The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5151-James' conference was a great inspiration to strong cultivators.

He stood on the podium and watched as Wyot entered the Sovereign Rank with satisfaction. With Wyot's breakthrough, the Endlos had another powerhouse at the Sovereign Rank.

Suddenly, a carriage pulled by nine golden dragons interrupted the conference.

James' brows furrowed at the sight. The powerhouses in the dojo turned toward the carriage. Under everyone's gaze, Hetsema pulled Yemima out of the carriage.

"Huh?" Everyone was stunned.

Hetsema dragged Yemima through the void and walked to the central area of the dojo.

Thea immediately reacted and reprimanded him, "What are you doing,

Hetsema?!! Get out of here! Don't you know what kind of occasion this is? If you need to discuss something, we'll do it after the conference."

Hetsema replied nonchalantly, "It can't wait till the conference ends. Since Wyot and James are already here, I need them to give my mother closure."

The light rays surrounding Wyot's body dispersed. Then, he stood up and fixed his gaze on Hetsema and Yemima in the void.

Yemima said pleadingly, "Forget it, Hetsema. Let's go back. There are so many people watching us. Haven't I been embarrassed enough?"

Hetsema said unconcernedly, "What's there to be ashamed of?"

He turned to Yemima and said, "I can't bear seeing you stay in Mount Doom alone. You've locked yourself there for countless epochs and never even stepped outside."

Hetsema glared at Wyot and growled, "You're a coward, Wyot. We've already come to this, but are you still going to avoid it? If you back away this time, you'll lose her forever."

After scolding Wyot, he turned to James and said, "You've never given my mother a proper title, nor have you taken responsibility for your actions. Today, you should at least give her closure in front of all these people."

Hetsema's voice resounded throughout the dojo.

Yemima was incredibly troubled by the situation. She did not want to face James and Wyot at the same time.

She snuck a glance at Wyot, but he said nothing in response. Then, she peeked at James and saw his solemn expression.

The entire dojo fell silent. Everyone's gaze was on James and Wyot.

Thea also turned to James, wondering how he would react. His children were also shocked that Hetsema brought Yemima to the dojo and stared at James.

Suddenly, Wyot stood up and said, "You should've stayed in the Orstellen Sect, Hetsema. Why are you here causing a scene?"

Hetsema shouted, "You're a coward, Wyot! The woman you love was snatched by someone else, but you're not going to do anything?"

Hetsema's words triggered Wyot. In the past, he had been constantly trying to kill James. However, it had only ended with his defeat. After so much time passed, he had let go of the matter and wanted to allow time to settle everything.

"Shut up!" Wyot roared, and his voice echoed throughout the dojo like rumbling thunder. He had already entered the Sovereign Rank, and his aura was terrifyingly strong. His voice permeated the air, and it felt like the Thirty-Third Heaven would collapse.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5152-Wyot had already learned to accept fate. However, it did not mean he had forgotten what had happened. He had suppressed his anger deep within his heart. He was furious that Hetsema had brought Yemima to the Human Universe's Thirty-Third Heaven and exposed everything in front of the massive crowd of powerhouses.

Wyot looked at Yemima, and his face darkened. He turned to James on the podium, clenched his fists, and slowly began to approach.

James stared at Wyot as well.

Wyot stopped before him and said, "We must settle this matter, James. Even though the Endlos is in peace, the Dooms and humans have been in conflict for countless years. Let's resolve it today, once and for all."

"How are we going to resolve it?" James looked at Wyot.

Wyot replied, "It's either you live or I live."

James frowned. He did not like the way things had turned out. He had always wanted to give Yemima a title. After all, they had a son together. However, he was aware that Wyot and Yemima were in love. His relationship with Yemima was a mere accident, a mistake that happened because of the conflict between the humans and Dooms. All this while, James had chosen to avoid dealing with this matter.

James looked at Wyot and said, "You're no match for me.

You should leave with Yemima."

Wyot turned around and looked at Yemima, who had tears rolling down her cheeks. He roared, 'You want me to just take her?! How will other people look at me? How will I hold my head high in the future?!!"

Yemima could no longer stand the situation. She stepped forward and shouted,

“Enough!”

Her voice echoed in the dojo. Then, she slowly stepped forward and stopped before Wyot and James.

She looked at Wyot, whose appearance had aged significantly since they had last met. His black hair had a few white strands mixed into them. He no longer had an arrogant and naive demeanor like in the past. At that moment, he looked mature and wise. While staring at his face, she regained her long-lost smile.

When he returned to the Dooms, he felt betrayed after he learned Yemima was pregnant with James' child. After she gave birth to Hetsema, he imprisoned her in a dungeon and forced her to live in the dark. He deeply regretted his actions back then. Things would never have come to this if he had been more generous and treated Hetsema as his child.

Yemima shook her head and replied, “No. I've never hated you. I only hate my fate.”

She choked back her tears, looked at James, and said, “I've never hated you either, James. I just hate that I was not born in a peaceful era. Why did it have to be in a time when the humans and Dooms are in conflict?”

Yemima looked at the two men with teary eyes.

“I’m not clean anymore, Wyot. I’ve let you down. I’m sorry I couldn’t be your woman in this life. I hope in my next life, I can be yours.”

Her voice permeated the dojo. Immediately afterward, her body began disintegrating, and her soul was undergoing reincarnation.

‘Yemima...’ Wyot roared out in despair, but he did not stop her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5153-With Wyot’s current strength, he could stop Yemima’s reincarnation. However, he wanted to respect her decision.

“James, please take good care of Hetsema...” Yemima’s soul gradually dissipated, and her voice echoed in the dojo.

Hetsema felt regretful after seeing how things had unfolded. He did not expect his actions to lead to Yemima’s reincarnation. Despite that, he felt it might have been for the best.

The dojo was full of powerhouses from throughout the Endlos. However, it was completely silent.

Wyot murmured as he watched Yemima reincarnate, “I’ll be waiting for you, Yemima. I’ll wait for you to reincarnate. Even if I have to travel to the ends of the world, I’ll find you.”

Under countless gazes, he walked through the void and left the dojo. Then, he departed from the Human Universe’s Thirty-Third Heaven.”

James fell silent. The outcome was not one he wanted to see, yet it felt the most suitable ending.

“I’ll continue with the conference,” said James.

Hetsema did not stay after the conference continued.

James shared his cultivation knowledge in detail.

Meanwhile, Wyot had already left. He had already entered the Sovereign Rank, so he could easily find Yemima’s reincarnated self.

In a particular district within the Endlos full of fiend energy, a fox was born.

The fox was born on a planet where demons were rampant. However, Wyot secretly protected her and gave her guidance in cultivation. Soon, the fox could transform into a human form.

The fox was none other than Yemima, who was reincarnated into the Fiend Race. Despite that, Wyot still guarded her.

An epoch later, James’ conference came to an end. He left the dojo, leaving the cultivators to continue to ponder on the material he had shared.

James was the current Endlos Lord, and since he had restored the Endlos Heavenly Path, everything in the Endlos was under his detection. He could easily gain intel on Wyot’s every move.

After learning of Wyot’s latest movements, James took a deep breath and murmured, “Perhaps this is Wyot and Yemima’s happily ever after.”

James headed to a palace in the Human Universe's Heavenly Court. He sat at the palace entrance and watched Wyot and Yemima. He drank some wine, and a smile formed on his face.

At that moment, Thea walked over, wearing a black dress, and sat beside him.

Thea was a peerless powerhouse and successfully entered the Sovereign Rank within an epoch. She too, could easily gain insight into Wyot's life.

Thea asked smilingly, "Are you regretting it?"

James replied, "Why would I?"

Thea answered, "She's Hetsema's mother, after all. Now that she has been reincarnated, she's forgotten everything about her previous life and is with Wyot

now. Don't you regret it?"

James smiled and said, "Of course, I have some regrets. However, I can't force her. I've wanted to give her a title, but I know she doesn't have feelings for me.

Even if she did, it was only because of Hetsema."

He took a deep breath and said, "It might just be the perfect ending for everyone. Besides, you're more than enough for me."

After speaking, he embraced Thea.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5154-After Yemima was reincarnated, Wyot stayed by her side.

Meanwhile, James temporarily stayed in Mount Bane after the conference.

His conference greatly inspired many cultivators.

King Marciais had a breakthrough into the Sovereign Rank and reached the Marciais Path's Sixteenth Rank. He was at the same achievement in the Martial Path. However, his cultivation rank had surpassed James.

Soon, Taran also entered the Sovereign Rank.

The Endlos finally had a few more additions of powerhouses at the Sovereign Rank and was no longer classified as a lower-ranked plane. It had evolved into a middle-ranked plane.

The lower-ranked planes did not have powerhouses at the Sovereign Rank.

Even if they managed to produce a powerhouse at the Sovereign Rank, it would be at the expense of the entire plane's resources.

After James finished the conference, he lived carefreely in the Endlos.

One certain day, many epochs later, his peaceful days were broken.

It had been a thousand epochs since James' conference. Outside the Endlos Plane, a massive flying battleship with more than a hundred living beings had appeared.

"There's a plane ahead of us. Let's go check it out."

A rather handsome man wearing a white robe stood inside the flying battleship and looked at the Endlos Plane.

The battleship rapidly approached the Endlos Plane and soon passed the barrier, entering into the Endlos' Dark World.

As soon as the unidentified battleship appeared, the Endlos' powerhouses that had reached the Sovereign Rank detected their presence.

James stood atop a mountain and looked toward the Dark World with a frown.

Thea also stood up. She took his hand and asked, "What's wrong?"

After speaking, Thea sensed the unfamiliar aura from the Dark World. Her brows furrowed as she said, "Living beings from another plane have entered the Endlos."

James replied, "Yeah. We still don't know where they're from, so let's not act rashly. We should find out the reason they've entered the Endlos first."

"Okay." Thea nodded.

Meanwhile, in a particular district of the Endlos, Wyot was leaning casually on a big tree. Beside him was Yemima, who had been reincarnated as a Fiend with the same appearance as her past life.

At that moment, Wyot sensed the presence of intruders in the Endlos Plane.

After a brief shock, he chose to ignore it. There were so many other powerhouses in the Endlos, and he did not need to intervene.

King Marciais, who was in the Orstellen Sect, wore a frown. He said, "The Endlos Plane has intruders."

Gurgen, Gaius, Taran, and other powerhouses also detected the powerful living beings entering the Endlos Plane.

However, nobody acted rashly since James had not done anything yet.

Everyone suppressed their auras and hid, planning to find out the intruders' motives first.

The flying battleship kept advancing through the Dark World. Soon, they were out of the darkness and had entered the Endlos Plane.

A beautiful woman said, "This plane is rather weak. They don't even have a powerhouse at the Sovereign Rank yet."

The woman wore a white dress and had a beautiful figure. After the battleship entered the Endlos Plane, she scanned the entire area. However, she could not detect any notable powerhouses.

The group's commander replied, "Since we're already here, let's look around."

The flying battleship continued moving forward, traversing through the different districts.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5155-Soon, the flying battleship appeared in the Human Universe.

The unknown invaders could sense the Human Universe was the Endlos Plane's core, as the luck gathered was the strongest. Therefore, if the Endlos Plane had powerhouses, they would be within the Human Universe.

The massive battleship carrying hundreds of living beings stopped outside the Human Universe's Heavenly Court.

A man alighted the battleship, looked toward the South Heaven Gate, and shouted, "Who's in charge here?"

Shortly after, Jacopo walked outside the South Heaven Gate and stared warily at the flying battleship ahead of him. He replied, "I'm the Lord of the Human Universe's Heavenly Court. What's your origin, and why are you here?"

Although Jacopo was also a powerhouse, he was not strong enough to sense that the living beings before him were from another plane.

The intruder's commander answered, 'We're disciples from the Central Plane's Dieux Academy. We're traveling to other planes to hand out invitations to recruit new disciples."

'The Central Plane?' Jacopo was startled.

He never expected the living beings before him to be from the Central Plane.

After a brief shock, Jacopo recollected himself and responded, "I'm sorry. We're not interested in traveling to the Central Plane, nor do we want to join other forces.

Please leave."

"Hmph!" One of the Dieux Acadeem/s disciples snorted and said, "Ungrateful.

You've no idea how big the world outside this plane is. Do you even know what kind of place is the Central Plane? Do you understand how strong the Dieux Academy is?”

“I don’t care what kind of place you’re from. You’re not welcome here. Get lost...”

Jacopo did not take the outsiders seriously nor did he care they were from the Central Plane.

The intruder’s commander stepped forward and said, “Don’t act rashly. Our mission is to recruit talented powerhouses for the academy. We’re not here to cause trouble.”

‘There can’t be any powerhouses in this small plane. I think we should just leave.’

James watched everything from Mount Bane.

Thea, who was beside him, asked, “What kind of place is the Dieux Academy?”

Why are they recruiting disciples from other planes?”

James said nonchalantly, ‘The Dieux Academy is a powerful force in the Central Plane. In terms of overall strength, it should be among the top ten. Emyr Island’s Lord, Fenton, is ranked as one of the top ten strongest powerhouses.

However, these rankings were made up by some random people. There are countless powerhouses in the Central Plane, but they rarely show themselves publicly. Thus, most are left out of the rankings since they aren’t known to the public.

‘The comprehensive strength of Emyr Island isn’t impressive in the Central Plane. Any powerful plane in the Central Plane could easily destroy them.”

In James’ previous life, he was the Supremuseum’s Lord Supremus. Thus, he was well-informed about the Central Plane’s affairs.

‘The Dieux Academy’s ruler is a powerhouse at the peak of the Great Celestial Rank. However, I don’t know if he has made any breakthroughs after all these years.”

“Great Celestial Rank?” Thea glanced at James puzzledly.

The Sovereign Rank was no longer a myth in the Endlos, and many powerhouses were already aware beyond it was the Celestial Rank.

However, Thea did not know the Celestial Rank was also categorized. In fact, nobody else on the Endlos Plane knew about it except for James and Emyr Island’s powerhouses, who were reincarnated. However, none of them ever spoke about it.

James nodded lightly and said, “Yeah. The Celestial Rank has a few sub-ranks.

There’s the Petit Celestial Rank, Great Celestial Rank, Martial Celestial Rank, and Holy Celestial Rank.

‘The Holy Celestial Rank is the greatest achievement a cultivator can reach. A powerhouse that reaches the Holy Celestial Rank can dominate tens of thousands of planes and stand above countless other powerhouses.”
