

Read The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5056-Taran appeared.

Countless gazes were watching the situation below.

When Taran appeared, the aura he exuded dispersed the darkness of the world.

Standing in the void, he stared at King Marciais in the distance.

With his hands behind him, he said calmly, "King Marciais, I've come to battle as scheduled." Slowly, King Marciais stood up.

"It's starting." James was excited.

Looking at Thea beside him, he said, "Focus on the battle.

Try to comprehend the battle.

Currently, both of them have the strongest combat power in Endlos.

King Marciais' Divine Martial Art and Taran's Curse Magic are both extremely magical." "Of course." Thea rolled her eyes.

She knew that this battle was a battle of the strongest.

Perhaps other living beings would not understand the battle and comprehend something from it, but she was in the Chaos Completare Rank.

Her cultivation rank was high.

She could comprehend something from the battle.

The living beings waiting to watch the battle were looking forward to the battle.

Meanwhile, James found a place near the battlefield.

He wanted to use this opportunity to watch the battle to comprehend paths and fuse his signature skills.

He wanted to assimilate them into the formation and integrate everything.

The two powerhouses stood in the void.

Both of their auras were powerful.

“It’s a mere duel, not a life-or-death battle.” King Marciais smiled.

Then, he entered the state of the peak of the Fourteenth Rank of the Marciais Path and made a gesture.

When he entered the Fourteenth Rank of the Marciais Path, his Spiritual Power reached its extreme.

A dazzling halo appeared.

It was a halo that was made up of many colors.

It reflected the physical body, soul, blood vein, and other powers reaching their extreme.

Facing the powerful King Marciais, Taran did not act recklessly.

He activated his cultivation method.

In his body, a great power surged.

With the power, his sleeves puffed up.

He waved his hand.

A strong power emerged in his puffed-up sleeves.

The power charged forward.

In the process of moving forward, it turned into countless inscriptions.

Every inscription was mysterious.

Each of them contained a strong power.

When the inscriptions appeared before King Marciais, they turned into power again.

James watched the situation without blinking.

He had learned Curse Magic before.

Although he did not learn it completely, his comprehension of inscriptions was profound.

When Taran attacked, James seemed to have understood the inscriptions contained in Taran's power.

In his mind, the inscriptions flashed by.

King Marciais was calm in the face of Taran's attack.

He remained standing in the same spot.

When the terrifying power appeared before him, he raised his hand and flicked his finger.

All of his Spiritual Powers fused.

With a flick, they blocked Taran's attack.

The next instant, King Marciais made a move.

His body disappeared all of a sudden.

When he appeared again, he was already in front of Taran.

Raising his hand, he punched Taran's body.

He appeared abruptly and quickly.

Nonetheless, Taran could react in time.

He did not dodge the attack.

Instead, he raised his hand and resisted it.

Boom! Both fists collided.

The two powers intertwined with one another.

King Marciais changed his attack and struck once again.

Taran fought back.

Both of their shadows continuously collided with each other.

Each time they collided, something would fall apart.

The void was cracking endlessly.

The average powerhouses dared not go near them.

They could only judge the battle by sensing its aftermath.

They dared not use their Zen to penetrate the battle.

The aftermath of the battle was already terrifying, hence if their Zen penetrated the battle, they would be annihilated immediately.

Only a few living beings could watch the battle nearby.

They were James, Thea, Zaden, and Wyot.

None of them wanted to miss out on this battle.

The battle was intense.

Soon, Taran fell behind.

“Taran’s at a disadvantage.

He’s weaker than King Marciais.” Thea could see each of their attacks clearly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5057-Sitting with his legs crossed, James said, “It isn’t that easy.

King Marciais cultivates martial arts.

His physical body is strong.

His Supernatural Powers are mostly on his fists and legs.

Besides, the power of martial arts is pure.

In terms of power, he's at an advantage.

However, Taran has mastered the Curse Magic.

He's using his weakness to fight against King Marciais' strength." James was not wrong.

Taran was using his weakness to fight against King Marciais' strength.

Boom! The battlefield exploded once again.

The entire area was destroyed.

Taran was blown away.

His arms were numb.

Cracks also appeared on his arms.

His physical body and power could not beat King Marciais.

Taking the opportunity to step backward, he appeared in the distance.

When he stabilized himself, he waved his hand, and many inscriptions instantly appeared.

Each inscription was mysterious and contained a terrifying power.

The inscriptions underwent constant transformations.

Then, they grouped and formed a black armor.

The black armor covered Taran's body.

The armor made by inscriptions was similar to real armor.

After Taran wore the armor, his defense improved.

Right then, in the distance, a Five Finger Mountain landed.

"Break," said Taran.

With a flick of his fingers, an inscription emerged.

The inscription underwent an instant change.

It turned into a dazzling longsword.

The longsword attacked the Five Finger Mountain.

Boom! The longsword struck the Five Finger Mountain.

The Five Finger Mountain instantly shattered into broken stones.

The stones changed quickly.

They turned into several runes.

From the runes, a figure walked out.

It was King Marciais.

King Marciais appeared abruptly.

At the next moment, he was already behind Taran.

The power of martial arts gathered in his palms before he attacked.

Taran turned around and fought back.

At that moment, a few inscriptions emerged in his palm.

The inscriptions grouped and formed a halo.

King Marciais' attack landed on the halo.

The halo was destroyed.

King Marciais' body continued moving forward.

His palm landed on Taran's body.

Nonetheless, Taran was agile.

King Marciais did not manage to hit him.

When Taran disappeared, the void collapsed.

Immediately, the void cracked, and a black hole appeared.

Taran appeared at the same spot.

At this time, a Curse Inscription appeared before him.

The inscription was strange.

It was only an inscription, but it turned into a formation.

In an instant, the formation engulfed King Marciais.

In the formation, King Marciais felt the spatial pressure.

Hundreds of millions of times of spatial pressure was crushing his body.

His speed immediately decreased.

He wanted to get out of the formation, but no matter where he went, the formation would follow him.

King Marciais' body was resisting the huge pressure.

Cracks appeared on his body, which he was proud of.

His internal organs were also injured.

Blood seeped out of his mouth.

Raising his head, he stared at the formation deduced by an inscription and wiped away the blood on his mouth.

As he clenched his fists, veins popped up on his arms.

At this moment, a power surged in his body.

The power flowed quickly with his meridians and gathered in his fists.

"Break." His body went against the grain.

A terrifying Martial Path Power surged in his fists.

It was the power of the Divine Martial Art.

The power was like a dragon shooting up the sky.

The formation cast by Taran broke instantly.

When King Marciais broke the formation, he appeared behind Taran out of nowhere.

His fists landed on Taran.

Crack! Taran's armor immediately cracked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5058-The armor on Taran's body cracked, but it was not completely broken.

A part of King Marciais' body entered Taran's body via the cracks.

Taran's physical body suffered from the power of King Marciais' attack.

Wounds appeared on the surface of his skin.

His inner body also suffered from a blow.

Due to the power, the blood in his body became chaotic.

He tried to suppress the surging of his blood but failed.

The blood reached his throat, and he spat it out.

King Marciais had used the power of the Marciais Path and his cultivation rank.

He was in the Fourteenth Rank of the Marciais Path and at the peak of the Chaos Completare Rank.

Both combined were hard to defeat.

Even though Taran was also at the peak of the Chaos Completare Rank, he still suffered from injuries.

Taran, who was injured, stumbled backward and appeared in the distance.

Meanwhile, King Marciais went after him.

His body disappeared.

When he appeared again, he was already in front of Taran.

In a flash, countless shadows appeared in the area.

Each shadow attacked Taran fiercely.

The shadows flashed continuously.

Each time they flashed, Taran would be hit by a powerful attack.

Even though the armor on Taran's body was magical and had a terrifying defense, cracks appeared on the armor endlessly because of King Marciais' attacks.

In the end, the armor was gone.

Without the protection of the armor, Taran's body became a target.

In an instant, his body was covered in injuries.

In the distance, many powerhouses saw the scene.

They were all worried about Taran.

King Marciais' attacks were terrifying.

If his opponent were another living being, they might not even be able to resist a punch.

Zaden also sensed the power of King Marciais' attacks.

He admitted that he could not take King Marciais' punch.

If King Marciais had used this power previously and landed a single punch on Zaden, Zaden's body would have collapsed.

His soul would also suffer from severe injuries.

Thea was also deep in thought.

She was weighing King Marciais' power.

She believed that she could not resist King Marciais' attack.

On the battlefield, Taran's body was covered in wounds.

Blood kept seeping out of his mouth.

Then, his body disintegrated before disappearing.

At the next moment, his body reshaped in the distance.

The moment his body rematerialized, his injuries began to recover.

Calmly, he stood in the void, looking at King Marciais, who was formed by several shadows, in the distance.

With a smile, he said, "What a strong Martial Path Power.

You managed to cultivate such a pure power to this extent.

You're amazing." King Marciais' ability was acknowledged and admired by Taran.

King Marciais smiled and said, "As someone who could fight against Emperor Raiah before Endlos, you must not have shown your full ability.

If you're only this strong, you couldn't have been Emperor Raiah's opponent." Although this was the first time King Marciais and Taran were fighting against each other, King Marciais knew Taran was not showing his true strength.

" Hah! " Taran laughed.

At this moment, a strange power emerged from his body.

Instantly, his aura changed.

His aura was uncanny.

When he exuded his aura, several powerhouses in the distance felt uneasy.

Even Thea and Wyot were shocked.

They felt a strange power sweep across them.

After being affected by the power, the powerhouses had some negative reactions.

Nevertheless, they could get rid of the reactions easily.

“The true Curse Power.” James grew excited as he said, “It’s here.

The real battle has begun.” Standing in the void, Taran used his true Curse Power.

His aura became extremely powerful and strange.

He stood in the void and became an existence that could not be looked at directly.

It was as if one glance at him would taint one with the curse and produce a negative effect.

When King Marciais saw Taran in this state, his expression became serious.

Taran stood in the void with one hand behind his back.

He waved his other hand, and a terrifying inscription appeared.

The inscription was mysterious, profound, and ever-changing.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5059-Once the inscription appeared, his Curse Power surged.

King Marciais, who was on the battlefield, was affected by the power of the inscription.

Under the influence of the power, the blood in his body slowed down.

He felt his power being confined.

Swoosh! At this moment, a black longsword appeared out of nowhere.

The sword appeared before King Marciais and was charging toward him.

King Marciais raised his hand, and a pure Martial Path Power emerged in his palm.

The Martial Path Power materialized and blocked the black sword.

When the Martial Path Power blocked the sword, countless black swords rained from the sky.

The swords were deduced by an inscription.

The aura King Marciais exuded skyrocketed.

His aura increased, and he resisted the descending swords.

The black swords dissipated and disappeared in an instant.

“Destroy,” said Taran in a cold voice.

His words were like a law.

After that, a terrifying power filled the area.

The space King Marciais was in collapsed immediately.

A large black hole appeared.

King Marciais, who was in the black hole, instantly suffered from injuries.

His body disappeared and reappeared in another place.

When he reappeared, the space continued to collapse.

He kept dodging.

Wherever he went would turn into ruins.

Taran continued to attack.

All kinds of inscriptions appeared, including Curse Inscriptions that could weaken one's power, seal spaces, and make one's power disappear.

Several kinds of inscriptions appeared.

With his Curse Power, even King Marciais fell into a predicament and was injured.

It was an exciting battle.

It was the first time Taran showcased such strange Curse Magic in front of the public.

King Marciais, who was strong, also could not resist the Curse Magic.

He was not in good condition.

He wanted to fight against Taran up close.

However, he was surrounded by Curse Inscriptions.

He was trapped by the inscriptions.

He could not break free in a short time.

Besides, Taran was strong and agile.

He did not let King Marciais get close to him.

King Marciais' hair was messy, and blood was at the edges of his mouth.

He was in a bad condition.

At this time, the meridians in his body became chaotic.

His blood veins and powers were going backward.

Following the reversal of his blood veins and power, his aura became powerful and violent.

When the violent power appeared, the Curse Inscriptions around him were destroyed.

"What a violent power." James was stunned as he mumbled, "Is this the power King Marciais said that can't be controlled entirely? Once used, even he could not control it." James watched King Marciais' every move and the changes in his body.

James sensed King Marciais' blood veins and powers moving backward.

At this moment, heaven and earth seemed to have swapped positions.

Time and history seemed to be reversing.

“What kind of Supernatural Power is this?” James frowned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5060-King Marciais’ aura reached its extreme.

His eyes turned red.

It was as if he had gone mad.

When Taran saw King Marciais in this state, he frowned.

King Marciais gave him a sense of danger.

Now, it was no longer an average battle but a life-or-death battle.

Taran wanted to stop the battle, but upon facing King Marciais in this state, he wanted to test King Marciais’ power.

Standing in the void, he exuded Curse Power.

Thankfully, they were in the Dark World.

If they were in a district in Endlos, the Curse Power Taran exuded would be enough to affect all living beings in the district and the living beings’ future generations.

Once the living beings were affected by the Curse Power, they would be affected forever.

“Huff!” Taran took a deep breath.

He decided not to hold back anymore.

He displayed the last rank of his Curse Art, which was the highest cultivation rank of Curse Magic he comprehended.

His aura changed again.

He seemed to have turned into a kind of ancient mysterious inscription from a living being.

James stared at Taran without turning away.

Under James' watch, Taran's life aura seemed to have disappeared.

It was as though Taran had become an inscription.

The inscription was complex and ever-changing.

Taran stood in the void as his body turned transparent.

The meridians, blood, bones, and flesh in his body seemed to be inscriptions.

Currently, Taran's aura was not weaker than King Marciais'.

In fact, it was stronger than the latter's.

"Amazing." James could not help but be shocked.

He said, "He managed to cultivate the Curse Magic to this cultivation rank.

He has become one with the inscriptions.

No wonder he could fight against Emperor Raiah for domination." Now, the battle had upgraded.

King Marciais and Taran had both shown their true powers.

These were their true powers.

The previous battle was a spar, letting the two study one another, and a warmup.

However, the power showcased in the previous battle was already at the pinnacle.

James watched King Marciais and Taran.

King Marciais was also standing in the void.

His blood veins and powers were moving backward.

A terrifying power surged in his body.

The power affected everything.

His hair was messy, and his eyes were red.

He seemed to have gone mad.

Judging from his state, King Marciais was crazy.

On the other hand, Taran was calm and relaxed.

King Marciais' power and aura were violent.

Even though Taran's aura was uncanny, it was stable.

In terms of comprehensive power, Taran was slightly better.

Nevertheless, King Marciais was only in the state of the Fourteenth Rank of the Marciais Path.

James did not know if King Marciais had comprehended the Fifteenth Rank of the Marciais Path.

James wondered if he could see the fifteenth form of the Marciais Path in this battle.

At this time, King Marciais made a move.

Along with his movements, heaven and earth seemed to have flipped.

Instantly, he appeared before Taran and punched him.

When he punched Taran, countless visions appeared.

A terrifying punch landed.

Facing this punch, Taran was calm.

He slightly raised his hand.

When he raised his hand, his arm turned into inscriptions.

The inscriptions reshaped endlessly, forming a strong power.

Boom! Two fists collided.

Two strong powers collided once.

King Marciais stumbled backward.

On the other hand, Taran stood in the same spot.

He was as still as a mountain.

At this moment, King Marciais launched an attack again.

Nevertheless, under the influence of the curse, his speed decreased.

Then, a black longsword appeared before Taran.

The sword was formed by inscriptions.

It contained a terrifying power.