

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4931

Right then, a spatial rift appeared.

The middle-aged man marched forward and was about to enter the Chaos Battlefield through the spatial rift.

Swoosh!

Before he could enter, two elders showed up and blocked his way.

The middle-aged man was Taran Zach, the famous powerhouse of Emperor Raiah's era.

"Fellow cultivator..."

A guardian said, "This arena does not belong to you. You can't go in. You also shouldn't come here."

The two were guardians of the Boundless Tablet and the Chaos Tablet respectively. They used to be the subordinates of Emperor Raiah. They were powerful. However, they were weaker than Taran.

"Are you trying to stop me?" Taran's expression became heavy.

'Taran, Emperor Raiah left behind this arena. The providences and fortunes inside are useless to you. Why do you want to enter the Chaos Battlefield?' The guardian of the Boundless Arena felt helpless.

The guardian of the Chaos Arena said, "That's right. Why?"

"I'm not here for fortunes. I'm here for James," responded Taran.

When the two guardians heard that, their expression became stern.

They were the subordinates of Emperor Raiah. Thus, they knew the grudges between Emperor Raiah and Taran.

Yet, here was Taran after James cultivated the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls. Even a fool would know why Taran showed up.

“Mr. Taran, after so many years, a living being finally comprehended the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls left behind by Emperor Raiah. James is talented. He has a bright future. In the future, he will shoulder the task of protecting Endlos.”

“What does that have to do with me?” Taran asked before taking a step forward.

“Stop.”

The two guardians stood forward at the same time. They exuded powerful auras.

‘The peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank?’ Taran sensed the auras of the two guardians and smiled.

“Mr. Taran, we’ve been tasked to protect the arena. Please leave. If you refuse to leave, don’t blame us for what happens next.”

Facing two powerhouses at the peak of the Chaos Omnia

Rank, Taran was calm.

The guardians were true powerhouses at the peak of Chaos Omnia Rank. Burning one’s Blood Essence as well as Xylus and Toma of the Divine Soul could not compare to them.

“Die.”

Taran raised his hand. A trace of black light emerged from his hand.

Then, the black light transformed into several strange inscriptions. The inscriptions gathered and formed a word- Die.

The word carried supreme pressure.

It exuded destructive power.

The guardians at the peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank could not resist the power. They were sealed in a space. No matter how hard they tried, they could not break free. Under the power of the word, their bodies were gradually annihilated.

Soon, the two guardians at the peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank disappeared before the Chaos Tablet. They died in the hands of Taran.

Taran's expression remained nonchalant after killing the two guardians as if they were nothing to him.

As he walked forward, a crack appeared on the Chaos Tablet. Then, he entered the Chaos Arena.

Following the deaths of the two guardians, the scene projected by the guardians disappeared.

"What's going on?"

'Where did the scene go? I can't see the situation in the Chaos Arena.'

'What's going on?'

Following the disappearance of the scene, the living beings of the ten districts became confused.

For the past several epochs, the situation in the Chaos Arena was displayed in several core universes of the ten districts. Now, the projection was gone. It aroused the living beings' confusion.

In an ancient holy site, a powerhouse mumbled, 'Taran has indeed gotten out of seclusion. Not many things can make him do that. Could it be that there's a clue to the Sovereign Rank in the Boundless Battlefield?'

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4931-Right then, a spatial rift appeared.

The middle-aged man marched forward and was about to enter the Chaos Battlefield through the spatial rift.

Swoosh!

Before he could enter, two elders showed up and blocked his way.

The middle-aged man was Taran Zach, the famous powerhouse of Emperor Raiah's era.

“Fellow cultivator...”

A guardian said, “This arena does not belong to you. You can’t go in. You also shouldn’t come here.”

The two were guardians of the Boundless Tablet and the Chaos Tablet respectively. They used to be the subordinates of Emperor Raiah. They were powerful. However, they were weaker than Taran.

“Are you trying to stop me?” Taran’s expression became heavy.

‘Taran, Emperor Raiah left behind this arena. The providences and fortunes inside are useless to you. Why do you want to enter the Chaos Battlefield?’
The guardian of the Boundless Arena felt helpless.

The guardian of the Chaos Arena said, “That’s right. Why?”

“I’m not here for fortunes. I’m here for James,” responded Taran.

When the two guardians heard that, their expression became stern.

They were the subordinates of Emperor Raiah. Thus, they knew the grudges between Emperor Raiah and Taran.

Yet, here was Taran after James cultivated the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls. Even a fool would know why Taran showed up.

“Mr. Taran, after so many years, a living being finally comprehended the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the sacred scrolls left behind by Emperor Raiah. James is talented. He has a bright future. In the future, he will shoulder the task of protecting Endlos.”

“What does that have to do with me?” Taran asked before taking a step forward.

“Stop.”

The two guardians stood forward at the same time. They exuded powerful auras.

‘The peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank?’ Taran sensed the auras of the two guardians and smiled.

“Mr. Taran, we’ve been tasked to protect the arena. Please leave. If you refuse to leave, don’t blame us for what happens next.”

Facing two powerhouses at the peak of the Chaos Omnia

Rank, Taran was calm.

The guardians were true powerhouses at the peak of Chaos Omnia Rank. Burning one’s Blood Essence as well as Xylus and Toma of the Divine Soul could not compare to them.

“Die.”

Taran raised his hand. A trace of black light emerged from his hand.

Then, the black light transformed into several strange inscriptions. The inscriptions gathered and formed a word- Die.

The word carried supreme pressure.

It exuded destructive power.

The guardians at the peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank could not resist the power. They were sealed in a space. No matter how hard they tried, they could not break free. Under the power of the word, their bodies were gradually annihilated.

Soon, the two guardians at the peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank disappeared before the Chaos Tablet. They died in the hands of Taran.

Taran’s expression remained nonchalant after killing the two guardians as if they were nothing to him.

As he walked forward, a crack appeared on the Chaos Tablet. Then, he entered the Chaos Arena.

Following the deaths of the two guardians, the scene projected by the guardians disappeared.

“What’s going on?”

‘Where did the scene go? I can’t see the situation in the Chaos Arena.’

‘What’s going on?’

Following the disappearance of the scene, the living beings of the ten districts became confused.

For the past several epochs, the situation in the Chaos Arena was displayed in several core universes of the ten districts. Now, the projection was gone. It aroused the living beings’ confusion.

In an ancient holy site, a powerhouse mumbled, ‘Taran has indeed gotten out of seclusion. Not many things can make him do that. Could it be that there’s a clue to the Sovereign Rank in the Boundless Battlefield?’

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4932-Several Grand Patriarchs of the ancient Orthodox sensed that Taran killed the guardians upon exiting the mountain.

They knew Taran’s reputation. Taran was only weaker than Emperor Raiah. He did not even show up during the invasion of the Extraterrestrial Demons. However, here he was now.

Based on many powerhouses’ opinions, Taran came out of the mountain because something attracted him.

Somewhere in the Chaos Battlefield, James took out a few clues he obtained previously and looked at them.

Nonetheless, the clues he obtained were not complete.

From the clues, he could not find out the whereabouts of the Herstellen Art. To know the location of the Herstellen Art, he needed to find complete clues.

Swoosh!

At this moment, a shadow appeared silently.

James and Henrik did not sense any fluctuations of aura. It was only when a middle-aged man appeared before them that they sensed his aura.

“Who are you?”

James and Henrik spoke at the same time. They could not help but step backward. Warily, they stared at the middle- aged man before them.

The middle-aged man was Taran.

Taran scanned James. He could not extrapolate James. Nevertheless, upon seeing James, he could see through James.

After learning about James' cultivation rank, Taran frowned.

"You're in the Quasi Chaos Rank. Why are you so weak?"

Taran thought that James was an amazing powerhouse since the latter obtained Emperor Raiah's inheritance and cultivated the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and sacred scrolls.

James' actual cultivation base disappointed Taran.

With James' current cultivation base, Taran could easily kill James.

Upon sensing Taran's unfriendly gaze, James was taken aback, but he calmed down quickly. Looking at Taran, he asked, "You are?"

Casually, Taran said, "How much of Emperor Raiah's signature skill have you comprehended?"

"Uh..."

James did not expect Taran to ask this question the moment he appeared.

Judging by how Taran knew that James comprehended Emperor Raiah's signature skill, Taran must not be a simple person.

Besides, with James' cultivation rank, he could not see through Taran. Upon facing such a terrifying powerhouse, he dared not act recklessly.

Stunned, he responded truthfully, "Among the ten sacred scrolls, I have cultivated seven. I have cultivated the power of Seven Path Techniques."

Facing Taran, whose cultivation base was unfathomable, James did not hide anything from him.

"Only seven?"

Taran slightly frowned as he asked, "How long will it take you to cultivate the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra?"

James did not know what Taran meant.

Confused, he asked, 'What do you mean?'

"I don't want to take advantage of your weak cultivation rank. I'll give you time to cultivate the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra. I will fight against you then."

Taran stated his purpose directly.

He came to challenge James.

To be exact, he was here to challenge the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.

At that time, his Supernatural Power was not successful. Hence, he lost to Emperor Raiah.

When he finally refined his Supernatural Power, the Extraterrestrial Demons had already retreated, and the whereabouts of Emperor Raiah became unknown. Thus, he did not have a chance to prove that his signature skill could compare to the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra.

The appearance of Taran confused James.

Henrik whispered from James' side, "He's here to challenge you."

James came back to his senses. Taking a deep breath, he smiled. "You must be joking. Your cultivation base is unfathomable. Even if I cultivated the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra, I would not be your match." "Of course, you aren't my match."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4933-Taran was not humble.

He was not arrogant, but he really did not take James seriously.

"Haha. Taran."

At this moment, a laugh sounded from the void. Following the laugh, the void cracked, and an elder appeared in the area.

The elder was the Grand Patriarch of Mount Taba.

The elder was old and had a beard. His hair was grey.

Although he was old, his aura was powerful.

Glancing at the elder, Taran asked casually, "What's wrong?"

"Taran, since you're out from the mountain, there must be something good in the Chaos Battlefield." The Grand Patriarch of Mount Taba smiled.

"You're thinking too much." Dully, Taran said, "I'm only here to challenge the disciple of Emperor Raiah."

Taran was speaking the truth.

Nonetheless, the Grand Patriarch of Mount Taba did not believe him.

At this time, another figure appeared in the distance.

It was the Grand Patriarch of Mount Genesis.

The Grand Patriarch of Mount Genesis was watching from a distance. He did not approach Taran and the others.

Then, other Grand Patriarchs of the Orthodox appeared.

They were all elders. Several of them were in the same cultivation rank as Taran. Many of them were also weaker than Taran.

The appearance of the elders stunned the powerhouses of other hidden sects. The powerhouses wondered what was going on. Why were so many powerhouses showing up in the Chaos Battlefield?

"James, I'll give you ten epochs to cultivate the rest of the sacred scrolls. Ten epochs later, I'll look for you and challenge you again. Whether or not you can survive depends on your effort during the ten epochs."

After Taran said that, he turned to leave.

Even though he left the area, his voice was still ringing.

"James belongs to me. Before I fight against him, I will kill anyone who touches him."

Taran's overbearing voice sounded in the area.

The other powerhouses of the Orthodox frowned.

Taran was true to his word. If the powerhouses attacked James, Taran would kill them.

He was competing against Emperor Raiah for supremacy.

The powerhouses could only back out.

They showed up to see what Taran wanted to do. They wanted to know what attracted Taran to come out of the mountain.

They did not believe that Taran came out of the mountain to challenge James.

The gap between James' and Taran's cultivation ranks was too big.

James was not Emperor Raiah. Taran did not need to challenge James in person.

After Taran left, the Grand Patriarchs of the Orthodox also disappeared. Once again, the place became quiet.

On the other hand, James frowned.

"Do you know who he is?"

Henrik shook his head.

Henrik had escaped from a predicament not too long ago. Hence, he did not know about the peerless powerhouses of Endlos.

"He's Taran."

From the distance, a man walked over.

The man was Byron.

Byron appeared beside James and said, 'Taran is a peerless powerhouse from Emperor Raiah's era. He created a signature skill, a curse. His Curse Magic is uncanny.'

Unfortunately, his Curse Magic was not successful at that time. Thus, he lost to Emperor Raiah. After that, he meditated in seclusion, not even showing up during the battle of the Extraterrestrial Demons.”

“Curse Magic?”

Upon hearing that, James became interested.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4934-James was familiar with Curse Magic. Not only was he familiar with it, but he also cultivated it.

Based on his understanding, Curse Magic was a signature skill cultivated by an Ancestral God of the Twelfth Universe. The Ancestral God obtained the Curse Magic from the Dark World.

James did not expect Curse Magic to be created by Taran.

‘Taran wants to kill you. Even if you comprehend the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art, you won’t be his match.’ Looking at James, Byron said, ‘Unless you reach Taran’s cultivation rank, you’re doomed.’

When James heard that, his expression became heavy. Massaging his temples, he looked troubled.

‘Take care,’ Byron said before leaving.

On the other hand, Teresa had gone to several ancient holy sites. When she learned a few pieces of information, she secretly returned to the Chaos Battlefield.

Hiding in the dark, she saw Taran and how he did not kill James.

She felt happy.

She was worried that Taran would kill James right away. If that happened, the rest of the show could not go on.

She observed in the dark. She watched the powerhouses who came from the ancient holy sites and the Orthodox.

At the same time, she came to the central region of the Chaos Arena based on Emperor Raiah’s notes.

There was a powerful formation in the area.

The formation was mysterious, with inscriptions surrounding it. The inscriptions were profound. At Xezal's current cultivation rank, she could not understand the inscriptions.

Nevertheless, she did not need to understand them.

She had the Endlos Heart.

The notes left behind by Emperor Raiah read that the Endlos Heart could open the seal of the Chaos Tablet. Then, one could enter the sealed world.

Xezal aimed to enter the sealed world.

She took out the Endlos Heart.

When she took out the Endlos Heart, it activated. The Endlos Heart drew the Heavenly Path Power of the ten districts. The ten districts' Heavenly Path Power gathered and formed a light beam.

The light beam entered the formation ahead.

Then, a crack appeared in the formation. Meanwhile, Teresa entered the formation.

At this moment, James was feeling troubled.

He sat on a rock.

Henrik sat next to him.

"What should I do?"

Looking at Henrik beside him, James felt helpless. He said, "Since Taran is after me, I will die. Even if I cultivated the rest of the sacred scrolls and comprehended the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art, I'm not Taran's match because my cultivation rank is too low."

Helpless, Henrik said, "I can't help you this time."

James sighed and said, "Let's take one step at a time."

James was not too worried right now. After all, Taran had given him ten epochs. When the time came, James could leave the Chaos Battlefield and hide.

James already had a plan.

He needed to find the Herstellen Art during the ten epochs and run away.

However, he did not have enough clues. He did not know the location of the Herstellen Art.

All of a sudden, a thought flashed in his mind.

"Henrik, spread the news. Gather the powerhouses in the Chaos Battlefield who have clues about the Herstellen Art. Form a complete clue and get the Herstellen Art. As for who can obtain the Herstellen Art, it'll depend on their opportunities and fortunes."

"Alright."

Henrik nodded.

Then, the news was spread.

"James has a few important clues about the Herstellen Art, but not enough to find it. He's currently waiting on Mount Stoyan for powerhouses who have clues about the Herstellen Art. He wants everyone to take out their clues to form a complete inscription. Then, everyone can look for the Herstellen Art."

"Let's go and join in the fun."

"Even if we don't have any clues, as long as they gather all the clues, they can form a complete inscription. By then, the location of the Herstellen Art will be exposed. Perhaps all of us will have a chance to find it."