The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4921-James wiped out the powerhouses of the four district leader's sects very quickly. Then, he returned to the collapsed Mount Stoyan.

At that moment, Lucius, Toma, and Xylus had already climbed out of the rubble. The three of them looked miserable, covered in injuries and blood.

"As expected from you, James." Henrik smiled while watching from a distance.

He learned that James was in trouble and rushed to support him. However, James was already so strong. Even at the Quasi Chaos Rank, he was able to take on four powerhouses at the Chaos Rank.

Despite being against four opponents, James avoided being at a disadvantage. Instead, he had the upper hand against them.

James hovered in the void with a cold expression. "Sword World."

Countless Sword Energies containing mysterious inscriptions emerged and formed a Sword World, instantly trapping his three opponents.

Sword Energies pierced through the space within the Sword World.

Lucius, Toma, and Xylus desperately defended themselves.

Purple lights emerged from Lucius' body and gathered to form a bright long sword. The sword resisted the suppressive force and charged to the top of the Sword World's borders.

A few cracks formed on the Sword World's borders.

Toma and Xylus also seized the opportunity to cast their Supernatural Skill to attack the Sword World's borders."

Boom!!!

The Sword World shattered instantly.

When the Sword World collapsed, a Sacred Blossom appeared in the sky. The Sacred Blossom was in full bloom and was incredibly mesmerizing. However, destructive power was hiding behind its beautiful appearance.

The Sacred Blossom charged in their direction. Sensing the Sacred Blossom's power, the three tried to evade it.

As powerhouses at the Chaos Rank, it was easy for them to escape the battlefield.

Boom!!!

The Sacred Blossom exploded, and a terrifying shock wave permeated, destroying the surrounding void.

Lucius, Toma, and Xylus were in terrible states.

Even though they avoided a direct hit, they were injured by the shock waves.

"It's not going to be easy to take him down." Lucius' face darkened.

After the extended battle, he no longer had any confidence. Even after they joined forces, they could not kill James. At that moment, he thought of escaping.

Lucius knew he would have to leave the Chaos Battlefield. Otherwise, it would be useless if he fled somewhere else in the Chaos Battlefield. However, that would mean missing out on the ultimate boon, the Herstellen Art.

While Lucius was hesitating, a Sonic Sword Energy charged at him.

Even though he reacted in time and evaded the Sword Energy, he was still injured by the Chaos' Nine Voices' power. A portion of his chest's muscle was obliterated.

"Survival is more important."

At that moment, Lucius made up his mind to escape.

Now that the Chaos Battlefield's entrance had been closed, it was difficult for cultivators to enter. However, it was relatively simple to leave.

As a powerhouse at the Chaos Transcendere Rank, it was easy for him to tear a gap in the void to leave the battlefield.

A crack appeared in the void ahead of him.

James immediately sensed that Lucius was attempting to escape the Chaos Battlefield.

Suddenly, a mysterious formation with a spectral figure standing above it appeared.

The figure stepped forward, and the formation below its feet followed. Soon, the formation arrived above Lucius and quickly enveloped him.

Lucius had already stepped through the crack in the void and was about to leave. However, he was forcibly pulled backward by the formation's power and was trapped.

The figure on the formation suddenly opened eyes, and countless strange scenes flashed through its pupils.

Lucius feared his life was about to end and cried out for mercy, "Wait, James! Please spare me!"

As soon as he finished his sentence, two swords darted out of the spectral figure's pupils and merged into one.

The sword pierced through the void and penetrated Lucius' body.

A terrifying power spread through Lucius' body and withered his vitality. His cultivation achievement throughout his life was obliterated, and his soul was extinguished.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4922-"Argh!!!" His anguished cry resounded throughout the area.

Lucius, who was once the strongest man of the Endlos' Nine Districts, was wiped out of existence.

Powerhouses of the Endlos' Ten Districts and from hidden sects were appalled by James' strength. Lucius had reached the Chaos Transcendere Rank and had monstrous strength, yet he was killed by James.

Toma and Xylus were horrified, and their bodies trembled in fear.

Sedris immediately appeared behind Toma and Xylus. Then, he deployed a mysterious chessboard. The chess pieces turned into inscriptions, trapping Toma and Xylis.

“I’ve already helped you trap them, James. Now it’s up to you what to do with them.”

Boom!!!

Sedris’ Chessboard of Heaven and Earth was shattered.

Toma and Xylus knew pleading for mercy was useless, and their only option was fighting.

There may still be a chance for them if they were to give it their all. Even if they were to die, they wanted to retain their Divine Soul to secure an opportunity for reincarnation in the future.

As long as they could be reincarnated with their memories, they could improve rapidly with their strengths.

At that moment, Toma and Xylus burned their Blood Essence and souls, gaining strength beyond their cultivation rank.

They were only at the late stage of the Chaos Illimita Rank, but their auras had reached the Chaos Omnia Rank.

Their current strength was above Lucius.

Xylus said coldly, “You’re too much, James. Even if I die today, I’ll make sure you suffer as well.”

Toma glared at Sedris and activated the Blithe Omniscience. He appeared before Sedris and struck him. Sedris had no time to react and was sent flying into the distance.

Sedris was no match against Toma, who had already ignited his Blood Essence and soul and was instantly injured.

Toma did not go after Sedris anymore and set his eyes back on James.

James sneered, "I'm too much? You're being ridiculous. You took my family and friends hostage, forcing me to show up and hand over secrets you want to know. But now you're accusing me of doing too much? Even if you burn your Blood Essence and soul to gain temporary strength, I'll ensure you guys die today."

"Haha!" Xylus laughed.

Immediately afterward, Xylus charged toward James.

His body was ignited, and his Divine Soul's fire emerged. His appearance was horrifying, and his aura was overpowering.

Xylus appeared in front of James and raised his hand to attack.

He waved his palm, and a terrifying force spread, destroying the surroundings.

James confronted him with his fist.

Boom!!!

Their hands clashed, and a terrifying force swept the area. Even though James' current state was powerful, he was blasted away, and his Blood Energy churned. Unable to suppress it, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Henrik took a few steps forward, contemplating whether to intervene. However, he suppressed the urge. He wanted to find out what else James had up his sleeves.

Moreover, he felt reassured since James had cast a mysterious formation capable of suppressing Lucius, who was at the Chaos Transcendence Rank. He was confident James would not be defeated so soon, even at a disadvantage.

As soon as James was injured, Toma appeared behind him and launched a fatal attack.

However, a formation and spectral figure appeared, blocking his attack.

Toma was instantly knocked away and trapped inside the formation.

James' comprehension of inscriptions had improved during his time in seclusion. Therefore, his formations were even more powerful. Even though

Toma had burned his Blood Essence and Divine Soul to gain strength, he could not escape James' formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4923-James took the opportunity to attack Xylus.

Xylus' strength was currently at the Chaos Omnia Rank. James knew that even with the Defying Heavens Art and the Seven Path Techniques, he was weaker than Xylus.

Swoosh!!!

The 108 Infinity Steles appeared in the sky.

James split them apart and reformed into the Boundless Pagoda.

The Boundless Pagoda instantly evolved into its seventh form.

Xylus instantly sensed the impending danger.

Before he could react, he was already trapped within the Boundless Pagoda.

He tried to break free but was unable to counter the power of the Boundless Pagoda's seventh form. His efforts to escape were futile.

Suddenly, seven different powers emerged inside the Boundless Pagoda.

The powers attacked Xylus, forcing him into defense.

However, his defensive means were completely useless against the Boundless Pagoda's powers. In just a short moment, he was covered in injuries.

"No!!!" Xylus was terrified after he sensed that his vitality was slowly seeping away and his soul was about to be destroyed.

"I'm sorry, James! I shouldn't have made an enemy out of you. I was wrong to be greedy..."

Before Xylus could finish his words, he was obliterated.

Countless cultivators in the Chaos Battlefield had been following the battle's progress. After Xylus was wiped out, everyone fell silent.

James turned to Toma, who was desperately struggling within the formation.

The formation was too profound and powerful, leaving Toma utterly helpless against it.

With a thought, James transformed the formation into a Purging Formation. Immediately afterward, the powers of heaven and earth gathered within the formation and merged into a dazzling long sword.

The long sword slashed at Toma. Toma's body was sliced apart, and his flesh rotted away.

In just the blink of an eye, he vanished into thin air.

The battle was over very quickly.

James had cast all his trump cards and easily eliminated three opponents.

Sedris was the only one that remained.

James turned to Sedri in the distance.

Sedris met his gaze and broke out in cold sweats as he subconsciously stepped away.

"James..."

Waleria suddenly appeared before James and said pleadingly, "Please spare him. Even though he made a mistake, I already told him about Teresa's plan. He promised me to assist you in rescuing your family and friends."

Sedris quickly agreed, saying, "It's the truth, James. I was going to cooperate with you against them. However, you didn't need my help, so I didn't have a chance to step in."

Despite Waleria's pleas, James' expression remained hostile.

"Anyone that touches my family must be punished."

Waleria knew that James was unconvinced, so she quickly waved her hand, and the scene of her discussion with Sedris played before James.

"Please spare him, James. Give him a chance."

James' hostility dissipated significantly. "Even though he promised to cooperate with me to rescue my family and friends, I still want to kill him. However, I'll let him go because of you."

Waleria sighed in relief. 2
