The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5271

James could kill Hadran without much effort. Without much hesitation, he cast the Feimsurge Art. His physical strength, soul power, and bloodline power were enhanced significantly.

James' strength was raised by leaps and bounds in just a short moment and reached the Petit Celestial Rank. At the same time, he looked to have entered a mysterious state. It seemed like he was a higher being from a different world, and Hadran was just like a mere ant in his eyes.

Immediately afterward, James summoned the Supremusse Sword.

Quirijn's face darkened after seeing the sword, but he quickly hid his emotions.

In the arena, James gripped the Supremusse Sword and emitted a potent aura.

Initially, James had no intentions of making a bet with Hadran, nor did he want to reveal the Supremusse Sword's powers, as it would arouse suspicion.

However, he was tempted by the eighth-level plane. After winning the bet, he would become the lord of an eighth-level plane. He could hide the plane and quietly merge it into the Endlos Plane.

The Endlos Plane had great potential to grow into an eighthlevel plane.

Unfortunately, merging two eighth-level planes could not produce a ninth-level plane. It required more than just a few eighth level planes.

The Endlos Plane was James' home and his support. He only took the risk and accepted Hadran's challenge because he was determined to help it grow stronger. Even though there was a chance he might expose his identity, he was not afraid because Lemuel, a powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage, was accompanying him.

'Til kill you with just one move." James wielded the Supremusse Sword with confidence.

“Haha!” Hadran laughed.

“What a joke. You’re only at the Sovereign Third Rank. You must be dreaming to think that you can kill me with just the Feimsure Art and the Supremusse Sword.

Today, I’ll show you the power of the Great Celestiral Rank.”

Hadran’s mocking laughter spread throughout the arena.

Before Hadran had the opportunity to make a move, James attacked.

James knew his ultimate weapon was the Supremusse Sword. His strength, aura, speed, reaction, and other abilities simply could not compare to Hadran.

Thus, he could not let the battle prolong. He had to end it as soon as possible.

He leaped into the air, and the Supremusse Sword emitted the Genesis Power of countless planes. The different forces gathered together and formed into a dazzling sword energy.

The spectators were surprised at James’ sword energy.

“He’s skilled in the Sword Path.”

“Hadran is going to lose.”

The powerhouses outside the arena instantly sensed the sword energy’s power and knew it was enough to kill a powerhouse at the Great Celestial Rank’s early stage.

Hadran was also stunned. While he was caught up in the shock, James’ sword energy had already inched close. He quickly reacted and wanted to dodge.

However, the sword energy’s force was too overwhelming, slowing down his movements. Before it even struck, his body and soul were already injured.

The Valiant Alliance’s Leader’s eldest son, Hadran, was about to perish.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5272

The powerhouses spectating the fight knew Hadran was done for as soon as James attacked.

At the last second, an elderly man suddenly rushed into the arena. He shielded in front of Hadran, raised his hand, and unleashed a powerful force to block James' sword.

Although Hadran was not struck, James' Sword Energy had already caused severe injuries to him. He was covered with wounds, soaked in blood.

Hadran panted heavily, and sweat dripped from his forehead.

"Elder," Hadran called out with a shaky voice.

"Your desire to kill is a bit too strong, young man."

The elderly man looked at James with a grim expression.

James replied calmly, "A battle isn't child's play."

The Valiant Alliance's elder said coldly, "There's still no reason to kill."

The elderly man was an elder of the Valiant Alliance. He was at the peak of the Great Celestial Rank and was only one step away from reaching the Martial Celestial Rank.

James did not want to waste time on nonsense. He stretched his hand and replied, "Since you saved him, he has lost the battle. According to our agreement, he will hand over an eighth-level plane."

"This..." The elderly man hesitated. He turned around and looked at Hadran, who was still behind him in a state of shock.

"What's the matter? Are you two going to go back on your words?"

James' face darkened. Then, he suddenly laughed and sneered, "The dignified Valiant Alliance tricked me, and I've got many witnesses today. Forget it. I don't want the eighth-level plane anymore. However, I'd like to ask everyone to spread the word about today's matter. I want all the planes to know about the Valiant Alliance's lack of integrity."

The elder of the Valiant Alliance had a grim expression. An eighth-level plane was incredibly precious, and he was reluctant to hand it over to James.

However, if they went back on their word, the Valiant Alliance's reputation would be ruined. In the future, it would be hard for them to recruit disciples.

"Elder, I..." Hadran was at a loss. He never expected defeat to a human at the Sovereign Third Rank. He would have died if the elder had not appeared to block James' attack.

"Since you've lost, then hand it over for now. You can get it back in the future."

Although the elder compromised, his expression was incredibly hostile, and his heart was fuming with murderous intent. However, he calmed himself, knowing he could not act rashly at the Supremus Museum.

Hadran obediently took out the token and handed it over to the elder.

The Valiant Alliance's tossed it over to James.

"Thank you." James accepted the token with a smile, then put away the Supremus Sword and dispersed the Feim Surge Art.

Outside the arena, Ynez marveled, "He's powerful. Despite being at the Sovereign Third Rank, he can defeat an opponent at the early stage of the Great Celestial Rank with just one move. That was a battle worthy of being remembered."

Quirijn joined in, saying, "That kid is bizarre. Even I can't completely exert the Supremus Sword's full potential, but he can. His cultivation base is still really weak right now. If he improves, the Supremus Sword will also become more potent."

The Supremus Sword was an exceptional weapon and would become stronger along with its user's cultivation rank.

In James' hands, the Supremus Sword's strength was equivalent to the Great Celestial Rank. When James reached the Petit Celestial Rank, the Supremus Sword's power would be at the Great Celestial Rank's later stage.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5273—"Something doesn't feel right." Quirijn frowned, unsure how James could exert the Supremus Sword's true power.

Ynez said, “There’s nothing wrong. Perhaps you’re just incompatible with the Supremusse Sword. Forty-nine might be perfect for it and can unleash its true potential.” Quirijn did not refute her. However, he suddenly thought of the Supremusseum’s founder and the person who had crafted the Supremusse Sword, James Caden.

He thought to himself, ‘Could Forty-nine be a descendant of James Caden?’ Despite his suspicion, he could not verify it. He planned to investigate Forty-nine after the Supremusseum’s event, completely unaware even the Dieux Academy did not find out his origin even after a thorough investigation.

After James obtained an eighth-level plane, he walked down from the arena ecstatically. Then, he stopped before Lemuel and asked smilingly, “What do you think about my sword?”

Lemuel praised him, saying, “Impressive. You exerted the Supremusse Sword’s Genesis Power and merged them into a powerful Sword Path. It’s a pity your cultivation base is still really weak. If you raise your cultivation rank, you’ll become an amazing existence throughout all of the planes.”

Lemuel had seen a lot of different Sword Paths before. There were not many that could shock him, yet James’ Sword Path was impressive enough to amaze him.

He felt admiration for the creator of the Genesis Path Scripture.

A man and woman arrived outside the Supreme Universe.

The middle-aged man asked, “Is that James, Princess?”

The woman was Thea, and the man was a powerhouse at the early stage of the Holy Celestial Rank from the Mevryee Race, who was chosen to accompany her as a bodyguard.

The bodyguard’s name was Yuvin Mora, and he was a loyal confidant to the Mevryee Race’s Leader, Talvelai.

Thea looked at James from outside the universe. James had changed his appearance, but his aura was the same, and she followed his aura to the Supreme Universe.

“Yeah. That’s James,” Thea replied with teary eyes.

James was in the universe ahead of her, but she could not go to reunite with him.

Yuvn praised, "He's not bad. It's no wonder he managed to create the Supremusmuseum. In his past life, he was at the Martial Celestial Rank's late stage, but his explosive strength might overpower an opponent at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage. If he was almost obliterated and forced to reincarnate, his opponent must've been incredibly powerful.

"With his potential, he would've entered the Holy Celestial Rank by now had he not died. It might even be possible for him to fight the Yefteros with the Supremusmuseum. However, he wouldn't be able to cause much damage. Even if he had survived and reached the Holy Celestial Rank, he wouldn't stand a chance against the Yefteros."

Thea already learned about how powerful the Yefteros were. Now, she did not hope for anything more and was satisfied with quietly seeing James from afar.

She planned to see James for a while before returning to the Mevryees to marry into the Yefteros. However, she would take her life on her wedding day.

James, on the other hand, was completely unaware. He had no idea Thea was a member of the Mevryees and that she had a Tenebrous Body. He was also clueless about her planned marriage into the Yefteros.

James settled down in the Supremusmuseum, waiting for the Supremusse Lotus to bloom. He had two agendas. Firstly, he wanted to get close to the Supremusmuseum's forbidden area and retrieve his past life's treasures. Secondly, he wanted to persuade Lemuel to seize the Supremusse Lotus.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5274-Inside James' residence at the Supremusmuseum, James looked at relaxed Lemuel and continuously persuaded him.

"Lemuel, the Supremusse Lotus is a very rare treasure. It contains a lot of mysteries. From what I know, there aren't many herbs in all planes comparable to the Supremusse Lotus. You're at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage, right?

Don't you want to make a breakthrough and enter the middle stage?"

James began his non-stop presentation about the Supremusse Lotus's benefits, trying to get Lemuel to seize the Supremusse Lotus.

After Lemuel obtained the Supremusse Lotus, he would convince him to share it. It would save him a lot of hard work in his cultivation if he could get half of the Supremusse Lotus.

The Supremusse Lotus was of high quality, and ordinary Empyrean herbs could not even come close.

Lemuel chuckled and said, 'You brat. Stop trying to make me steal the Supremusse Lotus. The Supremusseum is a powerful force and isn't easy to mess with. I don't want to get myself in trouble.'

Although Lemuel was a powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage, the Supremusseum was a massive faction. He would be pestered constantly in the future if he were to steal the Supremusse Lotus.

Despite James' efforts, Lemuel was not moved. Ultimately, he had no choice but to give up.

"Forget it." James put a stop to the topic. He leaned back into his chair, looked at the clear sky, and began thinking of his other goal. He wanted to enter the forbidden area, open the barrier, and retrieve his treasures.

"I'll go look around," James stood up and left.

Thea and Yuvin were still outside the Supreme Universe.

Although they were outside the universe, they could hear James and Lemuel's conversation.

Even though James had set up a formation around his residence, blocking out all other living being's senses, it did not affect Yuvin.

Yuvin was incredibly powerful, and his senses could easily penetrate the formation. He also helped Thea eavesdrop on the conversation.

Thea asked, "Who's that guy? Since James is trying to persuade him to seize the Supremusse Lotus, he must be really powerful."

Yuvin had never seen Lemuel's face before. Even if he did, he had no recollection of him.

He shook his head lightly and said, "I don't know him.

However, his aura is potent, and he has already entered the Holy Celestial Rank. From my knowledge, there aren't many people who have entered that rank. I didn't expect to see one right after arriving in the Central Plane."

Thea looked at Yuvin and asked pleadingly, "Could you snatch the Supremusse Lotus?"

Knowing that James wanted the Supremusse Lotus, Thea wanted to do something for him before she left. However, her cultivation rank was limited, and she could not snatch the Supremusse Lotus for him. Her only option was to ask Yuvin for the favor.

Talvelai had mentioned that Yuvin would help her with anything if the request was reasonable.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5275-Thea was unsure whether her request to snatch the Supremusse Lotus would be acceptable.

"You want me to snatch the Supremusse Lotus?" Yuvin's brows furrowed.

Yuvin said solemnly, "Princess, the Supremusseum is one of the ten major forces in the Central Plane. Although they don't have a powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank, they still have several powerhouses at the peak of the Martial Celestial Rank. It will not be easy to steal the Supremusse Lotus and leave so easily."

Thea looked at him pleadingly and asked, "Could you please help me this one time?" Seeing Thea's pitiful expression, Yuvin sighed and compromised. "Fine, I'll help you this once. However, you can't stay with me while I take action. I'll do it alone. After I escape, I'll come meet up with you."

Thea's face lit up. She nodded and said, "Thank you, Yuvin."

Yuvin sighed and said, "I don't know what kind of charms that guy has to deserve your unwavering love."

Thea looked into the universe ahead, not wanting to reply to him.

At that moment, James roamed around the Supremuseum. With the impending event in the Supremuseum, many powerful guards were stationed around the spiritual mountains.

Although James was a guest of the Supremuseum, he could only move around in the spiritual mountain where he resided and would be blocked if he tried to go to other spiritual mountains.

James strolled around but was immediately blocked when he got close to another spiritual mountain and had no choice but to turn back.

After looking around the area, James had a rough understanding of the Supremuseum's current condition.

Many of the formations he had set up in the past had already been changed.

However, the forbidden area's formation had remained the same. In the past, he had used the Genesis Path Scriptures to set up the formation. Even though Quirijn had outstanding achievements in his cultivation, he did not have the Genesis Path Scripture.

Thus, he couldn't possibly replace the formation around the forbidden area.

Although the formation remained unchanged, it was guarded heavily by many guards. There was even a powerhouse at the Martial Celestial Rank's early stage stationed around the forbidden area. It was tough for James to open the formation and sneak inside the forbidden area.

James returned to his residence worriedly.

Lemuel was leaning lazily on his chair when he saw James returning to the residence dejectedly. He sat up straight and asked, "What's wrong? You seem to have a lot on your mind."

James looked at Lemuel, walked over, and sat down. Then, he said solemnly, "I really need your help, Lemuel."

Lemuel waved his hand, interrupted him, and said, "I already told you I'm only here to relax. I won't help you with anything."

James explained, "All the treasures I've obtained in my previous life are stored inside the Supremuseum's forbidden area. However, there's a Martial

Celestial Rank at the early stage guarding the forbidden area. I can't sneak in at all. I just need you to help me lure him away.

He looked at Lemuel and said pleadingly, "Could you just help me this one time?"

There are many ancient books in the forbidden area that I haven't read yet.

Perhaps there might be one that has something recorded about the Ulus. Don't you want to know what kind of magical item the Ulus is?"

Lemuel was intrigued by his words. He looked at James, thought for a while, and said, "Fine. I'll help you. However, I'll only lure the guards. You'll have to handle the rest."

James' face lit up with joy, and said, "That's all I need."

Lemuel said, "Also, you need to be quick. Even though I can lure them away, it might arouse the suspicion of the Supremuseum's powerhouses. It would not be long before the other powerhouses arrived in the forbidden area. By then, you'll be in trouble."

James said confidently, "Even though I don't have the cultivation rank of my previous life, I set up the formation back then. I don't even need to open the formation to enter.

I can easily pass through and take everything in an instant."
