

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5221

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5221-Instead of the Genesis Path Scripture, James had only used inscriptions from the Endlos Plane.

Even without the Elemental Formation, James was confident in defeating his opponents with ordinary inscriptions despite only being at the Sovereign Third Rank.

James' formation easily neutralized the opponent's attacks. Then, his past and future form appeared in front of Sigel.

Sigel reacted quickly and evaded the attacks. Immediately afterward, James' past and future forms were struck and destroyed by Sword Energy. However, The formation suddenly disintegrated into inscriptions, flew toward Sigen, and reformed.

Sigen found himself trapped inside the formation. James' past and future forms attacked again. Unfortunately, Sigen survived the attacks with his exceptional physical strength.

Meanwhile, the other three opponents attacked the formation.

James, who had transformed into the formation, struggled to maintain his form after resisting their continuous bombardments. He quickly unleashed his Supernatural Powers to reinforce the formation.

Unable to suppress the formation's strength, Sigen was obliterated.

The battle had only just begun, but James had already killed two of his opponents.

After witnessing Sigel being killed, the remaining three opponents had grim expressions. Nobody expected James to be so potent and kill two powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank in such a short moment.

Jastra shouted, "Don't hold back! Use whatever combat skills you have, or else we'll all die."

At that moment, Bladud and Haktla's aura grew slightly more potent.

Jastra, Bladud, and Hakltla attacked from different directions. They concentrated all their into light beams and shot at James' formation.

The formation cracked slightly under their attacks.

'Tressencia Completare.' A faint voice resounded from the formation, seemingly from a different era.

The formation suddenly disappeared, and the two figures along with it.

A man appeared in the sky, and two shadows merged with him.

He suddenly began rapidly moving through the sky. A few seconds later, the bodies of Jastra, Bladud, and Hakltla exploded. After their deaths, their souls were teleported out of the Arena World.

After the battle ended, there was dead silence. Even the powerhouses in the Dieux Academy were too shocked to speak. A few moments later, they expressed their astonishment.

"Did he just kill them in one move?"

"He killed three of them..."

"What kind of Supernatural Power was that? Why is it so powerful?"

Meanwhile, the remaining participants who had possession of the other spiritual mountains were horrified.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5222-James killed the five powerhouses at the Petit Celestial Rank who had joined forces with ease.

The battle's outcome was unexpected.

After James eliminated the five of them, his remaining opponents were at the Sovereign Rank. Although his opponents had exceptional existence in some weaker planes, they were nothing impressive compared to the other participants in the Dieux Academy's assessment.

"H-Hold it! We'll eliminate ourselves!"

When the remaining members of the alliance saw James' eyes resting on them, they immediately took the initiative to leave the Arena World. Seeing them leave, James dispersed the Tressencia Completare and Elemental Formation.

Shortly after, his comrades joined him.

“Was that the complete Tressencia Completare Art?” Zavis looked at James admiringly. He had known that James cultivated the Tressencia Completare Art a long time ago. However, he had never seen it in full force. He was surprised the Supernatural Power was so terrifying. “Can you teach me the Tressencia Completare Art?” Taran was intrigued by the potent Supernatural Power. If he were to cultivate it and raise his cultivation rank, he would be nearly invincible in the countless planes. James replied smilingly, “Unfortunately, it can’t be taught.

Even if I tried to, you won’t be able to understand or cultivate it.”

Gaius took notice of James’ pale face and asked worriedly, “Were you injured?”

The Tressencia Completare Art was potent. However, it was draining for James to combine his present and future forms. He would never have had the strength to cast it if not for the Elemental Formation’s blessing. After he had exerted the Tressencia Completare Art, his energy was nearly exhausted. James had to keep it a secret. Otherwise, outsiders would realize his weakness.

Fortunately, his vulnerability was only temporary. As long as he reached the Petit Celestial Rank, he could cast the Tressencia Completare Art without worries. Even better, he would not have to worry about running out of energy if he returned to the Martial Celestial Rank.

“I’m fine,” James replied casually, then ascended the spiritual mountain. He sat down in a lotus position and began restoring his drained energy. After staying on the mountain for a while, James departed to their next destination. Nobody knew what James was doing on the spiritual mountains. At that point, James’ group had eliminated the powerful participants that had occupied the spiritual mountains. In the Arena World, only the ten cities remained.

Those who had seized the Arena World’s ten cities were well-known powerhouses with great backgrounds from the Central Plane. They were either direct descendants of powerful forces or plane lords. Thus, each one of them possessed terrifying Supernatural Powers.

The spectators outside the Arena World were boiling with anticipation after seeing James leave the last spiritual mountain.

“Here we go!”

‘The real show is about to begin!’

“The battles up to now were just child’s play. It’s the final time for the interesting part!”

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses were excited.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5223-The participants occupying the Arena World’s ten cities were from influential backgrounds. Although they joined the assessment, the Dieux Academy’s elders remained respectful toward them. After all, they were powerful and had incredibly high status.

An elder of the Dieux Academy muttered, “I wonder who Forty-nine will target first.”

Xhemal gently stroked his beard and said smilingly,” Although Forty-nine has mastered an impressive Supernatural Power, he still has to rely on his comrades to enhance his strength. Almost everyone in the Arena World is already aware of this. If they can eliminate James’ comrades, his combat strength would be reduced significantly.”

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses easily spotted James’ weakness, and so did the participants in the Arena World.

The powerhouses occupying the Arena World’s ten cities knew that without the complete Elemental Formation, James’ strength would weaken considerably, and he would not be able to fight them.

James and his comrades approached the Arena World’s central region where the ten cities were located. The cities had no particular order or ranking, but there were names of the Dieux Academy’s top ten powerhouses hovering above them.

“Every time we conquer a spiritual mountain, you always stay atop it for a while. What exactly were you doing, Forty- nine?” Zavis asked out of curiosity.

The others also glanced at him, waiting for his answer.

James no longer wanted to keep it a secret from his comrades. However, he did not want other participants to know about it yet. Thus, he set up a formation to prevent any eavesdroppers. Naturally, his formation only prevented participants in the Arena World from hearing them, whereas the Dieux Academy's powerhouses could still listen in on their conversation.

After setting up the formation, James said smilingly, "In the Arena World, every spiritual mountain and city is formed by mysterious inscriptions."
"Mysterious inscription?"

"Really?"

"Why didn't I notice?"

"What kind of inscriptions are they?"

James' comrades were surprised.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses also exclaimed in shock.

"He really found them."

"Amazing."

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses were excited. Nobody thought the participants would discover the secret.

However, James had surpassed their expectations.

Zavis and the others stared at James for an answer.

James explained, "The Dieux Academy has a magical Supernatural Power."

Zavis responded, "Yeah, and?"

James elaborated, "Remember you guys asked me whether anyone in the countless planes has reached the Holy Celestial Rank? Back then, I answered perhaps a few legendary powerhouses have already entered the Holy Celestial Rank, right?"

"Well, the Dieux Academy's founder is one of them. He created a potent skill called the Feimsurge Art. The spiritual mountains and cities in the Arena World are made from Feimsurge Inscriptions.”

Gauis asked surprisedly, “Feimsurge Art? What kind of Supernatural Power is it?”

James did not explain in detail because he knew they were being watched. He smiled and replied, “It’s a compelling skill. Since ancient times, only the Dieux Academy’s founder has successfully cultivated it.”

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses, including Xhemal, were stunned.

‘Who is he, really?’ Jorah said, “The Feimsurge Art being the Dieux Academy’s Supernatural Power isn’t a secret.

However, he knows the Feimsurge Inscriptions were used to form the spiritual mountains and cities. Could he have already reviewed and understood them? Even so, he hasn’t ever seen the Feimsurge Art before, so he shouldn’t have known they are Feimsurge Inscriptions.”

Xhemal agreed, “Exactly. I’ll have to visit the Endlos Plane and get to the bottom of this.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5224-Xhemal was suspicious that James was very informed about the Feimsurge Art.

A human from a third-level plane couldn’t possibly know so much.

Meanwhile, James briefly went over the Feimsurge Art’s origin. He explained to his comrades that it was a Supernatural Power passed down for countless eras in the Dieux Academy. Only those with great talent and comprehension abilities were qualified to cultivate it.

Despite that, nobody ever succeeded.

The Feimsurge Art was one of the reasons the Dieux Academy could attract so many powerhouses to join them.

James did not further elaborate on the details. He dispersed the formation and scanned the ten cities.

“Which one should we attack first,” asked Zavis.

“It doesn’t matter,” James replied calmly.

Those who managed to occupy a city in the Arena World were extraordinary existences. Their strength was almost the same, and neither could do anything to the other.

James strode forward and soon arrived on the ancient road outside one of the cities. He glanced at the buildings within the city and noticed a woman wearing a white dress sitting atop the eaves of a palace. She had beautiful features and a gracious aura. It was Sevara, a prodigy of the Jerneeja Valley.

Sevara stood up after spotting James and flew over to him. She stopped in mid-air and stared at James' group.

"It's her..." Zavis was mesmerized by Sevara's beauty and was too shy to meet her gaze. He tugged on James' sleeves and whispered, "L-Let's go somewhere else first."

"Have you fallen for her?" James chuckled teasingly.

Zavis said sheepishly, "I think she's my true love."

Although they were whispering, they did not block out other people. Thus, Sevara naturally overheard their conversation. However, she pretended not to have heard anything and remained indifferent. Her expression did not budge at all.

James replied, "Alright, we'll go somewhere else."

Inside the Arena World, only the ten cities were not possessed by James' group.

Thus, it did not matter who they attacked first.

They hurried off to their next destination. A man immediately appeared in the sky when they arrived on an ancient road leading into the next city.

Gaius said, "Another acquaintance. Let's head to the next city."

The person who had occupied the second city was Aurelius. He was from a ninth-level plane, which his father ruled.

Aurelius hovered above the city with a smile and said, "You're quite capable, Forty-nine. Since you're here, don't just leave. Let me have a taste of your Supernatural Powers."

James cast a glance at him but ignored his words. Then, he continued advancing to the next city. Unfortunately, the woman who had seized the third city was someone James was also acquainted with. It was none other than Xamira, the daughter of Seamus, the lord of a ninth-level plane.

Zavis said, "We should keep going."

James felt dejected by the situation. The three cities were all occupied by people he had met before.

The group continued moving forward and soon arrived at the next city.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5225-When James and his comrades appeared outside the city, a terrifying aura suddenly emerged from the city. Before they could react, a few figures flashed through around them.

The attacker was speedy, leaving no chance for Zavis and the others to escape. James' comrades were killed in the blink of an eye. Their bodies were destroyed, and their souls were teleported out of the Arena World.

On the ancient street, James was left standing by himself.

Soon, the flickering figures fused into a man wearing a golden robe. He looked like an ordinary human in his early twenties.

"Hehe," the man chuckled and said, "Now that you're without comrades and the formation, you can only fight with the strength of the Sovereign Third Rank. How are you going to stand a chance against me?"

James looked at the man and asked, "What's your name, and where are you from?"

"I'm Ladon Yushar from the Supremusseum."

The Central Plane's strongest forces included the Elysium Hall, Supremusseum, Valiant Alliance, Dieux Academy, Ancient Clan's Immortal Mountain, Salubergh, Jerneeja Valley, Thunder Shrine, Spiritual Palace, and Sword Alliance.

They were ranked in the top ten but had no particular order. Many other powerful forces existed in the Central Plane that others argue to be in the top ten. However, there was no denying these ten forces were amongst the strongest.

James also acknowledged them to be the most potent forces of the Central Plane.

James was slightly startled but quickly composed himself. He had deliberately inquired about the Central Plane and the other planes' current situation.

Naturally, he had paid special attention to the Supremusseum.

Quirijn was the current leader of the Supremusseum. In the past, he was one of the Supremusseum's strongest envoys. Back in the day, he and James were both at the Martial Celestial Rank.

Meanwhile, another envoy of the Supremusseum became the Emyr Island's Grand Patriarch. However, he had already died in a previous battle. In the ambush against him, nobody from the Supremusseum had participated.

Thus, James was unsure of who was secretly involved in the planning of his demise. Regardless, he did not trust Quirijn.

Ladon said, "At your current strength, I can easily kill you like an ant, Forty-nine. Even though you've defeated everyone who had seized a spiritual mountain, this is where it ends for you. However, I'm afraid rumors about me bullying a weakling would spread if I were to eliminate you."

He knew powerhouses were watching the assessment, so Ladon did not immediately take action against James. He wanted to act more generous. Moreover, his goal for coming to the Dieux Academy was to obtain the Feimsurge Art. The Feimsurge Art was not easy to cultivate. Even though he was a disciple of the Supremusseum, it would be challenging to acquire the Feimsurge Art.

Moreover, mastering it would be tough. Thus, Ladon knew he had to stay in the Dieux Academy for an extended period and contribute significantly to them. Then, the rest would be up to his comprehension ability and talent.

Even if he were to have met the prerequisites, he would not be able to view or cultivate the Feimsurge Art if he did not show tremendous potential. Countless powerhouses were watching from outside the Arena World. James had lost his comrades, so he no longer had the formation's blessings. With his current cultivation rank, everyone found it impossible for him to fight an opponent at the Petit Celestial Rank. Everyone was curious to see what else James had up his sleeves.