The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5116-James' physical body, bloodline, and soul entered the three mountains.

The Endlos Light was also assimilated into the mountains.

It meant his physical body, soul, and bloodline had entered the Endlos Light.

“Current form.”

A voice sounded from the area.

Following the sound, changes happened to the three mountains. Countless inscriptions and lines gathered, forming a body.

The body was James.

On the other hand, the formation continued to rotate.

When his current form was formed, James understood the inscriptions hidden in the Endlos Light. He comprehended the secret of Endlos. His formation was successful. At once, countless changes happened.

Then, the formation was assimilated into his body.

His body was the formation.

The formation was him.

He understood what the shadow on the formation represented.

It was as King Marciais guessed.

One represented the past form, which was his previous body.

One was his future form, which was his future body.

At this moment, at the deepest part of his soul, a memory sealed for a long time emerged.

He remembered his past.

Outside Endlos, the Central Plane was huge. The plane was divided up by countless powerhouses. The powerhouse who attacked Endlos was one of them.

However, years ago, there was a peerless powerhouse in the plane. The powerhouse was known as Lord Supreme.

In the past, James was Lord Supreme.

Even though he was Lord Supreme, he was not invincible. Many powerhouses of the Central Plane worked together to siege him. Thus, only his spirit was left.

With his spirit, he escaped to countless planes, beginning the great escape.

In the end, he entered Endlos Plane and reincarnated.

At this time, James recovered a bit of his past life's memory.

He did not understand his past form.

The formation appeared again.

His future form on the formation gradually materialized. It became a person who looked exactly like him. It was just that the person did not have a consciousness. He was only a body that had power.

His past form was controlled by his current form.

Under the formation, his future body was still illusionary. It did not look real.

"Future?" James mumbled.

"What will happen in the future?"

James did not understand.

Nonetheless, he did not continue to ponder on this.

Then, the formation dispersed. In the meantime, he continued to sit in the area with his legs crossed.

He did not leave.

He continued to comprehend the paths.

There was a subtle connection between the past, present, and future.

He wanted to use this chance to study and comprehend.

“What’s the future?”

James was in deep thought.

He sat on the ground in a lotus position.

“There is no future.”

A while later, a voice sounded from the area.

“There is only the past and the present. There is no future.

“The so-called future was extrapolated by several Grand Supernaturals using tricks of the Heavenly Path.

“The future is filled with uncertainties. Anything can happen in the future.

“Every living being can create a future and change the future.”

James comprehended the paths silently.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5117-At this moment, James seemed to have understood.

He walked out of the space.

He seemed to have walked out of the space, but he was actually still sitting in the same place.

From the moment he walked out, he had already created a future.

It was just that the future only belonged to him. It was not the future of the thousands of living beings of Endlos.

He walked toward the future and began to cultivate.

His future form gradually materialized.

A formation appeared in the area.

The formation was ever-changing. It was unfathomable.

On the formation, a man sat on the ground with his legs crossed. The man had blood and flesh. He looked real.

Under the formation was also a shadow.

Slowly, the shadow materialized.

This scene seemed to have lasted for a long time, but at the same time, it seemed to have only lasted for a moment.

After a while, the formation disappeared. The figure on the formation also disappeared. The scenery changed once again.

The Endlos Light and the three mountains were already gone. The inscriptions were nowhere to be seen as well. What was left was a man in a black robe.

The man slowly got up.

‘The past, present, and future have merged. The formation is complete. What should this formation be called?’ James stood up and mumbled.

Thinking for a while, he said softly, “Let’s call it the Tressencia Completare Art.

The Tressencia Completare of the Marciais Path and the Supernatural. It’s great.”

After scanning his surroundings, he marched forward and left the place.

Upon walking out of the holy site, he saw spiritual mountains and lands. Upon seeing that, James fell into a trance.

This time while meditating in seclusion, he recalled the past.

He learned a few things about the Central Plane. He remembered his past identity.

He was Lord Supreme of the Central Plane. He was a ruthless existence. He would do anything to achieve his aim. It could be said that he was evil.

After experiencing many things in Endlos, the Demonic Energy in his heart left.

‘This feels great.’

James spread his arms and embraced the world. He felt relaxed and happy.

“Honey.”

A stunning lady walked over to James. She wore a black dress. Her figure was graceful. Her facial features were delicate. She wore a bright smile.

Looking at Thea, who was walking over, James spread his arms and hugged her.

He held Thea in his arms, inhaling a faint and enchanting scent. He could also feel Thea. At once, he smiled. “Let’s find a place to sleep. We’ll make another son.”

Then, he walked away with Thea in his arms.

James was out of seclusion.

However, no one knew what his current cultivation rank was. No one knew if he had comprehended an invincible signature skill in the holy site.

James did not mention anything about it.

After coming out of seclusion, he took charge of the Orstellen Sect.

Now, Endlos was peaceful. As he had nothing to do, he stayed with Thea the whole day. He was trying to create his future generation.

He also drank wine with his friends.

“You’re finally here to see me.”

In the residence of King Marciais in the Orstellen Sect, King Marciais said unhappily, "Now that you've become the sect leader, you've forgotten about me.

Also, what signature skill did you comprehend in the holy site?"

Curiously, King Marciais looked at James.

"I can't even sense your cultivation rank. What cultivation rank did you reach?"

James smiled faintly and responded, "My cultivation rank isn't important. Just know that if the Extraterrestrial Demons ever reappear, I won't give them the luxury of returning to where they came from. Even if they don't appear, I'll still get rid of them. I just need some rest for now. Then, I'll head to a larger Central Plane and deal with several past grudges."

"Past grudges?"

King Marciais glanced at James strangely.

"Have you recalled the memories of your past life?"

James' birth had always been a mystery.

Many powerhouses of the Chaos District knew that James was the reincarnation of a big shot, but no one knew who the big shot was.

On the other hand, a few powerhouses of Endlos knew that James' spirit entered the Chaos District when the other districts were attacking it. No one knew the background of James' spirit.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5118-James did not bring up a lot about his past life.

To him, it was the past. Besides, he did not want too many people to know what he was like in his previous life.

Since James did not want to talk about it, King Marciais did not press the issue further.

“Did you cultivate the Orstellen Art in the holy site?” King Marciais asked.

With a smile, James said, “Cultivating the Orstellen Art isn’t a priority to me. I have completely absorbed the three beams of the Endlos Light and comprehended the Herstellen Art. I can easily open the seal of the Orstellen Sect and the seals in the disciples’ bodies.”

“What cultivation rank did you reach?”

King Marciais sighed.

He could not see through James.

James smiled and said, “The Sixteenth Rank of the Marciais Path.”

“What?”

At once, King Marciais jumped up.

‘The Sixteenth Rank of the Marciais Path?’

“Yeah.” James nodded and said, “I named it the Tressencia Completare Rank.”

James did not hide anything from King Marciais. He explained his comprehension of the Marciais Path to King Marciais frankly.

King Marciais was the founder of the Marciais Path, but James’ comprehension of the Marciais Path had surpassed his.

After James’ explanation, King Marciais was enlightened.

With his current ability and potential, he could enter the Sixteenth Rank of the Marciais Path upon understanding what James said.

“Lady Tehila comprehended the Orstellen Art in the holy site. Emperor Raiah comprehended the Tenfold Realms Transcendent Art. What did you comprehend?” King Marciais asked again.

‘The supernatural power I comprehended is called the Tressencia Completare Art.’

‘Tressencia Completare again?’ King Marciais was stunned.

“Yes.” James smiled faintly and said, ‘Tressencia Completare is the combination of the past, present, and future.’

“Amazing.” King Marciais gave James a thumbs up.

Although he did not know how the Tressencia Completare Art worked, it was amazing enough that it involved the past, present, and future.

James and King Marciais hung out. They drank wine and chatted.

After reminiscing with King Marciais, James went to attend to his affairs.

Firstly, he opened the seal of the Orstellen Sect. Then, he opened the seals inside the disciples’ bodies one by one.

Even though he did not cultivate the Orstellen Art, his body had merged with the three beams of the Endlos Light. He comprehended all the inscriptions and secrets recorded in the Endlos Light. It was not difficult for him to open the seals in the disciples’ bodies. In fact, it was easy.

After dealing with all that, James had nothing else to do.

He planned to accompany Thea, his family, and his friends for some time.

He wanted to accompany them until the Extraterrestrial Demons reappeared.

He knew that the lord of the Extraterrestrial Demons was injured. He needed the three beams of the Endlos Light to recover. Until he obtained the Endlos Light, the Extraterrestrial Demons would appear in Endlos sooner or later.

Besides, the Extraterrestrial Demons had been working hard to obtain the Endlos Light.

It was just that James did not know who the lord of the Extraterrestrial Demons was.

In his previous life, he was also from the Central Plane. He knew several powerhouses of the Central Plane.

Time passed.

In the blink of an eye, James had been in the Orstellen Sect for a few epochs.

These few epochs were his most relaxed epochs.

He was free of worries and troubles. He spent his time with his family every day.

When he had nothing to do, he would drink wine and reminisce about the past with his friends. He spent the days in leisure.

Somewhere in Endlos was a regular planet.

Most people on the planet did not have cultivation bases.

In the field of a faraway village, a lady in plain clothes was digging the ground with a hoe.

Just then, she sensed an unusual power.

Following the appearance of the power, the memory of her past life was awakened. In the deepest part of her soul, a powerful aura emerged.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5119-She was the reincarnation of Livie.

In the past, when James was fighting against Mekaisto, Livie activated the elixir hidden in the deepest part of her soul to save James. She recovered her ability and burned her Blood Essence and soul. She forcefully dragged Mekaisto with her to reincarnate.

After reincarnating, Livie had no memories of her past life. Thus, she lived as a normal person.

Although she did not have a cultivation base, she could not die.

‘The Great Elder has come to Endlos.’

Livie frowned.

In her previous life, James gave her her soul. She was James ' daughter.

Before that, she was Jaomi, a Grand Priestess.

“It seems that teacher’s injuries can no longer be suppressed. Perhaps he got into trouble and is in a hurry to obtain the Herstellen Art hidden in the Endlos Light and restore his strength,” mumbled Livie.

The Great Elder’s aura affected Livie’s soul.

She recovered memories from her past life. Following the awakening of her soul, her ability recovered.

Swoosh!

At once, she disappeared.

After leaving the area, she began to inquire about the situation of Endlos. The information came easily to her. She learned that James was alive and had become the sect leader of the Orstellen Sect.

Immediately, Livie headed to the Orstellen Sect.

At the entrance of the Orstellen Sect, a lady wearing a blue dress appeared.

She was immediately stopped at the entrance.

“Inform James that Livie wants to meet him,” said Livie politely.

Even though she was polite, her aura was evil. Hence, the disciples of the Orstellen Sect felt uncomfortable.

“Who is it?”

A lazy voice sounded.

Then, King Marciais walked out of the Entrance Formation. He glanced at Livie.

Upon sensing an unusual aura from Livie, he became wary. He stared at Livie.

“What an evil aura. You aren’t from Endlos. Are you an Extraterrestrial Demon?”

King Marciais stared at Livie, who was graceful.

Livie did not hide her aura and identity. Truthfully, she said,” That’s right. I’m the Third Commander of the second invasion of Endlos. I’m Jaomi. I’m also James’ daughter, Livie.”

Upon hearing that, King Marciais understood.

He knew about Livie. He also knew that James only survived because of Livie.

Otherwise, James would have died in Mekaisto’s hands.

“Bring me to James,” said Livie.

“Stand down.”

King Marciais waved his hand.

The disciples guarding the entrance left instantly.

“Come with me.”

King Marciais brought Livie into the Orstellen Sect.

At the back mountain of the Orstellen Sect was a manor.

In the manor was a chessboard. James was playing chess with the Ancestral Blood Master.

King Marciais smiled and said, “James, your daughter is here to see you.”

James stood up and turned around. Upon seeing Livie, he was taken aback.

Happily, he said, “Livie, it’s you.”

“Dad,” called Livie. Then, she said sternly, “I sensed the Great Elder’s aura. The Great Elder has appeared in Endlos.

Soon, the so-called Extraterrestrial Demons will come.” “Oh,” said James indifferently.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5120-Seeing that James was indifferent, Livie said sternly, “Dad, do you know how terrifying the Great Elder is? If he’s coming in person this time, Endlos is bound to be taken over by him.”

Looking at Livie, James asked, “Livie, who were you before your previous life?”

He waved his hand, and a few chairs appeared.

Pointing at the chairs, he gestured for King Marciais and Livie to sit.

King Marciais sat down. He also wanted to know Livie’s background. He wanted to know what the sect she was in was like.

Livie also sat down.

Taking a deep breath, she said, “Endlos is one of the many planes. I’m from the Central Plane. The Central Plane is one of the most powerful planes. It’s divided up by many powerhouses.

“I came from a place called Emyr Island. I’m the Grand Priestess of Emyr Island.

My teacher is the Island Lord of Emyr Island.”

“Fenton Newman.” James could not help but frown.

“What’s wrong?” Livie shuddered. Surprised, she looked at James and said,

“Dad, you know my teacher’s name.”

Dully, James said, “He’s one of the Central Plane’s Ten Powerhouses. Of course I know his name.”

James rubbed his temples.

He did not expect the mastermind behind the attack of Endlos to be the Island Lord of Emyr Island, Fenton.

“Who’s the Great Elder of Emyr Island? What’s his cultivation rank?” James asked.

James only knew about the Island Lord of Emyr Island. He had no idea who the Great Elder of Emyr Island was. He had not paid attention to these things in the past.

With a grave expression, Livie said, “The Great Elder is Lor Willasse. He’s in the Sovereign Third Rank. In Emyr Island, he’s second only to my teacher.”

“Fenton hasn’t entered the Celestial Rank yet, right?” James questioned.

In James’ previous life, he would be able to defeat Fenton easily.

Even though Fenton was known as one of the Central Plane’s Ten Powerhouses, he was at the bottom of the ranking. Besides, this ranking was created by idle living beings.

The lords of several powerful planes could also defeat Fenton.

Even so, James only recovered memories of his past life not too long ago.

During the battle in his previous life, he was almost beaten to death. Only his spirit escaped.

Although he had cultivated the Tressencia Completare, his current Tressencia Completare was not the strongest among the powers he used.

“The Great Elder is in the Sovereign Sixth Rank. He’s only a step away from the Celestial Rank,” said Livie.

‘There’s nothing to worry about.’ James continued, “As long as Fenton doesn’t come in person, I have nothing to fear.

Even if he does come in person, I may not have to be afraid.”

Now, even though James' cultivation rank was not high, he knew that Fenton was injured. Fenton would not be at his peak.

"Dad, you..." Livie was so shocked that she was speechless.

It had only been one epoch. How did James become so mysterious?

How did he know about the affairs in the Central Plane? He also knew the name of Livie's teacher.

James did not explain all this.

Looking at Livie, James smiled and said, "Since you're here, stay in Orstellen Sect. If Lor dares to show up, Endlos will be his burial place."

Since James had spoken, Livie did not say anything else.

"Please arrange her stay." James looked at King Marciais.

"No problem."

King Marciais stood up. He looked at Livie and said, "Come with me."
