The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5032-Waleria was furious after being toyed with. However, she was unable to vent the anger in her heart.

Even the Theos Sect's Leader, Sedris, could easily be trounced by the man before them. How would she even stand a chance?

Waleria suppressed the anger in her heart and said smilingly, "Who am I to receive such a blessing?"

"In that case, I won't force you. However, you've missed a great opportunity." King Marciais looked at her regretfully, then walked away.

James was relieved. He was afraid that King Marciais would have caused trouble for him.

After they left, Waleria was also relieved.

Waleria asked, "Sir Sedris, where did the Orstellen Sect come from?"

Sedris shook his head and said, "I haven't heard about them before. They must be a hidden sect that has never made an appearance before."

"He was so strong." Waleria still felt horrified by the event.

"Indeed." Sedris frowned. He had already entered the Chaos Transcendence Rank but was easily suppressed.

James left with King Marciais to a hidden sect within the Theos Sect. The hidden sect had existed since Emperor Raiah's era. It had been staying in seclusion in the past.

After they had reemerged, their disciples hardly moved around in the outside world.

King Maricias looked at the stone tablet outside the gate and murmured, “The Mist Sect.”

Then, he looked at James and said, “You need a lot of Empyrean herbs to improve your strength. The Mist Sect is quite a powerful force. They should have many Empyrean herbs. How about we loot them?”

James said troubledly, “Then what makes us different from robbers?”

“You’re overscrupulous. We’re only taking their Empyrean herbs and not harming anyone’s life. Empyrean herbs were born in the Endlos for cultivators.”

James agreed with King Marciais’ remarks. His words seemed to make sense, and James could not refute him.

‘Then we’ll do as you say,’ said James.

He also wanted to snatch some Empyrean herbs, but with King Maricias around, he was a bit embarrassed to do so. Now that King Marciais’ proposed it, he was more than pleased to oblige. After the brief conversation, he agreed to King Marciais’ request.

“Let’s go.” King Marciais smiled faintly and walked toward the Mist Sect.

He approached and touched the formation.

The formation seemed like a thin piece of paper to him and was shattered without him even using much force.

James followed King Marciais around the Endlos’ various regions to visit a few ancient sects and families.

Everywhere they went, they would loot these powerful families’ gardens.

Meanwhile, the news about the Orstellen Sect's King Marciais and Grand Priest had spread unknowingly.

'The Saber Sect was robbed!'

"What? Has the Saber Sect also been robbed by the Orstellen Sect?"

"It should be them. The Saber Sect's Leader was defeated in one move, and the Orstellen Sect's Grand Priest completely emptied their garden. He didn't even leave behind low- quality Emphyrean herbs."

"The latest news is the Orstellen Sect's King Marciais and Grand Priest have gone to Mount Taba!"

"It was not easy for Mount Taba's Grand Patriarch to recover after being severely injured by Taran. But he got injured once again."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5033-"Mount Origin was also robbed."

Several powerful sects within the Endlos suffered from the vicious hands of King Marciais and James. However, the two had only robbed them of their Emphyrean herbs and did not take anyone's life.

After some time, the Orstellen Sect's King Marciais and Grand Priest spread throughout the Endlos' Ten Districts.

Powerhouses speculated about the Orstellen Sect's origin and purpose in organizing the Orstellen Convention.

After traveling around for a while, James and King Marciais returned to the Chaos District.

Now that they had traveled all over the Endlos' Ten Districts, King Marciais wanted to fight Zaden Dalibor.

James sat in an empty field somewhere in the Chaos District. He cultivated wholeheartedly within a time formation.

After looting Empyrean herbs from various sects and families throughout the Ten Districts, James began to absorb and refine their powers. His strength continued to improve, and his bloodline power was on a constant rise.

His goal was to reach the Chaos Omnia Rank and Marciais Path's thirteenth rank.

James easily entered the Chaos Omnia Rank and Marciais Path's thirteenth rank, improving his strength to a higher level.

"That's too fast."

Even a powerhouse like King Marciais was surprised by James' improvement. He had never seen a cultivator improve so rapidly before, especially in the Marciais Path.

He was the creator of the Marciais Path, so he knew how hard it was to improve. However, James had improved from the Marciais Path's Eleventh Rank to the thirteenth rank in a very short period. At this rate, James would eventually catch up to him at the Marciais Path's fourteenth rank. James might even reach the Marciais Path's fifteenth rank before him.

King Marciais felt slightly dispirited at the thought. He had created the Marciais Path, but he would be ashamed if James were to reach the fifteenth rank before him.

James dispersed his aura and the time formation. Then, he looked at the dispirited King Marciais and asked, "What's wrong?"

"N-Nothing," King Marciais snapped out of his thoughts and said, "I was just extrapolating to find out what kind of treasures could help you improve your bloodline power so that you can reach the Marciais Path's Fourteenth Rank."

“What’s the result?” James was intrigued.

King Marciais sat on a rock and said, “We’ve looted almost all the Empyrean herbs within the Ten Districts to help you enter the Chaos Omnia Rank and Marciais Path’s Thirteenth Rank. There aren’t many treasures left in the Endlos and not enough to support you into the fourteenth rank. If you cultivate normally, it’ll take a very long time.”

“Cut to the chase.”

King Marciais smiled and said, “I’ve found an Empyrean herb with the Dooms.”

“Really?” James was excited.

King Marciais replied, “Yeah. The Empyrean herb appeared after Zaden became the Endlos Lord again. When he became the Endlos Lord, the Endlos’ luck gathered within the Dooms’ territory. The Empyrean herb formed because of the potent luck gathered there. It’s called the Lucky Flower. However...”

After a brief pause, King Marciais continued, saying, “Although the Lucky Flower is magical, it’s not enough to help you enter the Chaos Essencia Rank and the Maciais Path’s Fourteenth Rank. We’ll still need to travel to the Human Universe, Mount Hazeaf, and Mount Hetsema.

These places have rare herbs that should be able to help you enter the Chaos Essencia Rank and the Maciais Path’s fourteenth rank.”

“According to the locations you’ve mentioned, I suppose you’re going to challenge Zaden, Thea, Taran, and Emperor Hetsema?”

King Marciais said smilingly, “Wasn’t that the main purpose of my trip all along?”

“They’re all at the Chaos Completare Rank. Are you sure?” asked James.

King Marcias smiled in response. Then, he stood up and said, “Let’s go to the Doom Universe first.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5034-Even though Zaden had been defeated a few times, he still had possession of the Endlos Heart. His title as the Endlos Lord remained. Thus, his prestige in the Endlos was still high.

The Doods’ territory was still the best place to cultivate within the Endlos.

James and King Marciais arrived in the Chaos District and appeared outside Mount Chaos’ gate.

King Marciais asked troubledly, “How should I make a move? How should I do this in a low-key manner but also allow room for me to show off?”

“Do whatever you want.”

After accompanying King Marciais for a while, James had a general understanding of his character. He was a man of temperament. Everything he does depends on his mood. However, he never goes overboard with his actions and would not kill without reason.

Throughout their journey around the Endlos, King Marciaias had not killed a single being.

“I know what to do!” King Marciais suddenly came up with an idea. He suggested, “I’ll need your help to deliver a written challenge to Zaden.”

“Me?” James was dumbfounded.

“Yeah. I’ll withdraw for now. Then, I’ll show up after you send the written challenge to him.”

After giving instructions, King Marciais disappeared.

James was speechless. He created a letter of challenge and then approached Mount Chaos’ gate.

“Grand Priest of Orstellen Sect is here to visit!”

James’ voice resounded.

A few living beings were cultivating outside the mountain gate. Upon hearing the “Orstellen Sect,” many of them were startled.

‘The Orstellen Sect is here?’

“Recently, the Orstellen Sect has been very famous. They’ve robbed many sects within the Ten Districts.”

‘They sure are brave. Don’t they know this is the Doom Race’s territory? Are they not aware the ruler of the Dooms is also the Endlos Lord?’

Everyone’s gaze fixated on James. His voice spread out in the Dooms’ territory.

Zaden was injured after being defeated by Taran. He was still recovering from his injuries, so he had not heard about the Orstellen Sect yet.

However, Xezal had already heard about the news.

At that moment, she was hesitant about informing her father about the matter. After a brief contemplation, she decided not to notify him yet.

From what she heard, the Orstellen Sect had broken through the other sect's formations and infiltrated their territory.

However, they were announcing their visit this time. That was enough to prove the Orstellen Sect was wary of the Dooms.

Swoosh!!!

A white light ray landed on the ground outside the mountain gate, and a beautiful woman emerged from it.

Xezal looked at James standing outside the mountain gate. Since James had changed his appearance, she could not recognize him.

"I'm the Grand Priest of the Orstellen Sect, and I've come to visit the Dooms. Who might you be?" James' pretended not to know Xezal.

Xezal walked over, clasped her hands, and said, "I'm Zaden's daughter, Xezal. Unfortunately, my father is in seclusion right now. Go ahead and tell me the reason for your visit."

"I'm here to deliver a letter of challenge. However, you're not qualified to accept it. Please ask Zaden to personally come forward." James waved his hand, and the letter of challenge hovered above the Dooms' territory.

James created the letter of challenge with some inscriptions, which contained terrifying power. The force crushed down, causing the area to tremble. Unable to bear the pressure, Xezal fell to her knees.

"Who dares to wreak havoc in the Dooms' territory?" A loud shout came from the Dooms' forbidden area. Immediately afterward, a potent force shattered the letter of challenge.

“Does everyone think I’m a pushover? Why are so many cultivators coming to challenge me?”

After Zaden let out a furious roar, a projection of him appeared in the sky. He looked down at James outside the mountain gate.

His powerful aura startled even the member of the Doom Race.

“As expected from the Endlos Lord.”

“His aura is terrifying.”

However, James was not affected by Zaden’s aura.

He turned around, looked into the distance, and shouted, “If you don’t show up soon, Zaden’s going to beat me to death.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5035-“Who dares to lay a hand on my friend?” A cold shout came from the distance.

Shortly after, the void split open, and a golden dragon appeared with a man standing on its head.

King Marciais had created the dragon using inscriptions, thinking he would make a more impactful appearance.

He showed up outside the mountain gate. He stood atop the golden dragon and asked coldly, “I asked our Grand Priest to send a letter of challenge to Zaden. Who was causing trouble for him?”

James pointed at Zaden’s projection in the sky and said, “Him.”

“Hmph!” King Marciais waved his hand, unleashing a powerful force to destroy the projection in the sky.

The formation around the Dooms' spiritual mountain hummed and eventually shattered.

Many new Dooms' members and living beings cultivating outside the mountain gate were startled after seeing the formation created by Zaden shattered so easily.

"Puff!"

At a particular holy site of the Dooms, Zaden spat out a mouthful of blood.

He had not fully recovered from his previous injuries. After King Marciais shattered the projection of himself, his injuries worsened. However, he could not continue staying in seclusion since enemies had come looking for him.

Zaden immediately appeared above the Dooms' territory.

With the Endlos Heart in hand, his aura instantly skyrocketed. Then, he used the Endlos Heart to gather the power of the Ten Districts' Heavenly Path.

As soon as he mobilized the District Heavenly Paths' powers, the powerhouses throughout the Ten Districts immediately took notice.

'Why is Zaden using the power of the District Heavenly Paths?'

"Did he encounter a powerful enemy?"

Zaden hovered in the sky above the spiritual mountain with a grim expression. He said coldly, "Do you think the Dooms are easy targets?"

King Marciais said calmly, "Among the Endlos Four, you seem to be the easiest target."

The Endlos Four that King Marciais mentioned was in reference to Zaden, Thea, Taran, and Wyot.

“You...” Zaden’s face ashened.

King Marciais said nonchalantly, “The letter of challenge was delivered and then ruined by you, so I’ll take it the challenge has been accepted. Since you’ve accepted it, let’s get right to it.”

Zaden said furiously, “I don’t care about the Orstellen Sect or who you are. If you want to fight, let’s take it to the Endlos Void.”

King Marciais said calmly, “That won’t be necessary.”

Then, a powerful force gathered in his palm and formed a few mysterious inscriptions.

King Marciais murmured, “Divine Martial Art.”

After speaking, he thrust his palm forward.

The inscriptions in his palm immediately flew out and formed a substantial mountain.

Zaden raised the Endlos Heart and gathered the District Heavenly Paths to resist the attack.

Rumble!!!

The Ten Districts’ Heavenly Paths crumbled under the Divine Martial Art’s crushing power.

The massive mountain struck Zaden.

Although King Marciais’ attack was powerful, it did not cause damage to the surrounding void. Only Zaden was being pinned down by the mountain, whereas the other areas were completely unscathed.

Everyone watching, including James, was dumbfounded.

Zaden possessed the Endlos Heart and was a powerhouse at the Chaos Completare Rank. Yet, he was suppressed with just one attack from his opponent.

King Marciais' strength was terrifying
