fortunes.

If one was lucky and obtained a fortune, one would take off.

The ancient battlefield was not always open to the public.

There was a very evil power residing within the ancient battlefield.

The evil power would only weaken at a specific time.

If a powerhouse entered the battlefield before it opened, he would not be able to resist the evil power and would corrode, even if he were a peerless powerhouse.

At this moment, a passage appeared in the sky above the Hazeaf Sect.

“Fellow cultivators.” Lucius’ voice was loud.

“The passage to the ancient battlefield has opened.

Theoretically, powerhouses of any cultivation rank can enter.

Even a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank can go in and look for providences and fortunes.

One can even find the secret of the ancient battlefield.

“However, only the living beings of the Boundless Rank can enter the Boundless Arena.

“Please head in.

The ancient battlefield will be opened for ten epochs.

After ten epochs, the evil energy will fill the battlefield again.

You must get out of the ancient battlefield within ten epochs.” Then, countless living beings flew to the sky and entered the passage.

A large number of living beings entered the passage.

James was not in a hurry.

He stood up and scanned his surroundings.

He was surrounded by his friends.

“Are you going to take a look at the battlefield?” James looked at the other powerhouses and said, “I have never heard of such an ancient battlefield.

I don’t know the history of the battlefield, but I know it isn’t an average battlefield.

There may be huge providences and fortunes hidden on the battlefield.

Perhaps there are even secrets we don’t know.” Saachi shook her head and said, “I’m not going.” Now that Saachi had taken her revenge, she no longer desired providences and fortunes.

“I’ll join in the fun too.” Waleria smiled.

Although she was not in the Boundless Rank and could not enter the Boundless Arena, she wanted to visit the ancient battlefield.

“I’m going too,” said Zula.

She was only interested in the ancient battlefield.

She had been meditating in seclusion during the last gathering and so missed her chance.

Since she was here now, she had to take a look at the battlefield.

Aside from Saachi, everyone wanted to go to the ancient battlefield.

The group jumped and appeared in the sky.

They entered and moved along the passage before exiting it.

When they reappeared, they were in an unknown place.

James appeared in an unknown area.

Standing in the void, he scanned his surroundings.

The place was dark, but a strange power was hidden in the dark.

Upon sensing the power, he was taken aback.

It was because he was familiar with the power.

“Isn’t this the power of Extraterrestrial Demons?” James frowned.

He had killed many Mothers when he was in the Supreme Illusion, and he obtained many black crystals from their bodies.

The power in the unknown place was identical to the power of the black crystals.

The only difference was that the power in this place was frantic and complicated.

On the other hand, the power in the black crystals was very pure.

“Where are the others?” When James could not sense Waleria and the others’ auras, he frowned.

They had entered and left the passage together.

However, they were separated upon arrival at the ancient battlefield.

He did not ponder on this matter further.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4813-The ancient battlefield was a battlefield left behind by the powerhouses of this area after fighting against the Extraterrestrial Demons before the birth of Endlos.

James had some vague understanding of its history.

He recalled Emperor Raiah, who was mentioned by Zeno and the monk.

Zeno once said that the peace of Endlos was all thanks to Emperor Raiah.

Without Emperor Raiah, the Endlos’ Nine Districts would not exist.

What was Emperor Raiah like? James only read simple records in a few inscriptions.

Aside from the records, no living being in the nine districts knew of the existence of Emperor Raiah.

After Emperor Raiah brought peace, created the ten districts, and left behind the ten sacred scrolls, where did he go? All of this was unknown.

James took a deep breath and stopped his thoughts from running wild.

He walked forward.

According to the records in the inscriptions given by the Hazeaf District Leader, there were many providences and fortunes on the ancient battlefield.

The gathering would last for ten epochs, so James was not in a hurry to look for the Boundless Tablet.

Instead, he walked around the ancient battlefield, searching for providences and fortunes.

Soon, he walked out of the mountain range and saw a city.

The city was vast.

However, most of the architecture had become ruins.

Only a few of them were intact.

In the city, an area had been cleared up temporarily.

It became a rest area for many living beings.

James appeared on the road outside the city.

After passing through several ruins, he arrived in the undamaged area.

"Does anyone want to buy information?" Upon arriving at the area, James heard a familiar voice.

Looking in the direction of the voice, James saw a monk sitting on the street in the distance.

The monk had many strange items placed in front of him.

They were ancient tiles and broken scrolls.

The monk shouted, "I have the detailed address of the Boundless Tablet.

The prodigies who want to participate in the fight for the Boundless Ranking mustn't miss out on this opportunity.

If the Boundless Tablet shifts, it'll be hard to locate again.

"You only need to pay a few Genesis Stones to obtain the secret of the ancient battlefield." The monk shouted passionately.

Many living beings walked by, all ignoring him.

James walked over to the monk and sat down beside him.

Zeno ignored James and continued to shout.

"Zeno, why have you become a street vendor? What are you trying to do?" James asked curiously.

It was only then that Zeno stopped shouting.

Glancing at James, he said lazily, "It's you.

It's been a while since we last met.

I didn't expect you to improve so quickly.

You have even entered the Late Stage of the Caelum Acme Rank." "Hehe." James laughed.

"Zeno, do you know about the sacred scrolls?" Zeno's expression froze the moment he heard that.

Then, he looked at James and smiled.

"What do you want?" James got closer to Zeno and whispered into his ear, "Since you know about Emperor Raiah, you should know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the signature skill too." Upon hearing that, Zeno could not help but get up from the ground.

Realizing that he had lost his cool, he immediately squatted down and stared at James.

Puzzled, he asked, "That is a secret.

No living being knows about it aside from the powerhouses from that era.

However, most of the powerhouses from that era are dead.

The ones that are alive did not participate in the battle.

So, they don't know anything about it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4814- "You don't need to know how I found out about it.

I'm asking you a question.

What's your relationship with the missing Emperor Raiah? What happened in the past? What are the Extraterrestrial Demons?" James asked a bunch of questions.

Zeno did not know how to answer James' questions.

"I-I don't know." Puzzled, Zeno said, "I seem to have lost a very important memory." Then, Zeno told James several matters.

"I don't know what happened in the past.

I seem to have been unconscious for a very long time.

When I woke up, I was on an ancient battlefield.

After that, there were only memory fragments in my mind.

"These fragments were related to a war.

"There were also scenes of memory fragments.

"I know Emperor Raiah and several other names.

“However, I don’t know what’s my relationship with them.

“I have been investigating these matters my whole life.

I want to know who I am and what relationship I share with them.

Nonetheless, I couldn’t find anything after searching for so long.” Zeno was a bit depressed after saying all this.

James listened to Zeno’s words attentively.

When Zeno stopped speaking, James asked again, “What have you found?” Zeno answered, “I found out that after Emperor Raiah subdued the Extraterrestrial Demons, he divided Endlos into ten districts.

After that, he disappeared.

I went to many ancient ruins, including places where Emperor Raiah used to reside based on a few fragments of my memory.

I learned that Emperor Raiah seemed to have paid a hefty price to subdue the Extraterrestrial Demons.

I don’t know the details though.” “Why don’t the living beings of this era know Emperor Raiah and the battle before Endlos? Logically speaking, no matter how bad the losses were after the battle, not all living beings of Endlos would die,” asked James.

“How would I know that?” Zeno rolled his eyes and said, “ Perhaps the memories of the living beings of Endlos have been erased by the Heavenly Path.

Perhaps the living beings of Endlos paid a heavy price for that battle and the powerhouses did not want their descendants to remember these affairs.

So, the powerhouses controlled the Heavenly Path and erased the living beings’ memories.” “Is that so?” James doubted Zeno’s answer.

“I have said everything that should be said.

Now, tell me how you know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the secret of sacred scrolls.” Suspiciously, Zeno looked at James.

James laughed and responded, "When I was in the Verde Academy, I entered the Supreme Illusion left behind by the founder of the Verde Academy.

In the illusion, I participated in a battle against Extraterrestrial Demons.

In one of the tests, I entered a mysterious place.

There, I learned the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and obtained the secret of sacred scrolls." "That's impossible." Confused, Zeno said, "Even a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank can only comprehend ten percent of the scripture left behind by Emperor Raiah, considering he dedicates his whole life to studying it.

How did you understand it?" James did not answer this question.

Instead, he asked again, " There are ten sects in the ten districts.

Are these sects left behind by Emperor Raiah too? One can meet Emperor Raiah's Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra if lucky, right?" Zeno nodded and said, "I think so.

I'm not sure if it's true." A monk and a young man were sitting and chatting on the street.

James asked many questions.

Nonetheless, Zeno seemed to have actually lost his memory.

His answers were very vague.

"Do you know the guiding lamp?" Zeno asked all of a sudden.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4815-There were mysterious words carved on it.

James asked, "What's this?" Zeno explained, "I found this in one of the ruins Emperor Raiah used to stay in.

The ancient scroll records an unknown place where Emperor Raiah went.

He deliberately left behind a guiding lamp.

According to the ancient scroll, if one finds the guiding lamp, one can enter the dark outside Endlos, follow the footsteps of Emperor Raiah, and find him.” After Zeno said all that, James could not help but think of a place.

The deepest part of the Human Universe’s Dark World.

That place was unfathomable.

It was endless darkness.

It was easy to get lost in the dark.

“A light?” James could not help but think.

Then, a scene appeared in his mind.

An oil lamp appeared in the dark and was flashing around.

“I remember now.

I think I saw the guiding lamp you mentioned.” “Really?” Excitedly, Zeno pulled James and asked, “Where is it?” Acting mysterious, James said, “When I extrapolated the location of the Chaos District last time, I coincidentally saw a place of endless darkness, in which an oil lamp flashed by.” James began to trick Zeno.

The oil lamp was real, but he did not extrapolate anything.

James did not know the background of the monk, so he dared not tell Zeno that he was a human of the Chaos District.

If this information was spread, the powerhouses of the nine districts would want to kill him.

James had the Blithe Omniscience.

He could face all kinds of powerhouses.

“A dark place.” The monk began to mumble.

He fell into deep ponder.

In his mind, several scene fragments appeared.

The scenes seemed to have connected and formed a few complete memories.

At this moment, there seemed to be a mysterious power that was interrupting his memories.

His body fell to the ground, and he spat out blood.

His blood splattered on the ground.

It turned black instantly.

At once, the ground began to corrode.

James stared at the ground.

The area that had corroded exuded a dark aura.

In the dark aura, James sensed a power similar to the black crystal's.

He could not help but stare at Zeno, who had blood at the edges of his mouth.

He thought, 'Why does Zeno have the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Is it from the past attacks of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Or does he have an Extraterrestrial Demon body? He survived the battle before Endlos and hid in the Endlos' Nine Districts.

Does he want to find Emperor Raiah, spread the information about Emperor Raiah, and kill Emperor Raiah?' For a moment, James thought of many questions.

After a while, he came back to his senses and looked at Zeno.

He asked, "Are you alright?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4816-The monk had the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in his body, and his background was unknown.

It was best for James to remain cautious.

James put away his suspicions and helped the monk.

He said, “ You’re sick.

Do you want me to check your health?” James wanted to use this chance to study the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in the monk’s body.

He wanted to know if the monk cultivated it or was tainted when the Extraterrestrial Demons attacked him.

The monk sat down and wiped away the blood at the edges of his mouth.

He waved his hand and said, “It’s an old illness.

Every time I think of something, my thoughts will be interrupted.” “Let me check,” insisted James.

“Alright.

Go ahead.” Zeno did not refuse.

Immediately, James checked Zeno’s body.

As James pulled Zeno’s hand, a trace of power entered Zeno’s body.

When James’ power entered Zeno’s blood vein, an evil power surged.

James’ power was instantly forced out of Zeno’s body.

James suffered from the backlash and fell to the ground.

He got up from the ground.

Zeno asked, “So, what did you find?” With a stern expression, James said, “There’s an evil power in your body.

The power is very strong.

It can only be left in your body by a powerhouse above the Chaos Rank.” Zeno knew his body well.

Indifferently, he said, “I have been resisting this power for several years.

I seem to have lost something important.

I can't get rid of this power.

Forget it.

Let's talk about something else.

You said you extrapolated that the guiding lamp was in the disappeared Chaos District?" "Yeah." James nodded.

"Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?" Zeno asked.

"What about it?" James could not help but be interested.

Did he not obtain the Boundless Tablet when he was still very weak? The Boundless Tablet had been a big help to him.

However, after his ability improved, the Boundless Tablet could no longer help him.

Hence, he left it in the Twelfth Universe, leaving it to a fated person.

Zero said, "According to my memory, the Boundless Tablet has a huge secret.

It involves the Boundless Road.

The end of the Boundless Road surpasses the end of the River of Time.

"The River of Time began after the birth of the ten districts.

"On the other hand, the end of the Boundless Road was before the birth of the ten districts.

Upon entering the Boundless Road, one can reach the time before the birth of the ten districts.

"I have been searching for the Boundless Tablet and the Boundless Road.

I want to take a look at the end of the Boundless Road.

I want to know what happened in the distant past and where Emperor Raiah went." Zeno revealed many secrets, and James grew increasingly interested in his words.

He did not know that the Twelfth Universe and the Boundless Road where the Human Realm existed had such a vast background.

“So, what’s the Boundless Tablet?” Curious, James asked.

Zeno explained, “Based on my memory fragments, the Boundless Tablet is a treasure on the Boundless Road.

The tablet appears only to be suppressing the Boundless Road, but many secrets are actually hidden in the tablet.

The Boundless Tablet can form the Boundless Pagoda.

The Endlos Heart is hidden at the top of the Boundless Pagoda.

Whoever gets the Endlos Heart can become the Endlos Lord.

After becoming the Endlos Lord, one can cultivate the Endlos Heavenly Path and understand its history.” “T see.” James understood everything now.

“You haven’t answered me.

Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?” Zeno looked at James.

“T’ve never seen it.” James shook his head.

At the same time, he was thinking about going to the Human Universe once he returned to the Chaos District.

He needed to look for the Boundless Tablet and enter the Boundless Road again.

He wanted to know what was at the end of the Boundless Road.

“Forget it.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4817-Sitting on the ground, he shouted again and began to sell information.

“What information are you selling?” James grew interested.

With a serious expression, Zeno said, “There’s a ruin on this ancient battlefield.

It existed before the birth of the ten districts, and a powerhouse before Endlos seems to be sealed in there.

“T learned that the powerhouse should be the subordinate of Emperor Raiah.

His ability is on par with Wynne’s.

I don’t dare to take the risk, so I’m selling information here.

I want to let other living beings investigate this matter.

I didn’t give you the information for your own good.

Otherwise, I would have given you the information when you showed up.”
Upon hearing that, James became interested.

A subordinate of Emperor Raiah was sealed in the ruin? It was a huge matter.

If the subordinate was rescued, would the truth of the affairs before Endlos not come to light? The monk seemed to have guessed James’ thoughts.

He said, “ Stop your train of thought.

If the ruin could be so easily entered, I would have entered it long ago.

The ruin is extremely dangerous.

Even if a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank enters it, he may die.” James immediately stopped considering the idea after hearing Zeno’s words.

“Move away.” Right then, a loud voice resounded.

In the distance came the sound of a horse galloping.

A pegasus hurried over.

Its footsteps left the ground and the void cracked.

When the pegasus reached the sky above the city, it stopped galloping.

Under the pegasus, a shadow descended from the sky and appeared at the entrance of a residence in the city.

Kneeling on the ground with one knee, the shadow said respectfully, "I have found the ruin." "Creak!" The entrance of the residence opened slowly, and a man walked out.

The man appeared to be in his twenties.

Wearing a milky white robe, he looked handsome and charming.

"He was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking." "It's him." "It's Warner Lester, third place in the previous Boundless Ranking."

He's a powerhouse who has been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for a long time." "He still hasn't entered the Quasi Boundless Rank."

He's been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for such a long time.

By now, he should be on par with a true Chaos Rank powerhouse." Upon seeing the man walk out of the entrance, several living beings on the street began to discuss him.

"Let's go and take a look." Warner spoke before disappearing.

Swoosh! At the same time, in the dark away from the city, a ray of white light shot up to the sky.

The white light lit up the dark area.

At the same time, a powerful energy emerged.

At once, the monk cleaned up the things on the ground and put them away.

Glancing at James beside him, he said, "It's a ruin."

Something good must have appeared.

Why are you still here? Aren't you going? Go and take a look.

Obtain the treasure." After Zeno said that, he disappeared.

Without hesitation, James activated the Blithe Omniscience and followed Zeno.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4818- Most of the areas on the ancient battlefield were engulfed in darkness.

The images that appeared this time were in a dark place away from the city.

The white light shot up to the sky, illuminating the dark area.

The white light contained a mysterious power.

The power got rid of the black mist in the dark.

Then, a destroyed spiritual mountain emerged.

In the blink of an eye, Zeno arrived at the area.

Soon, James also arrived at the same spot.

At the center of the ruin was something mysterious exuding a ray of white light.

James scanned his surroundings and realized that many living beings had gathered in the area.

At this moment, several armored bodyguards began to threaten people.

“Our master found this ruin first.

It belongs to him.

If you don’t want to die, get lost.” Many bodyguards appeared and started to get rid of the living beings nearby.

At this time, a handsome man walked over, stepping on the void.

He appeared in the sky above the area.

“Welcome, Sir Warner.” Countless bodyguards knelt on the ground and greeted Warner loudly.

“Tt’s Warner.” “It’s been a long time since he showed himself.

I wonder where he cultivated.

We shouldn't provoke him.

Let's watch the situation from afar." Upon seeing that the bodyguards were Warner's, a few powerhouses decided to back out.

Warner was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking.

Now, he was still in the Boundless Ranking.

He was extremely powerful.

The living beings present dared not offend him.

"Zeno, do you know what's in the ruin?" James glanced at Zeno next to him.

Zeno had traveled to many ruins in the nine districts, so he had a profound understanding of ruins.

That was why James asked him.

Zeno shook his head and said, "I don't know.

I need to study the ruin first." Then, several bodyguards appeared.

The bodyguards pulled out their weapons.

"Didn't you hear? This place belongs to our master.

It's none of your business," Warner's bodyguard said in a cold tone.

Glancing at the bodyguards, James sensed that their cultivation ranks were high.

They had all reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

If they were in a weaker universe, they could rule the universe.

Yet, they were willing to be Warner's bodyguards.

It was evident that Warner was a big shot.

Zeno stepped back and appeared behind James.

Then, he pushed James forward.

James did not expect that.

With Zeno's power, James was pushed forward instantly.

Thinking that James was going to attack them, the bodyguards immediately took action.

Hundreds of bodyguards pulled out their swords and attacked James.

However, James' body was very strong.

Even though the bodyguards were in the Caelum Acme Rank, they could not harm James.

'what a despicable monk,' cursed James in his heart.

Since the bodyguards had attacked James, James would not back out.

"This ancient battlefield doesn't belong to Warner.

Those who are destined will find the treasures.

Isn't it too much to occupy this ancient ruin?" James said.

His words attracted the attention of the living beings nearby.

At once, countless gazes landed on him.

"who is he? Why is he so brave? How dare he go against Warner?" "T know him.

He's the head of the Verde Academy's Tempris House, James." Many living beings were gathered here, all coming from different realms of the nine districts.

A lot of them did not know who James was.

Nonetheless, there were living beings who came from the Verde District.

James' identity was exposed.

At this moment, Warner was already outside the ruin.

However, the ruin had a broken formation, which he would need quite some time to break.

Hearing the commotion in the distance, he frowned.

Unhappy, he said, ““Didn't you clear the place? Why are there still living beings? Get rid of them.

I don't want any living beings to disturb me.” “Yes, sir.” At once, several powerhouses jumped and flew toward the area James was in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4819-“Get lost,” said the four powerhouses upon appearing.

Then, one of the powerhouses tried to pull James and throw him out.

However, James stood in the sky motionless.

An illusory palm tugged James' shoulder.

Immediately, the illusory palm was shattered by James' physical power.

“Caelum Boundless Rank.” James sensed the cultivation ranks of the four powerhouses.

With a faint smile, he said, “You're only in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How dare you be so arrogant?” “You're seeking death,” A loud voice sounded.

Following that, the four powerhouses attacked James simultaneously.

James also took action.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

In the next instant, his body returned to its original spot.

Meanwhile, the four powerhouses took a blow and flew away.

As though a kite had lost its string, their bodies crashed harshly into the ruin in the distance below.

The moment they touched the ruin, the formation was initiated.

At once, countless Sword Energies from the formation filled the air.

The Sword Energies charged toward their bodies.

Nevertheless, they were powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even if they were attacked by countless Sword Energies, they would only be injured.

They would not die.

This scene shocked several living beings in the distance.

“James, the Head of Tempris House, is quite strong.

He defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank so easily.”
“Even though there aren’t any Chaos Rank powerhouses in the Verde Academy of the Verde District, there are many Quasi Chaos Rank powerhouses.

It’s no wonder the Verde Academy is known to be the strongest in terms of overall strength.” James defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank easily, which shocked many.

Many living beings began discussing among themselves.

Zeno walked over to James.

With a bright smile, he said, “Not bad.

You’re stronger than the last time we met.” James smiled.

In the distance, outside the ruin, Warner was focusing on observing the formation.

He wanted to enter the formation and check out the ruin.

He saw the defeat of his four subordinates.

The four Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses appeared before Warner.

They were covered in wounds.

Some Sword Energies remained in the wounds.

ot Sir.

» “He’s too strong.” “We aren’t his match.” Disorderedly, the four powerhouses spoke.

Warner turned around and looked at James in the distant void.

With a heavy expression, he disappeared with a flash.

Then, he appeared before James.

Casually, he looked at James.

“It’s been years since I last traveled to the Endlos’ Nine Districts.

It seems the nine districts birthed a few arrogant brats in the past several years.” Although Warner appeared casual, there was a hint of murderous intent in his tone.

James did not fear Warner even though the latter was placed third in the previous Boundless Ranking.

“Fellow cultivator, you’ve gone overboard.

The treasures of heaven and earth depend on destiny.

Why are you chasing out all other living beings? Do you really think you’re invincible?” James glanced at Warner, who had a dark expression.

“Haha...” Warner laughed.

Then, he stopped, and his expression turned serious.

“T may not be invincible, but I’m sure no one is my match in this area.” Warner was confident in his ability.

Even though he was only in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he had been in this cultivation rank for a long time.

His power was unfathomable.

Even if he were to face a true Chaos Rank powerhouse, he would not be afraid.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4820-“Haha.” James could not help but laugh.

No one had made him kneel before.

Warner was the first person to do so.

Warner's arrogance angered James.

“Let's see how strong you are that you think you can make me kneel.” James was filled with Murderous Energy.

He had comprehended six kinds of power, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, and the power of the six sacred scrolls.

He did not fear anything.

“How stupid,” said Warner casually.

Then, he made a move.

With a flash, he appeared before James and raised his hand.

A terrifying power emerged, and his fist headed toward James.

James met the attack head-on.

Both fists collided.

Boom! Immediately, the void collapsed.

Meanwhile, James' body flew away due to the frightening power.

The power spread throughout his body from his arm.

It made his Blood Energy churn.

He failed to suppress the surging Blood Energy.

At once, he spat out blood.

‘He’s quite strong.” James could not help but be shocked.

Even though Warner did not use his power, he broke James’ defense.

This proved Warner’s strength.

“Are you looking down on Tempris House?” At this time, a voice rang throughout the place.

Following the voice, an elder appeared.

When the elder appeared, he launched attacks toward Warner.

Shadows surrounded Warner.

The shadows pushed out their palms continuously.

In an instant, there were thousands of palms.

Apalm formation immediately appeared around Warner’s body.

Boom! At that moment, countless palms landed on Warner’s body.

Warner was instantly injured as he spat out blood.

Meanwhile, the elder stood in the sky.

“wael?” “Tt’s Wael, the previous Head of Tempris House.

He’s one of the strongest powerhouses in the Verde Academy.” The living beings recognized the elder.

The elder was Wael of Mount Tempris.

Stepping on the void, James walked over to Wael and looked at him.

Unhappy, he said, “Hey, what do you mean by this? Why are you helping me? Do you really think I’m not his match?” “Haha.” Wael laughed and patted James’ shoulder.

Admirably, he said, “ Not bad.

Tempris House became powerful under your lead while I was gone.” In the distance, Warner’s expression was extremely heavy.

It had been many epochs since he was last injured.

He stared at Wael with murderous intent.

As the murderous intent filled his gaze, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

Then, the void became illusionary.

It was as if it was going to collapse at any time.

“The both of you, come at me together,” roared Warner.

“Let me.” James and Wael spoke at the same time.

Then, they exchanged glances.

James made a gesture and said, “You’re the elder.

I won’t fight with you.

Go ahead.” Then, James backed away and appeared outside the battlefield.

“Are you alright?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4812

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4812-They simply stated that it was a very ancient battlefield.

The history of the battlefield was a mystery.

Besides that, the battlefield had many fortunes.

If one was lucky and obtained a fortune, one would take off.

The ancient battlefield was not always open to the public.

There was a very evil power residing within the ancient battlefield.

The evil power would only weaken at a specific time.

If a powerhouse entered the battlefield before it opened, he would not be able to resist the evil power and would corrode, even if he were a peerless powerhouse.

At this moment, a passage appeared in the sky above the Hazeaf Sect.

“Fellow cultivators.” Lucius’ voice was loud.

“The passage to the ancient battlefield has opened.

Theoretically, powerhouses of any cultivation rank can enter.

Even a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank can go in and look for providences and fortunes.

One can even find the secret of the ancient battlefield.

“However, only the living beings of the Boundless Rank can enter the Boundless Arena.

“Please head in.

The ancient battlefield will be opened for ten epochs.

After ten epochs, the evil energy will fill the battlefield again.

You must get out of the ancient battlefield within ten epochs.” Then, countless living beings flew to the sky and entered the passage.

A large number of living beings entered the passage.

James was not in a hurry.

He stood up and scanned his surroundings.

He was surrounded by his friends.

“Are you going to take a look at the battlefield?” James looked at the other powerhouses and said, “I have never heard of such an ancient battlefield.

I don’t know the history of the battlefield, but I know it isn’t an average battlefield.

There may be huge providences and fortunes hidden on the battlefield.

Perhaps there are even secrets we don’t know.” Saachi shook her head and said, “I’m not going.” Now that Saachi had taken her revenge, she no longer desired providences and fortunes.

“I’ll join in the fun too.” Waleria smiled.

Although she was not in the Boundless Rank and could not enter the Boundless Arena, she wanted to visit the ancient battlefield.

“I’m going too,” said Zula.

She was only interested in the ancient battlefield.

She had been meditating in seclusion during the last gathering and so missed her chance.

Since she was here now, she had to take a look at the battlefield.

Aside from Saachi, everyone wanted to go to the ancient battlefield.

The group jumped and appeared in the sky.

They entered and moved along the passage before exiting it.

When they reappeared, they were in an unknown place.

James appeared in an unknown area.

Standing in the void, he scanned his surroundings.

The place was dark, but a strange power was hidden in the dark.

Upon sensing the power, he was taken aback.

It was because he was familiar with the power.

“Isn’t this the power of Extraterrestrial Demons?” James frowned.

He had killed many Mothers when he was in the Supreme Illusion, and he obtained many black crystals from their bodies.

The power in the unknown place was identical to the power of the black crystals.

The only difference was that the power in this place was frantic and complicated.

On the other hand, the power in the black crystals was very pure.

They had entered and left the passage together.

However, they were separated upon arrival at the ancient battlefield.

He did not ponder on this matter further.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4813-The ancient battlefield was a battlefield left behind by the powerhouses of this area after fighting against the Extraterrestrial Demons before the birth of Endlos.

James had some vague understanding of its history.

He recalled Emperor Raiah, who was mentioned by Zeno and the monk.

Zeno once said that the peace of Endlos was all thanks to Emperor Raiah.

Without Emperor Raiah, the Endlos’ Nine Districts would not exist.

What was Emperor Raiah like? James only read simple records in a few inscriptions.

Aside from the records, no living being in the nine districts knew of the existence of Emperor Raiah.

After Emperor Raiah brought peace, created the ten districts, and left behind the ten sacred scrolls, where did he go? All of this was unknown.

James took a deep breath and stopped his thoughts from running wild.

He walked forward.

According to the records in the inscriptions given by the Hazeaf District Leader, there were many providences and fortunes on the ancient battlefield.

The gathering would last for ten epochs, so James was not in a hurry to look for the Boundless Tablet.

Instead, he walked around the ancient battlefield, searching for providences and fortunes.

Soon, he walked out of the mountain range and saw a city.

The city was vast.

However, most of the architecture had become ruins.

Only a few of them were intact.

It became a rest area for many living beings.

James appeared on the road outside the city.

“Does anyone want to buy information?” Upon arriving at the area, James heard a familiar voice.

Looking in the direction of the voice, James saw a monk sitting on the street in the distance.

The monk had many strange items placed in front of him.

They were ancient tiles and broken scrolls.

The monk shouted, “I have the detailed address of the Boundless Tablet.

The prodigies who want to participate in the fight for the Boundless Ranking mustn't miss out on this opportunity.

If the Boundless Tablet shifts, it'll be hard to locate again.

"You only need to pay a few Genesis Stones to obtain the secret of the ancient battlefield." The monk shouted passionately.

James walked over to the monk and sat down beside him.

Zeno ignored James and continued to shout.

"Zeno, why have you become a street vendor? What are you trying to do?" James asked curiously.

It was only then that Zeno stopped shouting.

Glancing at James, he said lazily, "It's you.

It's been a while since we last met.

You have even entered the Late Stage of the Caelum Acme Rank." "Hehe." James laughed.

"Zeno, do you know about the sacred scrolls?" Zeno's expression froze the moment he heard that.

Then, he looked at James and smiled.

"What do you want?" James got closer to Zeno and whispered into his ear, "Since you know about Emperor Raiah, you should know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the signature skill too." Upon hearing that, Zeno could not help but get up from the ground.

Realizing that he had lost his cool, he immediately squatted down and stared at James.

Puzzled, he asked, "That is a secret.

No living being knows about it aside from the powerhouses from that era.

However, most of the powerhouses from that era are dead.

The ones that are alive did not participate in the battle.

So, they don't know anything about it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4814- "You don't need to know how I found out about it.

I'm asking you a question.

What's your relationship with the missing Emperor Raiah? What happened in the past? What are the Extraterrestrial Demons?" James asked a bunch of questions.

Zeno did not know how to answer James' questions.

"I-I don't know." Puzzled, Zeno said, "I seem to have lost a very important memory." Then, Zeno told James several matters.

"I don't know what happened in the past.

I seem to have been unconscious for a very long time.

When I woke up, I was on an ancient battlefield.

After that, there were only memory fragments in my mind.

"These fragments were related to a war.

"There were also scenes of memory fragments.

"I know Emperor Raiah and several other names.

"However, I don't know what's my relationship with them.

"I have been investigating these matters my whole life.

I want to know who I am and what relationship I share with them.

Nonetheless, I couldn't find anything after searching for so long." Zeno was a bit depressed after saying all this.

James listened to Zeno's words attentively.

When Zeno stopped speaking, James asked again, "What have you found?" Zeno answered, "I found out that after Emperor Raiah subdued the Extraterrestrial Demons, he divided Endlos into ten districts.

After that, he disappeared.

I went to many ancient ruins, including places where Emperor Raiah used to reside based on a few fragments of my memory.

I learned that Emperor Raiah seemed to have paid a hefty price to subdue the Extraterrestrial Demons.

I don't know the details though." "Why don't the living beings of this era know Emperor Raiah and the battle before Endlos? Logically speaking, no matter how bad the losses were after the battle, not all living beings of Endlos would die," asked James.

"How would I know that?" Zeno rolled his eyes and said, " Perhaps the memories of the living beings of Endlos have been erased by the Heavenly Path.

Perhaps the living beings of Endlos paid a heavy price for that battle and the powerhouses did not want their descendants to remember these affairs.

So, the powerhouses controlled the Heavenly Path and erased the living beings' memories." "Ts that so?" James doubted Zeno's answer.

"T have said everything that should be said.

Now, tell me how you know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the secret of sacred scrolls." Suspiciously, Zeno looked at James.

James laughed and responded, "When I was in the Verde Academy, I entered the Supreme Illusion left behind by the founder of the Verde Academy.

In the illusion, I participated in a battle against Extraterrestrial Demons.

In one of the tests, I entered a mysterious place.

There, I learned the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and obtained the secret of sacred scrolls.” “That’s impossible.” Confused, Zeno said, “Even a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank can only comprehend ten percent of the scripture left behind by Emperor Raiah, considering he dedicates his whole life to studying it.

How did you understand it?” James did not answer this question.

Instead, he asked again, “ There are ten sects in the ten districts.

Are these sects left behind by Emperor Raiah too? One can meet Emperor Raiah’s Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra if lucky, right?” Zeno nodded and said, “I think so.

I’m not sure if it’s true.” A monk and a young man were sitting and chatting on the street.

James asked many questions.

Nonetheless, Zeno seemed to have actually lost his memory.

His answers were very vague.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4815-There were mysterious words carved on it.

James asked, “What’s this?” Zeno explained, “I found this in one of the ruins Emperor Raiah used to stay in.

The ancient scroll records an unknown place where Emperor Raiah went.

He deliberately left behind a guiding lamp.

According to the ancient scroll, if one finds the guiding lamp, one can enter the dark outside Endlos, follow the footsteps of Emperor Raiah, and find him.” After Zeno said all that, James could not help but think of a place.

The deepest part of the Human Universe’s Dark World.

That place was unfathomable.

It was endless darkness.

It was easy to get lost in the dark.

“A light?” James could not help but think.

Then, a scene appeared in his mind.

An oil lamp appeared in the dark and was flashing around.

“I remember now.

I think I saw the guiding lamp you mentioned.” “Really?” Excitedly, Zeno pulled James and asked, “Where is it?” Acting mysterious, James said, “When I extrapolated the location of the Chaos District last time, I coincidentally saw a place of endless darkness, in which an oil lamp flashed by.” James began to trick Zeno.

The oil lamp was real, but he did not extrapolate anything.

James did not know the background of the monk, so he dared not tell Zeno that he was a human of the Chaos District.

If this information was spread, the powerhouses of the nine districts would want to kill him.

James had the Blithe Omniscience.

He could face all kinds of powerhouses.

“A dark place.” The monk began to mumble.

He fell into deep ponder.

The scenes seemed to have connected and formed a few complete memories.

At this moment, there seemed to be a mysterious power that was interrupting his memories.

His body fell to the ground, and he spat out blood.

His blood splattered on the ground.

It turned black instantly.

At once, the ground began to corrode.

James stared at the ground.

The area that had corroded exuded a dark aura.

In the dark aura, James sensed a power similar to the black crystal's.

He could not help but stare at Zeno, who had blood at the edges of his mouth.

He thought, 'Why does Zeno have the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Is it from the past attacks of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Or does he have an Extraterrestrial Demon body? He survived the battle before Endlos and hid in the Endlos' Nine Districts.

Does he want to find Emperor Raiah, spread the information about Emperor Raiah, and kill Emperor Raiah?' For a moment, James thought of many questions.

After a while, he came back to his senses and looked at Zeno.

He asked, "Are you alright?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4816-The monk had the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in his body, and his background was unknown.

It was best for James to remain cautious.

James put away his suspicions and helped the monk.

He said, " You're sick.

Do you want me to check your health?" James wanted to use this chance to study the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in the monk's body.

He wanted to know if the monk cultivated it or was tainted when the Extraterrestrial Demons attacked him.

The monk sat down and wiped away the blood at the edges of his mouth.

He waved his hand and said, "It's an old illness.

Every time I think of something, my thoughts will be interrupted." "Let me check," insisted James.

"Alright.

Immediately, James checked Zeno's body.

As James pulled Zeno's hand, a trace of power entered Zeno's body.

When James' power entered Zeno's blood vein, an evil power surged.

James suffered from the backlash and fell to the ground.

He got up from the ground.

Zeno asked, "So, what did you find?" With a stern expression, James said, "There's an evil power in your body.

The power is very strong.

It can only be left in your body by a powerhouse above the Chaos Rank." Zeno knew his body well.

Indifferently, he said, "I have been resisting this power for several years.

I seem to have lost something important.

I can't get rid of this power.

Forget it.

Let's talk about something else.

You said you extrapolated that the guiding lamp was in the disappeared Chaos District?" "Yeah." James nodded.

“Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?” Zeno asked.

“What about it?” James could not help but be interested.

Did he not obtain the Boundless Tablet when he was still very weak? The Boundless Tablet had been a big help to him.

However, after his ability improved, the Boundless Tablet could no longer help him.

Hence, he left it in the Twelfth Universe, leaving it to a fated person.

Zero said, “According to my memory, the Boundless Tablet has a huge secret.

It involves the Boundless Road.

The end of the Boundless Road surpasses the end of the River of Time.

“The River of Time began after the birth of the ten districts.

“On the other hand, the end of the Boundless Road was before the birth of the ten districts.

“I have been searching for the Boundless Tablet and the Boundless Road.

I want to take a look at the end of the Boundless Road.

I want to know what happened in the distant past and where Emperor Raiah went.” Zeno revealed many secrets, and James grew increasingly interested in his words.

He did not know that the Twelfth Universe and the Boundless Road where the Human Realm existed had such a vast background.

“So, what’s the Boundless Tablet?” Curious, James asked.

The Boundless Tablet can form the Boundless Pagoda.

The Endlos Heart is hidden at the top of the Boundless Pagoda.

Whoever gets the Endlos Heart can become the Endlos Lord.

After becoming the Endlos Lord, one can cultivate the Endlos Heavenly Path and understand its history.” “T see.” James understood everything now.

“You haven’t answered me.

Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?” Zeno looked at James.

“T’ve never seen it.” James shook his head.

At the same time, he was thinking about going to the Human Universe once he returned to the Chaos District.

He needed to look for the Boundless Tablet and enter the Boundless Road again.

He wanted to know what was at the end of the Boundless Road.

“Forget it.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4817-Sitting on the ground, he shouted again and began to sell information.

“What information are you selling?” James grew interested.

“T learned that the powerhouse should be the subordinate of Emperor Raiah.

His ability is on par with Wynne’s.

I want to let other living beings investigate this matter.

I didn’t give you the information for your own good.

Upon hearing that, James became interested.

A subordinate of Emperor Raiah was sealed in the ruin? It was a huge matter.

If the subordinate was rescued, would the truth of the affairs before Endlos not come to light? The monk seemed to have guessed James’ thoughts.

He said, “ Stop your train of thought.

If the ruin could be so easily entered, I would have entered it long ago.

The ruin is extremely dangerous.

Even if a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank enters it, he may die.” James immediately stopped considering the idea after hearing Zeno’s words.

“Move away.” Right then, a loud voice resounded.

In the distance came the sound of a horse galloping.

A pegasus hurried over.

Its footsteps left the ground and the void cracked.

When the pegasus reached the sky above the city, it stopped galloping.

Under the pegasus, a shadow descended from the sky and appeared at the entrance of a residence in the city.

Kneeling on the ground with one knee, the shadow said respectfully, “I have found the ruin.” “Creak!” The entrance of the residence opened slowly, and a man walked out.

Wearing a milky white robe, he looked handsome and charming.

“He was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking.” “It’s him.” “It’s Warner Lester, third place in the previous Boundless Ranking.

He’s a powerhouse who has been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for a long time.” “He still hasn’t entered the Quasi Boundless Rank.

He’s been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for such a long time.

By now, he should be on par with a true Chaos Rank powerhouse.” Upon seeing the man walk out of the entrance, several living beings on the street began to discuss him.

“Let’s go and take a look.” Warner spoke before disappearing.

Swoosh! At the same time, in the dark away from the city, a ray of white light shot up to the sky.

The white light lit up the dark area.

At once, the monk cleaned up the things on the ground and put them away.

Glancing at James beside him, he said, “It’s a ruin.

Something good must have appeared.

Why are you still here? Aren’t you going? Go and take a look.

Obtain the treasure.” After Zeno said that, he disappeared.

Without hesitation, James activated the Blithe Omniscience and followed Zeno.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4818- Most of the areas on the ancient battlefield were engulfed in darkness.

The white light shot up to the sky, illuminating the dark area.

The white light contained a mysterious power.

The power got rid of the black mist in the dark.

Soon, James also arrived at the same spot.

At the center of the ruin was something mysterious exuding a ray of white light.

James scanned his surroundings and realized that many living beings had gathered in the area.

At this moment, several armored bodyguards began to threaten people.

“Our master found this ruin first.

At this time, a handsome man walked over, stepping on the void.

He appeared in the sky above the area.

“Welcome, Sir Warner.” Countless bodyguards knelt on the ground and greeted Warner loudly.

We shouldn’t provoke him.

Let’s watch the situation from afar.” Upon seeing that the bodyguards were Warner’s, a few powerhouses decided to back out.

Warner was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking.

Now, he was still in the Boundless Ranking.

He was extremely powerful.

“Zeno, do you know what’s in the ruin?” James glanced at Zeno next to him.

Zeno had traveled to many ruins in the nine districts, so he had a profound understanding of ruins.

That was why James asked him.

Zeno shook his head and said, “I don’t know.

I need to study the ruin first.” Then, several bodyguards appeared.

The bodyguards pulled out their weapons.

Glancing at the bodyguards, James sensed that their cultivation ranks were high.

They had all reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

If they were in a weaker universe, they could rule the universe.

Yet, they were willing to be Warner’s bodyguards.

It was evident that Warner was a big shot.

Zeno stepped back and appeared behind James.

Then, he pushed James forward.

James did not expect that.

With Zeno’s power, James was pushed forward instantly.

Thinking that James was going to attack them, the bodyguards immediately took action.

Hundreds of bodyguards pulled out their swords and attacked James.

However, James' body was very strong.

Even though the bodyguards were in the Caelum Acme Rank, they could not harm James.

'what a despicable monk,' cursed James in his heart.

Since the bodyguards had attacked James, James would not back out.

"This ancient battlefield doesn't belong to Warner.

Those who are destined will find the treasures.

Isn't it too much to occupy this ancient ruin?" James said.

His words attracted the attention of the living beings nearby.

At once, countless gazes landed on him.

"who is he? Why is he so brave? How dare he go against Warner?" "T know him.

He's the head of the Verde Academy's Tempris House, James." Many living beings were gathered here, all coming from different realms of the nine districts.

A lot of them did not know who James was.

James' identity was exposed.

At this moment, Warner was already outside the ruin.

However, the ruin had a broken formation, which he would need quite some time to break.

Hearing the commotion in the distance, he frowned.

Unhappy, he said, ““Didn’t you clear the place? Why are there still living beings? Get rid of them.

I don’t want any living beings to disturb me.” “Yes, sir.” At once, several powerhouses jumped and flew toward the area James was in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4819-“Get lost,” said the four powerhouses upon appearing.

Then, one of the powerhouses tried to pull James and throw him out.

However, James stood in the sky motionless.

An illusory palm tugged James’ shoulder.

Immediately, the illusory palm was shattered by James’ physical power.

“Caelum Boundless Rank.” James sensed the cultivation ranks of the four powerhouses.

With a faint smile, he said, “You’re only in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How dare you be so arrogant?” “You’re seeking death,” A loud voice sounded.

James also took action.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

In the next instant, his body returned to its original spot.

Meanwhile, the four powerhouses took a blow and flew away.

As though a kite had lost its string, their bodies crashed harshly into the ruin in the distance below.

At once, countless Sword Energies from the formation filled the air.

The Sword Energies charged toward their bodies.

Nevertheless, they were powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even if they were attacked by countless Sword Energies, they would only be injured.

They would not die.

This scene shocked several living beings in the distance.

“James, the Head of Tempris House, is quite strong.

He defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank so easily.”
“Even though there aren’t any Chaos Rank powerhouses in the Verde Academy of the Verde District, there are many Quasi Chaos Rank powerhouses.

It’s no wonder the Verde Academy is known to be the strongest in terms of overall strength.” James defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank easily, which shocked many.

Many living beings began discussing among themselves.

Zeno walked over to James.

With a bright smile, he said, “Not bad.

You’re stronger than the last time we met.” James smiled.

In the distance, outside the ruin, Warner was focusing on observing the formation.

He wanted to enter the formation and check out the ruin.

He saw the defeat of his four subordinates.

The four Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses appeared before Warner.

They were covered in wounds.

Some Sword Energies remained in the wounds.

ot Sir.

» “He’s too strong.” “We aren’t his match.” Disorderedly, the four powerhouses spoke.

Warner turned around and looked at James in the distant void.

With a heavy expression, he disappeared with a flash.

Casually, he looked at James.

It seems the nine districts birthed a few arrogant brats in the past several years.” Although Warner appeared casual, there was a hint of murderous intent in his tone.

James did not fear Warner even though the latter was placed third in the previous Boundless Ranking.

“Fellow cultivator, you’ve gone overboard.

The treasures of heaven and earth depend on destiny.

Why are you chasing out all other living beings? Do you really think you’re invincible?” James glanced at Warner, who had a dark expression.

“Haha...” Warner laughed.

Then, he stopped, and his expression turned serious.

“T may not be invincible, but I’m sure no one is my match in this area.” Warner was confident in his ability.

Even though he was only in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he had been in this cultivation rank for a long time.

His power was unfathomable.

Even if he were to face a true Chaos Rank powerhouse, he would not be afraid.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4820-“Haha.” James could not help but laugh.

No one had made him kneel before.

Warner was the first person to do so.

Warner's arrogance angered James.

“Let's see how strong you are that you think you can make me kneel.” James was filled with Murderous Energy.

He had comprehended six kinds of power, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, and the power of the six sacred scrolls.

He did not fear anything.

“How stupid,” said Warner casually.

Then, he made a move.

With a flash, he appeared before James and raised his hand.

A terrifying power emerged, and his fist headed toward James.

James met the attack head-on.

Both fists collided.

Boom! Immediately, the void collapsed.

Meanwhile, James' body flew away due to the frightening power.

The power spread throughout his body from his arm.

It made his Blood Energy churn.

At once, he spat out blood.

‘He's quite strong.’ James could not help but be shocked.

Even though Warner did not use his power, he broke James' defense.

This proved Warner's strength.

"Are you looking down on Tempris House?" At this time, a voice rang throughout the place.

Following the voice, an elder appeared.

When the elder appeared, he launched attacks toward Warner.

Shadows surrounded Warner.

The shadows pushed out their palms continuously.

In an instant, there were thousands of palms.

A palm formation immediately appeared around Warner's body.

Boom! At that moment, countless palms landed on Warner's body.

Warner was instantly injured as he spat out blood.

"Wael?" "It's Wael, the previous Head of Tempris House.

He's one of the strongest powerhouses in the Verde Academy." The living beings recognized the elder.

The elder was Wael of Mount Tempris.

Stepping on the void, James walked over to Wael and looked at him.

Unhappy, he said, "Hey, what do you mean by this? Why are you helping me? Do you really think I'm not his match?" "Haha." Wael laughed and patted James' shoulder.

Admirably, he said, "Not bad.

Tempris House became powerful under your lead while I was gone." In the distance, Warner's expression was extremely heavy.

It had been many epochs since he was last injured.

He stared at Wael with murderous intent.

As the murderous intent filled his gaze, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

Then, the void became illusionary.

It was as if it was going to collapse at any time.

“The both of you, come at me together,” roared Warner.

“Let me.” James and Wael spoke at the same time.

Then, they exchanged glances.

James made a gesture and said, “You’re the elder.

I won’t fight with you.

Go ahead.” Then, James backed away and appeared outside the battlefield.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4813

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4813-The ancient battlefield was a battlefield left behind by the powerhouses of this area after fighting against the Extraterrestrial Demons before the birth of Endlos.

James had some vague understanding of its history.

He recalled Emperor Raiah, who was mentioned by Zeno and the monk.

Zeno once said that the peace of Endlos was all thanks to Emperor Raiah.

Without Emperor Raiah, the Endlos’ Nine Districts would not exist.

What was Emperor Raiah like? James only read simple records in a few inscriptions.

Aside from the records, no living being in the nine districts knew of the existence of Emperor Raiah.

After Emperor Raiah brought peace, created the ten districts, and left behind the ten sacred scrolls, where did he go? All of this was unknown.

James took a deep breath and stopped his thoughts from running wild.

He walked forward.

According to the records in the inscriptions given by the Hazeaf District Leader, there were many providences and fortunes on the ancient battlefield.

The gathering would last for ten epochs, so James was not in a hurry to look for the Boundless Tablet.

Instead, he walked around the ancient battlefield, searching for providences and fortunes.

Soon, he walked out of the mountain range and saw a city.

The city was vast.

However, most of the architecture had become ruins.

Only a few of them were intact.

It became a rest area for many living beings.

James appeared on the road outside the city.

“Does anyone want to buy information?” Upon arriving at the area, James heard a familiar voice.

Looking in the direction of the voice, James saw a monk sitting on the street in the distance.

The monk had many strange items placed in front of him.

They were ancient tiles and broken scrolls.

The monk shouted, "I have the detailed address of the Boundless Tablet.

The prodigies who want to participate in the fight for the Boundless Ranking mustn't miss out on this opportunity.

If the Boundless Tablet shifts, it'll be hard to locate again.

"You only need to pay a few Genesis Stones to obtain the secret of the ancient battlefield." The monk shouted passionately.

James walked over to the monk and sat down beside him.

Zeno ignored James and continued to shout.

"Zeno, why have you become a street vendor? What are you trying to do?" James asked curiously.

It was only then that Zeno stopped shouting.

Glancing at James, he said lazily, "It's you.

It's been a while since we last met.

You have even entered the Late Stage of the Caelum Acme Rank." "Hehe." James laughed.

"Zeno, do you know about the sacred scrolls?" Zeno's expression froze the moment he heard that.

Then, he looked at James and smiled.

"What do you want?" James got closer to Zeno and whispered into his ear, "Since you know about Emperor Raiah, you should know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the signature skill too." Upon hearing that, Zeno could not help but get up from the ground.

Puzzled, he asked, "That is a secret.

No living being knows about it aside from the powerhouses from that era.

However, most of the powerhouses from that era are dead.

The ones that are alive did not participate in the battle.

So, they don't know anything about it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4814- "You don't need to know how I found out about it.

I'm asking you a question.

What's your relationship with the missing Emperor Raiah? What happened in the past? What are the Extraterrestrial Demons?" James asked a bunch of questions.

Zeno did not know how to answer James' questions.

"I-I don't know." Puzzled, Zeno said, "I seem to have lost a very important memory." Then, Zeno told James several matters.

"I don't know what happened in the past.

I seem to have been unconscious for a very long time.

When I woke up, I was on an ancient battlefield.

After that, there were only memory fragments in my mind.

"These fragments were related to a war.

"There were also scenes of memory fragments.

"I know Emperor Raiah and several other names.

“However, I don’t know what’s my relationship with them.

“I have been investigating these matters my whole life.

I want to know who I am and what relationship I share with them.

Nonetheless, I couldn’t find anything after searching for so long.” Zeno was a bit depressed after saying all this.

James listened to Zeno’s words attentively.

When Zeno stopped speaking, James asked again, “What have you found?” Zeno answered, “I found out that after Emperor Raiah subdued the Extraterrestrial Demons, he divided Endlos into ten districts.

After that, he disappeared.

I went to many ancient ruins, including places where Emperor Raiah used to reside based on a few fragments of my memory.

I learned that Emperor Raiah seemed to have paid a hefty price to subdue the Extraterrestrial Demons.

I don’t know the details though.” “Why don’t the living beings of this era know Emperor Raiah and the battle before Endlos? Logically speaking, no matter how bad the losses were after the battle, not all living beings of Endlos would die,” asked James.

“How would I know that?” Zeno rolled his eyes and said, “ Perhaps the memories of the living beings of Endlos have been erased by the Heavenly Path.

Perhaps the living beings of Endlos paid a heavy price for that battle and the powerhouses did not want their descendants to remember these affairs.

So, the powerhouses controlled the Heavenly Path and erased the living beings’ memories.” “Is that so?” James doubted Zeno’s answer.

“I have said everything that should be said.

Now, tell me how you know about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the secret of sacred scrolls.” Suspiciously, Zeno looked at James.

James laughed and responded, "When I was in the Verde Academy, I entered the Supreme Illusion left behind by the founder of the Verde Academy.

In the illusion, I participated in a battle against Extraterrestrial Demons.

In one of the tests, I entered a mysterious place.

There, I learned the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and obtained the secret of sacred scrolls." "That's impossible." Confused, Zeno said, "Even a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank can only comprehend ten percent of the scripture left behind by Emperor Raiah, considering he dedicates his whole life to studying it.

How did you understand it?" James did not answer this question.

Instead, he asked again, " There are ten sects in the ten districts.

Are these sects left behind by Emperor Raiah too? One can meet Emperor Raiah's Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra if lucky, right?" Zeno nodded and said, "I think so.

I'm not sure if it's true." A monk and a young man were sitting and chatting on the street.

James asked many questions.

Nonetheless, Zeno seemed to have actually lost his memory.

His answers were very vague.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4815-There were mysterious words carved on it.

James asked, "What's this?" Zeno explained, "I found this in one of the ruins Emperor Raiah used to stay in.

The ancient scroll records an unknown place where Emperor Raiah went.

He deliberately left behind a guiding lamp.

According to the ancient scroll, if one finds the guiding lamp, one can enter the dark outside Endlos, follow the footsteps of Emperor Raiah, and find him.” After Zeno said all that, James could not help but think of a place.

The deepest part of the Human Universe’s Dark World.

That place was unfathomable.

It was endless darkness.

It was easy to get lost in the dark.

“A light?” James could not help but think.

Then, a scene appeared in his mind.

An oil lamp appeared in the dark and was flashing around.

“I remember now.

I think I saw the guiding lamp you mentioned.” “Really?” Excitedly, Zeno pulled James and asked, “Where is it?” Acting mysterious, James said, “When I extrapolated the location of the Chaos District last time, I coincidentally saw a place of endless darkness, in which an oil lamp flashed by.” James began to trick Zeno.

The oil lamp was real, but he did not extrapolate anything.

James did not know the background of the monk, so he dared not tell Zeno that he was a human of the Chaos District.

If this information was spread, the powerhouses of the nine districts would want to kill him.

James had the Blithe Omniscience.

He could face all kinds of powerhouses.

“A dark place.” The monk began to mumble.

He fell into deep ponder.

The scenes seemed to have connected and formed a few complete memories.

At this moment, there seemed to be a mysterious power that was interrupting his memories.

His body fell to the ground, and he spat out blood.

His blood splattered on the ground.

It turned black instantly.

At once, the ground began to corrode.

James stared at the ground.

The area that had corroded exuded a dark aura.

In the dark aura, James sensed a power similar to the black crystal's.

He could not help but stare at Zeno, who had blood at the edges of his mouth.

He thought, 'Why does Zeno have the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Is it from the past attacks of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Or does he have an Extraterrestrial Demon body? He survived the battle before Endlos and hid in the Endlos' Nine Districts.

Does he want to find Emperor Raiah, spread the information about Emperor Raiah, and kill Emperor Raiah?' For a moment, James thought of many questions.

After a while, he came back to his senses and looked at Zeno.

He asked, "Are you alright?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4816-The monk had the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in his body, and his background was unknown.

It was best for James to remain cautious.

James put away his suspicions and helped the monk.

He said, “ You’re sick.

Do you want me to check your health?” James wanted to use this chance to study the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in the monk’s body.

He wanted to know if the monk cultivated it or was tainted when the Extraterrestrial Demons attacked him.

The monk sat down and wiped away the blood at the edges of his mouth.

He waved his hand and said, “It’s an old illness.

Every time I think of something, my thoughts will be interrupted.” “Let me check,” insisted James.

“Alright.

Immediately, James checked Zeno’s body.

As James pulled Zeno’s hand, a trace of power entered Zeno’s body.

When James’ power entered Zeno’s blood vein, an evil power surged.

James suffered from the backlash and fell to the ground.

He got up from the ground.

Zeno asked, “So, what did you find?” With a stern expression, James said, “There’s an evil power in your body.

The power is very strong.

It can only be left in your body by a powerhouse above the Chaos Rank.” Zeno knew his body well.

Indifferently, he said, “I have been resisting this power for several years.

I seem to have lost something important.

I can't get rid of this power.

Forget it.

Let's talk about something else.

You said you extrapolated that the guiding lamp was in the disappeared Chaos District?" "Yeah." James nodded.

"Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?" Zeno asked.

"What about it?" James could not help but be interested.

Did he not obtain the Boundless Tablet when he was still very weak? The Boundless Tablet had been a big help to him.

However, after his ability improved, the Boundless Tablet could no longer help him.

Hence, he left it in the Twelfth Universe, leaving it to a fated person.

Zero said, "According to my memory, the Boundless Tablet has a huge secret.

It involves the Boundless Road.

The end of the Boundless Road surpasses the end of the River of Time.

"The River of Time began after the birth of the ten districts.

Upon entering the Boundless Road, one can reach the time before the birth of the ten districts.

"I have been searching for the Boundless Tablet and the Boundless Road.

I want to take a look at the end of the Boundless Road.

I want to know what happened in the distant past and where Emperor Raiah went." Zeno revealed many secrets, and James grew increasingly interested in his words.

He did not know that the Twelfth Universe and the Boundless Road where the Human Realm existed had such a vast background.

“So, what’s the Boundless Tablet?” Curious, James asked.

The Boundless Tablet can form the Boundless Pagoda.

The Endlos Heart is hidden at the top of the Boundless Pagoda.

Whoever gets the Endlos Heart can become the Endlos Lord.

After becoming the Endlos Lord, one can cultivate the Endlos Heavenly Path and understand its history.” “T see.” James understood everything now.

“You haven’t answered me.

Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?” Zeno looked at James.

“T’ve never seen it.” James shook his head.

At the same time, he was thinking about going to the Human Universe once he returned to the Chaos District.

He needed to look for the Boundless Tablet and enter the Boundless Road again.

He wanted to know what was at the end of the Boundless Road.

“Forget it.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4817-Sitting on the ground, he shouted again and began to sell information.

“What information are you selling?” James grew interested.

“T learned that the powerhouse should be the subordinate of Emperor Raiah.

His ability is on par with Wynne’s.

I want to let other living beings investigate this matter.

I didn’t give you the information for your own good.

Otherwise, I would have given you the information when you showed up.”
Upon hearing that, James became interested.

A subordinate of Emperor Raiah was sealed in the ruin? It was a huge matter.

If the subordinate was rescued, would the truth of the affairs before Endlos not come to light? The monk seemed to have guessed James’ thoughts.

He said, “ Stop your train of thought.

If the ruin could be so easily entered, I would have entered it long ago.

The ruin is extremely dangerous.

Even if a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank enters it, he may die.” James immediately stopped considering the idea after hearing Zeno’s words.

“Move away.” Right then, a loud voice resounded.

In the distance came the sound of a horse galloping.

A pegasus hurried over.

Its footsteps left the ground and the void cracked.

When the pegasus reached the sky above the city, it stopped galloping.

Under the pegasus, a shadow descended from the sky and appeared at the entrance of a residence in the city.

Kneeling on the ground with one knee, the shadow said respectfully, "I have found the ruin." "Creak!" The entrance of the residence opened slowly, and a man walked out.

The man appeared to be in his twenties.

Wearing a milky white robe, he looked handsome and charming.

"He was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking." "It's him." "It's Warner Lester, third place in the previous Boundless Ranking."

He's a powerhouse who has been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for a long time." "He still hasn't entered the Quasi Boundless Rank."

He's been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for such a long time.

By now, he should be on par with a true Chaos Rank powerhouse." Upon seeing the man walk out of the entrance, several living beings on the street began to discuss him.

"Let's go and take a look." Warner spoke before disappearing.

Swoosh! At the same time, in the dark away from the city, a ray of white light shot up to the sky.

The white light lit up the dark area.

At once, the monk cleaned up the things on the ground and put them away.

Glancing at James beside him, he said, "It's a ruin."

Something good must have appeared.

Why are you still here? Aren't you going? Go and take a look.

Obtain the treasure." After Zeno said that, he disappeared.

Without hesitation, James activated the Blithe Omniscience and followed Zeno.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4818- Most of the areas on the ancient battlefield were engulfed in darkness.

The images that appeared this time were in a dark place away from the city.

The white light shot up to the sky, illuminating the dark area.

The white light contained a mysterious power.

The power got rid of the black mist in the dark.

Then, a destroyed spiritual mountain emerged.

In the blink of an eye, Zeno arrived at the area.

Soon, James also arrived at the same spot.

At the center of the ruin was something mysterious exuding a ray of white light.

James scanned his surroundings and realized that many living beings had gathered in the area.

At this moment, several armored bodyguards began to threaten people.

“Our master found this ruin first.

It belongs to him.

If you don’t want to die, get lost.” Many bodyguards appeared and started to get rid of the living beings nearby.

At this time, a handsome man walked over, stepping on the void.

He appeared in the sky above the area.

“Welcome, Sir Warner.” Countless bodyguards knelt on the ground and greeted Warner loudly.

“Tt’s Warner.” “It’s been a long time since he showed himself.

I wonder where he cultivated.

We shouldn't provoke him.

Let's watch the situation from afar." Upon seeing that the bodyguards were Warner's, a few powerhouses decided to back out.

Warner was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking.

Now, he was still in the Boundless Ranking.

He was extremely powerful.

The living beings present dared not offend him.

"Zeno, do you know what's in the ruin?" James glanced at Zeno next to him.

Zeno had traveled to many ruins in the nine districts, so he had a profound understanding of ruins.

That was why James asked him.

Zeno shook his head and said, "I don't know.

I need to study the ruin first." Then, several bodyguards appeared.

The bodyguards pulled out their weapons.

"Didn't you hear? This place belongs to our master.

It's none of your business," Warner's bodyguard said in a cold tone.

Glancing at the bodyguards, James sensed that their cultivation ranks were high.

They had all reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

If they were in a weaker universe, they could rule the universe.

Yet, they were willing to be Warner's bodyguards.

It was evident that Warner was a big shot.

Zeno stepped back and appeared behind James.

Then, he pushed James forward.

James did not expect that.

With Zeno's power, James was pushed forward instantly.

Thinking that James was going to attack them, the bodyguards immediately took action.

Hundreds of bodyguards pulled out their swords and attacked James.

However, James' body was very strong.

Even though the bodyguards were in the Caelum Acme Rank, they could not harm James.

'what a despicable monk,' cursed James in his heart.

Since the bodyguards had attacked James, James would not back out.

"This ancient battlefield doesn't belong to Warner.

Those who are destined will find the treasures.

Isn't it too much to occupy this ancient ruin?" James said.

His words attracted the attention of the living beings nearby.

At once, countless gazes landed on him.

"who is he? Why is he so brave? How dare he go against Warner?" "T know him.

He's the head of the Verde Academy's Tempris House, James." Many living beings were gathered here, all coming from different realms of the nine districts.

A lot of them did not know who James was.

Nonetheless, there were living beings who came from the Verde District.

James' identity was exposed.

At this moment, Warner was already outside the ruin.

However, the ruin had a broken formation, which he would need quite some time to break.

Hearing the commotion in the distance, he frowned.

Unhappy, he said, ““Didn't you clear the place? Why are there still living beings? Get rid of them.

I don't want any living beings to disturb me.” “Yes, sir.” At once, several powerhouses jumped and flew toward the area James was in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4819-“Get lost,” said the four powerhouses upon appearing.

Then, one of the powerhouses tried to pull James and throw him out.

However, James stood in the sky motionless.

An illusionary palm tugged James' shoulder.

Immediately, the illusionary palm was shattered by James' physical power.

“Caelum Boundless Rank.” James sensed the cultivation ranks of the four powerhouses.

With a faint smile, he said, “You're only in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How dare you be so arrogant?” “You're seeking death,” A loud voice sounded.

Following that, the four powerhouses attacked James simultaneously.

James also took action.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

In the next instant, his body returned to its original spot.

Meanwhile, the four powerhouses took a blow and flew away.

As though a kite had lost its string, their bodies crashed harshly into the ruin in the distance below.

The moment they touched the ruin, the formation was initiated.

At once, countless Sword Energies from the formation filled the air.

The Sword Energies charged toward their bodies.

Nevertheless, they were powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even if they were attacked by countless Sword Energies, they would only be injured.

They would not die.

This scene shocked several living beings in the distance.

“James, the Head of Tempris House, is quite strong.

He defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank so easily.”
“Even though there aren’t any Chaos Rank powerhouses in the Verde Academy of the Verde District, there are many Quasi Chaos Rank powerhouses.

It’s no wonder the Verde Academy is known to be the strongest in terms of overall strength.” James defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank easily, which shocked many.

Many living beings began discussing among themselves.

Zeno walked over to James.

With a bright smile, he said, “Not bad.

You’re stronger than the last time we met.” James smiled.

In the distance, outside the ruin, Warner was focusing on observing the formation.

He wanted to enter the formation and check out the ruin.

He saw the defeat of his four subordinates.

The four Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses appeared before Warner.

They were covered in wounds.

Some Sword Energies remained in the wounds.

ot Sir.

» “He’s too strong.” “We aren’t his match.” Disorderedly, the four powerhouses spoke.

Warner turned around and looked at James in the distant void.

With a heavy expression, he disappeared with a flash.

Then, he appeared before James.

Casually, he looked at James.

It seems the nine districts birthed a few arrogant brats in the past several years.” Although Warner appeared casual, there was a hint of murderous intent in his tone.

James did not fear Warner even though the latter was placed third in the previous Boundless Ranking.

“Fellow cultivator, you’ve gone overboard.

The treasures of heaven and earth depend on destiny.

Why are you chasing out all other living beings? Do you really think you’re invincible?” James glanced at Warner, who had a dark expression.

“Haha...” Warner laughed.

Then, he stopped, and his expression turned serious.

“T may not be invincible, but I’m sure no one is my match in this area.” Warner was confident in his ability.

Even though he was only in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he had been in this cultivation rank for a long time.

His power was unfathomable.

Even if he were to face a true Chaos Rank powerhouse, he would not be afraid.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4820-“Haha.” James could not help but laugh.

No one had made him kneel before.

Warner was the first person to do so.

Warner's arrogance angered James.

“Let's see how strong you are that you think you can make me kneel.” James was filled with Murderous Energy.

He had comprehended six kinds of power, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, and the power of the six sacred scrolls.

He did not fear anything.

“How stupid,” said Warner casually.

Then, he made a move.

With a flash, he appeared before James and raised his hand.

A terrifying power emerged, and his fist headed toward James.

James met the attack head-on.

Both fists collided.

Boom! Immediately, the void collapsed.

Meanwhile, James' body flew away due to the frightening power.

The power spread throughout his body from his arm.

It made his Blood Energy churn.

He failed to suppress the surging Blood Energy.

At once, he spat out blood.

‘He’s quite strong.” James could not help but be shocked.

Even though Warner did not use his power, he broke James’ defense.

This proved Warner’s strength.

“Are you looking down on Tempris House?” At this time, a voice rang throughout the place.

Following the voice, an elder appeared.

When the elder appeared, he launched attacks toward Warner.

Shadows surrounded Warner.

The shadows pushed out their palms continuously.

In an instant, there were thousands of palms.

Apalm formation immediately appeared around Warner’s body.

Boom! At that moment, countless palms landed on Warner’s body.

Warner was instantly injured as he spat out blood.

Meanwhile, the elder stood in the sky.

“wael?” “Tt’s Wael, the previous Head of Tempris House.

He’s one of the strongest powerhouses in the Verde Academy.” The living beings recognized the elder.

The elder was Wael of Mount Tempris.

Stepping on the void, James walked over to Wael and looked at him.

Unhappy, he said, “Hey, what do you mean by this? Why are you helping me? Do you really think I’m not his match?” “Haha.” Wael laughed and patted James’ shoulder.

Admirably, he said, “ Not bad.

Tempris House became powerful under your lead while I was gone.” In the distance, Warner’s expression was extremely heavy.

It had been many epochs since he was last injured.

He stared at Wael with murderous intent.

As the murderous intent filled his gaze, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

Then, the void became illusionary.

It was as if it was going to collapse at any time.

“The both of you, come at me together,” roared Warner.

“Let me.” James and Wael spoke at the same time.

Then, they exchanged glances.

James made a gesture and said, “You’re the elder.

I won’t fight with you.

Go ahead.” Then, James backed away and appeared outside the battlefield.

“Are you alright?”

How did you understand it?" James did not answer this question.

Instead, he asked again, " There are ten sects in the ten districts.

Are these sects left behind by Emperor Raiah too? One can meet Emperor Raiah's Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra if lucky, right?" Zeno nodded and said, "I think so.

I'm not sure if it's true." A monk and a young man were sitting and chatting on the street.

James asked many questions.

Nonetheless, Zeno seemed to have actually lost his memory.

His answers were very vague.

"Do you know the guiding lamp?" Zeno asked all of a sudden.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4815-There were mysterious words carved on it.

James asked, "What's this?" Zeno explained, "I found this in one of the ruins Emperor Raiah used to stay in.

The ancient scroll records an unknown place where Emperor Raiah went.

He deliberately left behind a guiding lamp.

According to the ancient scroll, if one finds the guiding lamp, one can enter the dark outside Endlos, follow the footsteps of Emperor Raiah, and find him." After Zeno said all that, James could not help but think of a place.

The deepest part of the Human Universe's Dark World.

That place was unfathomable.

It was endless darkness.

It was easy to get lost in the dark.

"A light?" James could not help but think.

Then, a scene appeared in his mind.

An oil lamp appeared in the dark and was flashing around.

"I remember now.

I think I saw the guiding lamp you mentioned." "Really?" Excitedly, Zeno pulled James and asked, "Where is it?" Acting mysterious, James said, "When I extrapolated the location of the Chaos District last time, I coincidentally saw a place of endless darkness, in which an oil lamp flashed by.” James began to trick Zeno.

The oil lamp was real, but he did not extrapolate anything.

James did not know the background of the monk, so he dared not tell Zeno that he was a human of the Chaos District.

If this information was spread, the powerhouses of the nine districts would want to kill him.

James had the Blithe Omniscience.

He could face all kinds of powerhouses.

“A dark place.” The monk began to mumble.

The scenes seemed to have connected and formed a few complete memories.

At this moment, there seemed to be a mysterious power that was interrupting his memories.

His body fell to the ground, and he spat out blood.

His blood splattered on the ground.

It turned black instantly.

At once, the ground began to corrode.

James stared at the ground.

The area that had corroded exuded a dark aura.

In the dark aura, James sensed a power similar to the black crystal's.

He could not help but stare at Zeno, who had blood at the edges of his mouth.

He thought, 'Why does Zeno have the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Is it from the past attacks of the Extraterrestrial Demons? Or does he have an Extraterrestrial Demon body? He survived the battle before Endlos and hid in the Endlos' Nine Districts.

Does he want to find Emperor Raiah, spread the information about Emperor Raiah, and kill Emperor Raiah?' For a moment, James thought of many questions.

After a while, he came back to his senses and looked at Zeno.

He asked, "Are you alright?"

It was best for James to remain cautious.

James put away his suspicions and helped the monk.

He said, " You're sick.

Do you want me to check your health?" James wanted to use this chance to study the power of the Extraterrestrial Demons in the monk's body.

He wanted to know if the monk cultivated it or was tainted when the Extraterrestrial Demons attacked him.

The monk sat down and wiped away the blood at the edges of his mouth.

He waved his hand and said, "It's an old illness.

Every time I think of something, my thoughts will be interrupted." "Let me check," insisted James.

"Alright.

Immediately, James checked Zeno's body.

As James pulled Zeno's hand, a trace of power entered Zeno's body.

When James' power entered Zeno's blood vein, an evil power surged.

James suffered from the backlash and fell to the ground.

He got up from the ground.

Zeno asked, "So, what did you find?" With a stern expression, James said, "There's an evil power in your body.

The power is very strong.

Indifferently, he said, "I have been resisting this power for several years.

I can't get rid of this power.

Forget it.

Let's talk about something else.

You said you extrapolated that the guiding lamp was in the disappeared Chaos District?" "Yeah." James nodded.

"Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?" Zeno asked.

"What about it?" James could not help but be interested.

Did he not obtain the Boundless Tablet when he was still very weak? The Boundless Tablet had been a big help to him.

However, after his ability improved, the Boundless Tablet could no longer help him.

Hence, he left it in the Twelfth Universe, leaving it to a fated person.

Zero said, "According to my memory, the Boundless Tablet has a huge secret. It involves the Boundless Road.

The end of the Boundless Road surpasses the end of the River of Time.

"I have been searching for the Boundless Tablet and the Boundless Road.

I want to take a look at the end of the Boundless Road.

I want to know what happened in the distant past and where Emperor Raiah went." Zeno revealed many secrets, and James grew increasingly interested in his words.

He did not know that the Twelfth Universe and the Boundless Road where the Human Realm existed had such a vast background.

"So, what's the Boundless Tablet?" Curious, James asked.

The Boundless Tablet can form the Boundless Pagoda.

The Endlos Heart is hidden at the top of the Boundless Pagoda.

Whoever gets the Endlos Heart can become the Endlos Lord.

After becoming the Endlos Lord, one can cultivate the Endlos Heavenly Path and understand its history." "I see." James understood everything now.

"You haven't answered me.

Do you know about the Boundless Tablet?" Zeno looked at James.

"I've never seen it." James shook his head.

At the same time, he was thinking about going to the Human Universe once he returned to the Chaos District.

He needed to look for the Boundless Tablet and enter the Boundless Road again.

He wanted to know what was at the end of the Boundless Road.

"Forget it."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4817-Sitting on the ground, he shouted again and began to sell information.

"What information are you selling?" James grew interested.

It existed before the birth of the ten districts, and a powerhouse before Endlos seems to be sealed in there.

"I learned that the powerhouse should be the subordinate of Emperor Raiah.

His ability is on par with Wynne's.

I want to let other living beings investigate this matter.

I didn't give you the information for your own good.

Otherwise, I would have given you the information when you showed up." Upon hearing that, James became interested.

A subordinate of Emperor Raiah was sealed in the ruin? It was a huge matter.

If the subordinate was rescued, would the truth of the affairs before Endlos not come to light? The monk seemed to have guessed James' thoughts.

He said, " Stop your train of thought.

If the ruin could be so easily entered, I would have entered it long ago.

The ruin is extremely dangerous.

Even if a powerhouse of the Chaos Rank enters it, he may die." James immediately stopped considering the idea after hearing Zeno's words.

"Move away." Right then, a loud voice resounded.

In the distance came the sound of a horse galloping.

A pegasus hurried over.

Its footsteps left the ground and the void cracked.

When the pegasus reached the sky above the city, it stopped galloping.

Under the pegasus, a shadow descended from the sky and appeared at the entrance of a residence in the city.

Kneeling on the ground with one knee, the shadow said respectfully, "I have found the ruin." "Creak!" The entrance of the residence opened slowly, and a man walked out.

Wearing a milky white robe, he looked handsome and charming.

"He was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking." "It's him." "It's Warner Lester, third place in the previous Boundless Ranking.

He's a powerhouse who has been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for a long time." "He still hasn't entered the Quasi Boundless Rank.

He's been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for such a long time.

By now, he should be on par with a true Chaos Rank powerhouse.” Upon seeing the man walk out of the entrance, several living beings on the street began to discuss him.

“Let’s go and take a look.” Warner spoke before disappearing.

Swoosh! At the same time, in the dark away from the city, a ray of white light shot up to the sky.

The white light lit up the dark area.

At once, the monk cleaned up the things on the ground and put them away.

Glancing at James beside him, he said, “It’s a ruin.

Something good must have appeared.

Why are you still here? Aren’t you going? Go and take a look.

Obtain the treasure.” After Zeno said that, he disappeared.

Without hesitation, James activated the Blithe Omniscience and followed Zeno.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4818- Most of the areas on the ancient battlefield were engulfed in darkness.

The white light shot up to the sky, illuminating the dark area.

The white light contained a mysterious power.

The power got rid of the black mist in the dark.

In the blink of an eye, Zeno arrived at the area.

Soon, James also arrived at the same spot.

At the center of the ruin was something mysterious exuding a ray of white light.

James scanned his surroundings and realized that many living beings had gathered in the area.

At this moment, several armored bodyguards began to threaten people.

“Our master found this ruin first.

At this time, a handsome man walked over, stepping on the void.

He appeared in the sky above the area.

“Welcome, Sir Warner.” Countless bodyguards knelt on the ground and greeted Warner loudly.

We shouldn’t provoke him.

Let’s watch the situation from afar.” Upon seeing that the bodyguards were Warner’s, a few powerhouses decided to back out.

Warner was placed third in the last Boundless Ranking.

Now, he was still in the Boundless Ranking.

He was extremely powerful.

“Zeno, do you know what’s in the ruin?” James glanced at Zeno next to him.

Zeno had traveled to many ruins in the nine districts, so he had a profound understanding of ruins.

That was why James asked him.

Zeno shook his head and said, "I don't know.

I need to study the ruin first." Then, several bodyguards appeared.

The bodyguards pulled out their weapons.

"Didn't you hear? This place belongs to our master.

It's none of your business," Warner's bodyguard said in a cold tone.

Glancing at the bodyguards, James sensed that their cultivation ranks were high.

They had all reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

If they were in a weaker universe, they could rule the universe.

Yet, they were willing to be Warner's bodyguards.

It was evident that Warner was a big shot.

Zeno stepped back and appeared behind James.

Then, he pushed James forward.

James did not expect that.

With Zeno's power, James was pushed forward instantly.

Thinking that James was going to attack them, the bodyguards immediately took action.

Hundreds of bodyguards pulled out their swords and attacked James.

However, James' body was very strong.

Even though the bodyguards were in the Caelum Acme Rank, they could not harm James.

'what a despicable monk,' cursed James in his heart.

Since the bodyguards had attacked James, James would not back out.

“This ancient battlefield doesn’t belong to Warner.

Those who are destined will find the treasures.

Isn’t it too much to occupy this ancient ruin?” James said.

His words attracted the attention of the living beings nearby.

At once, countless gazes landed on him.

“who is he? Why is he so brave? How dare he go against Warner?” “T know him.

He’s the head of the Verde Academy’s Tempris House, James.” Many living beings were gathered here, all coming from different realms of the nine districts.

A lot of them did not know who James was.

Nonetheless, there were living beings who came from the Verde District.

James’ identity was exposed.

At this moment, Warner was already outside the ruin.

However, the ruin had a broken formation, which he would need quite some time to break.

Hearing the commotion in the distance, he frowned.

Unhappy, he said, ““Didn’t you clear the place? Why are there still living beings? Get rid of them.

I don’t want any living beings to disturb me.” “Yes, sir.” At once, several powerhouses jumped and flew toward the area James was in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4819-“Get lost,” said the four powerhouses upon appearing.

Then, one of the powerhouses tried to pull James and throw him out.

However, James stood in the sky motionless.

An illusory palm tugged James' shoulder.

Immediately, the illusory palm was shattered by James' physical power.

"Caelum Boundless Rank." James sensed the cultivation ranks of the four powerhouses.

With a faint smile, he said, "You're only in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How dare you be so arrogant?" "You're seeking death," A loud voice sounded.

Following that, the four powerhouses attacked James simultaneously.

James also took action.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

In the next instant, his body returned to its original spot.

Meanwhile, the four powerhouses took a blow and flew away.

As though a kite had lost its string, their bodies crashed harshly into the ruin in the distance below.

The moment they touched the ruin, the formation was initiated.

At once, countless Sword Energies from the formation filled the air.

The Sword Energies charged toward their bodies.

Nevertheless, they were powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even if they were attacked by countless Sword Energies, they would only be injured.

They would not die.

This scene shocked several living beings in the distance.

"James, the Head of Tempris House, is quite strong.

He defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank so easily.”
“Even though there aren’t any Chaos Rank powerhouses in the Verde Academy of the Verde District, there are many Quasi Chaos Rank powerhouses.

It’s no wonder the Verde Academy is known to be the strongest in terms of overall strength.” James defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank easily, which shocked many.

Many living beings began discussing among themselves.

Zeno walked over to James.

With a bright smile, he said, “Not bad.

You’re stronger than the last time we met.” James smiled.

In the distance, outside the ruin, Warner was focusing on observing the formation.

He wanted to enter the formation and check out the ruin.

He saw the defeat of his four subordinates.

The four Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses appeared before Warner.

They were covered in wounds.

Some Sword Energies remained in the wounds.

ot Sir.

» “He’s too strong.” “We aren’t his match.” Disorderedly, the four powerhouses spoke.

Warner turned around and looked at James in the distant void.

With a heavy expression, he disappeared with a flash.

Then, he appeared before James.

Casually, he looked at James.

It seems the nine districts birthed a few arrogant brats in the past several years.” Although Warner appeared casual, there was a hint of murderous intent in his tone.

James did not fear Warner even though the latter was placed third in the previous Boundless Ranking.

“Fellow cultivator, you’ve gone overboard.

The treasures of heaven and earth depend on destiny.

Why are you chasing out all other living beings? Do you really think you’re invincible?” James glanced at Warner, who had a dark expression.

“Haha...” Warner laughed.

Then, he stopped, and his expression turned serious.

“T may not be invincible, but I’m sure no one is my match in this area.” Warner was confident in his ability.

Even though he was only in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he had been in this cultivation rank for a long time.

His power was unfathomable.

Even if he were to face a true Chaos Rank powerhouse, he would not be afraid.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4820-“Haha.” James could not help but laugh.

No one had made him kneel before.

Warner was the first person to do so.

Warner’s arrogance angered James.

“Let’s see how strong you are that you think you can make me kneel.” James was filled with Murderous Energy.

He had comprehended six kinds of power, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, and the power of the six sacred scrolls.

He did not fear anything.

“How stupid,” said Warner casually.

Then, he made a move.

With a flash, he appeared before James and raised his hand.

A terrifying power emerged, and his fist headed toward James.

James met the attack head-on.

Both fists collided.

Boom! Immediately, the void collapsed.

Meanwhile, James’ body flew away due to the frightening power.

The power spread throughout his body from his arm.

It made his Blood Energy churn.

He failed to suppress the surging Blood Energy.

At once, he spat out blood.

‘He’s quite strong.’ James could not help but be shocked.

Even though Warner did not use his power, he broke James’ defense.

This proved Warner’s strength.

“Are you looking down on Tempris House?” At this time, a voice rang throughout the place.

Following the voice, an elder appeared.

When the elder appeared, he launched attacks toward Warner.

Shadows surrounded Warner.

The shadows pushed out their palms continuously.

In an instant, there were thousands of palms.

A palm formation immediately appeared around Warner's body.

Boom! At that moment, countless palms landed on Warner's body.

Warner was instantly injured as he spat out blood.

"Wael?" "It's Wael, the previous Head of Tempris House.

He's one of the strongest powerhouses in the Verde Academy." The living beings recognized the elder.

The elder was Wael of Mount Tempris.

Stepping on the void, James walked over to Wael and looked at him.

Unhappy, he said, "Hey, what do you mean by this? Why are you helping me? Do you really think I'm not his match?" "Haha." Wael laughed and patted James' shoulder.

Admirably, he said, "Not bad.

Tempris House became powerful under your lead while I was gone." In the distance, Warner's expression was extremely heavy.

It had been many epochs since he was last injured.

He stared at Wael with murderous intent.

As the murderous intent filled his gaze, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

Then, the void became illusionary.

It was as if it was going to collapse at any time.

"The both of you, come at me together," roared Warner.

“Let me.” James and Wael spoke at the same time.

Then, they exchanged glances.

James made a gesture and said, “You’re the elder.

I won’t fight with you.

Go ahead.” Then, James backed away and appeared outside the battlefield.

“Are you alright?”

Glancing at the bodyguards, James sensed that their cultivation ranks were high.

They had all reached the Caelum Acme Rank.

If they were in a weaker universe, they could rule the universe.

Yet, they were willing to be Warner's bodyguards.

It was evident that Warner was a big shot.

Zeno stepped back and appeared behind James.

Then, he pushed James forward.

James did not expect that.

With Zeno's power, James was pushed forward instantly.

Thinking that James was going to attack them, the bodyguards immediately took action.

Hundreds of bodyguards pulled out their swords and attacked James.

However, James' body was very strong.

Even though the bodyguards were in the Caelum Acme Rank, they could not harm James.

'what a despicable monk,' cursed James in his heart.

Since the bodyguards had attacked James, James would not back out.

“This ancient battlefield doesn’t belong to Warner.

Those who are destined will find the treasures.

Isn’t it too much to occupy this ancient ruin?” James said.

His words attracted the attention of the living beings nearby.

At once, countless gazes landed on him.

“who is he? Why is he so brave? How dare he go against Warner?” “T know him.

He’s the head of the Verde Academy’s Tempris House, James.” Many living beings were gathered here, all coming from different realms of the nine districts.

A lot of them did not know who James was.

Nonetheless, there were living beings who came from the Verde District.

James’ identity was exposed.

At this moment, Warner was already outside the ruin.

However, the ruin had a broken formation, which he would need quite some time to break.

Hearing the commotion in the distance, he frowned.

Unhappy, he said, ““Didn’t you clear the place? Why are there still living beings? Get rid of them.

I don’t want any living beings to disturb me.” “Yes, sir.” At once, several powerhouses jumped and flew toward the area James was in.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4819-“Get lost,” said the four powerhouses upon appearing.

Then, one of the powerhouses tried to pull James and throw him out.

However, James stood in the sky motionless.

An illusory palm tugged James' shoulder.

Immediately, the illusory palm was shattered by James' physical power.

"Caelum Boundless Rank." James sensed the cultivation ranks of the four powerhouses.

With a faint smile, he said, "You're only in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

How dare you be so arrogant?" "You're seeking death," A loud voice sounded.

Following that, the four powerhouses attacked James simultaneously.

James also took action.

He activated the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

In the next instant, his body returned to its original spot.

Meanwhile, the four powerhouses took a blow and flew away.

As though a kite had lost its string, their bodies crashed harshly into the ruin in the distance below.

The moment they touched the ruin, the formation was initiated.

At once, countless Sword Energies from the formation filled the air.

The Sword Energies charged toward their bodies.

Nevertheless, they were powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even if they were attacked by countless Sword Energies, they would only be injured.

They would not die.

This scene shocked several living beings in the distance.

"James, the Head of Tempris House, is quite strong.

He defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank so easily.”
“Even though there aren’t any Chaos Rank powerhouses in the Verde Academy of the Verde District, there are many Quasi Chaos Rank powerhouses.

It’s no wonder the Verde Academy is known to be the strongest in terms of overall strength.” James defeated the four powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank easily, which shocked many.

Many living beings began discussing among themselves.

Zeno walked over to James.

With a bright smile, he said, “Not bad.

You’re stronger than the last time we met.” James smiled.

In the distance, outside the ruin, Warner was focusing on observing the formation.

He wanted to enter the formation and check out the ruin.

He saw the defeat of his four subordinates.

The four Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses appeared before Warner.

They were covered in wounds.

Some Sword Energies remained in the wounds.

ot Sir.

» “He’s too strong.” “We aren’t his match.” Disorderedly, the four powerhouses spoke.

Warner turned around and looked at James in the distant void.

With a heavy expression, he disappeared with a flash.

Then, he appeared before James.

Casually, he looked at James.

It seems the nine districts birthed a few arrogant brats in the past several years.” Although Warner appeared casual, there was a hint of murderous intent in his tone.

James did not fear Warner even though the latter was placed third in the previous Boundless Ranking.

“Fellow cultivator, you’ve gone overboard.

The treasures of heaven and earth depend on destiny.

Why are you chasing out all other living beings? Do you really think you’re invincible?” James glanced at Warner, who had a dark expression.

“Haha…” Warner laughed.

Then, he stopped, and his expression turned serious.

“T may not be invincible, but I’m sure no one is my match in this area.” Warner was confident in his ability.

Even though he was only in the Caelum Boundless Rank, he had been in this cultivation rank for a long time.

His power was unfathomable.

Even if he were to face a true Chaos Rank powerhouse, he would not be afraid.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4820-“Haha.” James could not help but laugh.

No one had made him kneel before.

Warner was the first person to do so.

Warner’s arrogance angered James.

“Let’s see how strong you are that you think you can make me kneel.” James was filled with Murderous Energy.

He had comprehended six kinds of power, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, and the power of the six sacred scrolls.

He did not fear anything.

“How stupid,” said Warner casually.

Then, he made a move.

With a flash, he appeared before James and raised his hand.

A terrifying power emerged, and his fist headed toward James.

James met the attack head-on.

Both fists collided.

Boom! Immediately, the void collapsed.

Meanwhile, James’ body flew away due to the frightening power.

The power spread throughout his body from his arm.

It made his Blood Energy churn.

He failed to suppress the surging Blood Energy.

At once, he spat out blood.

‘He’s quite strong.’ James could not help but be shocked.

Even though Warner did not use his power, he broke James’ defense.

This proved Warner’s strength.

“Are you looking down on Tempris House?” At this time, a voice rang throughout the place.

Following the voice, an elder appeared.

When the elder appeared, he launched attacks toward Warner.

Shadows surrounded Warner.

The shadows pushed out their palms continuously.

In an instant, there were thousands of palms.

A palm formation immediately appeared around Warner's body.

Boom! At that moment, countless palms landed on Warner's body.

"Wael?" "It's Wael, the previous Head of Tempris House.

He's one of the strongest powerhouses in the Verde Academy." The living beings recognized the elder.

The elder was Wael of Mount Tempris.

Stepping on the void, James walked over to Wael and looked at him.

Unhappy, he said, "Hey, what do you mean by this? Why are you helping me? Do you really think I'm not his match?" "Haha." Wael laughed and patted James' shoulder.

Admirably, he said, "Not bad.

Tempris House became powerful under your lead while I was gone." In the distance, Warner's expression was extremely heavy.

It had been many epochs since he was last injured.

He stared at Wael with murderous intent.

As the murderous intent filled his gaze, a powerful aura emerged from his body.

Then, the void became illusionary.

It was as if it was going to collapse at any time.

"The both of you, come at me together," roared Warner.

“Let me.” James and Wael spoke at the same time.

Then, they exchanged glances.

James made a gesture and said, “You’re the elder.

I won’t fight with you.

Go ahead.” Then, James backed away and appeared outside the battlefield.

“Are you alright?”
