The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4924-Sedris was relieved. He felt fortunate that Waleria had come to tell him about Teresa's scheme and that he decided to help James. Otherwise, he would die today.

James dispersed the formation he used to kill two powerhouses at the Chaos Rank. After Lucius' death, his storage treasure was left behind in the formation.

There were countless treasures contained within his storage treasure.

However, James was not interested in them. He only wanted the Hazeaf District's sacred scroll.

Soon, James found the Hazeaf District's sacred scroll within the storage treasure.

Finally, he had obtained eight of the sacred scrolls. Out of the ten sacred scrolls, he was short of two.

James put away the sacred scroll and turned to Wyot in the distance.

Swoosh!

His body flashed in front of Wyot. Then, he summoned the Chaos Sword, pressed it against Wyot's neck, and asked, "Where's Teresa?"

Wyot's expression remained unchanged even with the Chaos Sword at his neck. He looked at James and replied calmly, "I don't know. She left after you appeared in Mount Stoyan."

James released his Zen throughout the Chaos Arena and found no trace of Teresa.

"Kill me if you want to."

James was unbothered by Wyot's words. In the past, James regarded Wyot as his enemy. However, Wyot no longer posed any threat against him.

He looked at Wyot and said, "I know there is some beef and a karma connection between us. When I infiltrated the Dooms, I took your beloved wife, Yemima, and impregnated her. I'll spare your life today and end the feud between us. Don't get involved with Teresa's plans anymore. Otherwise, I won't let you go next time."

After James finished speaking, he withdrew the Chaos Sword. He spared Wyot because of Yemima and his karma connections with the Dooms.

However, Wyot had no gratitude toward James. He glared at James and said, "If you don't kill me today, I'll take your life someday."

"Haha." James chuckled and said, "If it's an honest battle you want, I welcome your challenges anytime. However, if you use any dirty tricks..." His face darkened, and he threatened, "I'll make sure the entire Doom Race goes down with you. Now, get lost..."

Wyot knew he was no match against James right now. Even though he was furious, he suppressed it. He cast a glance at James and left in despair.

Suddenly, bright inscriptions fell from the sky and stopped before James. James reached out and used his Zen to examine them. He immediately learned they were clues about the boons inside the Chaos Battlefield.

There were countless boons scattered throughout the Chaos Battlefield. The greatest of them was the Herstellen Art.

The Herstellen Art was from beyond the Endlos and was the Supernatural Power of the Extraterrestrial Demon's Great Commander. How Emperor Raiah obtained it and left it within the Chaos Battlefield was a mystery.

James briefly examined the inscriptions, then satisfiedly stored them away.

The Herstellen Art was second on his priority list. His main goal was still to obtain the remaining sacred scrolls.

James reunited with Henrik.

Henrik immediately gave him a thumbs up and praised him, saying, "You're amazing, James! Even though you're at the Quasi Chaos Rank, you killed three opponents at the Chaos Rank. Moreover, one of them was at the Chaos Transcendence Rank. The other two had to burn their Blood Essence and soul, yet they still succumbed to your strength." 2

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4925-Henrik was amazed by James' strength.

At that moment, Waleria and Sedris also approached them.

James glanced at Sedris and asked, 'You're the Theos District's Leader, right? Have you ever exchanged sacred scrolls with the other district leaders?'

Sedris nodded and said, "I did."

He had read the other nine sacred scrolls except the one belonging to the Chaos District. However, reading it was one thing, whereas successfully comprehending and cultivating it was another.

James stretched his hand and said, "Pass me the sacred scrolls you've read."

Sedris did not dare to disobey. He quickly transformed his memories into inscriptions and gave them to James.

James used his Zen to analyze them, cross-checking them with the sacred scrolls he had already mastered. After ensuring the contents matched, he put the inscriptions away.

He had finally obtained ten of the sacred scrolls. All that was left was to find the time to comprehend the remaining three sacred scrolls. Then, he would have Ten Path Techniques and would be able to merge them into the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art. At the same time, he could unlock the Boundless Pagoda's tenth form and obtain the Endlos Heart.

Sedris glanced at James. He desperately wanted James to teach him how to cultivate the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls. However, it was already a blessing that he had survived after the past ordeal.

He did not dare to ask for too much, so he quickly suppressed his greedy thoughts.

Waleria looked at James and asked, "What's next for you, James?"

James replied, "The greatest boon within the Chaos Battlefield is the Herstellen Art. It's not inferior to the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art. Naturally, I'd like to compete for it. However, there is one more person I need to take care of -Teresa."

James gritted his teeth at the mention of Teresa. He never expected the dainty, ethereal-looking woman to have secretly schemed so much.

Teresa's goal was to release the Extraterrestrial Demons underneath the Chaos Tablet. Then, she wanted to move the battlefield to the Chaos Battlefield. Therefore, her father could absorb the energy of those who die in battle and come back to life.

"Alright," Waleria answered softly, "I'll leave the Chaos Battlefield and return to the Theos Sect. After you acquire the Herstellen Art, remember to see me. I'll be waiting for you."

Waleria looked at James expectantly, waiting for his reply.

James looked at her and said, "I'll definitely come see you if I have the chance."

Waleria lit up with a smile. She raised her hand and waved goodbye to James. Then, she split apart the void and left the Chaos Battlefield.

Sedris cast a last glance at James and left without saying a word. He did not leave the Chaos Battlefield, as countless boons were scattered around. He was a powerhouse at the Chaos Rank. Therefore, the possibility of him acquiring the boons was much higher than the others.

James and Henrik found a place in the Chaos Battlefield and sat on a large boulder.

They began to exchange their recent experiences. James recounted everything that happened to him in the Endlos, whereas Henrik shared how he was trapped within Zeno's dojo and that he had learned the Grand Purge Formation.

“Zeno?” James exclaimed after hearing the familiar name.

Henrik replied, ‘Yup, it’s that old guy. He’s so powerful. He created the third strongest Purging Formation during Emperor Raiah’s era. He forcefully carved the Grand Purge Formation into my body.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4926-Teresa, who had left early, had been secretly watching the battle. She was surprised that James had become so powerful and exceeded her expectations.

However, James growing stronger was part of her plan. She had worked very hard to realize every step of it.

Teresa hid her aura, and even James could not detect her. She left the Chaos Arena and appeared in an ancient place in one of the districts.

She arrived outside a mountain gate and looked at the formation ahead of her. She approached and called out, “It’s Xezal. I’m here to see you, sir!”

Her voice resounded throughout the area.

In the deepest part of the spiritual mountain, a middle-aged man sitting in a lotus position heard her voice and opened his eyes.

He had been sitting in the same position for countless years, and a layer of dust covered his body. With a thought, the dust on his body disappeared, and he immediately changed into a new robe.

The man waved his hand, and Xezal was instantly teleported in front of him.

Xezal looked at the ordinary-looking man dressed in a simple gray robe. There was nothing special about him, but his eyes seemed like an endless abyss.

She quickly knelt to the ground and said, “It’s a pleasure to see you, sir.

The middle-aged man waved his hand and said, “I’ve been in seclusion for countless eons. There aren’t many left that know about me. Why do you know me, and how did you find this place?”

Xezal replied, “I’m the daughter of the former Endlos Lord. Before the Ten Districts were established, my father had cultivated here under your guidance for some time. I often heard my father speak of you in the past. He said you were only second to Emperor Raiah.”

The middle-aged man looked at Xezal and said, “You should leave.”

Xezal panicked and said frantically, “I have something important I must discuss with you, sir.”

The man replied calmly, “I’ve already lost interest in outside affairs long ago.”

“Are you really satisfied with your current situation? After losing to Emperor Raiah, you came here and lived in seclusion ever since. Emperor Raiah is already dead. He chased away the Extraterrestrial Demons and established the Ten Districts. You should inherit his supreme cultivation achievement. No one else in the Endlos is more qualified to inherit his supreme cultivation achievement than you, sir.

“Moreover, Emperor Raiah has left behind the Herstellen Art inside the Chaos Battlefield. He obtained the Herstellen Art from the Extraterrestrial Demon’s Great Commander. It’s a Supernatural Power not weaker than the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.”

“Hmph,” the middle-aged man snorted indifferently.

‘The Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra is nothing impressive. I lost to Emperor Raiah because I haven’t perfected my Supernatural Power. I’ve already perfected it during the long eons I’ve been in seclusion. Even if Emperor Raiah were still alive, and we were to fight again, he might not necessarily win again.”

“Of course, you’re right,” Xezal quickly agreed and continued to flatter him, “Emperor Raiah is nothing compared to you, Sir. However, the successor of Emperor Raiah has appeared. He has mastered the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the ten sacred scrolls and has cultivated the Ten Path Techniques. Don’t you want to prove that your Supernatural Power is stronger than the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra?”

Xezal urged him, trying to get him to take action.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4927-“From what I know, a few Extraterrestrial Demons are being suppressed by the Chaos Tablet. After they are released, you can kill them. Then, you'll become the cultivator with the highest prestige after Emperor Raiah and eventually the Endlos Lord.

The middle-aged man replied calmly, "I'm not interested."

"I know you're not interested in becoming the Endlos Lord. But don't you want to prove you're stronger than Emperor Raiah?"

The middle-aged man looked at Xezal and asked calmly, "Little girl, did you come to me just to inform me that Emperor Raiah's successor has appeared so that I can kill him?"

Xezal said embarrassedly, "To be honest, James harbors great hatred toward me. He killed my father and has ambitions to become the next Endlos Lord. Fortunately, I hid the Endlos Heart that Emperor Raiah had left behind. Otherwise, he would've already become the new Endlos Lord. Even if you continue staying in seclusion, he'll come for your life to avoid you becoming a potential threat to him.

"Is that so?" The middle-aged man was not convinced.

He waved his hand and summoned a few inscriptions to form an Extrapolation Formation to verify whether Xezal was telling the truth and find out more about James.

The Extrapolation Formation rotated.

Boom!!!

Suddenly, the formation exploded. The middle-aged man suffered a backlash and almost fell to the ground.

He exclaimed in surprise, "Interesting... I couldn't extrapolate anything about him. I can't believe there is someone in the current era that I can't extrapolate."

Xezal was relieved by the outcome. She was worried the middle-aged man would discover she was lying and kill her.

The middle-aged man's name was Taran Zach. He was a well-known powerhouse during Emperor Raiah's era. He used to compete with Emperor Raiah. Ultimately, he lost and went into seclusion. Even when the Endlos was in chaos and under attack by the Extraterrestrial Demons, he stayed in seclusion.

When he used to compete with Emperor Raiah for dominance of the Endlos, he was at the peak of the Chaos Essencia Rank and was one rank lower than Emperor Raiah, who was at the Chaos Completare Rank. The difference in cultivation rank resulted in his defeat to Emperor Raiah.

“Do you really not want the supreme cultivation achievement that Emperor Raiah had left behind after defeating the Extraterrestrial Demons? Don’t you want to enter the Chaos Completare Rank?” Xezal looked at Taran.

Taran replied calmly, “You’re a pretty scheming one. In order to resurrect your father, you’re trying to get me to unleash the Extraterrestrial Demons suppressed under the Chaos Tablet.

Although Taran could not extrapolate anything related to James, he could see through Xezal’s plan.

Xezal’s body trembled in fear.

Taran said with a smile, “Your little tricks are useless to me. However, I’ll be able to suppress the Extraterrestrial Demons even if they are released. Even the former Extraterrestrial Demon’s Great Commander may not be a match against me right now.

‘You’re quite smart and managed to pique my curiosity. I’ll meet James Caden and see what kind of existence he is.”

Xezal had already broken out in cold sweats. After hearing Taran’s words, she was relieved.

She knelt to the ground and begged, “Please help me save my father, Sir Taran. I can only save my father if the Extraterrestrial Demons are released. The battlefield against them must be moved to the Chaos District.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4928-Although Taran had lost to Emperor Raiah in the past, he was still exceptionally strong.

During Emperor Raiah’s era, there were many powerhouses, including the Sword Demon, Rune Arts Grandmaster, the Emperor of Tribulation, the powerhouses guarding the Boundless Road, and those who died in the battle against the Extraterrestrial Demons.

Even though there were many peerless powerhouses, they were not comparable to Taran. Emperor Raiah was the only cultivator capable of suppressing him back then. However, Emperor Raiah was only slightly above Taran and could not kill him.

Taran was not interested in Emperor Raiah's cultivation achievement and had seen through Teresa's plan of using him to kill James, open the Chaos Tablet, and release the Extraterrestrial Demons.

"You should leave," Taran waved his hand and said, "I don't want to interfere with these affairs. Life and death are up to fate. You shouldn't insist on changing it. You'll become corrupted if you're too persistent in wanting to change fate. Ultimately, you won't be much different from the Extraterrestrial Demons. As for James, I'll meet him."

Taran casually waved his hand, and an invisible force emerged, teleporting Teresa back outside of the mountain gate.

Teresa stood outside the mountain gate with a solemn expression. She thought she would be able to convince Taran to intervene. However, Taran showed no desire for fame and fortune. Even the title of the Endlos Lord was not enough to intrigue him.

She began thinking about her next step.

"I have other ways to force you to take action." Teresa's pretty face darkened.

Immediately afterward, she disappeared from the area and appeared outside the mountain gate of an ancient Orthodox.

Emperor Raiah's era was prosperous, with countless powerhouses and Orthodoxes.

Many powerful forces joined the battle against the Extraterrestrial Demons. However, there were also some cowards that chose to hide. They refused to participate in the fight and stayed within their own territories.

From Teresa's understanding, there were powerful cultivators hidden among these ancient Orthodoxes. Although they were not as strong as Taran, a few combined would be enough to make Taran wary.

Teresa arrived at Mount Genesis, an ancient Orthodox.

Mount Genesis used to be considerably powerful during Emperor Raiah's era. Moreover, they seemed to have information about the Extraterrestrial Demon's origin and that the Endlos' forces combined were not enough to wipe out the Extraterrestrial Demons. Therefore, they symbolically sent a few disciples to participate in battle, whereas their stronger cultivators did not join.

Teresa knew Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch was a powerhouse at the Chaos Essencia Rank. Although he was inferior to Taran, the two were still at the same cultivation rank.

She knew about these secrets because her father was the Endlos Lord. Emperor Raiah had left behind countless ancient books, recording many things about the Endlos.

Emperor Raiah also recorded whatever he knew about the Extraterrestrial Demons. However, those ancient books were in Zaden's possession, and outsiders were not permitted to read them.

Teresa stood outside Mount Genesis's gate and shouted, "My name is Xezal Dalibor. I'm the current Endlos Lord and am here to visit Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4929-Xezal's voice echoed throughout the area. Then, a magical crystal manifested in her hands. At that moment, she was blessed by the Ten District's Heavenly Path and looked incredibly mighty.

A golden light shot over from the distance and formed into a staircase.

Xezal ascended the stairs, slowly approaching the spiritual mountain.

Soon, she arrived atop a spiritual mountain and saw an elderly man sitting on the cliff.

The elderly man had a long beard and was wearing a gray robe. Xezal was unable to sense his aura, and he seemed nonexistent.

Xezal looked at the elderly man curiously. She had never seen Taran and Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch before. In fact, she had only heard about them from her father and read about them in ancient books.

"What's the matter, young lady?" The elderly man opened his eyes and looked at Xezal.

Xezal knelt on the ground and said, "I'm the current Endlos Lord. It's an honor to meet you, sir."

The elderly man waved his hand, and a force lifted Xezal from the ground. He said lightly, "Yours is fake. It can only attract the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Path. It's not capable of controlling the ten Heavenly Paths."

Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch was an unparalleled powerhouse and could tell at a glance that Xezal's Endlos Heart was fake.

"Is that so?" Xezal was startled. "It's fake?"

Xezal thought to herself, 'Father left it for me, so how can it be fake?'

Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch said softly, "Cut to the chase and tell me what it is you want. If there's nothing important, please leave."

The Grand Patriarch would not have met with Xezal if she had not appeared with the Endlos Heart.

Xezal quickly recollected herself. Regardless of the Endlos Heart's authenticity, her goal was to persuade Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch to come out of seclusion.

"Sir, are you aware the Chaos Battlefield that Emperor Raiah left behind has emerged?"

"So what?" Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch replied nonchalantly, seeming uninterested in the Chaos Battlefield.

“Don’t you know that Emperor Raiah left the Herstellen Art within the Chaos Battlefield? It’s the Supernatural Power of the Extraterrestrial Demon’s Great Commander. Moreover, he also left behind the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and ten sacred scrolls.”

Mount Genesis’ Grand Patriarch said calmly, “And? No matter how strong the the Herstellen Art or the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra are, they were created by someone else. They are the cultivation achievements of others. Even if I obtained and cultivated them, it means nothing. I would be following in their footsteps. At my current cultivation rank, I must walk my own path to reach the final cultivation rank.”

Xezal realized her words were insufficient to entice Mount Genesis’ Grand Patriarch. She quickly added, “Have you ever heard of the myth of the Sovereign Rank?”

A surprised expression appeared on the face of Mount Genesis’ Grand Patriarch.

Xezal elaborated, “According to the information left by Emperor Raiah, there is another leader above the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Great Commander. He is an invincible existence that has transcended the Chaos Rank and reached the Sovereign Rank. Moreover...”

After a slight pause, Xezal continued, saying, “Emperor Raiah left a message saying that a few Extraterrestrial Demons are suppressed under the Chaos Tablet, including the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Second Commander. The Second Commander possesses the secret of entering the Sovereign Rank.

“After Emperor Raiah forced the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Great Commander to retreat, he learned about the method to entering the Sovereign Rank from their Second Commander. Afterward, he rushed out of the Endlos and entered the Extraterrestrial Demon’s territory to enter the Sovereign Rank. Many eons have passed since then.

Perhaps Emperor Raiah has already entered the Sovereign Rank by now.

“Also, Taran, who Emperor Raiah defeated, has already left seclusion. He is trying to learn more about the Sovereign Rank from the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Second Commander. If you're late, Taran might obtain it before you. After Taran kills the second commander, you will never be able to find out how to enter the Sovereign Rank."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4930-Xezal aimed to lure out Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch. Naturally, she knew he was a peerless powerhouse capable of verifying many things with his Zen in a short moment. Therefore, her words were not complete lies.

The Sovereign Rank was indeed a myth that existed. Within the ancient books that Emperor Raiah had left behind, he hinted there was a possibility of a higher authority above the Extraterrestrial Demon's Great Commander and that he might be an existence that had surpassed the Chaos Rank. It was also true the Extraterrestrial Demon's Second Commander was sealed under the Chaos Tablet.

However, Emperor Raiah's whereabouts were unknown. Xezal lied about him leaving the Endlos to enter the Sovereign Rank, as well as the Extraterrestrial Demon's Second Commander possessing the method to enter the Sovereign Rank.

Mount Genesis' Grand Patriarch seemed to be wavering and was enticed after hearing about a method to enter the Sovereign Rank.

"I'll leave it to you to decide, sir. I'll be taking my leave first."

Xezal bid farewell and left the spiritual mountain. Then, she headed to another ancient Orthodox, called Mount Taba.

Mount Taba's Grand Patriarch was also a peerless powerhouse at the Chaos Essencia Rank.

Xezal took out the Endlos Heart again and successfully met with Mount Taba's Grand Patriarch.

"My name is Xezal Dalibor, sir. I've come to warn you about a cultivator named James Caden. He has already obtained the method to enter the Sovereign Rank. Meanwhile, Taran has also left seclusion in an attempt to acquire the method to enter the Sovereign Rank."

Xezal went to several ancient Orthodoxes and met with powerhouses that were well-known during Emperor Raiah's era, bluffing them to get them to leave seclusion.

Meanwhile, Henrik and James were chatting about their experiences.

They two were sentimental about overcoming their obstacles and thankful they had survived.

"Are you going to compete for the Herstellen Art next?" asked Henrik.

James nodded lightly and said, "I'm not desperate to obtain it, but I'd like to know what a Supernatural Power from outside the Endlos is like and whether they used different inscriptions than us.

Some time ago, James had created his own formation. His comprehension of inscription had deepened, and he could easily set up various kinds of formations. At the same time, his formation's powers were much more potent as he could integrate different powers into his formations.

He stood up, stretched, and said, "That's enough rest. Let's walk around and see if we can find any clues about the Herstellen Art.

"Alright." Henrik also stood up.

The two began roaming the Chaos Battlefield.

James had shown terrifying strength in his battle against the four district leaders. Now, wherever he went, everyone would stay away from him.

The Chaos Tablet was located inside a Dark World at the Endlos' border.

Swoosh!!!

A middle-aged man who looked about forty years old and wearing a simple robe appeared. He crossed his hands behind his back and looked at the tablet before him.
