The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5044-King Marciais, James, and Thea traveled toward the Dark World's border. However, they were not in a hurry.

The three took a short break somewhere in the Endlos.

James sat in a lotus position in the Endlos Void. He absorbed and re ned the Lucky Flower he had obtained from the Dooms. Then, he did the same to the countless Empyrean herbs he had gathered.

Seeing the Lucky Flower, Thea was slightly envious. She could advance from the early stage of the Chaos Completare Rank to the middle stage if she had the Lucky Flower.

Meanwhile, James' aura constantly grew stronger. After completely re ning the Lucky Flower and the many Empyran herbs, he still failed to reach the Marciais Rank's Fourteenth Rank. However, he reached the Chaos Omnia Rank's peak.

With just a little bit more energy, he would be able to enter the Chaos Essencia Rank.

"Huff!" James let out a deep breath, then dispersed the formation.

King Marciais said smilingly, "Very good. After the journey around the Endlos is over, you'll be able to enter the Marciais Path's Fourteenth Rank and reach the Chaos Essencia Rank. However, you shouldn't be too proud. Even after reaching the Marciais Path's Fourteenth Rank and the Chaos Essencia Rank, there is still a long way before you reach their peak stages."

James replied con dently, "Despite that, I'll be able to ght you."

Even though King Mariciais was overwhelmingly strong, James believed when he reached the Marciais Path's Fourteenth Rank and the Chaos Essencia Rank, he could ght King Marciais in his actual cultivation rank.

"Hehe." King Marciais chuckled.

He thought to himself, 'You think you can ght me? You haven't seen me in full action. I've only shown you a bit of what I can do.'

King Marciais asked smilingly, "What do you think of the Orstellen Sect's Grand Priest, Thea?"

Thea thought for a moment and said, "It's just like you've said. He is a true prodigy and a very powerful cultivator."

King Marciais said, "Your husband, James, has died long ago. It's already been an entrapoch. The Grand Priest accepts you even though you've had children. It's the perfect chance for you. You shouldn't miss it."

Thea replied earnestly, "James isn't dead. I can sense his soul aura in the Endlos. Even if he were to have died, I won't marry the Grand Priest."

King Marciais reprimanded her, "You're too scrupulous. What's so good about James anyway?"

Thea was too lazy to bicker with King Marciais.

James walked over to Thea and said smilingly, "Thea, my feelings for you are sincere. I fell in love with you at rst sight.

Let's have a child together."

"Get lost." Thea's face darkened, and she raised her hand to hit James.

James quickly dodged the powerful blow.

Boom!!!

The void in the distance was shattered.

"Haha!" King Marciaias giggled and said, "It seems you still have a long way to go before you win her heart."

James chuckled and said, "Not even a challenge. I can guarantee that after we travel around the Endlos and return to the Orstellen Sect, Thea will fall in love with me, and we'll have children."

Thea immediately refuted, "Never. Not in this life, not the next, or ever."

James smiled broadly and said, "We'll just have to wait and – _ 19

"Sure!" Thea replied rmly.

King Marciais smiled faintly at their bickering and said," Let's get going."

Then, he cast the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared.

James and Thea followed after him.
