The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5206-Tyson was the lord of a fifth-level plane and a powerhouse at the Sovereign Sixth Rank's early stage. However, he was killed by four humans at the Sovereign Third Rank. He would have perished if they were not in the Arena World.

Following Tyson's death, his subordinates left on the spiritual mountain were terrified. They immediately evacuated and gave up the spiritual mountain. Since they were not a significant threat, James and his comrades did not chase after them.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses watched in awe.

Leonidas exclaimed, "Outstanding. That's a very exquisite formation. It utilizes the elemental powers so precisely. I wonder which powerhouse created it."

Xhemal stroked his beard and said smilingly, "Now, this is getting interesting.

Those participants at the Petit Celestial Rank from powerful planes, sects, and families won't have it easy this time."

Zavis, Gaius, Gurgun, and Taran returned to James' side.

"They were too weak. Let's go challenge someone at the Petit Celestial Rank!"

Zavis' confidence had skyrocketed.

James floated in the sky, staring intently at the spiritual mountain ahead.

"Forty-nine?" Taran looked at him, puzzled.

James snapped out of his thoughts, nodded lightly, and said, "Yeah?"

Gaius asked, "What were you looking at?"

James replied, "Sir Salvius mentioned a secret hidden within this realm. I was trying to find it."

"Did you find any clues?" asked Zavis.

James shook his head in response.

Again, Gaius asked, "So what do we do with this spiritual mountain?"

James thought awhile and answered, "Let's set up a formation to prevent other participants from occupying it."

Afterward, James approached the spiritual mountain. He waved his hand, and a few Elemental Inscriptions emerged to form an Elemental Formation.

Unless a powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank showed up, it was impossible to break the Elemental Formation.

James looked at his companions and said, 'You four should get familiar with the power of the Elemental Formation first. Although you've already mastered it, you haven't fully adapted to it and can't unleash its true potential."

"Alright." Zavis, Gaius, Gurgun, and Taran nodded.

Then, they began to familiarize themselves with the elemental power.

Meanwhile, James sat in a lotus position on the spiritual mountain. He closed his eyes and carefully sensed his surroundings.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses commented on his actions.

"Could he have already noticed something?"

Xhemal said, "Not necessarily. We're just giving the participants an extra opportunity. I wasn't expecting anyone to discover the secret hidden within the realm anyway. If he manages to find it, he is indeed a rare genius. It would mean he is observant and has high comprehension abilities.

Additionally, his other aspects have been honed to very high levels. His future will be boundless."

James used his senses to scan the Arena World. After some time, a smile suddenly formed on his face. He did not leave in a hurry but waited for his comrades to get more familiar with the power of the Elemental Formation.

After his comrades had adapted to their newly gained powers, James said,

"Let's go."

The group headed to the next spiritual mountain. Their next target was a relatively small mountain. The participants who had taken over the spiritual mountain were only at the Sovereign Fourth Rank.

However, the competition to seize control of the spiritual mountain was intense.

Countless participants at the Sovereign Second and Third Rank gathered around and were fighting over it. Unfortunately, their fight was ended very abruptly by James' group.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5207-James and his comrades successfully took over the spiritual mountain without the Elemental Formation.

After their second conquest, James set up another Elemental Formation around the spiritual mountain.

Afterward, James did not hurry to their next target. Instead, he sat in a lotus position atop the mountain. His companions were confused, but they did not question him and just waited aside patiently.

Some time later, James stood up, and the group continued toward their next destination.

another, they seized possession of the spiritual mountains.

In the Arena World, there were only 49 spiritual mountains. At that moment, James' group had already seized 40 spiritual mountains. Every time they took over a new place, James would set up a formation. Then, he would stay atop the mountain for some time.

The Dieux Powerhouses discussed his actions.

“Haha. He’s fascinating.”

“After occupying a spiritual mountain, he creates a powerful formation to prevent weaker participants from invading. The stronger participants, on the other hand, have their attention focused on the ten cities or more powerful spiritual mountains. Thus, they aren’t wasting any time on the weaker options.”

“Is he trying to eliminate all the other participants?”

“Still, their previous opponents were on the weaker side.

From now on, he’ll have to defeat way stronger opponents from major sects.

Moreover, a few of them are at the Petit Celestial Rank.”

“I’m excited to see how this plays out.”

The Deix Academy’s powerhouses were fascinated by the assessment in the Arena World. Things had surpassed their expectations. Nobody expected a few humans from a third- level plane to stir up such a storm in the Arena World.

They had strong impressions of James, Zavis, Gaius, Gurgun, and Taran. Many of them had plans of recruiting them as disciples. It would be great to have the

Meanwhile, James sat in a lotus position atop a spiritual mountain they had just seized, whereas his comrades rested.

After everyone had restored their strength, James stood up.

“Forty-nine, our next battles are going to be tough.” Zavis rubbed his forehead.

Gaius frowned and said, “There aren’t many spiritual mountains left. The remaining spiritual mountains have been conquered by the stronger participants. Then, there are also the ten cities left. Will we be able to seize them all?”

James looked at them and said smilingly, “We won’t know if we don’t try.”

Zavis and the others were full of confidence in their first battle. However, Tyson was killed rather quickly only because he underestimated them.

It was not easy for them to win their subsequent battles. Their following opponents had mastered exceptional Supernatural Powers. Even with the Elemental Formation, they were severely injured.

“We’ll be counting on you to settle the rest.”

James had yet to participate in any battles, and the Elemental Formation’s true potential had not been unleashed. Thus, his comrades were looking forward to testing its maximum strength.

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses were also excited.

Meanwhile, the Elysium Hall’s Master, the Central Plane’s strongest powerhouse, was also watching the assessment. He frowned and murmured puzzledly, “The Central Plane’s five elements? After I mastered the Central Plane's Genesis Path, I've never passed it to anyone else. How did they acquire it? Who taught it to them? Who's the creator of such a potent formation?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5208-The Elysium Hall's Master could tell James' comrades were using potent Five Elements of Genesis, and he concluded they belonged from the Central Plane.

However, he was still slightly off the mark. In truth, James and his comrades were using Genesis Powers that were formed by combining the Genesis Paths of many different planes.

Apart from the Elysium Hall's Master, many other powerhouses were also watching the Dieux Academy's assessment because they had sent disciples to partake in it. The formation that Zavis, Gaius, Gorgen, and Taran used left them confused.

Many of them were lords of ninth-level planes and had cultivated their plane's Genesis Path. A plane's Genesis Path consisted of many Genesis Powers, including the Five Elements of Genesis. Thus, they could sense that the Five Elements of Genesis used by James' companions were profound. Even though they had already mastered their respective plane's Genesis Paths, they could not completely understand their Genesis Powers.

James, who was inside the Arena World, knew their actions would draw a lot of attention. However, he was not worried since he had already devised a countermeasure.

Soon, James' group left the spiritual mountain and headed to their next destination.

Many participants had been eliminated from the Arena World. However, there were a few who had already given up and followed after James' group to watch them.

Soon, James' group arrived outside a powerful spiritual mountain. In the sky, a few words were hovering above the mountain, reading—Waynolt Lubbertsz.

“Woah. It's Sir Waynolt's spiritual mountain.”

“Sir Waynolt is a powerful member of the Dieux Academy. He's already at the Martial Celestial Rank's early stage.”

“I wonder who's currently in control of this spiritual mountain.”

Many participants gathered in the distance, discussing the spiritual mountain.

Meanwhile, a handsome man wearing a green robe sat in a lotus position at the mountain's peak, with a few people standing behind him.

“Sir, they've arrived.”

The man opened his eyes and looked into the distance, immediately spotting James' group.

James and his comrades had stirred up a huge storm in the Arena World, and many eyes were on them. The green-robed man was no exception.

The man's name was Keagan Yahner, and he came from a seventh-level plane.

Surprisingly, he was not from a powerful background. He relied on his own strength to become a Plane Lord and make a name for his plane. He was currently at the early stage of the Petit Celestial Rank.

In his plane, there were several powerhouses at the Sovereign Sixth Rank and a dozen at the Sovereign Fifth Rank. Additionally, there were many powerhouses between the Sovereign First to Fourth Rank.

Keagan's purpose for leading a group of powerhouses to participate in the Dieux Academy's assessment was merely to curry favor with them. His plane was at the seventh level, which was considered very advanced. Despite that, there was a significant number of eighth-level and ninth-level planes. In addition, the Cental Plane was also very potent. There were too many threats to his plane. Thus, he wanted to get on the Dieux Academy's good side to ensure the safety of his plane.

After seeing James' group appear, Keagan's face darkened. He slowly stood up and looked at the humans approaching from the distance.

James and his companions stopped at the foot of the spiritual mountain.

Zavis frowned and said, "They are quite strong. Their leader is at the Petit Celestial Rank. Amongst them, there are four at the Sovereign Sixth Rank, over a dozen at the Sovereign Fifth Rank, and more than fifty at the Sovereign Fourth Rank. They could definitely seize a city if they tried."

Taran said, "Yeah. If they were to attack a city with only one powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank, they would win."

Zavis and the others stared at James.

James knew he would have to participate in the battle this time. If not, his comrades would not be able to conquer the spiritual mountain.

Meanwhile, many people were spectating them. Everyone wanted to know how powerful was the complete Elemental Formation and whether the five humans at the Sovereign Third Rank could defeat a powerhouse from a seventh-level plane.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5209-Everyone was looking forward to the battle.

Keagan shouted, "State your names."

"Forty-nine."

"Gauis."

"Gurgen."

"Zavis."

‘Taran.’

Their voices resounded in the area.

“How bold!” Keagan shouted. Immediately afterward, a powerful aura rose from his body, and the elemental powers of the Arena World instantly surrounded him.

“So this is the Celestial Rank?”

James looked ahead and explained, “When you step into the Celestial Rank, your aura will interact with the elemental powers from the surrounding environment.”

“His aura is so potent.”

“He’s at the Petit Celestial Rank, right?”

“I’m looking forward to fighting an opponent at the Celestial Rank.”

James’ comrades were excited to fight.

“I’ve already entered the Petit Celestial Rank. Meanwhile, the five of you are only at the Sovereign Third Rank. Even if you have a powerful formation, you can’t defeat me.”

Keagan was overflowing with confidence. Regardless of how powerful their formation was, he felt there was a limit to how much it could improve their strength. The Sovereign Rank and Celestial Rank had an insurmountable disparity in strength.

‘There’s no need for you to take action, sir.’

At that moment, four powerhouses at the Sovereign Sixth Rank stepped forward and leaped into the sky.

The four powerhouses were at the Sovereign Sixth Rank’s late stage and possessed terrifying strength.

James said, “After we conquer this spiritual mountain, the next few will be much easier. We can’t hold back in this battle and must end it as soon as possible.”

After James’ order, his comrades spread out and cast the formation. At that moment, each of them unleashed a different kind of elemental power and surrounded their bodies with it.

James also joined in with them. At that moment, the five elements fused.

The five of them stood in the void, forming a strange pattern.

It was the first time they had cast the complete Elemental Formation. At that moment, their auras skyrocketed, and their strength improved significantly.

Previously, the Gavis, Gurgun, Zavis, and Taran could only reach the Sovereign

Sixth Rank. With the addition of James, the final elemental inversion, their aura had reached an even higher level.

At that moment, all five had the power equivalent to the Petit Celestial Rank.

Although they had not reached the Petit Celestial Rank, they had the strength of one.

“What the...” The four powerhouses at the Sovereign Rank were dumbfounded.

Keagan’s calm and confident composure was replaced with solemnness.

Right then, James took action. He sprung at the four opponents and struck them before they could react.

The potent force landed on their bodies and destroyed them instantly. Their souls were sent out of the Arena World after being killed.

In Dieux Academy’s main hall, many powerhouses watched in shock. Even though they were experienced powerhouses, their jaws dropped open at the sight.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5210-The four powerhouses at the Sovereign Sixth Rank’s late stage were killed in the blink of an eye.

Although powerhouses from other sects also had the strength to fight against opponents at the Sovereign Sixth Rank’s late stage, an instant kill was impossible.

James calmly hovered in the sky.

Keagan’s brows furrowed tightly. He knew James’ group was here to seize the spiritual mountain.

fight off James’ group.

“Set up the formation,” Keagan quickly issued an order.

At that moment, the powerhouses behind him quickly leaped into the sky and scattered around. Then, they unleashed powerful auras.

They wielded their swords and flickered throughout the sky. They unleashed Sword Energies and fused into a strange pattern.

James also ordered, "Attack! They're setting up a powerful formation. It can trap even a powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank."

James' group sprung into action, unleashing their elemental powers. Their auras immediately interacted with each other.

Taran appeared outside the sword formation. However, the sword formation suddenly spread toward him. He was careless and was trapped. Following his confinement, he was stabbed by a few Sword Energies.

Suddenly, four different powers entered his body and boosted his strength.

He shouted, "Break!"

Then, a mysterious rune that he had summoned exploded. Cracks immediately spread throughout the Sword Formation.

James and the other three instantly took action.

The powerhouses at the Sovereign Rank plummeted from the sky one after another. Before they could reach the ground, their bodies were annihilated by a powerful force.

James and his comrades quickly disintegrated the Sword Formation and killed many of Keagan's subordinates. At that moment, only a few of Keagan's subordinates were left on the spiritual mountain.

Keagan grumbled, "Damn it." He raised his hand, and the elemental power from the Genesis Path of his plane gathered into a long sword.

Then, his aura improved significantly. He stepped forward and slashed out his sword.

A kilometer-long Sword Energy darted out, carrying unparalleled power.

Although they were within a secret realm created by powerhouses of the Dieux

Academy, his terrifying strength was enough to impact the surrounding space.

James' group quickly evaded the attack.

Boom!

The terrifying Sword Energy fell on the ground in the distance and created a pit.

The damage continued to spread, forming into a long, bottomless chasm.

Startled, Taran said, "He's so strong. If that were to hit me, my soul would've been obliterated."

James' group was surprised by the attack's strength.

As expected from a powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank, Keagan had terrifying strength.

Keagan held his dazzling long sword and slashed out, unleashing a few Sword Energies.

Taran quickly summoned a few Curse Inscriptions and converted them into an invisible barrier.
