The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4986-The Thunderous Tribulations created by the Emperor of Tribulation was a marvelous Supernatural Power. It managed to obliterate one of Mekaisto's clones.

Now, James was left with seven opponents.

A hint of fear had risen in Mekaisto's heart. He had cast a secret art of the Extraterrestrial Demons and summoned eight clones to fight. Each clone had the strength of his main body. However, there was a downside to the skill. With every clone destroyed, his strength would also suffer.

In a short period, it would not significantly impact his combat effectiveness. However, it would dramatically affect his overall strength as time passed.

Against a powerhouse like James, a decrease in his strength would definitely lead to his defeat.

"He's terrifyingly strong."

Mekaisto was slightly wary. He never expected James, who was only at the Chaos Illimita Rank, to be so powerful.

James' strength would be unfathomable if he reached the Chaos Completare Rank.

"Are you not going to leave seclusion yet, Zaden? I'll die if you don't show up soon," Mekaisto shouted into the void.

Xezal, who was in hiding, asked, "What should we do, Father?"

Zaden remained hiding within the shattered Elysian Inscriptions and replied, "Ignore him. After James kills Mekaisto, I can absorb his energy. His energy would be even more powerful than the entire Chaos District."

Zaden was currently at a critical moment in his cultivation and did not want to leave seclusion. Even if he were to leave, he wanted to have absolute confidence in killing James and Mekaisto. If he were to appear now, his countless eons of planning would be in vain.

On the battlefield, James looked at Mekaisto and said calmly, "Do you think Zaden will show up to help you? To him, you're just a pawn."

"Haha." Mekaisto laughed coldly.

"A pawn? Who's the real pawn? Do you really think you can kill me, James?"

"I won't know if I don't try." James looked very calm. Even though he was injured, his morale was high.

The living beings outside of the Chaos District watched the battle unfold.

After seeing James cast the Thunderous Tribulations, they were shocked.

"James is going to win this battle."

"He's so powerful. He possesses such potent strength despite only being at the Chaos Illimita Rank. How strong would he be if he were to reach the Chaos Completare Rank by then?"

"It's unimaginable."

James remained composed on the battlefield.

Meanwhile, Mekaisto was also making plans. He was still confident about killing James. However, he would have to use some trump cards and pay a price. He had been keeping them to deal with Zaden.

Mekaisto was reluctant to use his trump cards since Zaden was still a potential threat. However, he would not be able to kill James without them. His plan would fail if James did not die.

After contemplating for a while, Mekaisto decided to use a few of his trump cards.

"You're powerful, James. If you were to continue growing, I'd definitely not be a match against you in the future. It's a pity you won't live to see that day."

Mekaisto's voice resounded.

James replied calmly, "Is that so? What else do you have up your sleeves?"

Mekaisto did not reply but summoned a black crystal.

“This?” James was stunned after seeing the black crystal.

The black crystal was the same as the ones he had obtained after killing the Mothers. However, the black crystal’s power was much more majestic than the ones he had acquired.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4987-The disparity between the black crystals found inside the Mothers and the one that Mekaisto had was wide.

The two had a similar aura, but their powers were vastly different.

James asked calmly, “What kind of crystal is that?”

“You won’t be able to find out,” Mekaisto replied coldly.

Mekaisto consumed the black crystal. His aura and strength immediately improved by leaps and bounds. At the same time, the other six clones also grew stronger.

“After consuming the crystal and absorbing its powers, my strength will be restored to half of what it was at my peak. How will you stand a chance against me?” Mekaisto’s voice resounded.

James sensed Mekaisto’s terrifying aura. Under the crushing aura, James found it hard to breathe. His body’s strength seemed to have been sealed away, and his blood flow slowed.

Mekaisto stepped forward and appeared in front of James with a flash. Then, he swung his fist at James.

Mekaisto’s attack instantly injured James. His body began to fall apart, but he forcibly maintained it in one piece. Then, he cast the Blithe Omniscience to escape.

In just an instance, James had fled far away from the battlefield. However, Mekaisto chased after him and attacked relentlessly.

James urged the District Heavenly Paths’ powers to protect his body. However, they were ineffective against Mekaisto’s attacks. With just one hit, the protective barrier was shattered. Once again, James was injured.

The powerhouses watching from outside the Chaos District had solemn expressions, especially those from the Human Universe.

Tears welled up in Thea's eyes and gradually rolled down her cheeks.

Mekaisto had recovered fifty percent of his strength.

James was no match against him and was constantly injured. At that moment, James was slightly losing consciousness.

However, the pain in his flesh and soul woke him up. Suddenly, a mysterious formation appeared, and a figure was sitting in a lotus position within it.

James was no longer able to sustain his physical body. His soul fled and submerged into the figure within the formation.

As James' soul merged with the figure, his original body fell apart.

The figure within the formation opened its eyes and slowly became substantial. Then, he stepped forward and left the formation.

He appeared in front of Mekaisto and swung his fist. The two had a confrontation, and Mekaisto was knocked away.

Mekaisto was startled by the outcome. He had already regained fifty percent of his strength but was disadvantaged. He thought to himself, 'This guy is so strange.'

James cast the Blithe Omniscience, flashed behind Mekaisto, and attacked.

In a short moment, the seven Mekaistos were forced to retreat with injuries.

James stood in the void and sensed the power flowing through his body. His face showed calmness and confidence once again.

His physical body had been destroyed, so his soul had merged with the formation's figure. Now, his strength was overpowering.

At that moment, Mekaisto took action again. The seven Mekaistos surrounded James from all sides and attacked.

At that moment, the formation surrounded James and blocked their attacks. The seven Mekaistos were injured. They were knocked away and vomited blood.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4988-James had created the formation with everything he had learned. It was terrifyingly potent. Even with seven Mekaistos attacking together, the formation remained unscathed.

The formation's power injured the seven Mekaistos.

On the other hand, James had merged with the figure within the formation. His body gradually became substantial and became his new body.

The new body was no different from his original body and was still a Thousand Paths Holy Body. The only difference was that his physical body was much more robust.

"How is he so unpredictable?" Mekaisto's face darkened.

He had used a secret art to summon multiple clones, which had the same strength as him. However, it was not enough to take down James. Even worse, James had destroyed one of his clones.

Mekaisto looked at the magical formation. After sensing the transformation within the formation, he had a solemn look. He understood the chances of him winning were very slim. He thought to himself, 'It's a pity I couldn't restore my strength to its peak. Otherwise, I would be able to kill James even if he had cast so many Supernatural Powers and the strange formation.'

At that moment, the seven Mekaistos merged into one.

Although Mekaisto's secret art was powerful, it consumed much of his strength. After battling for so long, his energy was exhausted.

Mekaisto hovered in the void, thinking of a countermeasure.

'If I don't go all out, I'll be killed by James in the Doom Universe. If I escape to the Dark World, he'll definitely come after me. I must kill him at all costs. Even if I have to die, I must drag James down with me. Plus, there's still a chance I will survive.

'After I kill James, I won't have the strength to take on Zaden anymore. I'll have no choice but to escape. Zaden will have a lot to deal with after leaving seclusion and won't chase after me.

'I can reincarnate and recuperate while in hiding. When I regain my full strength, I may be able to take on Zaden.'

Mekaisto immediately brainstormed a series of actions.

James hovered in the void with the Boundless Sword. He stepped into the mysterious formation. He had the power of the District Heavenly Paths and the formation. At that moment, his aura had reached the peak of the Chaos Completare Rank.

He was at the same level as Emperor Raiah in the past.

In other words, he was almost invincible unless faced with a powerhouse at the Sovereign Rank.

Even if he were to meet Taran in his prime, James could put up a fight.

Swoosh!

James pointed the Boundless Sword at Mekaisto, who was in the distance.

An invisible Sword Energy burst toward Mekaisto.

However, Mekaisto dodged in time.

Boom!

The Sword Energy pierced through the air and destroyed a large area.

The energy left behind after the destruction of these areas was absorbed by the Ten Thousand Demon Formation.

Zaden quickly seized the chance to absorb the energy as well.

The Ten Thousand Demon Formation was in full operation after activation. It was constantly destroying different areas within the Chaos District and collecting energy.

Zaden's strength was gradually improving.

Mekaisto appeared in an area of a different universe. His face was grim, and there were blood stains on the corner of his lips. At this point, he could not care less anymore.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4989-“For you to have pushed me to this point, you’re amazing, James. Even if you die, your name will be remembered.”

Mekaisto’s voice resounded. Shortly after, a strange power emerged from his body.

It seemed like he had sacrificed an important part of himself.

A potent power shrouded him, and his strength was immediately restored. His injured body also became more robust. At that moment, he had regained his peak strength.

During Emperor Raiah’s era, the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Second Commander, Mekaisto, was stronger than the Third Commander.

James had no idea how strong Mekaisto was at his peak. He only knew that Wynne sacrificed himself to injure the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Third Commander, Livie.

Zaden and Xezal continued to watch from the dark. At that moment, countless broken inscriptions gathered to form a translucent figure.

A smile formed on Zaden’s face. He said, “Mekaisto has finally used the Demonic Pill their Great Commander gave him.”

Curious, Xezal asked, ‘What’s this Demonic Pill?’

Zaden replied, “Mekaisto had told me their Great

Commander already knew their invasion would fail. It was an inevitable result. However, they had already made thorough preparations.

“They knew Emperor Raiah would chase after their Great Commander if he fled.

“Mekaisto was the most crucial piece in their plan. He had to stay and be sealed away in the Endlos.

“As for the Demonic Pill, I heard it was refined by the powerhouse behind the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Great Commander. One would have to sacrifice a portion of one’s soul. Regardless of the injury’s severity, the Demonic Pill can help restore one’s strength to one’s peak,” Zaden explained ecstaticly.

“James is really amazing. He forced Mekaisto to use the Demonic Pill and sacrifice a portion of his soul.

“However, there’s a con to using the Demonic Pill. After the battle, the user will enter a period of vulnerability and will need to be reincarnated. The user won’t be able to retain their cultivation power after reincarnation but will recover really fast. Eventually, the user will return to his peak state.

“Even after Mekaisto wins this battle, he won’t be a threat to me. If he wants to accomplish his task, he will have to survive. He’ll avoid fighting me and will quickly hide to be reincarnated. Then, he’ll wait for the perfect opportunity to reemerge.

“While he goes into hiding, I can take control over the Endlos. By the time he returns at his peak strength, I won’t have to fear him.”

After explaining, Zaden laughed.

“You’re wise as always, Father.” A smile formed on Xezal’s pretty face.

After Mekaisto sacrificed his soul and activated the Demonic Pill, he regained his peak strength.

His current strength would be ranked third in Emperor Raiah’s era. Back then, only Emperor Raiah and their Great Commander could suppress him.

Other than them, he was unrivaled.

He stretched his body and felt a familiar power flowing in him. Immediately, a smile formed on his face.

“I’m impressed, James. You’re only at the Chaos 11 limita Rank, but you pushed me to this point. I admit you’re very powerful. We might’ve become good friends if not because we’re on different sides.

“Now that I’ve regained my strength, you don’t stand a chance.”

In the distance, James frowned after sensing Mekaisto’s power. “Is this the strength of Mekaisto at his peak? So this is the strength that made the Endlos’ living beings tremble in fear?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4990-Meanwhile, the Human Universe had already left the Chaos District.

Many powerhouses gathered in the Heavenly Court's main hall and looked toward the Chaos District. Everyone was paying attention to the battle happening in the Chaos District.

A tall and beautiful woman stood in the front. After sensing Mekaisto's transformation, a few soul sigils emerged from her bones.

The woman was none other than Livie.

After her skeleton was found, Zeno refined it and obliterated her soul sigil. However, a few soul sigils were buried inside her bones. At that moment, the soul sigils emerged, and a fragmented soul appeared to occupy the body. The fragmented soul was the original owner of the body. Thus, the body did not resist.

Livie's body now had two souls. One was the complete soul given by James. The other was a fragmented soul of the Extraterrestrial Demons' Third Commander. The two souls fit perfectly in the body.

Although the body had two souls, Livie's soul was dominant, not the Extraterrestrial Demons' Third Commander's soul.

After the fragmented soul emerged, the incomplete memories in Livie's mind suddenly connected. She also remembered there was a Demonic Pill deep within her fragmented soul. She could regain her peak strength if she sacrificed her soul.

"Have you thought this through?" A cold voice resounded in her mind.

"If you sacrifice the awakened soul in your body, you'll never be able to return to who you were. You'll no longer be Jaomi Lanivel and Grand Priestess Lanivel."

"I don't want to be Jaomi Lanivel, or the Grand Priestess Lanivel."

At that moment, two souls looked at each other in Livie's mind.

"Being Jaomi and the Grand Priestess is too tiring. It's more comfortable living as Livie."

"Don't forget your mission. You survived because the Lord gave you the Demonic Pill. Otherwise, your bones would've rotted long ago."

“If it weren’t for the Lord, I wouldn’t have ever entered the Endlos.”

On the battlefield, Mekaisto continued to emit a powerful aura. His demeanor also changed. He was much calmer and confident. At his peak, even Emperor Raiah would not necessarily be able to kill him.

James stood on the formation, which constantly rotated below him. Every time it spun, the formation would produce some mysterious and profound inscriptions.

The inscriptions released potent power and enhanced James’ strength. At that moment, James’ aura was not much different than Mekaisto’s aura.

“How about we stop here?” Mekaisto looked at James and suddenly suggested, “We don’t have to fight to our deaths. One of us is going to end up dead. Ultimately, we’re only going to let Zaden reap the benefits. How about we make a truce and destroy Zaden together? Then, you’ll become the new Endlos Lord. I promise to retreat to the Dark World and not come out to the Endlos within ten thousand epochs. How does that sound?”

Although Mekaisto regained his strength, he did not immediately attack. Instead, he tried negotiating with James.

James frowned. He was unsure how Mekaisto regained his strength, but from Mekaisto’s words, he could tell he could not maintain his current state for long. As long as he persisted, he would definitely defeat Mekaisto.

‘There’s no space for a truce between us,” James said coldly, “In the past, countless Extraterrestrial Demons invaded the Endlos. Many of our powerhouses fought back but sacrificed to protect our home. So how can I make a deal with you?”

“We can do this the easy way, James,” Mekaisto said coldly.

Mekaisto was unwilling to go to extremes and wanted to make a deal with James.
