

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4841

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4841-Sancho sighed sorrowfully. Suddenly, he caught a glimpse of Livie standing beside James, and his brows subconsciously furrowed.

Zeno noticed something off with his expression and asked, "What's wrong? Have you seen her before? Do you know her?"

"I know her very well." Sancho's face was full of anger, and his voice became hostile.

"She's one of the Three Extraterrestrial Demon Commanders who took many lives. Wynne gave it his all and sacrificed his life to injure her."

Livie inched over to James, tugged on his robe, and whispered, "I'm scared. I can sense his murderous intent. I don't want to stay here anymore. Let's quickly leave this place."

James gently waved his hand, signaling Livie not to worry.

Zeno looked at Livie. He never expected her to be a leader of the Extraterrestrial Demons in her past life, nor did he know that Wynne sacrificed himself just to injure her.

Sancho continued, saying, "After she was injured, Emperor Raiah captured her. However, her wounds were severe, and she died shortly after. Although she had passed, her physical body was potent. Even Emperor Raiah wasn't capable of destroying her corpse. Back then, he was focused on completely wiping out the Extraterrestrial Demons and didn't have time to dispose of her body. Thus, his subordinates sealed her away in case she were to awaken again."

"Where did Emperor Raiah go?" asked Zeno.

Sancho explained, "The Extraterrestrial Demon's Great Commander fled after he was injured. Their troops also withdrew from the battle. Emperor Raiah chased after him but never returned. I've no idea what happened next."

While speaking, Sancho began to fade, and his voice became faint.

Soon, his faint image disappeared, and the skeleton crumbled into dust.

James looked at Zeno and said, "I didn't expect you to be a Rune Arts Grandmaster and a subordinate of Emperor Raiah."

Suddenly, Sancho's voice rang in the hall once again. "A portion of your soul was extracted, Zeno. If I'm not wrong, it was taken by the Extraterrestrial Demon's Great Commander. You'll have to retrieve your soul to recover your strength to its prime."

His voice gradually weakened, and his last few words were almost inaudible.

After Sancho disappeared, Zeno slumped to the ground grievously.

James looked at him and asked, "What now? Sancho's has revealed Livie's origin. She's one of the Extraterrestrial Demons' commanders. Should we kill her or let her live?"

Livie immediately took a few steps backward in fear and looked at James with teary eyes.

Zeno returned to his senses and said, "That was in the past. She's no longer one of the Extraterrestrial Demons' commanders. Her new identity is Livie Caden. It was you who gave her a soul and life."

James' brows furrowed.

Although Zeno was right, Livie's body still belonged to an Extraterrestrial Demon. He was worried trouble would arise in the future if he kept her near.

Livie knelt to the ground after sensing James' murderous intent.

"Master, it was you who had given me life. If it's your decision to take it, I will accept my fate."

Zeno advised James, saying, "I suggest you spare her life. Although she was an Extraterrestrial Demon, she no longer has her full powers. You're completely able to suppress her. Moreover, I can sense that Emperor Raiah didn't completely wipe out the Extraterrestrial Demons that infiltrated the Endlos. Unfortunately, I haven't completely recovered my memories and don't remember much about the Extraterrestrial Demons. Keeping her around may prove to be useful in the future.”

James took a deep breath. He walked over to Livie, supported her, and said, ‘You’re fine now. Get up.’

Livie stood up with her head lowered to the ground, not daring to meet James’ gaze.

“I better get going,” said Zeno.

James asked, “Where are you planning to go?”

Zeno vanished, but his voice echoed in the hall. “I’d like to follow in Emperor Raiah’s footsteps. I’ll take my leave first. Let’s meet again one day.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4842-Zeno disappeared from the main hall, leaving James and Livie behind.

James scanned the empty palace hall. He never expected to encounter the remnant soul of a former powerhouse of the Ten Districts.

He had also discovered many secrets, including how Wynne had perished.

Although he was unsure of Wynne’s exact strength, he learned that Wynne’s sword mound became a stopping place for powerful swordsmen throughout the Nine Districts. Even the Chaos Master’s soul headed to the sword mound to leave behind his Supernatural Power.

Many acknowledged him as a powerful swordsman, yet he had to sacrifice his life against Livie. Ultimately, he failed to kill her and only managed to inflict severe injuries.

James only had a little strength left, but he was still as strong as a powerhouse at the Chaos Rank. He could only imagine how superior Wynne and the Three Extraterrestrial Demon Commanders were compared to his strength.

Shortly after Zeno had left, a new tombstone was set up on the spiritual mountain.

James and Livie stood in front of the tombstone.

Livie said softly, "Master, this has nothing to do with me."

James had given her a new soul and life. Therefore, she was a totally different living being. Although she learned a lot about her body's past life from Sancho, she felt unrelated to it.

"Let's go."

James said nothing more about the topic.

After they left, the seal around the palace was activated again.

James led Livie away from the dark zone.

His subsequent plan was to find the Boundless Tablet, enter the Boundless Battlefield, and wait for the arena battle to begin.

James activated his Blithe Omniscience. Surprisingly, Livie was able to keep up with his speed.

Fortunately, Zeno had left behind rune markings. Even with James' strength, he would have gotten lost in the darkness.

After traveling for millions of years, they finally left the dark zone and appeared at an intersection of darkness and light.

They arrived at the city where James encountered Zeno.

It had already been two epochs since the gathering. James displayed impressive strength during his fight against Warner. As a result, his name had spread wide and far.

However, James disappeared after the battle. In the past two epochs, he had never appeared again.

The dilapidated city had become a popular stop for many living beings.

Ordinary cultivators were afraid to travel into the darkness to seek boons. Thus, they gathered in the city, chatting and observing the situation.

James and Livie appeared on the ancient road outside the city.

"It's James!"

“You’re right. It’s James. He created a new sect called the Heavenly Court in the Aeternus District.”

“He obliterated the Aeternus Sect.”

James and Livie immediately became the center of attention.

A woman in a purple dress instantly rushed outside the city after sensing James’ aura.

“James.” She approached excitedly.

However, Livie suddenly stepped forward and unleashed a terrifying aura. Then, she quickly thrust her palm at Waleria.

Waleria was taken by surprise and could not react in time.

Livie’s palm struck her chest, and she was sent flying. She spat out a mouthful of blood, raining down on the ground.

Even though Waleria was a powerhouse, she was injured by Livie’s attack.

“What are you doing?!!” James was startled.

“I thought she had ill intentions toward you.” Livie lowered her head.

Many of the living beings in the city had witnessed the scene.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4843-“What just happened?”

“Was Waleria injured after being struck by one move?”

“Who’s that woman with blue hair?”

Everyone was curious about the identity of the woman standing next to James.

Waleria quickly regained her balance, but her brows furrowed in pain. She urged her strength and quickly treated her injuries.

Then, she walked over to James and shouted angrily, "What the hell, James? What was that for?"

James approached and explained apologetically, "I'm so sorry. This is my daughter, Livie Caden. She thought you were a threat and took action against you."

James did not introduce Livie as a puppet or a subordinate.

It was hard to explain why he suddenly recruited a subordinate.

However, it would be more reasonable to introduce her as his daughter.

"Your daughter?"

Waleria looked at James doubtfully and asked, "It's only been more than two epochs, but you suddenly have a daughter? Moreover, she's already so strong?"

James explained earnestly, "I've had her a long time ago. She had only just recently left home to find me. Right, Livie?"

He turned to Livie.

Livie quickly answered, 'Yeah. I'm sorry for hurting you.'

"It's alright." Waleria gently waved her hand. She was not so unforgiving as to hold grudges over trivial matters.

However, she was curious about James' daughter. She pulled James aside and asked, "Is she really your daughter?"

"Of course. Who else could she be?"

"Who's her mother?"

"I don't think that concerns you, right?"

"Fine," Waleria replied, disappointed.

"James."

At that moment, several other people walked out of the city.

It was Wynton, Wynona and Zula.

Livie instantly shielded James and glared at them warily.

James quickly stopped her, "Don't do anything, Livie."

He was worried Livie would take action against them. It would be troublesome if the others also got hurt.

"What's going on?" Wynton glanced at James puzzledly.

James pulled Livie close and explained smilingly, "Let me introduce you to my daughter, Livie Caden."

'Your daughter?'

Startled, Wynton said, "Aren't your daughters' names Winnie and Xainte? When did you have another one?"

James said smugly, "I have countless women, so it's no surprise I have an illegitimate daughter."

Wynton rolled his eyes.

"Let's head inside the city."

James wanted to avoid talking about Livie, so he quickly put a stop to it and walked into the city.

Wynton and the others exchanged gazes, then followed behind James.

Waleria approached Wynton and asked, "You and James come from the same place, right? Is Livie really his daughter?"

Wynton replied perplexedly, "I'm not sure either. I only know about his other two daughters, Winnie and Xainte. He also has three sons, Jacopo, Noel, and..."

He suddenly paused.

Waleria asked curiously, "What's the last one's name?"

Wynton whispered, 'You remember Wyot, right? James slept with Wyot's wife, and they had a son called Carson. It's the reason why Wyot hates James.'

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4844-James, walking in the lead, overheard their conversation. After hearing that Wynton had revealed his background, his expression changed. He thought to himself, 'How can he just blabber about me like that? When I infiltrated the Dooms, I had no choice but to get intimate with Yemima to avoid exposing my identity. I never expected her to get pregnant. Moreover, I specifically asked Wyndael to resolve everything after I left. With Wyndael's strength, he should be able to take care of those things without a problem.'

James immediately issued an order, "Livie, beat him up."

"Who?" Livie was taken aback.

James answered, 'That guy.'

Livie immediately understood her target.

While Wynton was still talking, Livie suddenly appeared in front of him. Before he could react, he was lifted by a powerful force, and a pair of spectral fists swung at him.

Wynton wanted to fight back, but Livie was too powerful, and he was unable to break free.

Soon, he was bruised and battered.

'That's enough.' James promptly stopped the beating, worried Livie might accidentally kill Wynton.

Livie immediately stopped using her powers.

Wynton fell to the ground and groaned in pain. He got up with difficulty and said with dissatisfaction, "Was that necessary?"

Waleria was angered by the sight and said, "You're despicable, James. You fucked someone else's wife but are afraid of others talking about it?"

James said with embarrassment, "It was an accident."

Waleria sneered. "I didn't expect you to have such preferences. So you like married women?"

James felt even more ashamed after hearing her words.

'That's enough,' Zula interjected and said, "We're in the same boat and should avoid internal conflict. Play around all you want, but don't take it too far."

Wyton rubbed his bruises and said, "You bastard, I'll remember this. When I become stronger, I'll have my revenge."

James knew Wynton was merely joking. They were from the same district and would never turn against each other. He was just playing around with Wynton and wanted to teach him a little lesson so he would not run his mouth anymore.

Suddenly, a group of thirty walked out of the city. A handsome man wearing a golden robe walked in the lead, radiating with an extraordinary aura. With his hands behind him, he asked loudly, "Which of you is James Caden?"

James looked in the man's direction.

Waleria immediately explained, "That's Hafgan Hawk. He ranked number one in the previous Boundless Ranking and is a disciple of the Endlos' strongest cultivator, Jagan Hafford."

"I see," James replied casually.

He stepped forward, looked at the man in the golden robe, and said, 'That's me.'

Hafgan released his Zen, scanning James up and down.

"Are you the one that defeated Warner?" Hafgan looked at him in disbelief after he found that James was only at the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank

Hafgan knew that Warner was a powerhouse with great strength. Thus, after learning that James had not even reached the Caelum Boundless Rank, he was doubtful that James had defeated Warner.

James replied nonchalantly, "I didn't defeat him. I only taught him a lesson."

“Tsk, tsk. You’re interesting.” A laugh came from the distance.

Shortly after, a woman with delicate features and an excellent figure appeared. She had long black hair and wore a black dress.

The woman scanned the living beings around them. Eventually, her gaze rested on James.

Then, she swayed her hips and walked over to James. However, Livie immediately stood in her way.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4845-The woman in the black dress said with a smile, “You’re a lucky man to have so many beautiful women around you.”

Waleria said calmly, “Her name is Yoela Larkin. Which sect she belongs to is currently unknown. She was second only to Hafgan on the previous Boundless Ranking.”

James looked at Yoela and Hafgan. He was not expecting two top-ranked cultivators on the Boundless Ranking to come looking for him.

One of Hafgan’s subordinates suddenly stepped forward with clenched fists and said, “He’s only at the late stage of the Caelum Acme Rank. He can’t have defeated Warner. I’ll go teach him a lesson.”

“Get over here and accept your death.”

Hafgan’s subordinate was at the Caelum Boundless Rank. Despite that, his strength was much inferior to Hafgan.

Before James could respond, Livie had sprung into action.

A loud groan suddenly resounded, and the man was blasted into the distance.

After getting rid of the threat, Livie returned to James’ side.

Wynton and Waleria were taken aback.

Waleria was surprised that James’ daughter was so powerful, whereas Wynton wondered when James had another daughter.

The man sent flying returned to Hafgan's side. However, he immediately spat a mouthful of blood and toppled over.

"Please take revenge for me, sir..."

He uttered a few words with incredible difficulty. Then, his body disintegrated, and his soul dispersed into the air.

Hafgan's face darkened. "How dare you touch a subordinate If

Before he could finish speaking, Livie suddenly appeared before him and swung her fist at him.

Livie did not use any fancy techniques or complicated inscriptions. Her attack consisted of pure physical strength. Yet, Hafgan, the number one on the previous Boundless Ranking, was knocked away.

His body crashed into a mountain range in the dark zone.

Boom!!!

The impact caused the mountain range to disintegrate and a bottomless pit to form. Cracks spread out from the ground toward the city, causing slight damage to the city's outer regions.

Everyone who witnessed the scene was dumbfounded.

Hafgan was ranked number one on the previous Boundless Ranking and was the disciple of the Endlos' strongest cultivator. Nonetheless, he was sent flying with just one blow from the beautiful blue-haired woman.

Everyone was curious about who Livie was and where she was from.

Yoela looked at Livie solemnly. She took a deep breath and said, "We'll meet again, James."

After leaving a few words, she disappeared.

Waleria, Wynton, Zula, and Wynona exchanged surprised gazes.

On the other hand, James was satisfied with Livie's strength. With such a powerhouse with him, he could roam the Endlos' Nine Districts without any worries.

"Let's enter the city." James walked toward the city, with Livie following closely behind him.

The others glanced at each other puzzledly and then followed after them.