The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5226-James had gained a lot of attention, and many people were wondering how he would fight an opponent at the Petit Celestial Rank without his comrades.

A cultivator's rank was not the only criterion to measure strength. In fact, powerhouses at the same rank would have varied strength. Those with talent and greater comprehension abilities would master Supernatural Powers much more easily. It was only natural for those with better backgrounds to be much stronger than other cultivators at the same rank.

Ladon hovered in the sky with his hands behind him, staring at James contemptuously.

James, on the other hand, was relatively relaxed. Although his opponent was from the Supremuseum, he was not afraid. He looked at Ladon and said calmly, "Have you heard of the Feimsurge Art?"

"The Feimsurge Art?" Ladon was surprised.

His goal for coming to the Dieux Academy was precisely for the Feimsurge Art.

The other living beings that had occupied cities in the Arena World were also bewildered.

"The Feimsurge Art?"

"Why would he suddenly bring up the Feimsurge Art?" Meanwhile, the Dieux Academy's powerhouses were overjoyed.

"Did he really comprehend it?"

"Haha! Amazing!"

Ladon recomposed himself and asked, "Of course, I've heard about the Feimsurge Art. It's the Dieux Academy's Supernatural Power. It's also said to be one of the top ten Supernatural Powers that exists in all planes."

Many powerhouses existed throughout the Central Plane, as well as other planes. Since ancient times, many legendary figures have stood out and created exceptional Supernatural Powers. The Feimsurge Art being recognized as one of the top ten was enough to prove how remarkable it was.

James said with a smile, "Everyone has only heard myths of the Feimsurge Art and desperately wants to know what it is like. Today, I'll let you witness its strength."

Ladon burst out laughing and mocked him, saying, "You're bluff is too much. The Feimsurge Art is the Dieux Academy's Supernatural Power. Only a handful of the academy's members have seen it. Even so, nobody has ever managed to cultivate it. I'd like to see how a human from a low-level plane will perform the Feimsurge Art."

James smiled faintly in response to his ridicule.

The participants in the Arena World were puzzled by James' remark. However, the Dieux Academy's powerhouses were looking forward to it.

James said calmly, "The Feimsurge Art is divided into six stages.

'The first stage is a physical enhancement."

After speaking, mysterious inscriptions emerged from his body and transformed into magical powers. The power enveloped his body, and his physical body transformed.

In just a short moment, James' physical strength improved significantly. Then, he continued, saying, 'The second stage is a blood enhancement."

Immediately afterward, his bloodline power transformed and grew much more potent.

'The third stage is a soul enhancement, followed by the fourth stage, strength enhancement."

James' soul and strength increased continuously as his voice permeated the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5227-In just a short moment, James' aura had reached the Petit Celestial Rank, and his strength had surpassed Ladon.

Out of the Feimsurge Art's six stages, James had only mastered four since he had not acquired the inscriptions hidden within the ten cities. The last two stages were incredibly difficult. Even though he was Lord Supremus in his past life and had unparalleled strength, he knew it would not be easy to comprehend the final two stages.

At that moment, James seemed strange. It looked like he had gone beyond their world and was a higher being than them. Although he was floating in the void, it gave everyone an unreal feeling.

James was surrounded by mysterious inscriptions, which boosted his strength.

They enhanced his physical body, bloodline power, soul, and strength. Even though he was only at the Sovereign Third Rank, he exuded the aura of a powerhouse at the Petit Celestial Rank.

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses were astonished.

Xhemal's whole body trembled uncontrollably as he said, "I- It's really the Feimsurge Art. I've spent countless years trying to comprehend it but only reached the first stage. Not only did Forty-nine sense the Feimsurge Inscriptions used to form the spiritual mountains, but he completely understood them and reached the fourth stage in such a short time.

"He's a genius! We must recruit him into our academy! He'll definitely become a strong foundation of the Dieux Academy."

Xhemal was overwhelmed with excitement and spoke in one breath. After catching his breath, he continued, saying, "From what I know, the first four stages are pretty ordinary. Although they can help a weaker cultivator gain tremendous strength, it isn't of much help to stronger cultivators.

However, the last two stages are the real miraculous part of the Feimsurge Art."

Jorah stared at James dumbfoundedly and said, "Throughout the Dieux Academy's history, there was only one person who had cultivated the Feimsurge Art to the fourth stage. Unfortunately, he never reached the fifth stage.

'The fifth stage is called Immortality, and the sixth stage is Eternity.

“However, they’ve remained as a myth for a very long time, and nobody has ever reached them.”

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses were astonished and overjoyed to see James perform the Feimsurge Art.

Inside the Arena World, James stretched his body. After sensing the power flowing through his body, he smiled faintly.

Ladon quickly calmed down and snorted, “Even if the Feimsurge Art is exceptional and can improve your strength, you’re cultivation rank is still low.

You won’t be able to sustain his stage for a very long time. Plus, I doubt you can completely control the power of the Petit Celestial Rank. I’ll still be able to kill you without much effort.”

James laughed. “Haha. You’re ignorant.”

“Die!” Ladon’s face darkened. He quickly flashed in front of James and swung his fist.

Suddenly, countless spectral fists appeared and bombarded James. However, he stayed in place and allowed Ladon’s attacks to fall.

James’ physical body was already pretty strong. Now that he had used the Feimsurge Art, he was even more formidable. Even if Ladon attacked with all his strength, he could not cause any harm.

“What the hell?” Ladon attacked consecutively but was startled when he realized his attacks were not dealing any damage.

“Is the Feimsurge Art really that strong?” Ladon was shocked.

The Feimsurge Art was known as one of the top ten Supernatural Powers. Since ancient times, nobody has been able to perform it. After witnessing how strong it was, he was amazed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5228-Ladon went all out but was unable to injure James. He was completely dumbfounded.

James’ physical body was incredibly tough, and even the strength of the Petit Celestial Rank was unable to hurt him.

With James' current strength, he could kill an opponent at the Great Celestial Rank with the addition of his Supernatural Powers.

"Huff." James took a deep breath.

He was relieved to finally acquire the strength to fight a powerhouse at the Great Celestial Rank. There were countless powerhouses in the Central Plane.

It would be hard for him to accomplish anything if he were too weak.

"W-Where did you learn the Dieux Academy's Feimsurge Art from?" Ladon looked at James stubbornly and asked, "Have you already joined the Dieux Academy a long time ago?"

James replied smilingly, 'The Dieux Academy hid the Feimsurge Art inside the Arena World. You just didn't find it.'

Ladon shouted in disbelief, "Impossible! Even if they were hidden in the Arena World, how could you have comprehended it within such a short period?"

The other participants watching from the other cities also found it hard to believe. Since ancient times, many members of the Dieux Academy have tried to cultivate the Feimsurge Art.

However, nobody had successfully comprehended it. The fact that James had cultivated it so quickly was hard to swallow.

Even the Dieux Academy's powerhouses were in disbelief. However, they had no choice but to believe it after witnessing it.

Ladon said coldly, "You've many tricks. I'd like to see how strong you are."

Swoosh!

He waved his hand, and a white light appeared. Then, it materialized into a dazzling long sword.

The sword's blade was white, and a cloud could be seen flowing through it.

"It's the Supremusse Sword."

The Dieux Academy's powerhouses were surprised.

“I didn’t expect Quirijn to have given the Supremusse Sword to Ladon.” “I heard the Supremusseum’s founder crafted the sword. He collected the Genesis Power of countless planes and some unparalleled materials to make it.”

“Out of all weapons that exist, it’s one of the best.”

“I heard the Supremusse Sword is at the Holy Celestial Rank.”

“I wonder how much of the sword’s power Ladon can exert.”

“This battle is going to be exciting. It’s the Feimsurge Art against the Supremusse Sword. Which one of them is stronger?”

There was a lot of discussion in the Dieux Academy’s main hall.

James was stunned to see the Supremusse Sword, and he trembled ever so slightly.

Ladon noticed James’ shivering body and thought his opponent was frightened.

“Meet the Supremusse Sword, Forty-nine. It’s the Supremusseum’s strongest treasure.”

Ladon was full of confidence. With the Supremusse Sword, he could even take on a powerhouse at the Great Celestial Rank.

James’ face darkened, and he clenched his fists. He had crafted the Supremusse Sword, and it belonged to him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5229-Back then, James went to great lengths to craft the Supremusse Sword. Yet, it had ended up in someone else’s hands.

“I’d like to see if your body can withstand the Supremusse Sword.” Ladon gripped the Supremusse Sword, full of confidence. Suddenly, he unleashed a powerful Sword Energy, which contained the Genesis Power of countless planes.

His attack caused tremors throughout the Arena World, and the realm felt like it was about to fall apart.

‘The Supremusse Sword is really powerful,’ Xhemal exclaimed while reinforcing the Arena World.

James immediately became serious after Ladon pulled out the Supremusse Sword. He knew the Supremusse Sword’s strength really well. Although he could easily retrieve the sword, it would expose his identity and attract his former enemies.

While James was in thought, the Sword Energy had gotten close. At the same time, Ladon had appeared with the Supremusse Sword and slashed out.

James stood calmly in place. He raised his hand, then concentrated his powers and inscriptions to form a protective barrier.

Boom!

The Sword Energy struck the protective barrier. Immediately afterward, the Supremusse Sword also fell.

James’ protective barrier was shattered and slashed at James.

However, the sword had struck an afterimage. James’ real body had already appeared in the distance. Even so, a bloody wound had formed across his chest, and a few of his bones were exposed.

‘The Supremusse Sword is terrifying.’ “Before this, Ladon could not even scratch Forty-nine when he used all his strength. After wielding the Supremusse Sword, he easily injured him.”

The other participants watching the battle were shocked and began pondering whether they stood a chance against Ladon, who had the Supremusse Sword.

They thought about what kind of Supernatural Powers and means they had to use to stand against the Supremusse Sword.

“It seems the Supremusse Sword is stronger.”

“Not necessarily. It’s not the Feimsurge Art that’s too weak. It’s Forty-nine.” Many powerhouses debated on the battle.

Meanwhile, James lowered his head and examined the wound on his chest. He was not surprised the Supremusse Sword managed to injure his current body.

After all, he was the one who crafted it, and he was familiar with its power.

Ladon chuckled when he saw James injured. “Haha. Nobody dares to look down on the Supremusse Sword. It was created by the Supremusseum’s founder with the Genesis Powers of countless planes. The Supremusse Sword contains the powers of countless planes, even including the Central Plane.

Having it is equivalent to having cultivated the Genesis Path Scripture.”

“Ha!” James sneered.

He thought, ‘How could the Supremusse Sword be equivalent to the Genesis Path Scripture? The Genesis Path Scripture is divided into two parts. The first part is about cultivating Genesis Power. The Supremusse Sword’s power is only equivalent to the Genesis Path Scripture’s first half.

‘The Genesis Path Scripture’s second half is the real core. It’s a pity I can’t use the Genesis Path Scripture’s Supernatural Powers.’ Ladon boasted, “Do you even know about the Genesis Path Scripture? It’s the best Supernatural Power ever to exist. It’s stronger than the Dieux Academy’s Feimsurge Art. I won’t even need the Genesis Path Scripture to deal with you.

The Supremusse Sword is more than enough.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5230-Ladon arrogantly hinted that he had cultivated the Supremusseum’s Genesis Path Scripture.

Nobody knew that James had never passed on the Genesis Path Scripture to anyone else, not even to his confidants. It was only in his current life that he had taught it to others. He left the Genesis Path Scripture to the Endlos’ Human Race. In the future, the humans that leave the Endlos Planes would be powerhouses profound in the Genesis Path Scripture.

However, nobody was aware of the truth. The other participants were startled after hearing Ladon’s claim. Even Wubbe from the Elysium Hall sighed and said, “I don’t think I’ll stand a chance against Ladon if he has the Supremusse Sword and Genesis Path Scripture.”

James, on the other hand, looked at Ladon indifferently. Meanwhile, his injuries healed rapidly.

“So you’re confident you’ll defeat me?” James asked calmly.

Ladon replied arrogantly, “Defeating you is too easy.”

With the Supremusse Sword, Ladon had the utmost confidence in victory.

“Let’s make a bet,” James proposed.

Intrigued, Ladon asked, “Oh? What’s on the line?”

James pointed at Ladon’s sword and said, “I want the Supremusse Sword.”

Ladon was slightly taken aback. He did not own the Supremusse Sword. His father lent it to him temporarily, and he had to return it after being recruited as a disciple of the Dieux Academy.

He quickly recomposed and asked curiously, “And what’s in it for me?”

James answered, “The Feimsurge Art and Thaddeus Holiness’ Tressencia Completare Art.”

‘Thaddeus Holiness?’ Ladon was surprised. The name was very familiar to him but, at the same time, very unfamiliar. He had heard of Thaddeus Holiness more than once.

However, he had never seen Thaeddeus in person before.

The Dieux Academy’s powerhouses were thrown into a frenzy.

‘Thaddeus Holiness?!! Could Forty-nine be a disciple of Thaddeus?!!’

‘Thaddeus Holiness is a legend in ancient books. Everyone has heard of his name before, but nobody has seen him.

Does he truly exist?’ James was confident in showing his Supernatural Powers in the Dieux Academy’s assessment since he had already thought about a way out. He was going to use Thaddeus Holiness.

Countless myths and legends exist throughout the numerous planes. Thaddeus Holiness was one of them. It was rumored that Thaddeus was one of the few who had reached the Holy Celestial Rank.

Unlike the Dieux Academy's founder, who was seen by others in the past, Thaddeus had never been spotted before. Thus, Thaddeus, whom nobody had seen before, was the perfect shield.

Ladon looked at James and asked, "Y-You're a disciple of Thaddeus?"

James did not give him a direct answer. Instead, he said, "A Supernatural Power created by Thaddeus is definitely above the Genesis Path Scripture. It's called the Tressencia Completare Art. I had used it in my previous battles."
