The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4856

James entered seclusion and began striving to enter the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Time passed day by day.

A few million years passed in a flash.

During this period, a few ancient forces had reemerged and sent out their strongest members to the ancient battlefield. All of these powerhouses were at the Caelum Boundless Rank.

More and more powerhouses gathered in the ancient battlefield, and it became really lively.

Meanwhile, several powerful figures from the Endlos' Nine Districts gathered together, including the Hazeaf District's Leader, the Theos District's Leader, the Kapron District's Leader, and the Welkin District's Leader-Lucius, Sedis, Xylus, and Toma.

These four powerhouses were well-known and currently the strongest at the Chaos Rank. Naturally, Yardos and Wael, who had also reached the Chaos Rank, were not included.

They gathered to discuss the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.

Lucius said, "The Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra is real. It's also true that many ancient forces have stayed hidden for a long time. I've ruled the Hazeaf District for so long, but I didn't know such potent sects were hiding within my territory. They sure are good at hiding."

'To protect our positions, we must obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra. It's rather easy to acquire, as the complete version is within the Boundless Tablet.

However, it's going to be hard to understand the scriptures as well as the sacred scrolls. We'll have to capture James and force him to hand over the secret to understanding them," said Xylus.

Sedris frowned and said, 'That's not going to be easy. Yardos isn't easy to deal with. If Yardos is also from the Chaos District, he will definitely side with James.'

Toma thought for a while and said, "We'll have to make an article about James being from the Chaos District to cause other powerhouses to panic. Then, we can unite the powerful forces of the Nine Districts to capture James.

After we have him captive, he'll have no choice but to tell us everything."

The group of powerhouses discussed a plan to deal with James and the hidden forces.

Three epochs later, a terrifying aura emerged in the deepest part of the Endlos.

'The Chaos District has appeared!'

"I can sense the Chaos District's aura."

"It has finally reappeared!"

After sensing the Chaos District, many powerhouses in the Endlos were thrilled. It was finally their chance to enter the Chaos District and find the Endlos Heart.

However, the stronger powerhouses of the Nine Districts refrained from taking immediate action after sensing the Chaos District. They currently had a more important agenda. Compared to the Endlos Heart, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls were much more crucial.

Many hidden forces had emerged, and many powerhouses were in the Endlos. Even if someone were to obtain the Endlos Heart, the other powerhouses would never let him keep hold of it.

The four District Leaders that had formed an alliance did not act rashly.

There were too many powerhouses in the Chaos District, and their auras were too potent. The Chaos Heavenly Path was no longer capable of suppressing their collective aura, and the seal set up by the Chaos District's Leader was shattered. As a result, the Chaos District's position was revealed.

The Endlos' Nine Districts had returned to the Ten Districts.

Xezal's goal had been achieved. The Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls had successfully diverted the attention of these powerhouses.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4857-Meanwhile, Thea, who was in Callahan's spiritual mountain within the Chaos District's Blood Realm, appeared in front of the Ancestral Blood Master and said excitedly, "Father! I can sense a vast region outside of the Chaos District. Is it the Endlos' Nine Districts that you've mentioned before? Has the seal around the Chaos District already disappeared? Where's James right now?"

After the seal around the Chaos District dispersed, their location in the Endlos was exposed. The Ancestral Blood Master detected his phantom body and instantly learned about James' recent experiences.

He said smilingly, "Don't worry. James is fine. He is currently cultivating in an ancient battlefield."

"An ancient battlefield?" Thea was surprised.

The Chaos District's seal had been opened before to send out Wyot, Wynton, and Henrik. Even though it was a very brief moment, the Ancestral Blood Master detected his phantom body and knew about what James had experienced. Now that the Chaos District's seal had broken, he easily learned about James' recent activities.

He shared everything with Thea with a smile.

Thea's eyes teared up after learning of James' adventures, and she slightly choked up. "I can't believe he had gone through so much."

The Ancestral Blood Master said smilingly, 'The ancient battlefield should be really lively right now. There are a lot of powerhouses at the Caelum Boundless Rank there. After James left the Chaos District, you worked hard and reached the Caelum Boundless Rank. With your strength, you should be on par with the powerhouses gathered at the ancient battlefield. Go ahead and go look for him.”

‘Thank you, Father,’ Thea said ecstatically and quickly left.

The Ancestral Blood Master murmured, ‘The Chaos District’s seal is gone, and we’re back under the radar. The Endlos’ Void is so vast. Even I can’t sense its borders.’

Powerhouses within the Chaos District were excited after sensing the outside territory. Many rushed into the Endlos and headed toward the different districts. They learned about the grand gathering in the Endlos’ Nine Districts almost instantly and quickly rushed to the ancient battlefield.

Inside the backyard of a manor in the ancient battlefield’s dilapidated city, James was in seclusion and trying to break into the Caelum Boundless Rank.

However, it was harder than he thought. Countless epochs had passed. An even longer time had passed within the time formation, but he had yet to reach the Caelum Boundless Rank.

James continued suppressing his cultivation base and slowly increasing his strength.

Suddenly, his aura skyrocketed.

“Finally.”

James stopped cultivating and found himself soaked in sweat.

After so many years, he had finally entered the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Swoosh!

The Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom appeared.

“Mr. Xrival.” James stood up and greeted him.

The Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom said, “James, the seal around the Chaos District has already disappeared. The Chaos District has reappeared in the Endlos. Thea is on her way to the ancient battlefield right now. My phantom body is no longer needed, and my main body will be waiting for you in the Chaos District. All the best in getting number one in the Boundless Ranking.”

After speaking, the Ancestral Blood Master’s phantom body vanished.

James was stunned. After a while, he recomposed and murmured, ‘The Chaos District’s seal is gone? So the Chaos District is now detectable?’

His face lit up with joy. “I thought it would take a long time before I could return to the Chaos District. I wasn’t expecting this to happen. I miss you, Thea.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4858-Even Xezal was not expecting the Chaos District to appear so soon. She had estimated the Chaos District’s seal to break after the Boundless Ranking had formed. She planned to wait for the competition for the Chaos Ranking to begin, then somehow move the battlefield to the Chaos District. Now that the Chaos District had appeared in advance, her plan had been disrupted.

On a particular spiritual mountain in the Chaos District, there was a place with beautiful scenery and abundant Empyrean Spiritual Energy. Teresa wore a white dress and sat in a lotus position on a rock beside the waterfall.

After the Chaos District’s seal was broken, a few powerhouses from the Chaos District entered the Endlos and ventured to the other districts.

Teresa stood up and said, “Show yourself.”

Swoosh!

A shadowy figure silently appeared and knelt on the ground. “Ms. Teresa.”

Teresa ordered, “Prevent Thea from reuniting with James. Also, ensure anyone related to James doesn’t get near the ancient battlefield. If they try to approach the ancient battlefield, capture them.”

“Understood.”

After receiving the order, the shadowy figure dispersed into nothingness.

James entered the Caelum Boundless Rank right when the Chaos District reemerged in the Endlos.

Afterward, the Ancestral Blood Master's phantom had also vanished, returning to its main body.

James stretched his body. His strength had improved significantly. Although the Caelum Acme Rank's late stage to the Caelum Boundless Rank seemed like a small step, James had to rely on the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.

After entering the Caelum Boundless Rank, James acquired terrifying strength. However, he failed to enter the Omniscience Path's Tenth Rank.

James was thrilled to discover the Chaos District had reemerged in the Endlos. He could finally see Thea, his children, and his friends again.

He quickly headed to the manor's living room. Unexpectedly, Xezal was waiting for him.

Xezal greeted him with a smile and said, "The Chaos District has appeared, James. Your mission has been completed, and you can return to the Chaos District. After the Boundless Ranking is formed, you should head back and become the Chaos District's Leader."

James' friends were also gathered in the living room, staring at Xezal vigilantly. None of them had a good impression of Xezal, nor did they trust her.

James walked over, sat down, and said calmly, "I'm not interested in becoming the Chaos District's Leader. I only want to protect my family and home. I will never let you move the battlefield to the Chaos District to revive your father.

A grim expression flashed across Xezal's face but quickly disappeared. She replied calmly, "Everything I do is for the peace of the Endlos and to prevent conflict between powerhouses from the Ten Districts. If you don't trust me, I can bring you to the depths of the dark zone to show you the weakening seal. As soon as the seal breaks, the Extraterrestrial Demons will infiltrate the Endlos."

James looked at her and said, "A long time has passed since the previous battle against the Extraterrestrial Demons. The Ten Districts are currently filled with countless powerhouses. Even if they were to infiltrate us again, I'm sure we'll be able to resist them."

Xezal said helplessly, "I'm not asking for you to help me, James. I just need you not to get in the way. Sooner or later, you'll understand why I must go down this road. I only want the best for the Endlos and the Ten Districts. You have no idea how severe that battle was."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4859-Xezal said sorrowfully, "Emperor Raiah sacrificed his soul to injure the Extraterrestrial Demon's Commander. Even Wynne sacrificed himself to hurt one of the Three Extraterrestrial Demon Leaders.

"Back then, we also had countless powerhouses. One after another, they rushed to the depths of the Endlos to fight. Yet, they lost their lives protecting the Endlos from Extraterrestrial Demons. You didn't experience it, so you don't understand what it was like."

James remained indifferent to her. From his point of view, Xezal merely wanted to resurrect her deceased father. He would be willing to help if the cost of reviving the former Endlos Lord was insignificant. However, Xezal planned to release the sealed Extraterrestrial Demons to resurrect her father. He could not stand by and watch countless powerhouses forced into battle and die for her goal.

"I understand. When the day comes, I will take up my weapon and protect my home. Please leave."

James requested her to leave the manor.

Xezal silently stood up and left.

After Xezal was gone, everyone's tensed hearts were finally relieved.

James asked curiously, "Waleria, you're from the Endlos' Nine Districts, right? Do you know what happened to the Endlos' Ten Districts back then? How did the Chaos District's Leader die?"

Waleria shook her head and said, "How would I know? I wasn't even born yet."

“I can answer you.”

A voice came from outside the door. Then, a middle-aged man in a green robe walked into the manor.

Waleria immediately stood up and greeted, “Sir Sedris “

The middle-aged man was none other than Sedris, the Theos District’s Leader.

James also stood up and called out, “Sir Sedris.”

Sedris walked into the living room, waved his hand, and sat down. Then, he said, “I have a rough understanding of these past events.”

“Is that so?” James’ curiosity was piqued.

Sedris harked back into the past and said, “The Chaos District’s Leader, the former Endlos Lord’s name is Zaden Dalibor. He had possession of the Endlos Heart and was a peerless powerhouse at the Chaos Rank.”

‘The Endlos’ Ten Districts had been peaceful until the current Hazeaf District’s Leader, Lucius Lopez, who also goes by his alias, Jagan Hafford, entered the Chaos Rank.

“Lucius ambushed Zaden, forcing Zaden to flee and hid the entire Chaos District. As a result, the Endlos’ Ten Districts was reduced to the Endlos’ Nine Districts.”

Sedris shared details about past events, which only a handful of powerhouses knew.

The Chaos District’s aura had leaked in the past, and its location was exposed. Many powerhouses were tempted by the Endlos Heart and took action against the Chaos District. However, nobody ever succeeded in acquiring the Endlos Heart.

Sedris’ expression became serious, and he sighed deeply. Then, he said, “I never expected so many things to have happened before the establishment of the Ten Districts.

Moreover, many hidden Orthodox exist within the Endlos’ Nine Districts. If not because they had reemerged and come to the ancient battlefield for the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, I would never have known about their existence.”

Many powerhouses had gathered in the ancient battlefield, many of whom were from hidden forces that had existed since eons ago. As a result, news about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra began to spread.

Everyone on the ancient battlefield had already learned about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls. Therefore, it was not surprising for Sedris to have already found out.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4860-Sedris had discussed with the other powerhouses at the Chaos Rank how to extract information about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls from James.

During the discussions, Sedris offered to approach James and try to gather information.

Sedris looked at James and said, “It’s already been quite a long time since I’ve given you the sacred scroll of the Theos District. You must’ve already comprehended it by now, right?”

James returned the sacred scroll to him, saying, “It’s too profound. I’ve been studying it but haven’t comprehended anything.”

Even though Sedris knew James was lying, he calmly put the sacred scroll away.

The sacred scrolls were great treasures left by a powerhouse before the Ten Districts were even established. He had already learned from the Welkin District’s Leader, Toma, that Yardos had briefly gained possession of their sacred scroll. Therefore, they were aware that James must have also read the Welkin District’s sacred scroll. It was terrible news for them that James had already read five sacred scrolls.

Since James lied, it was clear to Sedris that he was unwilling to reveal the method of comprehending the sacred scrolls.

Sedris asked tentatively, “What do you think about the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra?”

“Hmm...” James thought awhile and replied, “The Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra is very mysterious. I don’t know much about it though. Perhaps one must rank number one on the Boundless Ranking to obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.”

Sedris tried to get some information out of James.

However, James brushed him off with casual remarks.

After Sedris asked a few questions, he left the manor.

Relieved, James muttered, “The Theos District’s Leader’s motive for coming to see me is definitely the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the secret of the sacred scrolls.”

Waleria interrupted him, saying, “I never revealed anything to him.”

After Xezal appeared, Waleria confirmed her suspicions. However, she never disclosed anything to Sedris.

James gently massaged his forehead and said, “What a headache. Now that the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra has appeared, news about the sacred scroll has spread. It’s going to be much harder to obtain the remaining sacred scrolls. Teresa’s plan is indeed working. She used the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls to distract the powerhouses. Now that the Chaos District has reemerged, nobody is paying too much attention to it.”

Wynton said smilingly, “Isn’t this good for us? The Chaos District is our home. It’s great that nobody is eyeing the Chaos District.”

James said softly, “It’s only temporary. It’s the calm before the storm. Soon, Xezal will try to bring the battlefield to the Chaos District.”

Wynton asked, “Then what are you planning to do?”

Everyone looked at James. Although James was from the Chaos District, nobody thought of cutting ties with him.

James gave it a thought and said, “There’s still time before the competition for the Boundless Ranking begins. I’d like to return to the Chaos District.”

Wynton nodded and said, “Alright. It should be fine to return for a while.”

“I’ll leave immediately.” James stood up and said, “Follow me, Livie.”

“Okay.” Livie nodded.
