The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4901-“Woah, this is interesting.” ‘There are so many powerhouses gathered here. This is the first time since Emperor Raiah’s era that this many cultivators at the Chaos Rank are engaged in battle .”

“I wonder who’s going to win.”

Countless powerhouses were paying attention to the battle, secretly observing the situation.

The battle started instantly.

The Ancestral Blood Master was injured. Fortunately, he had cultivated the Blood Mantra. He urged his bloodline power, and his Life Power grew stronger. His Blood Energy began to churn, and his aura skyrocketed.

He quickly cast a Blood Formation, and fresh blood that contained complicated inscriptions seeped from his skin.

The Blood Inscriptions instantly fused to form a Blood Formation.

Toma was instantly trapped within the Blood Formation and could not immediately break free. The Ancestral Blood Master took the opportunity to attack and injure Toma.

Meanwhile, Lucius took the initiative to attack Yardos and Livie.

Faced with powerhouses at the Chaos Rank, Lucius did not dare to be careless. He used the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf, which he had learned from the sacred scroll.

The surroundings trembled as soon as he cast the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf.

Purple light rays bloomed from his body, formed a Sword Energy, and shot toward Yardos.

Yardos sensed the terrifying Sword Energy and immediately raised his guard. He avoided the Sword Energy and quickly cast the Blithe Omniscience, disappearing from sight. The next moment, Yardos appeared behind Toma. Then, he summoned a sword and thrust it toward Toma.

Lucius had never fought against Yardos before. However, he heard a lot about Yardos' Blithe Omniscience. Yet, he was still careless.

Suddenly, Lucius felt a sword piercing through his back.

"Fuck off!" His face darkened, and a powerful force burst out from his body. Yardos' sword snapped, and he was sent flying into the distance. After coming to a stop, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Livie quickly charged at Lucius. She stretched out her slender fingers, and countless spectral palms gathered into a formation, trapping Lucius.

Lucius was instantly struck a few times.

Meanwhile, Yardos had entered the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank. It had been a while since he reached the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank, but he never had the chance to use it. Even in his previous duel with Livie, he had only used the Omniscience Path's Tenth Rank.

His aura increased significantly after he entered the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank. Yardos' Blood Energy began to churn, and his body emitted a colorful halo of white, gold, and red.

Yardos instantly appeared in front of Lucius, who had been trapped, and he launched an attack with full strength.

The formation was instantly shattered, and the force struck Lucius. He stumbled backward, and blood kept spewing out from his body.

Lucius was incredibly powerful and took on two opponents. However, he was constantly sustaining injuries.

Fierce battles had also broken out in other areas.

The Ancestral Blood Master was eager to save his daughter, so he had no reservations. He even burned his Blood Essence to obtain greater strength. Even though he had just entered the Chaos Rank, he was overpowering Toma.

Wael had also engaged in a fierce battle with Sedris.

Xylus and Zula were also fighting against each other.

Many of the powerhouses at the Chaos Rank had engaged in battle, and their potent force spread from the battlefield, permeating the surroundings.

At that moment, the other Mount Stoyan's powerhouses at the Quasi Chaos Rank and the Caelum Boundless Rank besieged Wynton's group.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4902-The battles had just begun, but the powerhouses at the Chaos Rank were already exerting their full force. The fights were intense, and the outcome was unpredictable.

Wynton, Saachi, Wynona, Wyndael, Saewald, and the others stood in the distance. They could not provide any help since countless powerhouses at the Chaos Rank were involved in the battles. If they were to insist on participating, the stronger powerhouses could easily injure or even kill them.

At that moment, hundreds of powerhouses appeared and suddenly surrounded them.

Wynton said solemnly, "Get ready to fight. Don't hold back, or else we won't make it out alive."

Immediately afterward, he unleashed a powerful aura.

Wynona, Saewald, Wyndael, and the others quickly mobilized their full strength.

"Attack!!!"

The hundreds of powerhouses charged at the group, forcing them into battle.

In the battlefield in the distance, Lucius was still taking on two opponents. He was furious after consecutively sustaining a few injuries. His aura instantly surged higher.

Then, he appeared in front of Livie and kicked her. Livie was sent flying, and she was injured.

Lucius was incredibly powerful and dealt significant damage to Livie with just one attack.

After Livie temporarily lost combat effectiveness, Yardos launched an attack. He used the Blithe Omniscience and quietly appeared behind Lucius.

However, Lucius reacted in time, unleashing a bright purple force from his palm.

His Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf caused the surroundings to tremble.

Boom!

Their palm clashed, and a massive explosion took place.

Both Yardos and Lucius were blasted away by the force.

Lucius felt his arm numb, and he shook his hand several times. At that moment, his face darkened. He was at the Chaos Transcendence Rank, but he was injured by Yardos, who was only at the Chaos Illimita Rank.

Yardos' strength had exceeded his expectations. The two only had a small difference in rank. However, Yardos' strength was not inferior to his. He was shocked but more curious about how Yardos had been cultivating and how he became so powerful.

"Free and unrestricted," Yardos said calmly.

Yardos suddenly disappeared. Before Lucius could react, Yardos had reemerged.

Lucius was prepared to defend himself, but Yardos vanished again.

He wanted to trace Yardos' aura. However, Yardos was constantly on the move, and he could not pinpoint his precise location.

Yardos reappeared beside Lucius, and his terrifying fist struck Lucius.

Lucius had an exceptional body, but he was unable to resist and was sent flying into the distance. Before he could gain his balance, Yardos appeared and struck again. Lucius was hit consecutively.

Yardos activated the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank and his Blithe Omniscience, giving Lucius no chance to fight back.

Lucius was strong enough to stand against Yardos but had no opportunity to urge his strength. He was getting frustrated by the situation.

Meanwhile, Livie noticed the Ancestral Blood Master was at a disadvantage and quickly went to support him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4903-Even though the Ancestral Blood Master had burned a portion of his Blood Essence to improve his strength, Toma was still overpowering him.

At some point in the battle, the Ancestral Blood Master had the upper hand, but he was disadvantaged after Toma cast a Supernatural Power.

The Ancestral Blood Master was getting beaten up, sustaining consecutive injuries.

Meanwhile, Wael had also displayed his signature skill, Boundless Space.

Sedris suffered under the Boundless Space's crushing force. His speed and powers were significantly restricted.

Wael gave him no chance at all and was very careful. His Boundless Space could be shattered if he were to let his guard down. After all, Sedris was a powerhouse at the Chaos Rank for countless years. If Sedris were to break his Boundless Space, he would be left with no other more potent means to fight. Wael attacked relentlessly, casting all of his Supernatural Powers.

Sedris was incredibly powerful, but he struggled to counter the Boundless Space. He could not defend himself and was consecutively struck by Wael's powerful force. He looked battered and bruised all over. His body was soaked in blood, and his hair was scattered messily.

Sedris roared furiously, "Damn it!"

A powerful aura burst out from his body. Then, he waved his hand and summoned a strange chessboard with countless chess pieces.

The chess pieces suddenly transformed into sharp blades and spread into the surroundings.

Wael's Boundless Space was shattered, and he suffered a backlash. He spat out a mouthful of blood, and he stumbled backward.

Suddenly, countless chess pieces surrounded him. The chess pieces began to transform and became a bizarre formation.

Sedris shouted, "Capture him!"

The formation immediately grew stronger. Wael could not resist its potent force and was slowly being pushed downward.

Livie sensed that Wael was in danger and quickly attacked Sedris.

Sedris quickly swung his arm, and a powerful force swept toward Livie, forcing her to retreat.

While Livie backed away, Wael fell into the Tenfold Purge Formation below him and was trapped. Even though he was at the Chaos Rank, he could not break free from the Tenfold Purge Formation.

Wael was defeated.

Sedris looked toward the battlefield. Then, he set his eyes on Zula. He cast the Chess Formation again and trapped Zula.

Zula was also dragged into the Tenfold Purge Formation and sealed away.

Two powerhouses at the Chaos Rank were trapped in a short moment.

Sedris and Xylus had their hands freed and quickly joined the battle against the Ancestral Blood Master.

The Ancestral Blood Master was already at a disadvantage against Toma. Now that another two powerhouses had joined forces against him, he could not block their attacks and was constantly injured.

Sedris finally found an opportunity to seal the Ancestral Blood Master with his Chess Formation and place him within the Tenfold Purge Formation as well.

With the defeat of the Ancestral Blood Master, the only two still fighting were Livie and Yardos.

Sedris, Xylus, and Toma did not bother with the group of powerhouses that were not at the Chaos Rank. After they resolved Livie and Yardos, the group would be very easy to deal with.

The three quickly united against Livie.

Although Livie had the combat power equivalent to the Chaos Rank, she could not handle three opponents. After all, she was no longer the Extraterrestrial Demons' Third Commander. Soon, she was captured and thrown into the Tenfold Purge Formation.

After taking care of Livie, they targeted Wynton's group.

Even though Wynton and the others were relatively strong, they stood no chance against several powerhouses at the Chaos Rank. They were quickly suppressed and trapped inside the Tenfold Purge Formation.

Yardos was the only one that remained.

Sedris, Xylus, and Toma quickly approached Lucius, wanting to work together to take down Yardos.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4904-Except for Yardos, everyone who came on the rescue mission was defeated and sealed inside the Tenfold Purge Formation.

Yardos sensed that his comrades had been trapped and wanted to save them. However, Lucius did not give him a chance to leave. Even though Yardos had mastered the Blithe Omniscience, Lucius had his eyes locked onto Yardos.

With his comrades being defeated one after another, Yardos did not have enough time to devise a countermeasure.

The powerhouses surrounded Yardos instantly.

Yardos' body bloomed with a multicolored halo, and his aura was exceptionally potent. His expression became solemn, knowing he was up against four powerhouses at the Chaos Rank, and amongst them, one had already reached the Chaos Transcendence Rank.

Toma approached and said, "Surrender, Yardos. As long as you obediently yield to us, we'll spare you after James gives us the secrets of Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls."

“Haha!!!” Despite being besieged by formidable opponents, Yardos let out a loud laugh. “I’d rather die than surrender!”

Lucius looked at his allies and said, “Why waste time talking with him? Just capture him already.”

Sedris, Toma, and Xylus nodded simultaneously.

Lucius took the lead and charged speedily toward Yardos, exceeding the limitations of time and space.

He appeared in front of Yardos and quickly raised his hand. Purple inscriptions emerged from his palm and darted at Yardos.

Yardos raised his hand to block the attack.

Boom!

Two terrifying forces clashed. Both Yardos and Lucius were knocked away.

At that moment, the other three powerhouses launched attacks at Yardos from different directions.

Yardos activated the Blithe Omniscience and dodged their attacks. At the same time, he seized whatever chances he had to get close to them and deal fatal attacks.

Although Yardos had four opponents, he was not disadvantaged and managed to injure his opponents.

Lucius, Sedris, Toma, and Xylus gave each other meaningful glances, immediately agreeing to use their trump card.

They knew Yardos was too powerful. Even if they were to defeat him, they would suffer severe consequences. Their only option was to activate the Tenfold Purge Formation.

The four quickly retreated, and a powerful force suddenly permeated the area.

Yardos sensed the Heavenly Path of the Endlos’ Ten Districts was suppressing him, and his speed significantly slowed.

He realized he was in a sticky situation and murmured, "If I continue fighting, I might die. Then, we won't be able to achieve our goal. I'll have to escape and wait for James to leave his seclusion. Then, we'll devise a plan together."

Yardos immediately cast the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared. However, a few strange inscriptions had already appeared in the distance and formed a light wall.

He slammed into the wall and felt a mysterious power emerging from it. Even though he was at the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank, he was still injured.

Yardos retreated, but several Sword Energies within the formation charged at him.

He quickly dodged them and rushed to a different area. However, he was still trapped within the formation. As soon as he reappeared, a spectral sword pierced his body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4905-The four powerhouses laughed as they watched from outside the formation.

"Is that all, Yardos? So what if you created the Blithe Omniscience? You still got trapped within our formation."

"The battle is finally over. All of James' comrades have been captured. Why hasn't James shown up yet? What the hell is he doing?"

"I heard he is in seclusion, but I can't trace his aura. I wonder where he is right now."

Sedris, Xylus, Toma, and Lucius gathered together and discussed James.

"Damn it."

Meanwhile, Yardos, who was trapped inside the Tenfold Purge Formation, was in a disheveled state.

The Tenfold Purge Formation was too powerful. Despite being at the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank, Yardos could not break through the formation.

The formation's potent force was constantly injuring him. Soon, Yardos' physical body was covered in wounds, and a few of his bones were broken.

“What should I do?” Yardos was anxious.

He had to leave the formation immediately, or else he would be exhausted to death.

Yardos knew he needed to escape, even if it meant paying a considerable price.

Rumble!!!

The space within the formation began to collapse. Powerful force permeated the area and struck Yardos.

Yardos fused the three halos around his body together. His face became ferocious, and his veins bulged. Afterward, his body gradually grew increasingly muscular. Veins bulged all over his body.

He shouted, “Break!”

His aura grew terrifyingly strong. Suddenly, the halo around his body formed into a light beam and soared into the sky like a giant dragon.

Then, Yardos followed after it.

Formation inscriptions immediately emerged as the light beam approached the borders. The formation blocked Yardos’ light beam.

Yardos combined his Bloodline Power, Divine Soul, physical strength, and other powers to form another light beam.

The light beam repeatedly smashed into the formation.

Yardos also slammed his body into the formation, and a crack formed. He quickly cast the Blithe Omniscience and escaped through the gap.

Meanwhile, Sedris, Xylus, Toma, and Lucius chatted about James while watching Yardos. They laughed mockingly at Yardos’ attempts. However, their expressions became solemn after he successfully escaped.

Lucius shouted, “Damn it!”

“How did he escape?”

“Don’t worry. Even though he escaped, he’s severely injured and won’t be able to recover so quickly.”

“As long as we still have James’ friends captured, Yardos and James will show up sooner or later. We don’t need to rush and can wait patiently.”

Yardos appeared in an unknown region after escaping. After sensing that no enemies came after him, he sighed in relief. He could no longer suppress his injuries.

His body plummeted from the sky and crashed into the ground, turning the mountain range into a pile of rubble.

Yardos climbed out of the mess with difficulty and dispersed his Omniscience Path. At that moment, his whole body was covered in blood. His flesh was sliced open, and a few of his broken bones were exposed.
