The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5176-In James' previous life, he was unbothered.

Now, his previous life was only a past form to him. It was a part of the Tressencia Completare Art.

If his current form's ability increased, the power of his past form that he could use would also increase.

He did not make his past life's identity clear.

With a smile, he said, "I'm not Lord Supreme. I just obtained Lord Supreme's inheritance by chance. Also, please don't tell anyone about these matters. Lord Supreme's enemies are powerful and terrifying. Letting other people know about this will bring trouble."

In the distance, a patroller blocked the path of the flying battleships.

An elder walked out of the flying battleship in the lead.

The elder wore a gray robe. Looking at the patrollers blocking his way before him, he greeted, "We are the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain. I'm Brett Glen."

With a heavy expression, the leader of the patrollers said, " This plane has potential. It reached the fifth level as soon as it was born. In the future, it will become a huge plane.

Please go back. Don't taint this plane."

The patrollers knew the reason the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain was here.

They were not respectful toward the Ancient Clan.

Upon seeing this, Gaius could not help but say, "If Endlos had the protection of patrollers when it was born, it wouldn't have suffered so much."

Dully, James said, "Endlos was only a first-level plane when it was born. There are limited patrollers. They can't protect all planes."

James and the others watched the situation from a distance.

The Ancient Clan was determined to invade the plane and make it their subsidiary plane.

"This is the clan leader's order. Do you need him to go to Elysium Hall and explain the situation to your master?"

Facing the unrelenting patrollers who stopped the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain from entering, Brett's expression grew heavy.

Brett's cultivation rank was not high. He was only in the late stage of the Sovereign Fourth Rank.

However, the patrollers stopping them were at the peak of the Sovereign Sixth Rank. Even though the patrollers had a special status, Brett was from the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain.

"Uh..." The leader of the guardians frowned.

'The Ancient Clan isn't a clan we can offend.'

“How about we let them go? If the Ancient Clan goes to the hall, Master will go along with the Ancient Clan’s wish. We shouldn’t make things hard for ourselves.”

Several patrollers spoke up softly.

The leader glanced at Brett and said, “I will report this matter to Master. If Master decides to punish you, don’t blame me for not warning you.”

“Let’s go,” ordered the leader of the patrollers. Then, he left with the patrollers.

Brett was full of smiles.

The Ancient Clan’s Immortal Mountain was powerful.

The clan leader of the Ancient Clan was the lord of a ninthlevel plane. Even Elysium Hall had to respect his wishes.

“Take all of its treasures. If the powerhouses of this plane resist, kill them. Spare a few powerhouses with great potential to train them as subordinates of our clan.”

Following Brett’s orders, large flying battleships barged into the plane.

Then, once they had come out, James and the others appeared quietly.

“James?”

The few of them looked at James.

“It’s been quite some time since they came out. They’d invaded many planes. There should be many treasures on the battleships. Take all of them. You guys go ahead. I have cast a formation outside long ago. I'll meet you guys inside later."

After James said that, the four quickly entered the plane.

James stood outside the plane and took a deep breath.

Initially, he did not want to reveal his identity and the news of his return.

However, he would not be able to cast a formation that could isolate the place's aura without revealing himself. He also would not be able to cast a formation that left no traces.

If he cast a formation there, a powerhouse of the Ancient Clan would immediately sense that something was amiss upon approaching the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5177-When James raised his hand, countless inscriptions appeared in his palm. The inscriptions transformed quickly before submerging into the surrounding area.

Then, James entered the plane.

In the plane, flying battleships as large as stars were entering rapidly.

"Swoosh!"

As the battleships were flying in, before the entire battleship could make it into the plane, several shadows appeared and blocked the battleships from entering.

“If you would like to come through here, you should leave something behind,” said King Marciais lazily.

“What’s going on? Why did we stop?” Brett walked out and showed up at the border of the battleship.

“A few living beings have blocked our way,” answered a disciple of the Ancient Clan.

This area belonged to the Dark World outside of the plane.

When Brett looked ahead, he saw four people emerging from the dark.

At this moment, James also appeared.

“Kill them.”

Brett sensed their cultivation rank. After he learned that they were in the Sovereign Second Rank, his expression became heavy. At this time, many warriors rushed out from the flying battleship at the front.

They were elite warriors trained by the Ancient Clan. They expanded the Ancient Clan’s territories. They were the most loyal subordinates of the Ancient Clan.

Instantly, King Marciais, Gaius, Gurgun, and Taran grew excited.

Upon facing the countless warriors of the Ancient Clan, they took action.

Although the warriors of the Ancient Clan were powerful, they were not a match for King Marciais and the others. They were on the losing end.

At this moment, several powerhouses rushed out from the flying battleships again.

The powerhouses were all in the Sovereign Rank.

Nonetheless, even though they were in the Sovereign Rank, they were not King Marciais and the others' match.

Although King Marciais and the rest were in the Sovereign Second Rank, they were in the late stage of the Sovereign Second Rank. Besides, their foundation was stable. In addition to that, they cultivated each other's signature skills. They could even win against powerhouses of the Central Plane who were in the initial stage of the Sovereign Third Rank.

Upon watching this scene, Brett frowned. He stood forward and shouted, "Fellow cultivators, I'm a disciple of the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain. What do you mean by this? Aren't you afraid of the Ancient Clan taking revenge?"

James looked down upon Brett.

If it were another force, James would not have thought about killing the people to take the treasures.

However, they were from the Ancient Clan.

The clan leader of the Ancient Clan and the founder of the Immortal Mountain were his enemies.

"I'm here to collect interest," said James after taking a deep breath.

Seeing that King Marciais and the others were not stopping, Brett had to make a move himself.

When he made a move, James also took action.

“Your opponent is me.”

James showed up before Brett and blocked him from assisting the warriors of the Ancient Clan.

‘You’re seeking death,’ shouted Brett. In an instant, his aura reached the extreme. The power of the Sovereign Fourth Rank was displayed. He raised his hand and punched James. The terrifying palm force headed toward James.

Currently, James’ cultivation rank was only in the Sovereign First Rank. 1

However, he was in the Seventeenth Rank of the Marciais Path. The Marciais Path was on par with the Sovereign Third Rank.

Besides, he had mastered a lot of signature skills.

The moment Brett attacked, James’ body disappeared quietly.

At the next second, James appeared behind Brett. When he appeared, he used the Tressencia Completare Art. His past form and future form emerged one after another.

His past form and future form attacked Brett simultaneously.

At once, Brett was severely injured. Cracks appeared on his body.

Upon seeing this, James frowned. Then, he sighed. “My cultivation rank is too low. The power my past form used isn’t strong enough. It can’t kill a living being in the late stage of the Sovereign Fourth Rank in one move.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5178-James' past and future forms attacked Brett, a powerhouse at the late stage of the Sovereign Fourth Rank, together.

Even though James' cultivation base was only at the initial stage of the Sovereign Second Rank, he injured a powerhouse at the late stage of the Sovereign Fourth Rank instantly. If news of this spread, it would cause a commotion.

Nonetheless, James was dissatisfied with his power.

“Darn it.”

Brett was injured. Cracks appeared on his body. He was furious.

A dazzling longsword emerged in his hand. The longsword had a terrifying power.

Angrily, Brett waved the longsword and slashed at James.

Indifferently, James stood in the void of the Dark World. He was calm upon facing the attack. When the frightening Sword Energy was about to land on him, he raised his hand. Changes happened in his palm. His palm turned into several mysterious inscriptions. Then, his arm also became inscriptions. In an instant, his body underwent changes, turning into inscriptions. The inscriptions spread out swiftly and formed a mysterious formation.

The formation was extremely powerful.

It contained many James' signature skills.

Not only were there inscriptions he comprehended in Endlos, but there were also inscriptions he comprehended in his previous life.

All of his comprehension turned into a formation.

When the terrifying Sword Energy landed on the formation, the Sword Energy was dissolved instantly.

On the other hand, Brett was trapped in the formation.

Before he could react, the power that emerged from the formation annihilated him. His soul was gone. Nothing was left behind.

A powerhouse at the peak of the Sovereign Fourth Rank disappeared just like that.

The formation disappeared and turned back into James.

James also withdrew his past and future forms.

At this moment, King Marciais and the others were still in battle.

James did not interrupt them. They had just come out of seclusion. They needed to battle to stabilize their cultivation ranks.

Following the death of Brett, the other powerhouses of the Ancient Clan were not King Marciais and the others' match. They were losing. Soon, they were wiped out. Meanwhile, the warriors were killed easily.

The battle ended.

The few of them gathered.

King Marciais gave James a thumbs up. He praised, "You're so strong, James.

Your signature skill is becoming more and more terrifying. A powerhouse at the late stage of the Sovereign Fourth Rank can't resist your attack at all."

James only smiled in response.

His signature skill, the Tressencia Completare Art, was not that simple.

If his cultivation rank's power increased and his current form became stronger, his past form would also grow stronger.

Currently, he only used his current form to cast the formation. The Tressencia Completare Art was a terrifying one.

"Let's go and see what treasures are in the flying battleships," said James.

They hurried into one of the flying battleships.

There was an herb garden in the flying battleship.

In the herb garden were many Emyrean herbs. The lowest-ranked herbs were Acme-Ranked elixirs, while the highest were Sovereign-Ranked elixirs. There were also a few Celestial-Ranked elixirs.

"We're rich."

King Marciais' eyes were gleaming. He was delighted as he shouted, "There are so many Emyrean herbs. I should be able to improve my Marciais Path and reach the Eighteenth Rank."

Taran also could not help but say, "How many planes did they conquer?"

'What a bunch of bastards. How many living beings and forces have they killed to gather so many Emyrean herbs?" Gaius could not help but curse.

On the other hand, James smiled and said, 'Why should we bother about all that? Let's begin. Let's not use any Supernatural Signature Skills. First come, first serve.'

Once James said that, everyone began to move. They plucked and gathered Emyrean herbs in the herb garden.

Soon, the huge herb garden was emptied.

Nevertheless, there were many flying battleships.

Every flying battleship had an herb garden.

In each herb garden were countless herbs. The herbs were gathered from several planes that Brett had conquered.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5179-Soon, the Emyrean herbs Brett had obtained after putting in so much effort were divided among James and the others.

After dividing these Emyrean herbs, James destroyed the flying battleships.

The five of them gathered in the Dark World.

They were counting the loot.

Endless laughter sounded in the Dark World.

"Haha. We're so rich "

'There are too many Emyrean herbs.'

"By the way, James, how are you going to deal with the plane?"

Upon hearing that, James fell into deep thought.

His initial plan was to come to this plane to search for treasures and Empyrean herbs. Now, he had obtained many Empyrean herbs. They were enough for him to use for some time.

“How about we culture this plane?” King Marciais had an idea.

James glanced at King Marciais. King Marciais’ idea was similar to his.

‘That works.’

James said, “I can sense that there aren’t many powerhouses born in the plane.

Let’s operate separately. We’ll look for talented living beings and recruit them as disciples.”

“Alright.”

“No problem.”

“We’ll do that then.”

After thinking for a while, James continued, “I don’t think this will work. I want to merge this plane with Endlos. I want to increase Endlos’ level.”

King Marciais asked, “Do you have the Supernatural Power to merge two planes?”

James smiled and answered, “That’s easy. Come with me.”

James turned to leave the plane. Standing outside the plane, he raised his hand. A few dazzling inscriptions emerged from his palm. The inscriptions materialized rapidly. Soon, they engulfed the plane.

James began to activate the inscriptions.

Then, the plane disappeared.

Everyone was stunned.

With a smile, James said, “It isn’t gone. I used my Supernatural Power to keep it. Let’s head back to the Endlos Plane now.”

“Anyway, there’s still a lot of time until Dieux Academy’s new disciples’ recruitment. Let’s head back,” said King Marciais.

The others did not refute.

Glancing at the area, James dispersed the formation that isolated its aura.

Then, he erased everything that happened there. He made the space become chaotic again.

Now, even if a powerhouse of the Ancient Clan came in person, he would not know what had happened there. He would only sense a few auras and the aura of the Genesis Path Scripture.

After that, James returned to Endlos along with the rest.

Soon, they were outside Endlos.

Standing outside Endlos, James waved his hand. The plane that was stored with his Supernatural Power appeared. The plane headed over to Endlos swiftly.

Boom!

At this moment, countless living beings of Endlos heard a rumble.

It was the sound of two planes colliding.

The terrifying power filled Endlos. The level of the Endlos Plane was low. It could not handle the collision of a fifth-level plane.

However, James controlled the power.

Under his control, the Endlos Plane did not collapse.

Meanwhile, the plane brought by James' supernatural power gradually merged with the Endlos Plane.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone was shocked.

They had been shocked by James' every move ever since departing from Endlos. Everything he did surpassed their expectations and turned their perceptions upside down.

Under James' control, the two planes merged.

After merging the two planes, the space of the Endlos Plane became more stable. The Endlos Heavenly Path also grew stronger.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5180-The Endlos Plane merged with a fifth-level plane.

Unfortunately, the Endlos Plane's level did not increase. Nevertheless, it had a huge potential as the newly born plane was still developing.

The size of the plane was increasing, and its space was also becoming stable.

As long as the current Endlos Plane could grow safely for some time, it would become a powerful plane.

According to James' extrapolation, the current Endlos Plane could become an eighth-level plane.

It would be hard to become a ninth-level plane after becoming an eighth-level plane. The plane needed to merge with too many planes to do so. It needed to absorb the Genesis of many planes to gain a chance of becoming a ninth-level plane.

If it were easy to become a ninth-level plane, ninth-level planes would not have been so rare among the many planes.

The rest stared at James. When James stopped, King Marciais walked over and asked, "What do we do now?"

James answered, "According to my previous plan, I plan to rest for some time.

We will recruit a few potential prodigies and train them. We will teach them whatever we know.

Whatever the disciples can learn, we will teach them."

"Alright."

"Sure."

"No problem."

The few of them agreed.

James continued, "We can't stay in the Endlos Plane for too long. We can only stay for one epoch. If you think it isn't long enough, you can choose to settle down on a spiritual mountain and cast a time formation to earn more time."

Everyone nodded. Then, they returned to the new Endlos Plane one after another.

On the other hand, James did not go back immediately.

He scanned his surroundings.

Although he had cast a formation that isolated the plane's aura and rendered the living beings of the other plane unable to detect Endlos' existence, the merging of the two planes caused a huge commotion.

If living beings passed by this area, they would sense it.

Now, James wanted to hide Endlos completely so that no powerhouse that passed by would be able to sense it.

That way, Endlos could develop and grow safely.

If the new Endlos Plane could become an eighth-level plane, the Endlos Heavenly Path and the cultivation rank that could be accommodated would reach their limits. It would be possible to reach the Great Celestial Rank in Endlos.

James wanted to raise the Endlos Plane to be his ace in the hole.

In the future, when he revealed his identity to the other powerhouses, the Endlos Plane would play a key role.

Hurriedly, he cast the formation.

He activated the superformation and hid Endlos' aura entirely.

Endlos disappeared from the thousands of planes. Now, the Endlos Plane could only be sensed if James broke the seal formation and let the Endlos Plane appear.

After doing all this, James also returned to the Endlos Plane.

Upon returning to the plane, he went back to the Human Universe and looked for Thea.

“Why are you back?”

When Thea saw James return, she was shocked.

Then, she asked, “Were you the one who caused such a huge commotion in Endlos? I sensed that many regions had appeared in the Endlos Plane. Aside from that, the plane is constantly expanding. There are still spaces being born. What’s going on?”

James did not hide these matters from Thea. Truthfully, he said, “After leaving Endlos, I encountered a newborn plane. The plane is advanced and has room to grow. So, I moved it over here forcefully and merged it with Endlos. In this way, the space of the Endlos Plane would become more stable.

In the future, Endlos would become a powerful plane.

“Thea.”

James looked at Thea.

“Huh?”

Thea was also looking at James.

James said, “I have a new plan now. I don’t want you to leave Endlos anymore. I want you to help me protect Endlos.”
