The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5216-Tazadarius was a disciple of the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain and was acknowledged as the strongest powerhouse within the Sovereign Rank. Yet, he had no chance to resist and was killed instantly.

Xhemal, who was watching from the Dieux Adadem/s main hall, smiled. Then, he said, "I thought he was an arrogant guy for requesting resources from an eighth-level plane for an entrapoch. I never expected him to be quite capable."

Jorah stood up, glanced at the other elders in the main hall, and said, "I'll recruit him as my disciple. You guys better not dare to snatch him from me." The Dieux Academy's Great Elder quickly claimed James as his disciple. Inside the Arena World, James was still sitting atop the newly acquired spiritual mountain. Nobody knew what he was up to, not even his comrades.

Meanwhile, the powerhouses that have acquired the other spiritual mountains gathered together. Many of them belonged to powerful sects and planes.

"They are terrifying. Even Tazadarius, a disciple of the Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain, was killed so easily.

They will attack us soon, so we must unite and get rid of them. Otherwise, they are going to pick us off one by one."

One of the participants at the Petit Celestial Rank made a suggestion. "I agree."

"Me too."

"We should join forces to kill them first."

Several others expressed their agreement.

The powerhouses that had conquered spiritual mountains discussed how to get rid of James' party.

The other participants who had occupied the ten cities were not interested in taking action since they were confident in themselves. They were talented prodigies from the Central Plane and the best of the best. In the past, they have defeated countless cultivators to get to where they are today. Even though James displayed great strength, they had no intentions of joining forces with the other participants. Moreover, they were curious to see how James would overcome the crisis. Many participants at the Petit Celestial Rank and the Sovereign Sixth Rank were uniting to eliminate them. ‘The remaining participants are quite tough.’

‘The Valiant Alliance’s Jastra Plaingrove will not be an easy opponent.

“Bladud Jabez from Salubergh is also powerful. With the two of them joining this alliance, I wonder how Forty-nine will deal with them.”

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses were excited to see the many powerhouses joining forces. They looked forward to seeing James overcome the situation and defeat their alliance. If he succeeded, he would become a legend. At the same time, the Diuex Academy could recruit an incredibly talented disciple. They were certain James would become a peerless powerhouse with the proper guidance and resources.

After sitting on the spiritual mountain for a while, James suddenly stood up.

Zavis reported to him with a solemn tone, “During this period, the current owners of the remaining spiritual mountains have joined forces.”

“Oh?” James was slightly surprised.

Immediately afterward, he chuckled and said, “Let them be. It’ll save me the time of finding them one by one.”

‘The current situation isn’t looking optimistic for us. According to the news we’ve heard, they have about five powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank and many powerhouses at the Sovereign Sixth Rank. These participants are from major planes and forces. Thus, they must have exceptional Supernatural Powers.’ James replied smilingly, “So what? You can also reach the Petit Celestial Rank with the Elemental Formation.”

Taran said doubtfully, “Even though we can gain the strength of the Petit Celestial Rank, our cultivation ranks are still pretty weak. We’re not really at the Petit Celestial Rank and can’t unleash its full potential.”

Gaius added, "With the blessing of the Elemental Formation, the four of us can deal with an opponent at the Petit Celestial Rank but can't kill him."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5217-After the previous battle, Zavis, and the others knew they would be of little help in acquiring the remaining spiritual mountains and cities. Whether they could completely conquer all the areas in the Arena World was up to James.

James said calmly, "Don't worry."

Their opponents were a few powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank and the Sovereign Sixth Rank. Without the Elemental Formation, James might have to cast all his combat means to stand against an opponent at the Petit Celestial Rank. On the contrary, he could easily fight a group of them with the Elemental Formation's enhancements.

"I'll be fine as long as you guys don't get eliminated. If that happens, I won't have the blessing of the Elemental Formation and might be unable to win."

So try not to get killed."

James reminded them to protect themselves and survive at all costs. Despite his words, he had complete confidence in them. After activating the Elemental Formation, their strengths would also be improved significantly. Even though they could not completely exert the strength of the Petit Celestial Rank, they could at least protect themselves.

James stretched his body and said, "Let's go."

His group quickly left the spiritual mountain. Previously, James had set up formations to protect the spiritual mountain they had conquered. However, he did not bother doing so anymore since most of the powerhouses that had seized the other spiritual mountains had joined forces. As for the crowd following them, he let them be.

Soon, James' group arrived at a spiritual mountain. Atop the mountain was a densely packed group of creatures in human forms. In total, there were tens of thousands of them.

Standing in the forefront were powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank, followed by those at the Sovereign Sixth Rank. The rest varied from the Sovereign Third Rank to the Fifth Rank.

‘They’re here.’

Many creatures on the spiritual mountain trembled after seeing James’ group. Even though they had many powerhouses gathered together, James displayed terrifying strength and even killed the strongest powerhouse within the Sovereign Rank.

A man atop the mountain stared at James and said, “You’re finally here, Forty-nine. Remember me. I’m Jastra Plaingrove from the Valiant Alliance.”

“It doesn’t matter where you’re from. You’ll be eliminated very soon.”

James remained calm, but in truth, he was provoked. The Valiant Alliance was one of the ten strongest forces in the Central Plane. In the past, the Valiant Alliance’s leader was one of the main perpetrators who wanted to kill him.

Another person stepped forward and said calmly, “I’m Bladud Jabez from Salubergh.”

Salubergh was also one of the strongest forces in the Central Plane. The reason they had sent members to the Dieux Academy was not to be recruited as disciples.

Instead, they participated mainly to show off. Since ancient times, powerhouses have come to the Dieux Academy to cultivate. Over time, it became the standard.

“I’ll take everyone on at once,” James said calmly.

After speaking, James and his comrades quickly activated the Elemental Formation. With the formation’s blessing, their auras increased rapidly. The five of them gained the strength of the Petit Celestial Rank once again. With the Elemental Formation’s enhancements, James was invincible in the Arena World.

While emitting a potent aura, James said calmly, “Come at me together.

Otherwise, you guys won't have a chance." James' confident voice echoed through the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5218-Jastra from the Valiant Alliance and Bladud from Salubergh were well-known powerhouses. Besides them, there were another three participants at the Petit Celestial Rank.

Although they were not from the Central Plane's top ten forces, they came from ninth-level planes.

In addition, there were a bunch of powerhouses at the Sovereign Sixth Rank.

However, everyone knew cultivators at the Sovereign Rank would have no business participating in the fight. It was a battle for those at the Petit Celestial Rank.

Ultimately, it was up to the five powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank to defeat James. To them, James was arrogant to have challenged all of them.

Swoosh!

Jastra was the first to make a move. He leaped into the air and was followed by Bladud. The other three also followed suit.

The five of them were men.

"My name is Sigel Lamagnon. I'm from the Whiord Plane."

"I'm Haktla Hacyon from the Hazock Plane."

"Xorn Schmidt, the Welrich Plane."

After introducing themselves, they unleashed their powerful auras. With five powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank, their collective strength was enough to dominate countless planes.

However, James did not flinch in the face of his opponents. He turned to his comrades and said, "Don't get involved. Just stay behind me."

Zavis, Gaius, Gorgen, and Taran nodded.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses commented in the main hall.

“Woah, impressive. He’s only at the early stage of the Sovereign Third Rank, but he is challenging five opponents at the Petit Celestial Rank. Regardless of the battle’s outcome, it will make history.”

“I kinda hope Forty-nine will win and become a legend.”

The powerhouses watched the battle intently and occasionally exchanged opinions.

In the Arena World, the other powerhouses who had occupied the ten cities were also watching the battle. They were stunned to see James attempting to take on five opponents at the Petit Celestial Rank.

Even though with their strengths, they managed to seize a city, none of them could fight five opponents at the Petit Celestial Rank. Not even Wubbe from the Elysium Hall dared to fight five of them at once.

The spectators gasped at James’ bravery and quickly backed away into the distance.

James floated in the sky with his hands behind him. At that moment, five elemental powers were flowing within him. Four of his powers came from his comrades. After casting the Elemental Formation, they could freely use each other’s powers.

“You must have a death wish.” Jastru was also calm. He raised his hand, and a shiny golden sword that emitted a potent force appeared.

‘That’s...’

“Jastru is the disciple of the Valiant Alliance’s Leader. The Valiant Alliance controls many powerful planes. His master had gone to great lengths to refine the sword for him. I heard it was made using the Genesis Power of an eighthlevel plane. “It’s a weapon with the strength of the late stage of the Great Celestial Rank.”

“With this sword, Jastru can fight against an opponent at the late stage of the Petit Celestial Rank.”

After Jastra summoned his sword, many spectators began to discuss its origin.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5219-James was one of the most potent powerhouses in his previous life. Thus, he could sense the power of the Jastra Sword.

Jastra raised his golden sword and said proudly, 'This sword was named after me. My master gathered the Genesis Power of an eight-level plane to craft this sword. It contains terrifying strength comparable to the power of an eight-level plane's Genesis Path."

Swoosh!

Jastra pointed his sword at James, and Sword Energy rippled through the air.

Although James was unscathed by the invisible force, his comrades struggled and were almost blasted away.

James reminded them, "Back away."

Zavis and the others quickly retreated from the battlefield and were relieved of the suffocating pressure.

James, on the other hand, remained calm on the battlefield. Although Jastra had summoned a powerful weapon, he was not afraid.

"You guys step back. Let me fight him," Jastra gripped his weapon tightly and said confidently. He wanted to kill James alone.

His allies exchanged glances, then backed away.

However, knowing James' strength, they did not go very far. Even though Jastra was wielding a powerful weapon, he might not necessarily be a match for James. They wanted to let Jastra test James' strength. Then, they could watch from behind and carefully analyze James' Supernatural Power to take precautions when it was their turn.

After they had retreated from the battlefield, Jastrá raised his sword and charged at James. He disappeared from the spot. The next moment, he was already in front of James.

Before he could land his attack, a mysterious figure with the same appearance as James appeared. Then, the figure raised its hand, and a burst of energy composed of inscriptions appeared from its palm.

The mysterious inscriptions resisted the Jastrá Sword.

Suddenly, another figure appeared behind Jastrá and attacked.

Jastrá was struck in the back, and a severe wound formed. However, Jastrá was powerful and quickly recovered from the injury. Then, he turned around and slashed out his sword.

James' future form was struck, and it immediately disintegrated.

The next moment, it reformed beside James. The other figure also returned to James' side.

James' past and future forms had the same aura as him. However, their strength differed.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses paid careful attention.

"Are those clones?"

"I don't think so. I've seen many cultivators create clones before, but nothing comes close to this. I can sense that one of those figures contains the power of the past and the other of the future. Their powers are truly mysterious and do not belong to the current era."

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses discussed James' figures. Although they had a lot of experience, they had no idea what kind of Supernatural Power James had used.

Ultimately, they could only conclude it was something similar to Supernatural Powers that could create clones. However, James' clones were much more advanced. Unlike regular clones, James' clone was not destroyed after being struck. Instead, it reformed almost instantly.

Jastra had also been paying attention to every detail. His brows furrowed tightly, confused about why James' clone was not destroyed after being hit.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5220-James stood between his past and future form.

Many powerhouses were analyzing James' Supernatural Power. I'm pretty sure those aren't clones."

"Yeah, I agree. They're not clones. Logically, clones would have their main self's soul aura. However, Forty-nine's clones don't have any soul auras. They only have the aura of his power."

On the battlefield, Jastra wielded his sword and emitted a powerful aura, causing ripples in the surrounding void. His face darkened, and he sneered, 'You sure do like to play strange tricks.'

Then, he slashed out his sword, unleashing a few inscriptions into the sky, which rapidly transformed into Sword Energies.

James was attacked from all directions.

The combination of the Jastra Sword and Sword Formation was enough to trap or kill a powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank. However, James' main body disappeared when the Sword Energies approached him. The next moment, a powerful formation appeared and absorbed the Sword Energy.

A few seconds later, the Sword Energies were reflected at Jastra. Jastra quickly dodged, and they struck into the ground.

Rumble!

A few mountains were destroyed, and a vast pit formed in the ground.

Jastra appeared beside his allies and said, “He’s quite capable. We should fight together.”

“Alright.” His allies nodded.

The four of them summoned their weapons. Since they were from powerful backgrounds, they had weapons that reached the Great Celestial Rank, which took a lot of work to craft.

Their respective sects and forces had spent a lot of resources so their disciples could get good results in the Dieux Academy’s assessment.

Jastra, Bladud, Sigel, Haktla, and Xorn stood side by side. Suddenly, they launched into action simultaneously.

The formation ahead of them began to rotate, rapidly absorbing the power of their attacks. Soon, the formation disintegrated into countless inscriptions and spread out in the area.

The formation suddenly reformed near Xorn, who was from the Welrich Plane. The Welrich Plane was a ninth-level plane.

Xorn was powerful, but he was trapped and unable to break free. He felt a powerful pressure crushing down on him, and it took everything in him to resist.

Despite that, injuries began to form all over his body.

Swoosh!

At that moment, James’ past and future forms appeared in the formation. Then, they immediately began to attack Xorn.

Xorn was completely immobilized and could not resist. The formation’s power had already injured him. He was unable to resist the attacks. Under the relentless attacks, Xorn’s body was obliterated. He evaporated into thin air, and his soul was teleported out of the Arena World.

Xorn’s defeat happened in the blink of an eye, and his allies could not even react in time.

At that moment, Jastr, Bladud, Sigel, and Haktla summoned all their strength and attacked the formation.

However, the formation was solid. It was composed of simple inscriptions from low-level planes, but when combined, they were powerful.
