The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5351-Since James' cultivation rank was low, Qiyana did not think he mattered.

"Hand over the Glaciemon Sword first." Latrusse extended his hand.

Qiyana hesitated for a while before raising his hand and summoning a long sword in his grip.

The sword looked to be the Glaciemon Sword, with white mist exuding from the Sword Body.

When the sword manifested, a chilling sensation swept over.

Qiyana handed the sword to Latrusse and said, "Here's the sword you wanted." Latrusse took the sword, inspected it, and laughed out loud.

"Haha. With this sword, I can barge into the Flamma Race." "Where's my Illus?" James looked at Qiyana.

Qiyana took out another item.

It was a white and translucent crystal.

Several magical inscriptions were carved on the crystal.

Qiyana handed the item to James and said, "This is the Illus." James accepted the Illus.

When James took the Illus, he sensed a magnificent Life Power in the crystal.

Qiyana explained, "The Illus is a treasure.

It contains supreme Life Power.

In battle, no matter how severe one's injuries are, the power of the Illus can heal one's injuries instantly until the power of the Illus is exhausted.

After it's exhausted, it can absorb the energy of heaven and earth for replenishment." "It's good stuff." James was delighted.

Qiyana said, "I have given you two the items.

Will you come with me to my race's holy site now?" "Sure." James, Lemuel, and Latrusse spoke simultaneously.

Feeling satisfied, James put away the Illus.

Now that he had the Illus and had taken a large amount of materials from the Yeftero Race's arena, he could use these items and the Genesis Paths of the thousands of planes to hone a new body.

"Are you adept at honing the physical body?" James looked at Lemuel and asked.

Lemuel nodded and said, "I know a thing or two." "I know a bit about it." With a smile, Latrusse said, "If you need my help, I can help you." James pondered for a moment and said, "I plan to hone anew physical body before leaving." "Alright," Qiyana spoke up first.

She had just removed the seal.

Her strength had not been restored to what it was before being sealed.

She also needed to cultivate in seclusion and restore her strength.

Meanwhile, James took out a large batch of materials.

The materials were all unprecedented and rare treasures.

Upon seeing so many rare materials, Qiyana shuddered and could not help but say, "That's a lot of materials." James looked at Lemuel and Latrusse.

He said, "These materials are too hard.

With my power, I can't refine them.

I have to trouble you two to melt these materials and create a physical body prototype." Lemuel took the initiative and pulled up a material.

The material was dark-colored.

It looked average.

He activated his power to refine it, but it did not move.

It did not have any reaction.

“It’s so hard.” Lemuel could not help but be shocked.

Then, with a thought, he changed the True Energy to Flame Energy.

He began to cultivate this rare gem.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5352-Lemuel was in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank He was extremely strong.

Now, after changing his energy to Flame Energy, his flame was terrifying.

As the flame burned, the black crystal gradually turned red.

In the end, it melted.

During this time, James also made a mold.

The mold was the same size as his physical body.

Lemuel poured the melted liquid into the mold.

Then, James took out more materials.

Lemuel and Latrusse took action together.

They began to refine these rare treasures.

Under their refinement, the materials melted and turned into liquid.

Soon, a physical body appeared.

The physical body looked exactly like James.

The appearance of the physical body meant that the first step was completed.

The physical body only had bones and meridians.

Next, they needed to integrate blood and soul into the physical body.

“We’ll leave this up to you now.” Latrusse looked at James and said, “If you can merge with this physical body perfectly, your physical power will reach the extreme.

Even if a powerhouse of the Holy Celestial Rank uses his full strength to attack you, he can’t harm your physical body.” Lemuel nodded and said, “That’s right.

The defense power of a physical body integrated with so many rare treasures is frightening.

However, it’s difficult for a soul to merge with a physical body perfectly.

Merging is one thing, but to do it perfectly takes time.” James knew that.

James’ soul was one with his physical body, including his limbs and bones.

He stood before the new physical body.

He slashed his wrist, and blood flowed out.

His blood dripped onto the new physical body and entered the veins of the physical body.

He began to use his blood to activate the Life Power of this physical body.

Soon, there was blood in the new physical body.

James extracted a part of his soul and integrated it into the new physical body.

His current physical body did not stay idle.

He began to activate the Genesis of the thousands of planes.

He continued honing the new physical body as his soul was being integrated.

The process was complicated.

He did not want any accidents to happen.

Under the honing of the Genesis Paths of the thousands of planes, the physical body grew stronger.

It contained the Genesis of thousands of planes.

On the other hand, James extracted his soul continuously and integrated it into the new physical body.

He carried all of this out in the time formation.

In the blink of an eye, several epochs had passed in the outside world.

In the meantime, countless epochs had passed in the time formation James was in.

During the countless epochs, James had been integrating his soul into the new physical body.

He extracted his soul and integrated it into the new physical body little by little.

As it was a refined physical body, it was difficult to merge them.

Each time James integrated his soul into the physical body, his soul would be in severe pain.

He was constantly suffering from unbearable pain.

The aching was not something an ordinary cultivator could handle.

After countless epochs, James finally integrated the last bit of his soul into the new physical body.

Right then, the new physical body slowly opened its eyes.

James' soul was integrated into the new physical body.

Now, the new physical body had consciousness.

On the other hand, James' consciousness was blurry.

He felt a headache.

He tried to stand up, but he realized he could not control his body.

Using all his strength, he finally managed to stand up.

He tried to walk, but he fell to the ground the moment he took a step.

The power of this physical body was terrifying.

When he fell to the ground, a crack appeared on the ground.

The crack spread rapidly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5353-“It’s done.” When Lemuel saw this scene, he could not help but shout, “This physical body is formed by countless materials and the Genesis Paths of thousands of planes.

It’s an invincible physical body.” Latrusse stared at James and said, “Although your soul has integrated into the physical body, it isn’t completely fitted with the physical body.

It’ll take time for the two to merge completely.” James had a hard time getting up.

Sitting on the ground and catching his breath, he asked, “Latrusse, what should I do to merge them quicker? I feel like I can’t control my physical body right now, let alone my physical power.” With a smile, Latrusse said, “There’s no other method.

It takes time for them to adapt to one another.

After some time, you will need to fight several times.

You need to let your soul and physical body fit in battle.” “How long will it take?” James asked.

Latrusse shook his head and answered, “I don’t know.” Qiyana had been watching by the side.

She watched James extract his soul and integrate it into the invincible physical body bit by bit.

She was stunned.

She had seen spirits seizing physical bodies, but she had never seen someone honing a physical body.

Taking a deep breath, she asked, "Can we go now?" Qiyana's ability had been restored.

Now, she urgently wanted to go to the holy site of the Glaciem Race.

She wanted to activate the Glaciem Profound Body completely.

By then, she would enter the Holy Celestial Rank.

After reaching the Holy Celestial Rank, even if she could not go against the Ancient Four, she could at least protect herself.

"How can I go in this state?" James felt helpless as he said, "Let's not rush it.

Wait for me to get used to this.

Let's head to the holy site of the Glaciem Race after I gain control over this physical body." "Let's wait then.

We have time," said Lemuel.

Latrusse nodded.

"Yeah." With great difficulty, James stood up.

Then, he took out the Illus and asked, "How do I use this?" Qiyana explained, "You can't even control your body right now.

You can't refine the Illus.

Using the Illus is easy.

You just need to refine it in your body." "T see." James put it away temporarily.

Then, he advanced through the area with difficulty.

Every step he took was tough.

Even the speed at which he raised his hand was slow.

It was as if this body was not his.

He tried to use all his power to control the body, but it was still difficult.

He wanted to take a step forward, but after his brain sent the order, his legs would only react after a few seconds.

Aside from that, his reaction speed was slow.

He was like a dummy.

Latrusse watched him from the side and said, "Keep going.

You need to be more active to get used to your body.

Slowly, you will be able to control the body.

Soon, you will be like a normal person.

However, it'll be hard for you to use physical power." James did not feel discouraged.

He slowly practiced controlling his body.

Days flew by.

When James first started, his movements were slow.

Now, he was agile.

He could now control his body entirely.

It was just that he could not use his physical power.

Even though he could not use the power contained in his physical body, the defense of his physical body was still terrifying.

Besides, he still had the power of his cultivation rank.

He was still in the late stage of the Petit Celestial Rank.

Swoosh! James' body descended from the sky and landed on the ground steadily.

Rumble! When both of his legs touched the ground, the ground cracked instantly.

James laughed and said, "I can control my body with ease, but I still can't control my physical power.

So, the destruction power is a little strong.

We can set off now."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5354-After training for some time, James could finally contro] his body perfectly.

Not only could he control his body, but he could also do a lot of difficult actions.

The only flaw was that he could not use the hidden power of this physical body.

Once he could use the power of this physical body, with this physical body alone, he could go against a powerhouse in the Holy Celestial Rank.

To use the physical power entirely, he had to take it slow.

Like cultivation, it required time.

"Not bad." Latrusse looked at James and praised, "Your physical body is so powerful.

Even though you can't use the power of this physical body, the passive defense of your physical body is terrifying.

Even if a powerhouse in the Holy Celestial Rank attacks you, he can't harm your physical body.

With the Illus, your physical body will be invincible." Latrusse envied James.

Nonetheless, it was highly likely that only James could cultivate such a cultivation method.

No living being could tear their soul apart and extract it little by little before integrating it into a new physical body.

"Soon, you will be able to fight against the Yeftero Race," said Lemuel.

Meanwhile, Qiyana frowned and asked, “Do you have grudges against the Yeftero Race?” James nodded and told Qiyana the story of what happened.

“Your wife is the princess of the Mevryee Race?” Qiyana frowned.

The Ancient Four had irresolvable grudges against the Glaciem Race, but James shared a connection with the Mevryee Race.

Theoretically, James was Qiyana’s enemy.

James seemed to have guessed Qiyana’s thoughts.

With a smile, he said, “I don’t want to bother about the grudges between you and the Mevryee Race.

However, if you want to overturn the Yeftero Race, I will do my best to help you.” Upon hearing that, Qiyana did not say anything else.

“Let’s go.” Qiyana changed the topic and left the area.

Qiyana took the lead, and Qairo followed behind her.

Although Qairo was unconscious, he obeyed Qiyana’s words.

Qiyana could control him.

James, Lemuel, and Latrusse followed after them.

They left this area in a hurry and entered the Dark World.

Then, they rushed to the holy site of the Glaciem Race.

In the past, the Glaciem Race was one of the Great Races.

They were part of the top races of the Dark World.

Even though they were not in the Ancient Four, their abilities were on par with the Ancient Four.

The Glaciem Race rarely traveled in the outside world, but they were influential.

Even the Ancient Four feared them.

Thus, the Ancient Four worked together to wipe out the Glaciem Race.

The Glaciem Race's territory collapsed and turned into several fragmented small spaces.

Nevertheless, their main space did not collapse.

The holy site of the Glaciem Race was in the main space.

After transversing in the Dark World for some time, they arrived at the ruin of the Glaciem Race.

There was not a single soul residing in the Glaciem Race.

The space of the Glaciem Race was simply a ruin.

Outside the ruin, the disciples of the Ancient Four were standing guard, preventing living beings from entering.

Qiyana, James, and the others appeared outside the ruin of the Glaciem Race.

The entire ruin was engulfed by a formation.

Outside the formation were many armored guards with weapons.

James and the rest hid in the dark, not showing themselves.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5355-Latrusse whispered, "I have heard about the Glaciem Race's affairs.

After the Glaciem Race was wiped out, the Ancient Four sent elite disciples to guard this place.

The living being in charge of this place is an elder from the Yeftero Race who made a mistake.

His strength is at the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

I wonder if he's gotten stronger since so many years have passed." Lemuel looked ahead and said, "There's a formation here.

Even if there were no obstructions, it would be hard to crack the formation.

Besides, powerhouses are guarding this place.” James looked at Qiyana and asked, “What do you plan to do next?” Qiyana fell into deep thought.

After thinking for a while, he said, “ Since you guys could break the seal of my formation, it wouldn’t be difficult for you guys to crack the formation here.

My only concern is that by attacking the guards, we might alert the Ancient Four and force them into sending powerhouses over.

For now, I will meditate in seclusion after entering the holy site.

I can’t be interrupted, or all my efforts will be in vain.” Latrusse said, “Tell us up front.

What do you need us to do?” Qiyana looked at them and said, “After dealing with the guards, you guys have to protect me.

When the powerhouses of the Ancient Four come, block them for me.

Don’t let them enter the holy site and disturb me.” “I’m afraid that will be difficult.” Latrusse frowned and said, “ There are only a few of us.

We aren’t strong enough to resist the Ancient Four.” Although Latrusse was the lord of arace, the Taeyton Race lacked in comparison to the Ancient Four from the Dark World.

Besides, there was no way he could ask all the powerhouses of the Taeyton Race to help Qiyana.

Qiyana said, “The powerhouses of the Dark World’s Ancient Four won’t attack in full force.

Even if they new something was happening in this place, they would only send a few powerhouses over to investigate.

With your abilities, you’ll be able to resist the powerhouses.

Besides, I’m not asking you guys to risk your lives against the Ancient Four from the Dark World.

I only need you to block them.” While speaking, Qiyana looked at Qairo and said, “Qairo will help you guys.” “How long will you meditate in seclusion?” Lemuel asked.

Qiyana shook her head and said, “I don’t know.

I may be quick, but I may also take a long time.” James said, “Since we took her stuff, let’s help her out for once.” “Alright.” Latrusse nodded.

Even though he did not want to fight against the Ancient Four from the Dark World, he had obtained the Glaciemon Sword of the Glaciem Race.

It would be rude of him not to help Qiyana.

In an instant, he changed his appearance and aura.

If he needed to take action, he could not let the Ancient Four from the Dark World know that the Taeyton Race was related to this matter.

Otherwise, disaster would strike the Taeyton Race.

Lemuel did not have that many concerns.

After all, he was not in his main body.

James was the same.

He was not using his actual appearance.

After discussing, they reached a consensus.

“Qairo, attack.” At once, Qiyana issued an order.

Upon receiving the order, Qairo disappeared.

At the next moment, he appeared outside the formation.

He appeared out of nowhere.

Rapidly, he took the lives of the guards.

Qairo did not even look at the guards before killing them.

This commotion attracted the elder guarding this place.

It was the elder of the Yeftero Race.

His cultivation base was in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

However, a powerhouse in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank was not Qairo's match.

He would only be able to injure them.

Qairo was unconscious.

He had power, but he could not unleash his full strength.

He could easily attack the elder guarding this place, but he could not kill the latter in a short time.

"You guys should attack too.

Deal with the enemies quickly." Qiyana looked at Latrusse and Lemuel.

Latrusse exchanged glances with Lemuel before taking action.

They joined in the battle.

The three of them surrounded the elder of the Yeftero Race and attacked him.
