The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4878-Yvan was truly afraid.

He was worried that James would actually attack him, so he began to deny any involvement in the matter.

He did not want to leave the arena so early.

Emperor Raiah left behind the Boundless Arena. Yvan had heard about some legends concerning Emperor Raiah, and the latter was definitely a peerless powerhouse.

Yvan wanted to stay on the platform longer. He wanted to see if he could obtain fortunes and enter the Quasi Chaos Rank.

He had been in the Caelum Boundless Rank for a long time but could not enter the Quasi Chaos Rank.

The gazes of all living beings landed on Yvan.

They could sense that Yvan was powerful. An average living being in the Caelum Boundless Rank could not compare to Yvan. However, Yvan feared James. This proved how terrifying James was.

“Haha.”

James laughed.

“If you knew this day would come, why would you do that in the past? I’ll give you a chance. Come at me.”

James’ voice was loud.

When Yvan heard that, his expression became heavy. He had said everything he could, but James still wanted to kill him. His words meant nothing.

Under the gazes of many living beings, enunciating each word, he said, “Don’t think that I’m afraid of you. You can kill Zeloneth, but you may not be able to kill me.”

Even after uttering those words, Yvan was still busy scanning the Boundless Arena.

On the platform, he saw Xuri sitting in the corner with her legs crossed. He also saw Yhala near Xuri.

He knew that he was not James' match with his ability.

He showed up beside Xuri.

"Teacher."

Respectfully, Yvan said, "James is provoking me. I only did all those things to resurrect you. You can't just watch me die."

Xuri wore a black dress and had long, black hair. Her face was delicate, and she was not currently exuding any Demonic Energy. She looked pure and bright.

She opened her eyes slightly. A trace of black light flashed across her dark eyes.

She glanced at James, who was standing in the sky in the distance.

She watched James kill Zeloneth in an instant just moments ago. Her beautiful face wore a grave expression.

James was a troublesome person.

He might not be weaker than the powerhouses from the hidden sects. In fact, he might be able to defeat many powerhouses from the hidden sects.

"Teacher."

Seeing that Xuri remained silent, Yvan could not help but be anxious.

He wanted to work together with Xuri to kill James.

He knew Xuri's ability.

Xuri had been a powerhouse in the past, and she almost entered the Chaos Rank after her resurrection.

She used to be in the Quasi Chaos Rank, but following the appearance of the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, she dropped to the Caelum Boundless Rank so she could obtain it.

Yhala did the same.

She was in the Quasi Chaos Rank but dropped to the Caelum Boundless Rank.

It was not only them.

Many powerhouses in the Quasi Chaos Rank wanted the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra. All of them dropped to the Caelum Boundless Rank.

Even though Xuri's cultivation rank dropped, she was still powerful.

Looking at the anxious Yvan, Xuri slowly stood up and said, "Yvan, you once said that you can sacrifice your life for me, right?"

Upon hearing that, Yvan was taken aback.

For a moment, he did not understand what Xuri meant.

At this time, James heard Xuri's telepathy message.

"James, you don't need to attack Yvan. I'll kill him for you. Why don't we form an alliance? There are many powerhouses in the Boundless Arena right now. Only by working together with someone strong can you stay till the end."

When James heard Xuri's telepathy message, he was shocked. He thought, 'Xuri truly is ruthless. To stay till the end, she wants to sacrifice her student. If I work with her, she may play tricks on me.'

James did not want to ally with such a vicious living being. Besides, James did not plan on working with anyone.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4879-With James' current ability, he could defeat everyone present.

Even if he could not, he had Wynton.

If he allied with Wynton, who on the platform could defeat them?

Xuri noticed that James was looking at her, so she thought he was waiting for her to kill Yvan before making a decision.

She glanced at Yvan.

“Teacher.”

Yvan asked, “What do you mean?”

“I’m sorry.”

After saying that, Xuri raised her palm. With her slender fingers, she hit Yvan’s head.

When she attacked, several mysterious inscriptions emerged from her palm.

Yvan did not dodge Xuri’s attack.

He only watched her.

He also did not resist.

On his head, a crack appeared. The crack spread to his whole body from his head. Instantly, his body was covered in blood.

Cracks appeared on his face. Blood seethed out endlessly. It looked eerie.

“Teacher, you saved my life. Without you, I would have died long ago. Now that you have taken back my life, I no longer owe you. I know that you want to kill me and ally with James. I hope you can stay until the end and obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.”

His body was cracking. His being and soul were dying.

Even though it was difficult for a person in his cultivation rank to die, Xuri used her full strength to attack him, and he did not resist. Thus, Xuri’s power corroded his body and destroyed his soul.

His voice grew weaker. In the end, under the gazes of many living beings, he gradually disappeared. His life and soul were gone.

A powerhouse died in the Boundless Arena.

Yvan became the second living being to die on the platform.

After killing Yvan, Xuri looked at James. With a smile, she said telepathically, "James, I have dealt with this enemy for you. I have expressed my sincerity to you. Are you willing to ally with me?"

"No."

James did not communicate with Xuri telepathically. Instead, he spoke to her directly.

Then, he descended from the sky and landed on the ground.

Once again, he sat with his legs crossed.

Xuri's expression was ghastly.

She thought James would work with her.

Aside from her ability, she was beautiful.

Nonetheless, James rejected her.

It made her unhappy.

"You raised him." In the distance, Yhala could not help but reprimand, "How can you be so ruthless?"

"This is none of your business," said Xuri. Then, she also sat on the ground with her legs crossed.

All James' rejection did was make her unhappy.

Besides, killing Yvan helped prevent a conflict with James.

"That woman is so heartless," said James to Wynton after sitting down.

James did not say anything else.

After he made a move, the other powerhouses did not siege him. Following the deaths of Zeloneth and Yvan, the Boundless Arena became quiet again.

No battle broke out.

In the blink of an eye, three hundred years passed.

No living being made a move in these three hundred years.

The guardian hiding in the dark could no longer bear watching the arena battle. If it continued being this quiet, the battle would go on for a long time.

At this moment, in the sky above the arena, a ball of white light appeared. Then, a loud voice rang.

“Everyone, this is the swordsmanship inheritance of Emperor Raiah’s subordinate, Wynne. Whoever becomes a peerless swordmaster and the number one swordmaster will obtain it.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4880-It had been hundreds of years since the arena battle began.

Aside from James, no other living being made a move.

The guardian, who had been hiding in the dark, could no longer watch the battle stay peaceful. Immediately, he took out a manual.

The manual recorded the inheritance of Wynne.

Wynne was a powerhouse in the era of Emperor Raiah. He was the leader of the Sword Path.

He had many titles, including the Sword Demon and Sword Emperor.

“The inheritance of Wynne?”

Several powerhouses of the hidden sects could no longer hold back.

The same went for other living beings.

No one knew about Emperor Raiah, but they knew about Wynne. They also knew about Sword Mound.

It was said that Wynne left his inheritance and fortunes in Sword Mound. Sword Mound appeared many times in the past, and many powerhouses entered Sword Mound to find fortunes.

Nevertheless, Sword Mound was sealed. Living beings could not enter.

Following the appearance of Wynne's fortune, several living beings could no longer hold back. They stared at the white light in the sky. It was a jade piece that was exuding the white light.

Although the fortunes had appeared, no one dared to act recklessly.

Treasures were great, but whoever made a move would be sieged.

Wynton glanced at James and asked, "What do you think?"

James nodded slightly and said, "I have some ideas. I've been to Sword Mound before. It was a place of belonging for swordmasters. It is said that Wynne's inheritance is in Sword Mound. However, Sword Mound has appeared many times, but no living being has obtained the inheritance."

Zeno said that even if one mastered the Universal Sword Art, one could only reach ten percent of Wynne's swordsmanship.

That was enough to prove how terrifying Wynne's swordsmanship was.

Wynton said, "I also have some ideas. Why don't we work together and get all the fortunes in the Boundless Arena? We'll eliminate all living beings. Then, we'll fight for the champion. What do you think?"

"Sure."

James smiled.

Without saying anything else, Wynton stood up.

When he got up, he attracted the attention of countless living beings. Many living beings also stood up. Warily, they stared at the sky. Whoever wanted to snatch the jade piece would be sieged.

"Haha."

James' laugh sounded throughout the arena.

"Since no living being wants Wynne's fortune, it shall belong to me."

Then, James immediately entered the state of the Ninth Rank of the Omniscience Path. He exuded a white light, which formed a halo.

In the white light was a trace of red.

After activating the Omniscience Path, James also activated the Thousand Paths Holy Body. The power of the Greater Paths surged in his body.

He knew that he would be surrounded if he made a move. Thus, he did not hold back.

With a powerful aura, he appeared in the sky before the jade piece.

At this moment, countless Zens locked the jade piece.

When James got close to it, he could sense countless powerful auras targeting him. In a flash, the void around him exploded.

Countless auras suppressed him and caused the fluctuations of the space.

Swoosh!

Wynton's body flashed and appeared in the sky.

When he appeared, he felt the pressure.

Nonetheless, he used his ability to resist the pressure.

"You're too arrogant. The fortune of an ancestor isn't something you can get your hands on."
