The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5096-Everyone expressed their worries about Zaden secretly plotting against them.

After all, Zaden had shown his cunning side countless times before.

Moreover, he had Xezal, a master manipulator, helping him.

Therefore, they felt it was necessary to deal with Zaden's alliance as soon as possible.

Ultimately, it was unanimously decided they would fight against his alliance.

"Then, war it is." James stood up, looked into the distance, and announced, "Send out all our forces to seize the universes that the Dooms have conquered.

If they send troops to stop us, we'll go straight into battle with them!" Thea, who was standing beside him, said, "Aren't you being a bit too rash, James? The overall strength of the Dooms' alliance is not to be underestimated." James said with a smile, "It won't be a problem.

It doesn't matter how strong their overall strength is.

We have a few of the strongest powerhouses on our side.

Even just one of them can take on an entire army alone." Since James had personally decided to participate in the battle, Thea did not say anything further to dissuade him.

With James' order, the humans began to assemble their troops and the army of the universes they had conquered.

Soon, many primitive living beings from different universes had gathered together.

However, the humans' actions were being watched by the Dooms' spies.

In the headquarters of the Dooms, a meeting was happening.

"The Human Race has begun assembling their troops.

James is leading troops to take over the universes we've conquered." Zaden said worriedly, "James alone is capable of taking on an entire army." An elderly man said solemnly, "We can't have a direct confrontation with them.

Otherwise, our side will rapidly reduce in numbers." After a brief moment of thought, Xezal said, "Let's not dispatch our own forces.

Instead, we let the Orstellen Realm's primitive living beings fight the humans.

Meanwhile, we must find the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander and reach an alliance with him.

It's our only chance to destroy the Human Race." The Dooms were doing everything it took to prevent James from becoming the Orstellen Sect's Leader.

Xezal left the city and headed for the Dark World outside the district.

However, she was surrounded by monsters.

She kept repeating the purpose of her visit.

However, the monster had no consciousness and could not comprehend her.

The monsters attacked relentlessly and inflicted severe injuries on her.

While fighting, she kept shouting, "Stop, stop! I'm here to meet your Great Commander! Is there anyone who can speak? Come and meet me!" Suddenly, the monsters around her backed away, and the black mist disappeared.

Shortly after, a blurry figure appeared in sight.

The blurred figure gradually transformed into a man wearing a black robe.

He looked to be in his twenties.

The man looked at Xezal with a sinister smile.

Xezal felt relieved after seeing someone finally appear.

She mobilized her strength and quickly healed her wounds.

Then, she approached the man, clasped her hands, and said respectfully, “I’m here on behalf of the Alliance Army to see your Great Commander and propose to join forces.” The man looked at Xezal strangely and asked, “Join forces? How are you going to do that?” Xezal replied, “We’ll open the formation and let the Extraterrestrial Demons march in.

Our condition is very simple.

We need help in destroying the Human Race.” The man stared at Xezal thoughtfully.

The formation was indeed potent.

They had been attacking for a long time but could not make any progress to conquer the district.

Xezal asked, “Who’s in charge of attacking this district?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5097-“Follow me.” The man signaled to Xezal, turned around, and began walking away.

Xezal followed the man through the Dark World.

After walking for a long time, an extravagant black palace appeared in sight.

Many guards wearing black robes guarded the palace.

Xezal took a deep breath after sensing their cultivation bases were at the Chaos Illimita Rank.

The man led her into an empty palace hall.

Suddenly, he knelt on one knee and called out, “Sir.” Xezal scanned the empty hall curiously.

She wanted to know what the Extraterrestrial Demons’ Great Commander looked like.

The Orstellen Realm was a projection of the time when the Extraterrestrial Demons first attacked the Endlos.

Thus, Xezal did not know who the Great Commander was.

She only knew about the Great Commander leading the second infiltration into the Endlos.

A black mist appeared in the hall, and a voice came from it.

“What’s the matter?” The man stood up, pointed at Xezal, and said, “She claims to be a messenger of the Alliance Army and is here to join forces with us.” Xezal sensed a powerful aura permeating the air.

Even though she had entered the Chaos Rank, the aura was oppressive, and she could not resist it.

Her knees bent under the pressure, and she knelt to the ground.

She trembled in fear and said frantically, “Sir, I’m here to join forces.” “Join forces?” A hoarse voice came from the black mist.

Xezal parted her lips and explained, “Yes.

There’s a powerhouse among the humans.

He’s trying to unify the district to fight against your army.

As long as you cooperate with us, we can destroy them together.” “Was it the human that won the battle outside the district?” Xezal replied hastily, “Yes, that’s him.

His name is James Caden.

He’s a very powerful cultivator.” The Extraterrestrial Demons hiding in the dark were aware of the intense battle between James and Taran and were paying attention to it.

James and Taran had displayed great strength.

Even the Great Commander did not have confidence in victory against either of them.

Xezal seized the opportunity and asked, “Could you let me see your face, sir? It’ll make our cooperation much more effective.

Once Taran recovers from his injuries and joins forces with James, we won't be able to defeat them even if we work together." The black mist kept fluttering in the hall.

After a while, it gathered and formed into a middle-aged man.

Xezal exclaimed, "It's you?" The man looked at Xezal and asked, "What's the matter? Have you seen me before?" Xezal stared at the man in front of her with astonishment and disbelief.

She never thought he would be the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander who led the first attack on the Endlos.
