The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5165-Anyone with power in the Central Plane would recognize the two powerhouses.

However, James was clueless about their identity.

He raised his hand and summoned a few inscriptions. The inscriptions transformed rapidly and formed a cloud pattern.

‘The Supremuseum?’

The man and woman were stunned after seeing the mysterious cloud pattern.

The powerhouses immediately stood up and knelt on one knee, disregarding their injuries.

They greeted him respectfully, “Sir.”

The Supremuseum was one of the most terrifying forces in the Central Plane.

The Supremuseum Cloud was a representation of the Supremuseum, and there were only about three people who could summon it.

For James to have summoned the cloud pattern, it was evident he was someone powerful of the Supremuseum.

James dispersed the cloud pattern and said, ‘That’s enough. You can get up.’

The two carefully got back to their feet.

James walked over, looked at them, and asked, “What’s your origin?”

The man replied, “I’m Shade Eaves from the Sphere Sect.

The woman followed up, saying, “I’m Yolanda Jacklin from the Absolute Sect.”

“I see.” James nodded lightly.

He had heard of the two sects before.

Curious, Shade asked, “May I ask who might you be, Sir?”

Shade was at the Celestial Rank. Although ordinary cultivators in the Endlos could not sense James’ cultivation rank, Shade could easily tell James was only at the Consummation Chaos Completable Rank. Despite not even stepping into the Sovereign Rank, James summoned the Supreme Cloud. He wondered if James was the Lord Supreme’s descendant.

Yolanda was also curious.

“I’ll take the Genesis Holy Herb.”

James did not answer Shade’s question. Instead, he demanded to have the Genesis Holy Herb.

“This...” Shade and Yolanda glanced at each other.

“What? Is there a problem?”

Yolanda said, “N-No. However, we were fighting with our lives for it. You just showed up and want to claim it. You should at least tell us your name.”

Shade also agreed, saying, “She’s right. You can’t just take it from us after showing us the Supreme Cloud.”

“Is that not enough?” James glared at them.

Shade quickly replied, “N-No, that’s not what I mean. You can take it, but you should give us your name at least, right?”

Although Shade behaved respectfully toward James, he was reluctant to just give up the Genesis Holy Herb. He could sense that James' cultivation rank was really low. Even if he were the descendant of Lord Supremus, Shade was confident in killing him.

They were in a remote area of the Central Plane. No matter how powerful the Supremuseum was, it would be difficult for them to trace the killer.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5166-Yolanda had the same thoughts. However, they were unsure whether powerhouses were protecting James in the secret. If that were the case, they would be digging their graves if they were to take action.

Still, the Genesis Holy Herb was scarce. They had been stuck in their current cultivation rank for a long time. With the Genesis Holy Herb, their cultivation base would improve significantly, and they might have a breakthrough.

James could read what was on their minds and frowned.

After thinking for a while, James said, "Do you know about the internal conflict within the Supremuseum?"

The two replied simultaneously, "Yeah."

James elaborated, "The founder of the Supremuseum, Lord Supremus, almost perished in that battle."

"Isn't he already dead?" Shade was stunned.

Yolanda had also heard about the incident. Although she was rather weak back then, the battle caused a considerable commotion. Thus, it was impossible for her not to have heard about it. She replied, "The current Lord Supremus has announced the death of their founder."

"Hmph," James sneered and said, "Everyone in the Central Plane thought I died. However, I've mastered countless Supernatural Powers. Back then, my soul was almost destroyed. Fortunately, a small portion of my soul managed to escape. I was reincarnated and have lost everything. I must claim them back with my own hands."

"..." Shade and Yolanda were flabbergasted.

"Y-You're the former Lord Supremus?"

"Are you James Caden, the founder of the Supremusseum?"

The realization completely dumbfounded them.

After James summoned the Supremusseum Cloud, they thought he was the descendant of an influential figure of the Supreemusseum. It never crossed their mind that the person before them was the former Lord Supremus.

James replied calmly, "That's right. Now, I really need the Genesis Holy Herb. It'll help me rapidly regain my strength. I can give you two some benefits."

The two looked at him.

James said slowly, "I've just returned from a lower-ranked plane, so I can't expose my identity yet since I'm still really weak. I need the help of you two. I'll give you the chance to protect me in secret. After I regain my strength, I'll give you whatever your heart desires."

He did not know whether his offer was enough for the two powerhouses before him. James was gambling with his life. Both of them fell into thought. It was indeed an enticing opportunity for them.

James, the former Lord Supremus, was a legendary existence in the Central Plane. He used to be at the peak of the Martial Celestial Rank and was close to reaching the Holy Celestial Rank.

"The cultivation methods the two of you possess will only help you reach the Great Celestial Rank's early stage. It will be hard to go beyond that. If you agree to my condition, I'll hand you two an extraordinary cultivation method. If you work hard to cultivate it, you'll easily enter the Martial Celestial Rank."

James continued to entice them.

"You two must've heard of the Genesis Path Scripture, right? I created it in my past life. I'm the only one that has perfected it. If you promise to serve me for some time, I'll pass the Genesis Path Scripture to both of you. It'll be much more useful than the Genesis Holy Herb."

The two were intrigued when they heard about the Genesis Path Scriptures.

The Genesis Path Scriptures was an exceptional Supernatural Power that had been around for a long time. However, even the current Lord Supremus had not mastered it. It would greatly benefit their cultivation process.

‘Til do it.” Yolanda was the first to speak.

“Me too,” Shade also quickly agreed.
