The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4965-Bardwell gripped on his axe and launched at James. He wanted to be the one who killed James so that he could obtain the Endlos Heart and become the Endlos Lord. He would gain control over the Ten Districts' Heavenly Path and have the most significant authority in the Endlos.

The golden axe swung at James with great momentum.

Before the golden axe landed on James, its terrifying force shattered the mountains below them. Many of the Dooms' cultivators were obliterated instantly.

They did not even have the chance to scream before they were completely wiped out of existence. After their deaths, the Spiritual Powers that remained disappeared into the void.

James immediately had a bad feeling after witnessing everything. However, he did not have much time to think. Faced with the axe coming his way, he quickly entered the Omniscience Path. His Blood Energy churned, and his bloodline powers formed a halo on his body's surface. A terrifying aura emerged on his body and formed a second halo. At the same time, his soul's aura also skyrocketed and formed the third halo.

James' body was instantly shrouded by three halos.

'The Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank?' Xezal's face darkened.

After entering the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank, James was incredibly powerful. He raised his hand, and a powerful force emerged to block Bardwell's axe. The next moment, he cast the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared. Suddenly, he reemerged behind Bardwell.

Before Bardwell could react, he was struck. He spat a mouthful of blood and crashed into the distant spiritual mountain.

Boom!!!

The spiritual mountain was destroyed, and cracks began to spread throughout the ground.

The Dooms within the spiritual mountain were killed instantly.

James defeated Bardwell, who had entered the Chaos Transcendere Rank, with just one strike.

Although James could overpower Bardwell in the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank, killing a powerhouse at the Chaos Transcendere Rank was not easy.

Boom!

A disheveled old man climbed out of the rubble.

Bardwell roared, "Die, James!!!"

'You don't know when to give up.' James looked at him indifferently, then waved his hand.

A powerful formation immediately emerged and trapped Bardwell in the sky.

Xezal shouted, "What is everyone waiting for? Quickly take action together and take James down!"

Several powerhouses instantly charged at James.

However, the majority of the crowd chose to continue observing the situation. Although they did not believe James, they did not trust Xezal either.

Dozens of powerhouses surrounded James.

Those who took action against James were confident in their strength. They were either Sect Leaders or Grand Patriarchs of hidden sects. All of them were exceptionally strong, and even the weakest was at the Chaos Transcendere Rank.

A few Chaos Omnia Rank had also charged at James.

Before these hidden sects re-emerged, a powerhouse at the Chaos Omnia Rank was strong enough to obliterate the Ten Districts. Yet, there were several of them in one place now.

Those who took action were eager to obtain the Endlos Heart, and they accounted for about one-tenth of the hidden sects' powerhouses.

A wicked smile appeared on Xezal's face.

James said solemnly, "Do you all really want to die so badly?"

He looked at Xezal. Although Xezal's actions made him furious, he admired her intelligence. She took advantage of the powerhouses' greed. Even though they did not know the truth yet, many still stepped forward to fight him to obtain the Endlos Heart. These powerhouses combined were no match for him, but he could not kill them.

James had a headache from the situation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4966-James' only option was to temporarily seal away these powerhouses. Without casting a formation, it would be hard to do so. However, James did not want to use formations so early in the battle.

"What a troublesome situation."

James massaged his forehead. Then, he looked at Xezal in the distance and shouted, 'Your motives for killing me is to obtain the Endlos Heart and become the Endlos Lord. Right now, the Endlos Heart is in Xezal's hands. You can easily snatch it from her, so why bother trying to kill me?'

James' words turned to focus on Xezal.

Xezal's expression darkened. She raised the Endlos Heart, and a bright light emerged, attracting the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths. Shrouded with their powers, she looked incredibly mighty, and her aura was intimidating.

The powerhouses immediately sensed the powers of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths. If it were only the power of one district, they would not have any fear. However, they were wary of the powers of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths combined. Killing Xezal and snatching the Endlos Heart was much more difficult than killing James.

Xezal said coldly, "Stop trying to sow discord between us, James!" She turned to the powerhouses and said, "My seniors, I promise to keep my word. Whoever kills James will be qualified to become the Endlos Lord."

A powerhouse shouted at James, "Surrender, James. Perhaps we might let you live."

James did not want to waste time convincing them. He quickly cast the Blithe Omniscience and appeared before Xezal.

Xezal already predicted that James would take action against her. Just as James was about to strike, a protective barrier formed by the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths surrounded her body.

James struck the protective barrier but was blasted away by its power.

Even though the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Ran was powerful, James could not destroy the protective barrier formed by the powers of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths.

"I have the Endlos Heart protecting me, James. Even a powerhouse at the peak of the Chaos Omnia Rank won't be able to harm me. You're only at the Chaos Illimita Rank and think you can hurt me?" Xezal laughed.

James could not deny that she was beautiful when she smiled. However, underneath her beauty was a corrupted heart.

After James was knocked away, his arm went numb. He swung his arm several times and mobilized his powers to heal his injuries.

At that moment, the other powerhouses seized the chance to attack.

James looked at them indifferently and summoned countless inscriptions. The inscriptions gathered into a massive Sealing Formation, instantly trapping those trying to attack him.

Boom!!!

A few powerhouses broke free from the formation in just a few seconds.

Swoosh!

A bright Sword Energy appeared in the sky. James chose to avoid it instead of taking it head-on.

A spiritual mountain in the Dooms' territory was destroyed instantly.

The surrounding area was protected by a formation that Xezal had set up with the Endlos Heart. Without it, these powerhouses' attacks would have destroyed the entire Chaos District.

James felt frustrated by the situation. He understood it was impossible to avoid a battle, and the current situation could only be resolved with a fight. However, the Dooms would be wiped out. There was a woman among the Dooms who had a complicated relationship with him-Yemima.

At that moment, Yemima was standing atop Mount Doom. She looked into the distance with a solemn expression.

After James evaded the fatal blow, he instantly appeared before Yemima.

'You...'' Yemima was slightly startled by James' sudden appearance. She took a few steps backward and looked at him warily.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4967-James asked, "Do you trust me?"
"I..."

Just when Yemima was about to speak, a powerhouse charged at James, and a powerful force permeated the air.

James wrapped his arms around Yemima's slender waist and fled the area.

Boom!

Mount Doom was destroyed instantly, and cracks spread throughout the ground.

The powerhouse's destructive force caused countless spiritual mountains to collapse. As a result, numerous members of the Dooms died tragically. However, Xezal was unaffected by their deaths.

James appeared in the sky somewhere else within the Dooms' territory.

"L-Let go!" Yemima tried to break free but could not leave James' embrace.

James ignored her struggles and analyzed the formation surrounding the Dooms' territory. His priority was to open the formation and send Yemima out to safety. He had to ensure those related to him were safe before he could go all out.

He detected that the formation was potent, but it was not a problem for him to decipher.

He came to the formation's border and secretly activated ten different powers. He concentrated them into his fist and swung at the formation.

Boom!!!

The formation that Xezal had deployed with the Endlos Heart cracked and disintegrated.

As soon as the formation broke, James disappeared from the Dooms' territory. Shortly after, he arrived at the Human Universe's border. He let go of Yemima and said, "The truth will be brought to light very soon. I'm doing this to save your life. I want you to safely get through this."

After leaving a few words, James disappeared from the spot, leaving the perplexed Yemima behind. The next moment, he returned to Mount Chaos.

The formation around the Dooms' territory had been shattered.

James floated in the sky and looked at the powerhouses, saying, "The formation here has already been broken. For those who don't want to die, leave right away. If you insist on staying and dying, don't blame me for not holding back."

Xezal never expected James to break the formation she had set up with the Endlos Heart. James' strength had exceeded her expectations.

'The formation I set up to prevent the Extraterrestrial

Demons from escaping has been broken. James is trying to help them escape. Once they leave this place, it'll become a disaster for the Ten Districts. Join forces with me to capture him. Then, we'll interrogate him about the Extraterrestrial Demons' whereabouts."

Xezal had no choice but to take action herself. Although her cultivation rank was only at the Quasi Chaos Rank, she had the Endlos Heart and could gather the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths, giving her incredible strength. She looked mighty as the dazzling light shrouded her body.

Xezal walked toward James step by step, emitting murderous intent.

As soon as Xezal made a move, those attacking James immediately retreated. They wanted to wait until James and Xezal were exhausted, then reap the benefits.

Xezal cursed out, "Cowards."

Now that the formation had been opened, a few weaker cultivators quickly escaped the area. They had no interest in obtaining the Endlos Heart, knowing they were too weak to compete.

Xezal also did not bother chasing after them. As long as they did not leave the Chaos District, they would not be able to escape death after the formation around the Chaos District was activated. Once the formation activates, everyone in the Chaos District will die.

A man and woman stood in the distance, away from the Dooms' territory.

Waleria asked anxiously, "What should we do now, Sir?"

Please help James."

Sedris replied helplessly, "How am I going to help? I'm only at the late stage of the Chaos Illimita Rank. I'm not strong enough to get involved in this battle. Xezal has the Endlos Heart, and her strength is unfathomable. If I intervene, I'll probably be killed in one blow."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4968-Sedris was unable to interfere with their battle.

James and Xezal were the only ones left in the area.

Three halos surrounded James after entering the Omniscience Path's Eleventh Rank. He looked incredibly dazzling, and his aura was powerful.

Xezal was not any weaker, either. Even though the Endlos Heart she had was a replica, she could still gather the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Paths.

The authentic Endlos Heart, on the other hand, would be able to control the Heavenly Paths.

"I didn't want to have to kill you, James."

Xezal stared at James and said solemnly, "In fact, I never intended to kill you. In the past, I even saved you. However, you've kept getting in my way and even colluded with the Extraterrestrial Demons. As the Endlos Lord, I will use the Endlos Heart to punish you and serve justice to the Ten Districts.

"Haha! The Endlos Lord?" James laughed and said, "Who acknowledged you as the Endlos Lord?"

Xezal replied calmly, "Whoever possesses the Endlos Heart is the Endlos Lord."

James beckoned her, "Make your move."

"Since you insist on death, I'll fulfill your wish." Xezal calmly stepped forward. The Endlos Heart manifested in her hand and became a long white sword.

The Endlos Heart was a treasure that could be transformed into any kind of weapon.

Xezal converted the Endlos Heart into the Boundless Sword. She wielded the white sword and slashed it in the air, unleashing substantial Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy contained great strength belonging to the Ten Districts' Heavenly Path. Even a powerhouse at the Chaos Omnia Rank would not dare to take a direct hit. Otherwise, they would be injured.

Even though the amount of Heavenly Path Power infused into the Boundless Sword was not much, it was still terrifyingly potent.

James hovered calmly in the sky and looked at the Sword Energy darting in his direction. Then, he summoned the power of his Ten Path Techniques to form a protective barrier on his body's surface.

Boom!!!

The Sword Energy struck James' protective barrier, and the void around him was instantly shattered. The force from the impact spread throughout the area, destroying everything in its path. Mount Chaos vanished instantly, and countless members of the Dooms were killed.

The destructive force continued to spread, attracting the District Heavenly Path to intervene. A District Heavenly Path would not allow powerhouses to destroy an entire district. Therefore, the District Heavenly Path manifested and prevented the destruction from spreading.

Xezal's attack would have caused a lot of damage if the District Heavenly Path had not intervened.

Despite the destructive nature of her Sword Energy, it was not enough to break James' protective barrier.

'This? How is this possible?' Xezal's face was full of disbelief.

She wielded the Boundless Sword and could call upon the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Path. Even though she was only at the Quasi Chaos Rank, she could kill a powerhouse at the Chaos Omnia Rank. Meanwhile, James was only at the early stage of the Chaos Illimita Rank.

"You..." Xezal glared at James.

James said solemnly, "I've already obtained ten of the sacred scrolls and have cultivated the Ten Path Techniques.

I can cast the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra to summon the powers of the Ten Path Techniques. The Endlos Heart can't even scratch me."

James showed no fear and remained calm even in the face of the arrogant Xezal. To him, his biggest enemy was the Extraterrestrial Demon's Second Commander, Mekaisto.

He asked coldly, "Where is Mekaisto?"

Xezal's face was solemn. It would take some time before

Mekaisto completely activated the formation. Even with the help of a time formation, he would need about a month. She began doubting whether she could delay them for a month. James stepped through the void, slowly approaching Xezal.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4969-Xezal stepped backward after seeing James about to take action and said frantically, "Wait, James..."

James halted in his tracks, looked at her, and asked, "Now that things have come to this, what else do you have to say?"

Xezal wanted to say something but was at a loss for words.

James continued to approach her. He wanted to pressure her and force Mekaisto to appear. As soon as Mekaisto shows up, the truth will be revealed, and everyone watching the battle will know what decision to make.

“Help me, Mekaisto!” Xezal was left with no choice. She shouted to the voice, “If you don’t take action now, I’ll die!”

The cultivators in the distance immediately understood the situation after hearing her words. It was clear the one colluding with the Extraterrestrial Demon was Xezal.

Youri asked furiously, “Are you really responsible for everything, Xezal? Why did you collude with the Extraterrestrial Demons? The Dooms’ reputation we’ve made in the past eons has been ruined because of you!”

Xezal replied coldly, “What do you know?”

The powerhouses that were watching in the distance quickly surrounded Xezal.

“Hand over the Endlos Heart, and we’ll spare you, Xezal.” “It’s useless to resist at this point, Xezal.”

The powerhouses spoke ruthlessly to Xezal.

“Haha!!!” Xezal laughed out loud despite being besieged.

Her initial goal was to buy time until the formation was fully activated. However, she could no longer do so and had no choice but to reveal her true intentions.

At that moment, black clouds suddenly appeared throughout the Chaos Districts. Then, countless monsters emerged, opened their mouths, and swallowed a few planets, instantly killing the inhabitants. The same situation occurred all over the Chaos District.

Meanwhile, a few black holes appeared around the collapsed Mount Chaos. Immediately afterward, a few monsters emerged from the black holes and began attacking the cultivators in the area.

“E-Extraterrestrial Demons!!!”

The cultivators in the area were startled.

“Haha!!!” Xezal cackled.

She looked terrifying as she made a menacing smile. The sacred-looking light around her body instantly darkened, giving her the appearance of a powerful demon.

“This is all because of you, James. They didn’t have to die so soon, but I’ve no choice now.” Xezal face darkened.

Rumble!!!

In the distant void, several explosions happened consecutively.

The powerhouses were fighting against the monster that had appeared. Even though the monsters were powerful, they were no match for the group of powerhouses.

However, the powerhouses were outnumbered. Before they could wipe out the first wave of monsters, another wave came rushing toward them.

James’ brows furrowed. He had experienced a similar situation in the Supreme Illusions and knew the wave of monsters would not stop unless the Mothers producing them were eliminated.

James cursed out, “Damn it. You must have a death wish, Xezal!” James’ face darkened.

He cast the Blithe Omniscience, appeared before Xezal, and swung his fist at her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4970-Extraterrestrial Demons had appeared in the Chaos District and had begun to attack. Xezal had revealed her true self to everyone.

James showed no mercy toward her. He gathered the Ten Path Techniques’ powers into his fist, flashed before Xezal, and swung at her.

Xezal’s body was surrounded by a protective barrier formed by the power of the Ten Districts’ Heavenly Paths.

Boom!!!

The protective barrier around her body was instantly shattered, and the void in front of her collapsed instantly.

The potent force struck Xezal. Fortunately for her, the protective barrier had resisted most of the force, and she only sustained the remainder of the force, which was not enough to kill her.

Even though she survived the attack, she was severely injured.

“How is he so strong?” Xezal was aghast.

She was afraid to stay any longer. She quickly waved the Boundless Sword, and several Sword Energies burst toward James.

James remained composed. He waved his hand and easily blocked the Sword Energies.

However, Xezal had already seized the chance to escape. James searched for her aura and chased her with the Blithe Omniscience.

After leaving the Dooms’ territory, he appeared in an unfamiliar area within the Dark World.

The area was an intersection between the Dark World and the Chaos District. The entire area was shrouded by darkness, and black mist permeated the air.

After arriving in the Dark World, James tried to locate Xezal. However, Xezal’s aura had disappeared without a trace. No matter how hard he tried to search for her, his efforts were to no avail.

“Where did she escape to?” James frowned.

Swoosh!

A Sword Energy pierced through the darkness.

James reacted in time and dodged it.

The Sword Energy struck a mountain range in the Dark World, causing it to collapse.

James unleashed his Zen, trying to find the attacker. However, he could not sense any living beings within range, and his brows furrowed.

He did not stay long after failing to locate Xezal's location. He cast the Blithe Omniscience and returned to the Dooms' territory.
