The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4981-James thought to himself, 'What kind of Supernatural Power was that? My mind went empty, and I was unable to respond. Fortunately, I snapped out of it in time. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.'

Mekaisto said calmly, "Not bad. There aren't many in the Endlos capable of surviving my attacks."

James took a deep breath. He had already urged the Ten Path Techniques' powers but could not completely withstand Mekaisto's attack. As expected from the Extraterrestrial Demon's Second Commander, Mekaisto was incredibly powerful.

James activated the Endlos Heart. Apart from the destroyed Chaos Heavenly Path, the power of the other nine District Heavenly Paths gathered on his body.

This time, he had summoned all the power of the nine District Heavenly Paths, not just a portion of it.

District Heavenly Paths were in charge of maintaining order within their respective districts. They were composed of inscriptions, which contained powers.

Blessed by the power of the nine District Heavenly Paths, James' aura surged instantly. Previously, his aura was at the Chaos Illimita Rank. Now, his aura had reached the Chaos Essencia Rank.

Mekaisto remained composed and commented, "The District Heavenly Paths? The so-called District Heavenly Paths that maintain order were created by Emperor Raiah using the Endlos Heavenly Path."

The Endlos was vast and had an Endlos Heavenly Path. Unfortunately, the Endlos Heavenly Path had already been destroyed by Extraterrestrial Demons.

Therefore, Emperor Raiah created the District Heavenly Paths to maintain and restrain the living beings within the Ten Districts.

“However, Emperor Raiah’s strength was limited. Even though he obtained the Endlos Heart that was left behind after the Endlos Heavenly Path’s destruction, he did not have the strength to reshape the Endlos Heavenly Path. He could only divide the Endlos into Ten Districts and create ten District Heavenly Paths.”

Mekaisto shared the information he knew since he was one of the culprits that destroyed the Endlos Heavenly Path.

Back then, the three Extraterrestrial Demon Commanders joined forces and obliterated the Endlos Heavenly Path together.

James’ aura skyrocketed after summoning the power of the District Heavenly Paths. He stretched his body and sensed the energy within his body. At that moment, his selfconfidence rose significantly. He felt Mekaisto, who only had one-tenth of his powers left, would not be strong enough to resist the power of the Nine Districts’ Heavenly Paths.

He flashed before Mekaisto and swung his fist.

Mekaisto blocked James’ attack very calmly.

Boom!!!

Their fists clashed, and a horrific shock wave permeated the area.

Everything the shock wave passed crumpled into ruins. Many lives were lost, and the Ten Thousand Demon Formation collected the energy they left behind. Then, Zaden absorbed the energy gathered by the formation.

After the confrontation, James was blasted away. The powerful force injured his body, and he was covered with blood.

Mekaisto was also knocked away. His arms were injured, and blood began to flow.

He grinned and said, “You’re impressive but still a bit lacking. An external force is an external force, after all. Even though you have the Endlos Heart, you can’t fully control the power of the District Heavenly Paths.

“I’m not going to hold back anymore.” Mekaisto’s face darkened. He appeared before James and launched countless punches at him.

James kept defending against him.

Their fists collided consecutively.

Rumble!!!

The shock waves born after their confrontation permeated, causing the Chaos District's space to collapse. Countless universes were destroyed, and the number of casualties kept increasing.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4982-Countless living beings gathered outside the Chaos District. A few of them were powerhouses James had sent out of the Chaos District, whereas some were powerhouses that had come to participate in the Endlos Tournament but evacuated in advance. Additionally, several of them were powerhouses who had rushed to support in battle but did not enter the Chaos District in time.

At that moment, the entire Chaos District was surrounded by the Ten Thousand Demon Formation. Despite that, the powerhouses outside could still sense the battle and its aftermath.

The strength James had displayed left them dumbfounded. However, they were even more stunned by Mekaisto. They never expected him to still be so powerful, even after being sealed away for countless epochs.

James was hit several times. He blocked many of Mekaisto's punches, but the impact force still injured him.

Mekaisto attacked relentlessly, and he landed a few more blows on James.

In just a short moment, James was injured all over. He wanted to activate his Time Power to revert time to before he was injured.

However, his Time Power could only affect ordinary living beings. Against a powerhouse like Mekaisto, his Time

Power had no effect since Mekaisto had already surpassed the constraints of time and space.

James urged his Time Power but was unable to turn back time.

He followed up with the One Break All to neutralize a portion of Mekaisto's power. Then, he mobilized his Path Powers to form the magical Sacred Blossom.

The Sacred Blossom circled Mekaisto's body and suddenly exploded, unleashing a terrifying power.

However, his Blossoming caused very little damage to Mekaisto. Mekaisto hardly sustained any injuries, but he was slightly disheveled.

"Break." Mekaisto reached out his finger and pointed at James.

Suddenly, the space around James' body began to collapse.

James was injured once again.

He opened up the microcosms in his body, unleashing their powers. With the blessing of these powers, James' aura immediately skyrocketed.

Then, he performed the Defying Heavens Art and took thirty- three steps.

The force blasted Mekaisto's body away. His Blood Energy churned, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"James gained the upper hand."

"James performed the Defying Heavens Art and caused Mekaisto to spit out blood!"

"Let's go, James!"

Countless living beings were spectating the battle outside the Chaos District.

The battle's outcome would determine the Chaos District's survival. It was also related to the future of the Endlos' Ten Districts.

The Ten Districts would be thrown into chaos, and the balance maintained would be broken if James were to be defeated.

Mekaisto vomited blood after being struck by James' Defying Heavens Art. His face darkened, and he said coldly, " Damn it. You managed to injure me. You're so dead."

His aura rose significantly. Then, a strange weapon suddenly appeared in his hand. It was a geomantic compass that had mysterious symbols carved on it.

As soon as the weapon appeared, it flew out and hovered above James. Thousands of inscriptions emerged from the geomantic compass and surrounded James.

James immediately sensed a strange power around him. He felt his energy and life force slowly being drained away. His hair turned white, and his skin wrinkled.

“How strange.” James was startled.

He quickly summoned the Infinity Steles and combined them to form the Boundless Pagoda.

The Boundless Pagoda entered its tenth form and let out multicolored light rays. Then, it flew upward and destroyed the inscriptions around James. Immediately afterward, it collided with the mysterious geomantic compass.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4983-Boom!!!

The Boundless Pagoda collided with the geomantic compass, and a powerful force permeated the air.

Both the Boundless Pagoda and geomantic compass were blasted away.

James and Mekaisto suffered backlashes and vomited blood.

At that moment, Mekaisto no longer had a calm and composed demeanor like at the beginning of their fight. He was disheveled, and his face was grim. He never expected James, who was only at the Chaos Illimita Rank, to unleash such terrifying power.

Even his greatest weapon, the Demonic Compass, could not deal fatal injuries to James.

After James freed himself from the shackles of the inscriptions, he activated the Life Path to recover his energy and life force.

James appeared in the distance, panting heavily. He gripped the Boundless Sword, and the Boundless Pagoda floated before him. His body was injured, and blood stains were on the corners of his lips. He was not expecting Mekaisto, who only had less than one-tenth of his strength, to be so powerful.

Despite using the power of the Ten Path Techniques, the Endlos Heart, and the Boundless Pagoda, he was unable to defeat Mekaisto. There were not many trump cards left up his sleeves. James began to worry, afraid he would lose to Mekaisto.

Xezal and Zaden watched the battle while in hiding.

The strength that James and Mekaisto had displayed had exceeded their expectations.

Xezal exclaimed, "They're so strong."

Zaden began to wonder whether he could fight them if he left seclusion. After a quick analysis, he felt he was no match for James and Mekaisto right now.

Meanwhile, Mekaisto launched another attack. He held the Demonic Compass in his hand and continuously attacked James.

The Demonic Compass was very strange. Not only could it devour everything, but it could also cast confinement skills.

Faced with the terrifying Demonic Compass, James used the Boundless Pagoda to defend.

Countless universes within the Chaos District were destroyed, killing their inhabitants. However, James had no time to care about them. His priority was to kill Mekaisto and then break the Ten Thousand Demon Formation.

Eventually, he could use the Endlos Heart to restore the Chaos District and resurrect the innocent lives lost during the battle.

James and Mekaisto both showed great strength.

The Boundless Pagoda resisted the Demonic Compass, and the fight was a stalemate.

Boom!!!

James' Boundless Pagoda broke through the restraints of the Demonic Compass. Immediately afterward, James cast the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared. The next moment, he appeared behind Mekaisto. A strange scene suddenly flashed across his eyes, and inscriptions emerged. The inscriptions formed into Sword Energies and ultimately merged to form a dazzling long sword.

The long sword charged toward Mekaisto.

Mekaisto reacted in time and tossed out the Demonic Compass to block the long sword. However, the Boundless Pagoda immediately knocked the Demonic Compass away.

The long sword inched toward Mekaisto.

James' Damon Eyes had already been cultivated to perfection. Even though Mekaisto had an exceptional physical body, the sword still pierced through his body.

The sword immediately disintegrated into inscriptions and exploded within his body, inflicting severe injuries to Mekaisto.

The explosion blasted off the right side of Mekaisto's torso.

After injuring Mekaisto, James smiled. However, blood overflowed from his lips.

Despite his injuries, James' hope for victory grew after severely injuring Mekaisto. Moreover, he still had a few trump cards.

James felt like he had a great chance of winning the battle.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4984-James, who had perfected his Dobro Eyes, managed to severely injure Mekaisto.

Mekaisto had an exceptional physical body, but the long sword still penetrated his flesh. The Dobro Inscriptions exploded within his body, inflicting severe injuries on him.

Apart from the injuries, Mekaisto was far from being killed. He was too powerful, and obliterating him would not be easy. Even Emperor Raiah could not eliminate him and had to seal him underneath the Chaos Tablet.

However, Emperor Raiah's soul and powers had already been weakened back then. Otherwise, he would have been able to kill Mekaisto.

Mekaisto activated his power and the injuries he had sustained healed instantly. At that moment, his expression was grim. A black aura emerged in his body and flowed through his body. His body underwent a subtle change. His body bulked, and his robe tore apart, exposing his burly muscles. His physical body had grown even stronger than before.

James could sense Mekaisto's physical strength had improved, and the power emitting from his body had also been enhanced. The Demonic Compass also transformed into a wheel. It rotated rapidly and approached James.

The Demonic Wheel tore through the void and closed in on James.

Boom!!!

James cast the Blithe Omniscience to avoid the powerful blow.

The entire area where James previously stood was destroyed instantly.

After its destruction, the energy of those who died was swallowed by the Ten Thousand Demon Formation.

The Boundless Pagoda flew out and clashed with the Demonic Wheel.

Rumble!!!

Explosions happened throughout the Doom Universe, destroying many areas.

Their battle was intense.

After Mekaisto evolved, he was significantly stronger. Even though James was using the Boundless Pagoda, he was at a disadvantage and was constantly injured. He kept healing his wounds, which greatly exhausted his energy.

James' Defying Heavens Art's powers were almost completely depleted. He had to replenish his energy as soon as possible. Otherwise, his strength would drop drastically without the Defying Heavens Art.

He activated the Endlos Heart and absorbed the power of the District Heavenly Paths to restore his energy.

In a battle between powerhouses, being careless would be fatal. Even a moment of distraction would lead to defeat.

At that moment, James was slightly careless, and the Demonic Wheel struck him. His body was instantly sliced into half.

James quickly disappeared to a different area and quickly reformed his body.

As soon as he recovered, Mekaisto arrived with the Demonic Wheel.

James quickly used the Boundless Pagoda and trapped Mekaisto within it. The power of the Ten Path Techniques swept toward Mekaisto from all directions and inflicted severe injuries on him. In just a short moment, his body was covered with wounds.

Mekaisto roared furiously, "Break!"

The Demonic Wheel suddenly enlarged and released an inscription. A powerful force emerged from the inscription and disintegrated the Boundless Pagoda.

The shattered Boundless Pagoda flew to the distance and reconstructed itself.

"He's so strong." James was impressed by Mekaisto's strength.

Mekaisto even managed to break the Boundless Pagoda.

After breaking free, Mekaisto hovered in the void. He panted and healed his injuries.

Suddenly, James felt danger approaching him. By the time he reacted, it was already too late. A clone of Mekaisto had already appeared behind him and struck him with the Demonic Wheel.

James' back was sliced open, and a large area of his flesh was destroyed. His broken bones were also exposed.

"This?" James was horrified.

Mekaisto was hovering in the void ahead of him, but another Mekaisto suddenly appeared behind him.

While James was still confused, several clones of Mekaisto surrounded him. In total, there were eight Mekaistos.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4985-The clones had the same aura and strength.

James immediately felt pressured by the situation. He was already struggling against Mekaisto, but now he had to face eight of him.

“You’re impressive, James. You’ve left me no choice but to use a secret art.”

The eight figures spoke simultaneously.

Swoosh!!!

After speaking, the eight of them sprung into action. They surrounded James and launched consecutive attacks.

James was outnumbered and fell to a disadvantage. His whole body was riddled with injuries, and his bones were broken. He relied on his potent strength to forcibly stabilize his condition and hold his body together.

He summoned the Tribulation Liquid and consumed it to heal his injured body.

Suddenly, a lightning bolt appeared out of thin air and struck Mekaisto.

Mekaisto’s body trembled after being struck.

Immediately afterward, countless lightning began to fill the area.

These were lightning tribulations that contained unrivaled power.

‘Thunderous Tribulations!!!’

James had a calm expression as the tribulation clouds surrounded his body.

He stood in the center of the tribulation clouds. Countless lightning tribulations emerged from the tribulation clouds.

Tribulation clouds were composed of mysterious inscriptions.

Thunderous Tribulations was the Emperor of Tribulation’s Supernatural Power.

In the deepest part of the Tribulation City, the Emperor of Tribulation was defending the city. However, he had been paying attention to the Tribulation World and used the Tribulation Path to create the Thunderous Tribulations.

The Thunderous Tribulations was incredibly power. It was not just able to summon a few tribulation lightnings. After James cast the Thunderous Tribulation, Mekaisto had to endure ten thousand tribulations. Only after surviving the ten thousand tribulations would he be able to live. Otherwise, he would die.

The tribulation clouds covered the area, and countless lightning tribulations fell from the sky.

Each lightning tribulation was a calamity that Mekaisto would have to overcome.

Mekaisto was trapped within James' Tribulation World created by the Thunderous Tribulation. He was bombarded by terrifying attacks in the Tribulation World, and his clones suffered severe damage.

"Argh!!!"The eight figures roared simultaneously.

Black auras emerged from the eight figures and soared to the sky like a giant dragon. Then, the aura gathered to form a huge black sword.

"Break!!!" A furious voice resounded.

The enormous black sword slashed at the Tribulation World's border.

James stood in the tribulation clouds.

The clouds dispersed under Mekaisto's potent attack. James also suffered a backlash.

Boom!!!

The tribulation world fell apart, and Mekaisto escaped.

As soon as he was freed, the ten thousand tribulations' power merged into one lightning and struck one of the clones.

Mekaisto's clones were instantly obliterated.
