The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5111-When James got out of the Orstellen Realm, the sect leader of the Orstellen Sect could not contain his excitement.

He said, "It's the power of Lady Tehila.

She activated the Koloretsua Stone." Even King Marciais sensed that James' body was unusual.

He could sense a powerful energy in James' body as if it were invincible.

"James." King Marciais walked over and appeared before James.

With a smile, he asked, "What did Lady Tehila say to you?" "Nothing much."

James did not mention a word about the things Lady Tehila left behind.

Looking at Cray, he asked, "I have completed the test.

Can I cultivate the Orstellen Art now?" "Of course." Smiling, Cray said, "Lady Tehila activated the power of the Koloretsua Stone, proving that she acknowledges you.

From now on, you're the sect leader of the Orstellen Sect." As he spoke, he knelt on one knee.

"Greetings, Sir James." "Greetings, Sir James." King Marciais and the Orstellen Sect disciples present knelt on one knee.

"Alright.

Get up." James waved his hand.

At this moment, Zaden and the others who saw the scene had ghastly expressions.

They knew that they had lost.

From now on, they could no longer fight against the Human Race and James.

“Father, let’s go.” Timely, Xezal spoke up.

After that, she left in a hurry.

When James returned to his senses, they had already left the Orstellen Sect.

James initially wanted to use this opportunity to get rid of Xezal.

Unfortunately, she was gone.

Now, James had other important matters to attend to, including cultivating the Orstellen Art and breaking the seal of the Orstellen Sect.

He needed to break the Orstellen Sect disciples’ seal and find the Endlos Light gathered by Thea and Wyot.

Then, he could cultivate the complete Herstellen Art.

“You did great.” “Dad, you’re amazing.” Many powerhouses of the Human Race walked over one by one.

“Mm-hmm.” With a smile, James greeted them and said, “I have some important things to do.

You guys should stay in the Orstellen Sect for now.” “James.” Taran walked over.

He was already injured from the previous fight against James.

When he fought against the Extraterrestrial Demons, his injuries became more severe.

In addition to that, he lost his spiritual body.

At this moment, his face was pale.

He did not look good.

Taran,” called out James.

“Congratulations on becoming the sect leader of the Orstellen Sect and the number one powerhouse of Endlos.

I’m going to take my leave now.

I plan to go back and recuperate.

When the Extraterrestrial Demons invade again, I won’t back down.

I will take my weapon and protect Endlos.” After that, Taran disappeared.

Looking at Wyot, James said, “Wyot, you still need to stay in the Orstellen Sect for some time.

When I deal with the problems of the Orstellen Sect, we’ll gather the three beams of the Endlos Light and study the secret of Endlos.” “Alright.” Wyot was looking forward to it.

He also wanted to study the other two beams of the Endlos Light.

He wanted to become stronger.

The powerhouses who attended the Orstellen Convention left one after another.

Only several living beings of the Human Race stayed back.

On the other hand, James held a succession ceremony in the Orstellen Sect and became the sect leader of the Orstellen Sect.

That meant he had become the number one powerhouse of Endlos.

At the back mountain of the Orstellen Sect, James and a few core disciples of the Orstellen Sect appeared with Cray in the lead.

Ahead of them was a mysterious protective formation.

Cray said, “Sir James, the holy site of our sect is up ahead.

The holy site is an excellent place to comprehend paths.

The three beams of light were born here.

The Orstellen Art left behind by Lady Tehila is also here.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5112

The location of the Orstellen Sect was special.

It was in the central region of Endlos.

On the other hand, the holy site of the Orstellen Sect was where the Endlos Light was born.

It was a magical place to comprehend paths.

However, it was difficult to get into the holy site and cultivate.

In the past, only a few living beings could enter the holy site and cultivate.

“That year, the Grand Priestess of the Orstellen Sect, known as Lady Tehila, studied the Herstellen Art in the holy site, comprehended the amazing Orstellen Art, and entered the Sovereign Rank.” Looking at the holy site ahead engulfed by a formation, Cray said, “Xeraiah also entered the holy site for cultivation.

He created the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the signature skills.” As he spoke, he looked at James.

“I hope when you enter the holy site for cultivation, you will gain some enlightenment and create more powerful signature skills.” Looking at the holy site ahead, James asked, “Can I bring Thea and Wyot along with me to the holy site? Both of them have a beam of the Endlos Light.

I want to gather the three beams of the Endlos Light and study them together.”

With a smile, Cray said, “You’re the sect leader.

You have the final say.” With that, James was relieved.

“Everyone, you may leave.

I'll be heading to the holy site with Thea and Wyot." After saying that, he asked the others to leave.

"Alright," said Cray.

Then, he and the other powerhouses of the Orstellen Sect left.

Meanwhile, James also left the place.

He went to look for Thea.

Thea was staying in the Orstellen Sect temporarily.

As James was the sect leader, Thea became the wife of the sect leader.

Her status in the Orstellen Sect was high.

She stayed at the back mountain of the apex.

Since the Orstellen Sect was at the center of Endlos with the apex right in the middle, the place contained mysterious rhymes.

It was an excellent place for cultivation.

"Thea." James appeared in the courtyard.

He looked at Thea, who was sitting in the courtyard, and called out to her.

Immediately, Thea stood up and walked over hurriedly.

Pulling James' arms, she asked gently, "Is everything dealt with?" or No.

n With a smile, James said, "Now that I've become the sect leader, I can enter the holy site for cultivation.

I want to invite you and Wyot to enter the holy site with me.

After gathering the three beams of the Endlos Light, we can cultivate and study them." "Sure." Thea was delighted.

"Let's go and find Wyot." James pulled Thea along with him.

Soon, they appeared at Wyot's residence.

“Wyot,” called out James.

Wyot glanced at James and nodded.

“Yes?” James explained why he came.

Upon hearing that, Wyot felt happy.

He knew how magical the Endlos Light was.

Since obtaining a beam of the Endlos Light, his cultivation base improved quickly, and he entered the Chaos Compleatere Rank successfully.

He stood at the top of the pyramid in Endlos.

With the other two beams of the Endlos Light, he would improve significantly.

In a hurry, he said, “Alright.” “Let’s go to the holy site.” James, Thea, and Wyot walked over to the holy site of the Orstellen Sect.

Soon, they arrived outside the holy site.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5113-Looking at the holy site engulfed by the formation, James said, “

This place is special.

It’s the central region of Endlos and the birthplace of the Endlos Light.

Back then, the Grand Priestess of the Orstellen Sect, Lady Tehila, cultivated here and created the Orstellen Art.

“Emperor Raiah also cultivated and comprehended paths here.

After that, he created the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and the Supernatural Signature Skills.” Upon hearing that, Thea and Wyot were excited.

James took a few steps forward.

Mysterious sigils emerged from his hands and entered the formation.

An illusionary gate appeared at the Formation Boundary.

James walked toward the gate with Thea and Wyot following behind him.

After passing through the gate, they entered the holy site.

When they entered the holy site, the scenery before them changed.

Three mountains appeared ahead of them.

The mountains seemed magical.

The structure of the mountains was not made up of normal rocks but inscriptions, lines, and veins.

In the mountains were many plants and trees.

The plants and trees were not regular plants and trees.

They were the crystalization of the paths.

Upon witnessing the scene, James, Thea, and Wyot were stunned.

There was no doubt this was the cultivation sanctuary of the Orstellen Sect.

If one could comprehend any inscriptions in the mountains, it would be a great fortune.

James, Thea, and Wyot exchanged glances.

Then, all of them flew toward a mountain each.

Each of them appeared in different mountains.

Thea summoned the Endlos Light first.

When the Endlos Light appeared, the mountain below her groaned.

At this moment, the mountain below her shone brightly.

The inscriptions, lines, and veins seemed to have come to life.

They rotated quickly.

Wyot also summoned his Endlos Light.

When the Endlos Light appeared, the mountain below him reacted.

On the other hand, James' soul had already become one with the Endlos Light and merged into his body.

Sitting on the mountain peak, he looked at the two beams of Endlos Light.

In his soul, several inscriptions appeared.

The inscriptions came out of his body and formed a halo above his head.

Then, the three beams of the Endlos Light appeared once again.

The three beams of the Endlos Light appeared in the sky above the three mountains.

The three beams of the Endlos Light gleamed and exuded the power of heaven and earth.

At this time, Thea and Wyot sensed the supreme secret hidden in the Endlos Light.

Without hesitation, they meditated in seclusion.

They began to comprehend and study the Endlos Light.

However, James did not start instantly.

His body was made out of the Koloretsua Stones.

The Koloretsua Stones were created by Lady Tehila.

The first time the Extraterrestrial Demons invaded Endlos and broke the plane of Endlos, Lady Tehila came to this holy site of the Orstellen Sect.

She gathered the essence and supreme inscriptions of the place to create the Koloretsua Stones.

The stones were used to restore Endlos.

The rest of the Koloretsua Stones were left near the Orstellen Sect.

They started to absorb the essence of the place and were about to birth new lives.

However, just as the Koloretsua Stones were about to birth new lives, James' soul merged with the Koloretsua Stones.

His physical power was activated by Lady Tehila in the Orstellen Realm.

On the other hand, his soul birthed an entrapoch in the Endlos Light.

He was extremely strong.

Now, only his bloodline was weak.

He planned to cultivate and improve his bloodline.

He needed to enter the Fifteenth Rank of the Marciais Path.

If possible, he wanted to enter the Sixteenth Rank of the Marciais Path.

He also needed to increase his cultivation rank.

He wanted to reach the Chaos Completare Rank.

After that, he would comprehend the paths and study the Endlos Light, Herstellen Art, and Orstellen Art.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5114-James was cultivating the Blood Mantra to improve his bloodline power.

He wanted to uncover the deepest part of his bloodline power.

On the other hand, Thea cultivated silently.

The three beams of the Endlos Light were floating in the sky, rotating endlessly.

Thea combined the three beams of the Endlos Light and began to study the secret hiding in Endlos.

In her body, a powerful aura surged.

Mysterious inscriptions were rotating around her body.

Wyot was also studying the Endlos Light seriously.

Time could not be sensed in the area.

It seemed as if a moment had passed, but at the same time as if years had passed.

The auras of James, Thea, and Wyot increased unknowingly.

Not knowing how long had passed, Wyot was the first person to open his eyes.

Once he opened his eyes, a terrifying aura erupted from his body, birthing an extreme power.

“Immortality,” mumbled Wyot.

The Endlos Light and Herstellen Art were magical.

Every living being had a different comprehension of them.

After studying the Endlos Light for a long time, Wyot comprehended a powerful signature skill from the Endlos Light.

He named the signature skill “Immortality”.

Besides that, his cultivation base improved unknowingly.

He went from the early to late stage of the Chaos Compleatere Rank before entering the Consummation Chaos Compleatere Rank.

Standing up, he looked at Thea and James in the distance.

Thea and James were still cultivating, so Wyot did not disturb them.

His cultivation had ended.

Even if he continued to cultivate, he would not comprehend anything new.

Besides, his cultivation base had reached its peak.

The next breakthrough would be the Sovereign Rank.

It was extremely difficult to enter the Sovereign Rank.

He would have a challenging time despite being in the cultivation sanctuary of Endlos.

He did not stay in the area for long.

Instead, he chose to leave.

As for the Endlos Light, he already studied it and comprehended something from it.

He created the Supernatural Power, Immortality.

Thus, the Endlos Light was no longer useful to him.

He did not take the Endlos Light with him.

He left it there.

Once he was gone, only James and Thea were left in the area.

Thea cultivated for a long time, and her cultivation rank went from the early stage of the Chaos Completare Rank to the Consummation Chaos Completare Rank.

Even though her cultivation rank increased, she was still studying the paths.

Awhile after Wyot left, Thea opened her eyes and slowly stood up.

Mysterious inscriptions were rotating around her body.

A powerful aura emerged in her body.

“Nine Turns Spiritual Art,” muttered Thea.

This time, she gained a lot from meditating in seclusion and comprehending the paths.

From the mysterious Endlos Light, she created an uncanny secret Supernatural Art.

She named it “Nine Turns Spiritual Art”.

It was even stronger than the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra and Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art.

The Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art used the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Sutra to activate the ten supreme powers in Endlos.

On the other hand, the Nine Turns Spiritual Art reversed one’s power nine times.

Each reversal would cause the power to become more powerful and terrifying.

After nine reversals, the power would greatly overwhelm the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art.

Thea’s cultivation ended here.

She chose to leave the area.

She also left the Endlos Light behind.

Now, James was the only one left.

James had not begun comprehending the paths.

All this time, he had been improving his bloodline power.

The area was rich in the energy of heaven and earth.

Moreover, he had the Blood Mantra, which improved his bloodline power.

Hence, he was able to make quick advancements.

Unknowingly, his bloodline power reached the same level as his body and soul.
