The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4871-The two were James and Li vie, who rushed back.

“How did it get destroyed?” Livie glanced at the ruin below and asked.

Meanwhile, James saw Wynton with a strong aura in the distance. Slightly taken aback, he asked, “Why is Wynton’s aura so powerful?”

James’ body flashed and appeared before Waleria and the other powerhouses. He asked, “What’s going on?”

Glancing at James, Waleria said, “I’m not sure why, but the hidden Orthodox and powerhouses of the Crescent Sect came looking for Wynton and beat him up. Even though Wynton admitted defeat, Gregor would not relent, forcing Wynton to break the seal in his body.”

After understanding the whole story, James became interested. With a smile, he said, “It’s as I expected. How could Wynton, who once fought against everyone in the Chaos and who does not have a match in the same cultivation rank, be so weak?”

“There are still tactics he hasn’t used,” interrupted Waleria.

“I see.”

James nodded.

Wynton’s sister, Zella, once said that her brother was terrifying.

Zella was a prophet. She could see the future. It was an innate ability.

Wynton was the same. He was born with a Supernatural Power, but James never had the chance to witness the power.

On the battlefield in the distance, Wynton broke the seal in his body. Stretching his body, he smiled and said, “It’s been a long time since I battled using my full strength.”

Then, his body disappeared.

At the next moment, he appeared before Gregor and launched an attack.

Gregor did not react in time. His body took a blow and immediately flew away. Simultaneously, he spat out blood.

Wynton was strong and agile. In an instant, he landed multiple punches on Gregor, dealing consistent trauma to Gregor's body.

Soon, Gregor was covered in wounds.

"Darn it."

Gregor was furious. When he came back to his senses, he began to counterattack.

He attacked with all his strength.

The two fought on the ancient battlefield. It was an intense battle that attracted the attention of many living beings in the area.

"Isn't that Gregor of the Crescent Sect?"

"It's Gregor. He previously defeated Hafgan, the champion of the Boundless Ranking, easily and rose to fame."

"Who's fighting against him? That person is so strong. How could he fight against Gregor to this extent?"

"I've never seen him before. Is he also from the hidden sects?"

Soon, many living beings gathered. They were watching the battle from a safe area.

The battle went on.

Even though Wynton had broken the seal, he could not do much harm to Gregor.

This infuriated him.

Right then, a mysterious power emerged from his body. The power absorbed every essence and energy in the heavens and the earth, including energy in the black mist and from a few living beings who failed to contain their own power.

All this energy went to Wynton.

Instantly, Wynton's aura reached its peak, and he looked like a demon god.

"Suppress."

He raised his hand, and a Sword World descended.

Instantly, Gregor was trapped in the Sword World.

Countless Sword Energies attacked him. Even though he was strong, he could not bear the attacks. In the end, he exerted a great deal of effort to break through Wynton's Sword World.

The moment he broke the Sword World, Wynton appeared with the Moonlit Sword and pierced his body with it.

Standing behind Gregor, Wynton put the Moonlit Sword away. With his hands behind his back, he said confidently and calmly, "The champion of the Boundless Ranking isn't as powerful as I expected."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4872-"You've gone overboard. Get lost," said Wynton.

Then, he gathered all his power and lightly unleashed it.

The power landed on Gregor's body.

At once, Gregor flew away and fell to a mountain range in the distance. The mountain range immediately became a ruin, and Gregor was buried in the ruin. For a long time, he did not resurface. It was unknown whether or not he was alive.

"You're amazing." James could not help but say, "This is the Wynton I know."

Wynton dispersed his aura.

A strong power emerged from his body. The power returned to heaven and earth and the living beings.

Stepping on the void, Wynton appeared before James and the others.

Wynona gave Wynton a thumbs up and praised, "I didn't expect you to be so strong."

Wynton's previously intimidating demeanor vanished.

Helplessly, he said, "I didn't want to break the seal, but that brat went too far. He made me break the seal prematurely."

"What signature skill did you use just now?" James asked with a smile.

Wynton smiled and said, "I'm not going to tell you that."

The few of them chatted.

The living beings in the surroundings were stunned.

How could Gregor of the Crescent Sect be defeated so easily?

Who was the person who defeated him?

He was very strong.

Gregor had previously fought against a powerhouse at the peak of the Quasi Chaos Rank and defeated him.

That powerhouse was only one step away from the Chaos Rank, which meant that this person could go against a powerhouse in the Chaos Rank.

Among the many living beings around the arena, some were from the nine districts and some from the hidden sects.

They were all shocked by Wynton's ability.

James and the others did not stay for long as the city had already been destroyed.

"The Boundless Tablet has appeared," Waleria said from the dark. "Many living beings in the Caelum Boundless Rank are heading toward the Boundless Tablet. They have entered the Boundless Battlefield. With the appearance of the hidden sects, the fight for the Boundless Ranking should begin earlier because of the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra."

As she spoke, she looked at James and Wynton and continued, ‘The two of you are freaks. Even with the appearance of many Boundless Rank powerhouses from the hidden sects, you can still get a good ranking with your ability.’

“I guess we’re in for a show,” said Zula with a laugh.

“I wanted to go too,” said Wynona. “But with the appearance of so many hidden sects, even though I’m in the Quasi Chaos Rank, I won’t be their match.”

Glancing at Wynton, James asked, “What ranking are you aiming for?”

Wynton smiled and said, ‘The champion, of course’

“I want to be the champion too.” James smiled and said, “I hope it comes down to the two of us. I want to have a proper match against you and redeem myself.”

“Haha.” Wynton laughed. “You might just lose a second time.”

Wynton left in laughter.

James followed after Wynton.

Waleria and the others did not follow them.

They knew James and Wynton were heading toward the Boundless Tablet and entering the Boundless Battlefield.

They did not stay in this Boundless Battlefield for long either but decided to leave.

In a dark place where a stone tablet was situated...

The stone tablet exuded unusual colors. It illuminated the dark place. Meanwhile, many living beings gathered around the stone tablet.

The living beings were only there to check things out. Those participating in the Boundless Ranking had already entered the Boundless Battlefield via the Boundless Tablet.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4873-James and Wynton appeared near the Boundless Tablet together.

Then, James turned around and looked at Livie, who had been by his side. He advised, "Livie, stay here and wait for someone called Thea. When she arrives, tell her that I've entered the Boundless Battlefield and to not worry."

While speaking, James waved his hands.

An inscription emerged and entered Livie's forehead.

Thea's appearance appeared in Livie's mind.

Nodding her head, Livie said, "I got it, Dad. I will find Mom."

Upon hearing that, Wynton glanced at James and asked in a soft voice, "Is she really your daughter?"

"Of course."

James smiled. Then, he marched toward the Boundless Tablet.

When he reached the Boundless Tablet, a ray of colorful light emerged from it. The light engulfed James as if it was sensing James' cultivation rank.

When the light sensed that James was indeed in the Boundless Rank, it immediately absorbed James into the Boundless Tablet.

For a moment, James could only see black. When he regained his sight, he found himself in an unfamiliar space.

It was a platform.

The platform was huge and surrounded by several mysterious inscriptions. The inscriptions grouped together and formed a terrifying formation. Meanwhile, many living beings in the Caelum Boundless Rank were already in the arena. Most of the living beings came from the nine provinces, while some came from hidden sects and the Orthodox.

The living beings sat on the ground in the arena, preparing themselves for the Boundless Arena Battle.

After seeing the living beings in the arena, James became excited.

He wanted to see how strong the living beings in the Caelum Boundless Rank from the hidden sects, families, and the Orthodox were.

‘The arena battle this time is going to be interesting.’ Wynton was also very excited.

Wynton and James looked for an empty space before sitting on the ground with their legs crossed.

“Everyone.”

Right then, on the ancient battlefield, a voice sounded.

“We have reached the number of living beings required in the Boundless Arena to start the battle. Those participating in the arena battle, please enter the Boundless Arena as soon as possible. The arena battle will begin in ten thousand years.”

The voice sounded throughout the ancient battlefield.

It could be heard everywhere in the arena.

Puzzled, James looked around, trying to find where the sound was coming from. He wanted to know who was speaking.

However, he could not tell where the sound came from.

After the voice finished speaking, the scene of the Boundless Arena was projected to a few core universes of Endlos’ Ten Districts.

In a few core universes of the ten districts, the actions of the living beings on the platform could be seen.

Upon seeing the scene, several powerhouses in the nine districts were taken aback.

“What’s going on?”

‘This has never happened before.’

“Could it be that there’s a mysterious powerhouse hidden in the Boundless Tablet? Perhaps that powerhouse took the initiative to direct this arena battle.”

Many powerhouses were confused.

Even the powerhouses in the Chaos Rank were puzzled.

The days flew by.

When the news spread, more living beings entered the Boundless Arena.

In the blink of an eye, ten thousand years passed.

“Everyone, the entrance to the Boundless Arena will close now. The battle will begin soon.”

A voice rang loudly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4874-On the vast platform in the Boundless Arena, many powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank from the nine districts gathered.

After the voice stopped speaking, the passage to the Boundless Arena closed. Living beings who wanted to enter the Boundless Battlefield could no longer do so.

Then, the living beings sitting in the arena with their legs crossed got up.

At this moment, in the sky of the Boundless Arena, countless white lights appeared. The white lights gathered and formed a white shadow. The shadow gradually materialized. It turned into an elder wearing a white robe.

The gazes of all living beings landed on the elder.

They were curious to know who the elder was.

“Everyone.”

The elder floated in mid-air. Amiably, he said, “I am the guardian of the Boundless Tablet and the Boundless Battlefield. The Boundless Tablet was created by Emperor Raiah.

“The Boundless Tablet exists to suppress the battlefield. However, the Extraterrestrial Demons of the battlefield have been wiped out, Emperor Raiah simply left this Boundless Arena behind.

“Emperor Raiah’s signature skill, the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, is hidden in the Boundless Arena, along with other signature skills.

“If you want to obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, you have to participate in the battle.”

The elder’s voice was loud.

Upon hearing him speak, the living beings in the arena and the outside world now understood that the voice belonged to the guardian of the Boundless Tablet.

‘The rules for the arena battle this time are simple.’

The elder scanned the Caelum Boundless Rank powerhouses on the platform. With a smile, he said, “A battle royale will be carried out on the platform. You can fight each other. Whoever fights till the end will obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra. Even if you can’t be the champion, the more you hold out till the end, the bigger the reward you’ll receive.

‘The battle this time does not have any restrictions.

“You can use any weapon and secret Supernatural Art. You can also use any tactics.

“In short, it depends on how long you can fight.

“The platform is like a battlefield. Lives will be lost during the battle.”

The elder’s voice sounded. Then, he waved his hands, and several inscriptions appeared before every living being.

“If you want to exit the arena, you only need to put a trace of power into the inscription. Then, you may leave the arena and appear in the outside world. At the same time, it means you have given up on the arena battle.

“Besides that, several formations will appear randomly on this platform. When you enter the formation, you’ll be able to rest for a while and heal your injuries.”

The guardian briefly explained the rules of the arena battle.

The so-called rules meant there were no rules.

The survival of the battle depended on each person's ability.

‘The arena battle begins now.’

The elder's voice sounded. When he finished speaking, his shadow disappeared from the sky above the arena.

James looked at the inscriptions in front of him and put them away.

Although he did not know if he would use it, it should be useful at critical moments. No one knew if there were hidden evildoers among the powerhouses in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Wynton stood beside James. He also put away the inscriptions given by the guardian. Glancing at James, he smiled and said, ‘The battle is starting. You have to be careful. Don't get eliminated by other living beings.’

James smiled and said, “You should worry about yourself. I can make it through with just my Blithe Omniscience.”

James was confident in his ability.

These living beings in the Caelum Boundless Rank could not eliminate James.

However, he could not be certain as there were hidden families, hidden sects, and the hidden Orthodox.

They had been hidden for so long that it was highly likely that frightening evildoers had been born.

Wynton did not say anything else.

He scanned the surroundings.

The platform was huge. On the platform were countless living beings in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

He sat on the ground again with his legs crossed.

At this time, he should stay still unless necessary and conserve his power.

It was only in this way that he could stay until the end of the battle.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4875-It was not a normal battle but a battle royale, so one needed to experience many fights. One needed to conserve one's energy to last longer in the battle.

James sat beside Wynton with his legs crossed.

The distance between them was less than ten meters.

"Do you think there are any living beings among the hidden forces who can be our match?" James asked.

'There should be.'

Wynton said, 'The living being of the Crescent Sect who showed up previously is a powerhouse. His ability surpasses Hafgan's, the champion of the previous Boundless Ranking.'

I won't be able to suppress him even after opening the seal in my body. I can only defeat him by employing some tactics. I believe there will be living beings stronger than Gregor of the Crescent Sect.'

James was excited.

He wanted to fight now.

He scanned the entire arena.

The battle had begun, but the living beings on the platform were not fighting. They were being cautious of the living beings in their surroundings.

Since no living being made a move, James also did not act recklessly.

Days flew by.

In the blink of an eye, three months passed.

The arena battle had been ongoing for three months, but no living being made a move. The living beings sat on the platform with their legs crossed.

In the Endlos' Ten Districts, the living beings watching the battle grew impatient.

"Why aren't they fighting?"

"What do you know? This is the battle of true powerhouses. Whoever makes a move first will suffer losses."

'That's right. These powerhouses are skilled. They want to conserve their strength and last till the end. They want to obtain supreme fortunes.'

"Look. That's James of our Chaos District. He's a peerless powerhouse from the Human Universe."

In the ten districts, countless living beings discussed the Boundless Arena Battle.

The powerhouses in the Quasi Chaos Rank and Chaos Rank were also observing the battle. They wanted to see how strong the living beings from the hidden forces were.

On the platform, many living beings sat on the ground with their legs crossed.

At this moment, James got up.

Upon seeing that, Wynton immediately said, "Are you crazy? It's unwise to make a move now. You may be sieged. Do you want to fight against all living beings on the platform alone?"

"Don't worry."

James smiled and said, "I'm going to resolve some grudges."

James' gaze landed on a figure in the distance.

It was a man in a black robe. The man sensed someone looking at him, so he turned to look in the direction of James.

The man was Zeloneth. He used to pursue James in the Theos District.

He used to be the deputy leader of the Daemonium Sect.

At that time, James was pursued by Zeloneth in the Theos District.

If it was not for his Blithe Omniscience, he would have died in Zeloneth's hands.

Swoosh!

James' body moved like a light beam shooting up toward the sky. He appeared in the sky above the arena. Pointing at Zeloneth, he said, "Zeloneth, it's time to settle our past grudges."

Zeloneth's expression became heavy.

Slowly, he stood up.

Then, he glanced at Yvan.

Sitting on the ground with his legs crossed, Yvan said, "Since he wants to fight against you, go and kill him."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4876-In Yvan's opinion, James was not Zeloneth's match.

Rumor had it that James defeated Warner, who was placed third on the Boundless Ranking. Nevertheless, it was only a rumor. Yvan did not personally see James defeat Warner.

He did not believe that James, who used to be so weak, would become so strong in only ten thousand epochs.

When James stood forward, the gazes of all living beings landed on him.

The living beings tried to guess James' background. They wondered why he was so brave to make the first move.

Many living beings knew about James, but most of them did not.

Zeloneth's body slowly floated upward. He appeared in the sky above the arena. Standing in the void, he stared at James.

With a heavy expression, Zeloneth said, "It's my mistake for not killing you previously. I didn't expect your cultivation rank to increase so quickly. In only ten thousand epochs, you entered the Caelum Boundless Rank."

Zeloneth did not expect James to enter the Caelum Boundless Rank.

If he had known that James would enter the Caelum Boundless Rank, he would have tried his best to kill James.

“Hmph.”

James responded, “I almost died in your hands last time. This time, I’m going to take revenge. I won’t let you leave the arena alive.”

James wanted to kill Zeloneth.

Even though Zeloneth had the inscriptions given by the guardian, James was confident that Zeloneth would die on the platform.

“You’re seeking death.”

Zeloneth exuded a powerful aura.

“Since you wish to die, I’ll grant your wish.”

At once, Zeloneth disappeared and appeared before James. When he appeared, a longsword emerged in his hand, and he stabbed it at James.

Zeloneth did not do anything fancy, but the attack contained a power that could destroy the world.

It could destroy even a universe.

When the longsword was about to touch James’ body, James disappeared.

At the next moment, he showed up behind Zeloneth and pushed out his palm.

His disappearance and attack happened in an instant.

James was quick. He was so quick that Zeloneth was hit by his palm before he could react.

The terrifying palm force filled Zeloneth’s body from his back. Instantly, cracks appeared on his body. The Blood Energy in his body also began to surge. He failed to suppress the Blood Energy and spat out blood.

Then, his body was sent flying away before it fell to the ground in the distance harshly.

There were several living beings there.

When Zeloneth fell to the ground, the living beings moved away.

Boom!

Immediately, cracks appeared on the ground. Soon, a pit appeared.

Zeloneth was in the pit.

“You’re too weak.”

Standing in the void, James appeared indifferent.

Zeloneth, who James thought was so powerful and invincible, was so weak.

With a casual attack, James defeated Zeloneth.

Swoosh!

A shadow rose from the ruin on the ground.

Zeloneth ascended and appeared in the sky. His hair was messy, and he was covered in blood. He appeared unkempt.

“You’re dead meat,” threatened Zeloneth.

After he spoke, blood filled his mouth again.

He was shocked.

He used to think that James was very weak and that he could kill the latter easily.

However, after the past ten thousand epochs, James had become so strong. Zeloneth could not even handle a single attack from James.

On the outside, Zeloneth appeared fierce, but he was actually thinking of backing out.

At this moment, he knew that the rumor was true. James had defeated Warner, the third place on the previous Boundless Ranking.

Secretly, he put a trace of power into the inscriptions. He wanted to leave the arena.

He knew that if the fight continued, he would die in the arena.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4877-James knew that Zeloneth wanted to escape.

Right then, a mysterious formation appeared. A shadow was standing on the formation.

The power exuded from the formation engulfed Zeloneth.

Then, a passage appeared in the sky above the arena. It was the exit passage.

However, Zeloneth was sealed by the formation. The inscriptions given by the guardian could not transport him out of the arena.

“No...” He shouted, frightened.

Then, the shadow made a move.

In an instant, the black shadow pierced Zeloneth’s body.

Zeloneth’s body began to crack. Then, he disappeared from the platform.

He was killed with one blow. His body and soul were annihilated.

The formation appeared and disappeared suddenly.

Before the many living beings could react, Zeloneth was already dead.

‘This brat.’

When Wynton saw the scene, he stood up. “I’m finally seeing him use this signature skill. He can even block the power of the inscriptions given by the guardian. This formation is too powerful.”

Wynton was stunned.

He knew that James could defeat Zeloneth easily, but he did not expect James to kill Zeloneth.

On the platform, the other living beings were also shocked.

“He’s dead?”

“How could that be? He used the inscriptions given by the guardian. The exit passage opened. How could he die?”

“Who is that guy? How can he block the inscriptions of the guardian?”

Many powerhouses were taken aback.

Several powerhouses from hidden sects also had grave expressions.

James showed a terrifying tactic and strong power. James’ appearance was a threat to the powerhouses.

In the ten districts outside the Boundless Arena, countless powerhouses saw what happened.

“He died so easily?”

“He killed a powerhouse in the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even the inscriptions given by the guardian weren’t useful.”

Several powerhouses in the Quasi Chaos Rank and Chaos Rank were taken aback.

On the platform, after James killed Zeloneth, he turned to look at Yvan.

Yvan’s expression was heavy.

James could kill Zeloneth in an instant. Judging by his current ability, he could also kill Yvan.

Yvan could not help but get up. With a dull face, he smiled and said, “James, we don’t have any grudges. When you were weak, I spared your life.”

“Is that so?”

Standing in the air, James said, "When Zeloneth was going after me, he said that you ordered him to kill me."

"No way."

Immediately, Yvan denied it and said, "I could have killed you with a single strike if I wanted you dead. Why would I let you loose and send Zeloneth after you? Why waste my time?"

James said, "You only let me go as reassurance to Waleria. You wanted to obtain the inscription to open the Yhala Realm."

"James, everything is negotiable."

Facing James, the previous leader of the Daemonium Sect no longer appeared arrogant. With a bright smile, he said, "There's no such thing. Don't listen to Zeloneth's nonsense."

Yvan wanted to get away from James.

He wanted to escape from the Boundless Arena.

Nonetheless, James' previous tactic stunned him.

Yvan planned to paralyze James and cause the latter to blunder.

Then, he would use the inscriptions given by the guardian to leave the arena. Leaving was his only chance at surviving. Otherwise, he would end up like Zeloneth.
