The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4916-Others may not have been able to recognize the Tenfold Purge Formation, but Henrik could. He quickly communicated with James telepathically, saying, "Although they managed to set up a Tenfold Purge Formation, it's incomplete. The Tenfold Purge Formation requires the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths. Even though the formation they've deployed isn't complete, it still contains terrifying strength."

James replied, 'Til charge in there even if it's a perfect Tenfold Purge Formation. I can't just wait idly while Thea and the others suffer within the formation."

After the brief telepathic conversation with Henrik, James replied to Lucius, "Alright, I'll enter the formation. However, you must let the hostages go first."

Lucius said coldly, "You're not in a position to negotiate with us, James."

After speaking, Lucius waved his hand, and a powerful formation emerged from the formation below him.

Someone within the formation was obliterated instantly, leaving a pool of blood on the ground.

The person who was killed was one of James' loyal friends, Henry, who had followed since he was still Sol's Dragon King.

"You..."

Veins bulged on James' face. He clenched his fists tightly, causing his joints to pop. At that moment, a terrifying aura burst out from his body.

Lucius threatened him, "If you keep hesitating, another one will die."

"Fine, I'll enter the formation."

James forcibly endured the anger in his heart. Then, he leaped into the formation and approached the pool of blood.

He summoned his Path Powers and resurrected Henry.

The higher the resurrected being's cultivation rank, the greater the consequences James would face. Despite that, he could not care less about the cause and effect of his actions.

Henry reappeared in front of James. He said with a smile, "It's good to see you again, James. I was content just being able to see you one last time before my death."

At that moment, James felt the Tenfold Purge Formation's pressure.

Under its crushing force, James' body was injured, and he quickly entered the Omniscience Path's tenth Ranr.

The Omniscience Path's tenth rank could not compare to the eleventh rank. Even Yardos, who was at the eleventh rank, struggled inside the formation. Therefore, it was impossible for James to withstand the formation's pressure with the Omniscience Path's tenth rank.

James roared furiously, "Let them go! Otherwise, I won't tell you anything even if I die."

The four powerhouses began to secretly communicate amongst themselves.

Toma said, "We can't let the hostages go. If we comply, James won't have anything to worry about anymore, and getting him talking will become hard."

"I agree. I don't think we can release them. We must force him to teach us how to cultivate the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls first."

Sedris said, "I think we should let them go. We can't push James too hard. If he keeps his mouth shut till his death, then our efforts all these years will be in vain."

After a brief discussion, they decided to release the hostages since they were confident in capturing them again.

They had nothing to worry about as long as they could keep James trapped inside the formation.

Lucius urged his strength and released the hostages from the formation.

"Bring them to safety, Henrik." James' voice came from inside the formation.

James endured the terrifying pressure from the formation, and injuries kept forming throughout his body. He had not urged any of his other powers except the strength of the Omniscience Path's Tenth Rank. Fortunately, his healing abilities were able to keep up.

He knew it was not the right time to take action and was waiting for Henrik to bring everyone to safety before he started his killing spree.

"James..." Henrik looked at James, who was struggling in the formation, worriedly.

James shouted from inside the formation, "I'm fine. Hurry, get them out of this area or away from the Chaos Battlefield if possible."

At that moment, Thea, the Ancestral Blood Master, Wyndael, Jacopo, Winnie, Xainte, and everyone taken hostage were released.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4917-"James!"

"Dad!"

Seeing James trapped within the formation, countless voices called out to him.

"Enough. We must leave now." Henrik waved his hand and summoned the rune Zeno left for him, which allowed him to enter the Chaos Battlefield at will. A powerful force emerged from the rune, enveloping James' family and friends. Then, the rune tore a gap in the space and teleported everyone out of the Chaos Battlefield.

Henrik did not leave with them. He glared at Lucius, Sedris, Xylus, and Toma. Then, he looked coldly at Mount Stoyan. Immediately afterward, a murderous intent erupted from his body.

After sensing that Thea and the others had been sent to safety, James, who was being crushed to the ground by the formation's pressure, slowly stood up. His aura suddenly increased as seven kinds of powers flowed through his body. James no longer hid his strength, and his injuries recovered instantly.

He stretched his body and looked at the powerhouses in the sky.

"What the hell?"

Lucius and the others were startled after seeing James calmly resisting the formation's pressure.

"How is this possible?"

"Why is he able to withstand the formation?"

After a brief shock, they simultaneously activated the formation's attack mechanism. Ten kinds of powers appeared inside the formation, transformed into invincible blades, and darted toward James.

James' Blithe Omniscience was almost useless within the formation. However, he had no intention of dodging the attacks.

His aura had reached an exceptional level after fusing the seven powers in his body.

Boom!

He swung his hand, and a spectral fist appeared, instantly shattering the invincible blades.

James roared furiously, "Break!!!"

His aura grew stronger once again. He took a step forward, and tremors spread throughout Mount Stoyan.

"T-That's the Defying Heavens Art!"

"I can't believe he cultivated the Defying Heavens Art already. He only just obtained it from Byron a few epochs ago. How did he already master it?"

The spectators gathered in the distance were shocked after seeing James cast the Defying Heavens Art.

Henrik was about to take action but stopped after seeing James resisting the formation without much effort.

Relieved, he stood in the distance and silently watched as things unfolded. He was also curious to see how strong James had become after staying in the Endlos' Nine Districts for so long.

James performed the Defying Heavens Art, and the energy from the microcosm inside his body was released. The energy continuously enhanced his strength, and his aura kept rising.

He slowly stepped forward and connected with heaven and earth, absorbing the energy around him to reconstruct his Skyward Stairway.

When he took the tenth step, the formation showed signs of shattering.

“Reinforce the formation!”

Lucius, Sedris, Xylus, and Toma panicked. They quickly urged all their strength to maintain the formation, hoping it would be enough to suppress James.

However, James’ aura was still rising. At the same time, his strength had already reached a terrifying level.

Boom!

When James took the thirty-second step, the Tenfold Purge Formation could no longer withstand his aura and immediately collapsed. Shortly after, Mount Stoyan also came crashing down.

“Ready to die?” James’ angry voice resounded throughout the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4918-James took thirty-two steps forward and shattered the Tenfold Purge Formation.

As soon as the formation was broken, the powerful force of James’ Defying Heavens Art destroyed Mount Stoyan.

Even though other formations were set up around Mount Stoyan, they could not withstand the Defying Heavens Art’s power. Many cultivators within Mount Stoyan sensed the formation’s destruction and quickly evacuated. A few that could not escape in time were obliterated, and their souls were wiped out.

James floated in the void, emitting the aura of a peerless warrior.

“It broke?”

“James destroyed Mount Stoyan’s formation.”

“It was a formation that managed to temporarily trap Yardos. He went to great lengths to create a crack to escape.”

“Yardos had the strength to fight four opponents alone.

Wouldn't this mean that James' strength is above Yardos?”

“Lucius and his comrades are in deep trouble.”

Many of the cultivators spectating from a distance were excited after seeing that the Tenfold Purge Formation was destroyed.

Lucius, Sedris, Xylus, and Toma stood side by side with solemn expressions.

Toma looked at his allies and asked, “What now?”

“What else can we do? We have to fight to the end. Even if we stop now, James won't let us go. We only have a chance if we unite. If we are to escape now, James will come after us one by one. Eventually, we'll all end up dead.”

Lucius suggested their best shot was to unite against James. Even though James shattered their Tenfold Purge Formation, he felt they had a chance of killing James if they joined forces.

The other three nodded in agreement.

“Who wants to die first? Or do you four want to die together?”

James' aura was potent. Even in the face of four powerhouses at the Chaos Rank, he showed no fear.

Meanwhile, Wyot and Teresa watched from a distance.

Teresa's clone, Xezal, had already merged with her main body.

Wyot's face became solemn after witnessing James' strength. He clenched his fists, and a sense of helplessness began to bud in his heart. He had always wanted to kill James but never succeeded. James' strength had far surpassed him and was like an insurmountable mountain.

“What do we do now?” Wyot turned to Teresa.

Teresa did not immediately reply to Wyot. However, she remained calm, as if everything was going according to plan.

After a few seconds, she said, "The battle's outcome isn't certain yet. James merely broke an incomplete Tenfold Purging Formation. It wasn't perfect to begin with. Even though the formation was potent, it wasn't even one-tenth of the real Tenfold Purge Formation."

Teresa remained optimistic about Lucius and the other powerhouses.

She continued, saying, "If James really kills Lucius and the others, then you must be careful. From then onward, you're on your own. I have other plans and won't be able to protect you."

Despite having a bit of hope left for Lucius' group, Teresa was already devising a backup plan.

After speaking, Teresa disappeared from the area. She knew that Henrik was keeping an eye on her.

Henrik was already at the Chaos Rank and would be a difficult opponent. Therefore, she evacuated in advance.

Wyot, on the other hand, chose to stay behind to watch the battle.

Meanwhile, James glared coldly at his opponents.

Lucius slowly stepped forward and said, "I never expected you to become so powerful in such a short time. Perhaps we can become friends if you hand over the secret to cultivating the sacred scrolls. If not..." "Pfft!" James sneered.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4919-James activated the Blithe Omniscience and appeared in front of Lucius in a flash. Then, he swung his fist.

Lucius was extra careful as he knew James mastered the Blithe Omniscience. As soon as James reappeared, he urged his Space Path's Power and disappeared. The next moment, he appeared somewhere else.

However, James had already predicted his course of action. He vanished again and appeared beside Lucius. Then, his fist slammed into Lucius' body.

Lucius was at the Chaos Transcendere Rank and had terrifying physical strength. However, James' attack caused countless injuries to his tough physical body.

"Ugh!"

Lucius was knocked into the distance, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Huh?" Many powerhouses were stunned by the scene.

"Lucius is at the Chaos Transcendere Rank. How could he be injured in just one hit?"

"How did James become so strong in just a few epochs?"

Everyone spectating the battle was shocked.

James had used the Omniscience Path's Tenth Rank and Seven Path Techniques. With the fusion of the Seven Path

Technique's powers and the Defying Heavens Art, James' strength had already surpassed Lucius.

Even though he was only at the Quasi Chaos Rank, he was able to injure Lucius, who was at the Chaos Transcendere Rank, with just a punch.

Lucius was livid after being injured. He shouted to his allies in the distance, "What are you guys waiting for? It's now or never!"

After speaking, his aura suddenly skyrocketed. His whole body released a bright purple light, and the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf surrounded him.

Even though the Crepe Myrtle Energy of Hazeaf was powerful, it was an incomplete version of the Hazeaf Power. Therefore, it was incomparable to the real powers of the Ten Path Techniques.

Swoosh!!!

The Chaos Sword appeared in James' hand, and a terrifying Sword Intent permeated the area.

He pointed his sword at the other three opponents in the distance and said, "Stand still. I'll kill whoever moves first."

Sedris, Toma, and Xylus were wary of James' aura and did not act rashly. They hovered in the air, looking at Lucius in the distance.

Lucius cursed out, "Damn it! James isn't going to let you three go even if you don't take action right now. After he kills me, the three of you are next. We must join forces to stand a chance against him."

Lucius was startled after James proved to be stronger than Yardos. He knew he could not be careless and needed to join forces with the other three powerhouses to have even a slim chance of killing James.

At that moment, Xylus sprung into action.

Suddenly, a mysterious sound emerged from the Chaos Sword and gathered to form a bright Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy's bizarre sound echoed throughout the area.

As soon as Xylus moved, the Sword Energy shot in his direction. He quickly used all his strength to cast a protective barrier.

Boom!!!

The barrier was shattered instantly, and the Sword Energy pierced his body. A bloody wound formed, and blood kept spewing out of his body.

James was overpowering them. With just the First Tone of the Chaos' Nine Voices, he injured a powerhouse at the Chaos Illimita Rank's late stage.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4920-James' Sword Energy injured the Kapron District's Leader, Xylus.

Xylus' expression changed. He was not expecting James to be so strong. Despite that, he did not back down. Instead, he was excited after learning how strong James was after cultivating the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls.

He thought to himself, 'James is only at the Quasi Chaos Rank but is already so strong. If I were to cultivate the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls, I'd be even stronger, right?'

Xylus was even more determined to obtain the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls. Although he was injured, he did not even flinch. He increased his aura and waved his hand. Countless inscriptions emerged from his palm and gathered into a strange-looking beast.

The ferocious beast parted its bloody mouth and tried to inhale James.

James felt the suction force trying to pull him in and snorted.

“Hmph. Heaven Piercing Sword Art.”

The Chaos’ Nine Voices powers emerged and formed into a terrifying Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy charged at the beast and shattered it back into inscriptions.

Xylus suffered a backlash, and he stumbled backward.

At that moment, Toma secretly appeared behind James.

Previously, Yardos had given Toma the Blithe Omniscience in exchange for the Welkin District’s sacred scroll.

Therefore, Toma had also cultivated the Blithe Omniscience.

He quietly appeared behind James and summoned a spear. A dazzling light burst from the spear and thrust toward James’ back.

Toma acted swiftly, giving James no time to react.

Even though James had activated the Omniscience Path’s tenth rank and had an exceptional physical body, the spear still managed to penetrate his flesh.

Boom!!!

James unleashed his Path Powers. His powers permeated throughout the area and blasted Toma away.

However, Lucius and Xylus followed up with more attacks.

James took the step forward, completing the Defying Heavens Art.

After he took the final step, the microcosms within his body were completely unlocked. The power contained within them was unleashed, and the thirty-three Skyward Stairway had formed. The power of heaven and earth was now at his disposal.

James' aura shot up after taking the final step of the Defying Heavens Art.

Lucius, Toma, and Xylus could not withstand the Defying Heavens Art's power.

Their bodies were being crushed by the force and plummeted from the sky. Shortly after, they crashed into the ground.

Rumble!!!

The ground shook, and the surrounding area was instantly turned into rubble.

Sedris watched them fight from a distance and refrained from participating in battle.

Lucius, Toma, and Xylus were defeated instantly.

James' aura was intimidating, and he had the demeanor of an invincible powerhouse.

The spectators watching the battle from a distance were startled. Many were from hidden sects and were aware of the Saber Sect's Defying Heavens Art. Since ancient times, it was a Supernatural Power that very few could master. Therefore, they found it hard to believe James had cultivated it to the highest level in such a short period.

After defeating three opponents, James began to deal with a few of their sect's powerhouses. Most had escaped the destroyed Mount Stoyan and hid throughout the Chaos Battlefield. A few had already left the Chaos Battlefield out of fear.

However, James found them effortlessly.

He cast the Blithe Omniscience and began roaming the Chaos Battlefield.

James was like a grim reaper. Wherever he appeared, there would be death.

Powerhouses of the Ten Districts were observing his every move.

"Tsk, tsk."

“He’s too powerful.”

“With such strength, I doubt anyone can take him on.”

The cultivators watching the battle were astonished by James’ strength.
