The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5101-“Understood!” The human powerhouses quickly departed to the other universes.

Most of the powerhouses had left the hall, and only a few remained.

James sat in the highest seat, massaging his forehead pensively.

Zella asked, “A penny for your thought?” James replied, “I was thinking about why Lady Tehila created the Orstelle Realm.

I don’t think it’s just a simple test.

It doesn’t seem necessary to have such a troublesome trial.” He looked at Zella and asked, “Could you use your prophetic ability to gain insight into the trial’s results?” Zella gently shook her head and replied, “I can’t.” “You can’t?” James frowned.

Zella nodded lightly and said, “Yeah.

Someone powerful is interfering in this trial.

I suspect the leader of the Extraterrestrial Demons found out about Lady Tehila’s Orstellen Realm.

Thus, he had secretly made plans to counter it.

He must be really powerful and can block out all extrapolations.” After a brief pause, Zella said, “However, I don’t think the Extraterrestrial Demons are the real threat.

At least they’re openly launching an attack on the district.

The real problem is the people already within the district.

Specifically, I’m referring to the Endlos ’ living beings that entered the Orstellen Realm with spiritual bodies.” “Do you mean Zaden?” Zella shook her head lightly and said, “Zaden is a scheming person indeed.

He laid out a plan for ages so that he could become the Endlos Lord.

However, he's not the real threat." "Then, who is it?" asked James.

"Xezal." "Xezal?" James was slightly startled.

He wondered, 'Xezal is only at the Chaos Ilimita Rank.

In the face of absolute strength, what can she do?' Zella said solemnly, "I've seen the future.

The biggest variable is Xezal.

Her current cultivation base is relatively weak.

However, she can manipulate many things, including the forces the Extraterrestrial Demons' leader left in the Endlos." "aren't you exaggerating a little bit?" James was in disbelief.

Zella replied with a serious expression, "There's no doubt.

My prophetic ability can't be wrong.

In short, you should be careful of her.

It would be best to get rid of her if an opportunity arises.

Otherwise, she'll cause a lot of trouble in the future." James nodded lightly and said, "Alright, got it.

After leaving the Orstellen Realm, I'll look for a chance to eliminate her." Zella said, "It won't be that easy.

If you could so easily get rid of her, I would be able to see her future.

She's just like you.

I'm unable to see her future.

Some time ago, I could still gain insight into bits and pieces of her future.

However, I can no longer do so after entering the Orstellen Realm." James asked, "Why did that happen?" She explained, "To put it simply, she has already gotten involved in the plan of the Extraterrestrial Demons' leader.

Therefore, she is being protected by a powerful force.

The Heavenly Path has also become biased toward her.

It will be difficult to kill her, and many unexpected things will happen.” “What a headache.” James gently massaged his forehead.

Zella said smilingly, “There’s nothing to worry about.

Let everything take its course.

Plus, you’re right.

In the face of absolute strength, whatever schemes will be rendered useless.

We should focus on improving our strength.

As long as we become on par with the mastermind, then we’ll be able to stop his plan.” James murmured, “The Sovereign Rank?” It was challenging to reach the Sovereign Rank.

Throughout the Endlos’ history, Lady Tehila was the only person who had entered the Sovereign Rank.

Even Emperor Raiah could only reach the Consummation Chaos Completare Rank.

“Alright, I know what to do.

You’re dismissed.” James gently waved his hand.

Zella turned around to leave.

After taking a few steps, she halted in her tracks and said, “I wanted to remind you that even though I can’t see the outcome of the battle between the Endlos and the Extraterrestrial Demons, I can sense the reincarnation of an Extraterrestrial Demon close to you.

In fact, there is more than just one.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5102-James was startled to learn the reincarnation of Extraterrestrial Demons was lurking around him.

He asked puzzledly, "Who is it?" "I don't know.

I couldn't see their faces," Zella replied as she walked out of the hall.

James began thinking about the people around him.

However, he could not figure out who might be an Extraterrestrial Demon's reincarnation.

After failing to notice any clues, he gave up thinking about it since he had much more important matters at hand.

He sat in the highest seat of the hall, lost in thought.

The universe they occupied was their last fortress.

It would be where the final battle against the Extraterrestrial Demons would take place.

He had to prepare for the worst, including his party's spiritual bodies being wiped out and the death of primitive living beings.

James thought for a while and decided to set up a powerful formation around the universe.

The formation he had created was ever-changing and could accommodate everything.

After James came to a decision, he sprung into action.

He disappeared from the hall and appeared at the universe's border.

Then, he summoned a few mysterious inscriptions with the wave of a hand and submerged them into the void.

Time passed day by day.

All the living beings within the district were aware the formation had been breached and had begun fighting against the Extraterrestrial Demons.

Meanwhile, the human powerhouses quickly traveled to the different universes to persuade the powerful primitive living beings to join forces with them.

Soon, these powerful primitive living beings evacuated to the central universe.

As a result, their respective universes were quickly invaded.

Meanwhile, the Alliance Army had also occupied a universe.

However, the Extraterrestrial Demons bypassed the universe and left them unharmed.

In the Alliance Army's headquarters, many powerhouses had gathered.

'James and his army have evacuated to a core universe.

The Extraterrestrial Demons are gradually conquering the universes within the district.

Judging by the current progress, the core universe they have occupied will be surrounded in ten thousand years." Zaden smiled, satisfied with the report.

A powerhouse asked, "But how do we fight the Extraterrestrial Demons after they destroy the humans?" "The number of monsters is insane.

Moreover, they are just sacrificial lambs.

We'll take a while just to wipe them out.

So how will we kill the mastermind?" Many of the powerhouses raised their concerns.

Zaden looked at Xezal, who was sitting aside thoughtfully, and asked, "Do you have a plan, Xezal?" Xezal snapped out of her thoughts and asked, "What did you say?" Zaden repeated, "Do you have a plan to get rid of the Extraterrestrial Demons after they take care of James and the other humans?" Xezal thought for a while and replied, "Probably." "what is it?" "Cut to the chase." The powerhouses were anxious.

However, Xezal did not reveal anything.

Her so-called plan was to reveal to the Extraterrestrial Demons' Leader, Larix, that they were within a projection and that his Extraterrestrial Army had been defeated long ago.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5103-With Larix's strength, he should be able to verify the truth after being told they were within an illusion.

When it was the right time, she could use the identity of his reincarnation to threaten him to withdraw his troops.

They would be able to eliminate the Extraterrestrial Demons without any effort.

However, the premise was that Larix must successfully destroy James' spiritual body.

Her plan would fall through if Larix lost.

Xezal said, "For now, we'll things to the Extraterrestrial Demons.

We can patiently watch them fight." Zaden trusted Xezal.

He said smilingly, "Don't be worried, everyone.

We should just sit back and watch the show." Meanwhile, countless living beings were still evacuating to the core universe.

The universe's strength was improving steadily, and each planet was preparing for war.

Many powerhouses headed toward the universe's border and waited for the final battle.

Concurrently, James had been setting up formations.

Even though he was powerful, it was still difficult for him to set up a formation around the entire universe.

Despite casting a time formation, it took James about tens of thousands of years to set up a potent formation.

Even Taran would not be able to survive if he were to be trapped within the formation.

Many powerhouses gathered in a spiritual mountain in the central region of the core universe.

The monsters were approaching the universe's border, but James had not shown up.

Everyone was waiting for their greatest backbone, James, to appear.

Swoosh! A ray of light fell into the main hall and transformed into a figure.

Thea immediately stood up and said, "You've finally come, James! The monster army has already appeared near the border.

They will be ready to attack in about three months." James replied, "We'll be on defense.

Dispatch powerhouses around the universe's borders.

Kill all the monsters that attack the universe.

The remaining powerhouses will search for the breeding area of the monsters and halt their production.

We'll force the Extraterrestrial Demons' main forces to appear so that we can fight them." Thea responded, "We've already made preparations long ago." James nodded and said, "Then, let's wait for the monsters to attack.

By the way, where is Taran? Has he not returned yet?" "I'm over here." A voice came from outside the hall, and a middle-aged man wearing a black robe appeared.

After Taran's battle with James, he was severely injured.

He had not completely recovered and only temporarily suppressed his wounds.

Since the situation was critical, he had to leave seclusion immediately.

James was relieved to see Taran.

He immediately began issuing orders, "Thea, you lead an army and be on guard at the universe's south border." "Alright." Thea nodded.

James turned to Wyot and instructed, "You guard the east with an army as well, Wyot." Wyot replied, "Sure.

Unless my spiritual body is destroyed, I'll ensure no Extraterrestrial Demon gets past me." "Sir Taran, I need you to take charge of an army and protect the north border." Taran smiled faintly and said, "I don't need an army.

I can guard the north alone.

You should deploy the troops elsewhere." "Alright." James nodded.

James had confidence in Taran's strength.

He could take on tens of thousands of the monsters by himself.

Unless the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander showed up, he should be able to protect the north border.

He turned to Henrik and instructed, "Henrik, you lead our powerhouses to guard the west border." James gave out a series of orders.

Afterward, he planned to recuperate and prepare to face the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5104-After preparations were completed, they waited for the Extraterrestrial Demons to close in on the universe's border.

Soon, a wave of monsters appeared outside the universe's border.

The monsters with no intelligence began their attacks on the core universe.

However, the borders were guarded by massive armies led by powerhouses.

Even without the help of James' formation, the powerhouses could keep the monsters away from the universe.

Moreover, the powerhouses were aware of the monster's weakness and that they were bred by Mothers.

They rushed into the black holes in the distance and killed the Mothers responsible for producing the monsters.

The battle lasted a very long time.

Even though James' side was strong, it was inevitable for some powerhouses to be injured during the extensive battle.

Unfortunately, a few had their spiritual bodies destroyed and disappeared from the Orstellen Realm.

Primitive living beings were also killed during the battle.

The monster army's attack grew more aggressive and eventually breached the universe.

The troops led by powerhouses were forced to retreat from planet to planet.

Soon, they had nowhere else to flee.

Taran, Thea, Wyot, Henrik, Yardos, and the other powerhouses participated in the battles.

They quickly wiped out large numbers of monsters to force the Extraterrestrial Demons' main forces to show up.

The number of monsters decreased significantly after all of the Mothers were destroyed.

Shortly after, the real Extraterrestrial Army appeared.

They had significant numbers and were incredibly powerful.

The second round of battle began.

James' side suffered constant casualties.

With more and more powerhouses dying in battle, his troops were forced to retreat.

Despite the battle's situation, James did not take action.

He knew it was useless to kill the Extraterrestrial Army.

He was waiting for his troops to gradually retreat to his position.

With Taran, Thea, Wyot, and the other powerhouses' strength, he believed the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander would appear.

When that happens, it would be his showtime.

Meanwhile, a black palace hovered in space outside of the universe.

A man in a black robe sat in the highest seat of the palace hall.

He observed the battle in the distance and noticed Thea, Taran, Wyot, and the other powerhouses' overpowering strength.

Larix shouted, "Are you there, Saxan?" Swoosh! A shadowy mist fell to the ground and formed into a man.

He replied respectfully, "I'm here." Larix ordered, "Get rid of Taran." "Yes, sir." After receiving the order, Saxan quickly entered the battlefield and looked for Taran.

Larix had gained intel about James' party after joining forces with Xezal.

Therefore, he knew of the powerhouses on James' party.

He was unsure of why James had not shown up.

However, he felt eliminating James' powerful allies would definitely force him into the battlefield.

Saxan entered the battlefield.

He was powerful, but not a match against Taran.

Even though Taran had not completely recovered, he was much stronger than Saxan.

Taran successfully killed Saxan, but it was not without consequences.

His internal injuries had relapsed, and his condition was not optimistic.

"Deceptive King, I need you to kill Taran." Larix did not mourn Saxan's death.

Instead, he immediately sent another subordinate to kill Taran.

"Demon Qeisan, get rid of Wyot." "Ten Great Protectors, eliminate Thea."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5105-Larix kept sending terrifying powerhouses to the battlefield.

Taran, Thea, Wyot, Henrik, Yardos, and the other powerhouses were caught up in intense battles.

Meanwhile, the Extraterrestrial Demons seized the opportunity to advance toward the universe's core region.

The planets that had prepared for battle succumbed one after another, and the soldiers stationed to protect them were slaughtered.

Even though the battle was not looking optimistic for them, James still did not partake in it.

He knew that if Thea and the others died in battle, only their spiritual bodies would be destroyed.

He observed the battle and pondered why Lady Tehila created the Orstellen Realm.

The universe's various planets collapsed.

Taran, who was already injured, exhausted a lot of his strength to kill the Deceptive King.

He noticed the black palace outside the universe and immediately realized the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander was hiding within it.

The trial would be over as long as the Extraterrestrial Demons' Great Commander was killed.

He immediately left the battlefield and appeared outside of the black palace.

His body was battered and covered in blood, but his aura was potent.

Taran summoned a spear composed of Curse Inscriptions and pointed it at the black palace ahead of him.

His powerful black aura permeated the air as he shouted, "Get out here and face your death!" Larix calmly sat in the highest seat of the hall.

He had already sent most of his subordinates into battle.

At that moment, four powerhouses at the Chaos Completare Rank were the only ones left with him in the hall.

“Go get rid of him,” Larix ordered.

The four powerhouses immediately departed and appeared outside the palace.

Taran fought fiercely against the four powerhouses with his spear.

The void around them was shattered, destroying countless planets.

The universe was gradually crumbling apart.

The powerhouses of the Alliance Army were startled by the battle.

However, Larix remained unbothered by the situation.

Taran was constantly injured, but he managed to kill the four powerhouses with his potent Curse Magic.

Despite that, he had exhausted all his strength.

After killing the four powerhouses, Taran could no longer sustain his spiritual body, and he vanished from the Orstellen Realm.

Taran’s main body suffered a backlash after his spiritual body was destroyed.

He spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

He sat up and began to treat his injuries without wasting any time.

After Taran’s spiritual body was destroyed, the strength of James’ party decreased significantly.

As a result, the other powerhouses struggled to hold back the enemies.

Yardos’ spiritual body perished shortly after.

On the other hand, Henrik cast the Grand Purge Formation to take down a bunch of Extraterrestrial Demons before his spiritual body was ultimately destroyed.

Thea, Wyot, and a few other powerhouses were left to repel the Extraterrestrial Army.

However, their elites were taken out one by one, and they could no longer hold back the Extraterrestrial Army.

Ultimately, they were forced to return to the planet James' was on.

Unfortunately, they could no longer sustain their spiritual bodies and perished in battle.

All the Human Race's strongest cultivators and the Orstellen Realm's primitive living beings were wiped out.

Zaden's Alliance Army was ecstatic by the battle's outcome.

"Haha! The Human Race's powerhouses have been eliminated! James is the only one left.

Many of the Extraterrestrial Demons' powerhouses have also perished.

The Grand Commander is the only one that hasn't joined the fight.

We'll be the final victors after both James and the Grand Commander's fight!" Zaden laughed with joy.

Xezal also smiled, satisfied with the outcome.

The humans' powerhouses had been eliminated.

Next, the battle between James and Larix would take place.

Regardless of the results, both of them would have been severely injured.

Therefore, it would be easy to deal with the winner.
