The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5356-Ledger Yeftero, an elder of the Yeftero Race, made a mistake and was demoted to this place.

He became a powerhouse that needed to guard the holy site of the Glaciem Race.

When he faced the siege of the three powerhouses, his expression darkened as he shouted, "Is there some misunderstanding between us? This is a place guarded by the Ancient Four.

I don't recognize you guys.

May I know why you're attacking when this is the first time we're meeting each other?" Ledger said while stepping backward.

However, he was answered with ferocious attacks.

Although Qairo was unconscious, his speed was quick.

In an instant, he appeared before Ledger.

Ledger had nowhere to go.

Raising his hand, he blocked Qairo's attacks.

Boom! Both fists collided against each other.

Ledger's arms immediately cracked.

At this moment, Lemuel activated the Feimsurge Art.

He became powerful.

A dazzling longsword emerged in his hand.

When he made a move, the Genesis of the planes turned into Sword Energies.

He had obtained many Genesis Paths from James.

He also cultivated and comprehended the Genesis Paths.

With his cultivation rank, he could comprehend these Genesis Paths easily.

Countless Genesis Paths turned into a Sword Energy.

This Sword Energy pierced through Ledger's body.

Ledger stumbled backward hastily.

While stepping backward, he was hit by Latrusse.

Facing the attacks of the three powerhouses, Ledger, who was in the Holy Celestial Rank, could not handle it.

Soon, he was covered in wounds.

He did not continue to fight.

Instead, he fled in a hurry.

His body disappeared instantly.

In the next second, he had already entered the vast Dark World.

"Let him go," said Qiyana timely.

It was only then that the three powerhouses stopped.

Qiyana said, "He won't return so soon.

Let's take this chance and break the formation.

After I enter the holy site, you guys just need to stand guard outside the holy site." Qiyana knew that if they killed Ledger, the Yeftero Race would know something had happened to him since his soul lamp would diminish.

It was better to let him go back to the Yeftero Race.

That way, the Yeftero Race would receive the news later.

In between words, Qiyana's gaze landed on James.

Latrusse also looked at James and said, "Stop dawdling and break the formation." Walking over to the formation, James examined it.

Anxiously, Qiyana asked, "How is it? Can you break it?" "Yeah." After looking at the formation for a while, James said, "Although I don't understand the inscriptions of this place, the inscriptions aren't profound.

Give me some time, and I will comprehend them.

Then, I can break the formation." After that, James sat in a lotus position and cast a time formation around himself.

He began to comprehend the inscriptions in the time formation.

Several days later, he dispersed the time formation.

Then, he raised his hand, and several mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm.

These inscriptions entered the formation.

The huge formation started to disintegrate and disappear.

"Guard this place.

Don't come in." After saying that, Qiyana hurried into the holy site.

James and the others did not enter the place.

Instead, they waited outside.

Qairo did the same.

He stood in the void outside the holy site.

With both arms crossed in front of his chest, he stared into the distance with empty eyes, expressionless.

He stood like he was a war god.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5357-Qairo's mind was empty.

He only knew one thing, and that was to protect the princess of the Glaciem Race.

If someone harmed the princess, Qairo would kill them.

James, Lemuel, and Latrusse sat on a cliff outside the holy site.

Staring at the dark space in the distance, Lemuel asked, "Latrusse, in your opinion, when will the Ancient Four arrive?" After thinking for a moment, Latrusse said, "According to Ledger's ability, he only needs a few thousand years to reach the Ancient Clan.

For Ledger to come back here would take another few thousand years.

That will be around ten thousand years in total.

If the Yeftero Race wants to inform the other three races, that will take more time.

So, it will take around twenty thousand years for the powerhouses of the Ancient Four from the Dark World to come." James said, "Twenty thousand years in the outside world...

Qiyana is meditating in seclusion in the time formation, so she will be cultivating for a longer time.

However, I don't know if she will come out of seclusion during this time." With a heavy expression, Lemuel said, "Let's prepare for battle." Relaxed, Latrusse said, "With Qairo around, as long as there aren't any powerhouses in the Quasi Bliss Rank, nothing will happen.

Even if there are powerhouses in the Quasi Bliss Rank, Qairo isn't afraid to die.

He will take the attacks." Latrusse and James were calm.

James' only aim was to protect Qiyana.

Nonetheless, if he could no longer protect her, he would have to give her up.

After all, he could not risk his life and go against the Ancient Four just for the Illus.

As the saying went, “As long as one is alive, there will be future and hope”.

Nevertheless, since he had promised Qiyana, he needed to fight against the Ancient Four when they arrived.

Anyway, his physical body was powerful.

Even though he could not harm the powerhouses, he could withstand some of their attacks.

Standing up, he loosened his muscles and said, “I’ll use this opportunity to train my body.

I’ll try my best to control the power of my body.” “Let me help you.” Latrusse also stood up.

He waved his hand, and several inscriptions emerged.

The inscriptions dispersed and formed several shadows.

There were thousands of them.

“These shadows do not have Zen.

Each of them has the power of a powerhouse in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

You should let them help you,” said Latrusse with a smile.

From the side, Lemuel said, “Are you trying to kill him?” Indifferently, Latrusse said, “Although the bodies formed by these inscriptions are powerful, their defense is weak.

They will shatter upon touch.

However, with this kid’s power, he can’t shatter them easily.” “Let’s do it then.” James was excited.

Latrusse waved his hand, and a time formation engulfed the area.

When the time formation emerged, countless shadows launched attacks.

Even though the defense of these shadows was weak, they were agile.

James learned to control his body only not long ago, so his speed was rather slow.

With his current cultivation rank, his speed was a lot slower than these shadows.

When the battle started, James could only be beaten up.

Nonetheless, these shadows could not harm him.

These shadows had the power of a powerhouse in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

Although they could not harm James, James could feel the pain when they attacked him.

It was so painful that his face became distorted.

However, each time he was hit, his soul would merge with his physical body.

James was getting beaten up in the time formation.

He was training in the time formation.

As for Ledger, he returned to the Yefero Race with severe injuries.

In the main hall of the Yefero Race, Ledger knelt on the ground with one knee.

“Sir Halianor, they attacked me the moment they appeared.

Before I could react, the guards were killed by them.

If I did not run away in time, I would have died in their hands.” The Great Elder of the Yefero Sect asked, “Who did it?” “I don’t know.” Ledger said, “They were all unfamiliar faces, but they were powerful.

All three powerhouses were on par with me.

They could even crush me.” When Halianor, the Great Elder of the Yefero Sect, heard that, his expression became serious.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5358-“Let me see the scene,” said Halianor, sitting in the main seat.

“Yes,” Ledger dared not disobey Halianor.

He waved his hand, and several inscriptions emerged.

These inscriptions gathered and formed a footage.

Like playing a movie, the inscriptions displayed what happened.

However, only the fight was displayed.

James and Qiyana did not step onto the battlefield, so they did not appear in the footage.

Upon seeing this scene, Halianor frowned.

“Why does this Sword Path seem so familiar?” Halianor mumbled.

“Sir Halianor.” In the main hall, an elder stood forward and said, “Previously, in the arena of our race, Forty-nine showcased a similar Sword Path.

The Sword Path that attacked Ledger is a Sword Path formed by the Genesis Paths of other planes.

Based on the Sword Path, it must have used the Genesis Paths of thousands of planes.” “Yeah.” Halianor nodded and said, “Something isn’t right.

That kid is quite strong and has potential.

However, he isn’t this powerful.

The living being who attacked Ledger must be someone who has entered the Holy Celestial Rank.” Another elder said, “Even if he isn’t Forty-nine, he must be related to Forty-nine.

Even if he isn’t, it is certain that he comes from a plane outside of the Dark World.” Pondering for a moment, Halianor said, “From what I know, the Genesis Paths outside the Dark World are rare.

Each plane has only one Genesis Path.

Only the lord of a plane can master a Genesis Path.

Similar to the primitive inscriptions of the Primevals, the lord of the plane won't hand over the Genesis Path so easily.

Go and investigate which living beings from other planes have mastered this many Genesis Paths." "Yes." At once, a disciple went to inquire about this matter.

The Yeftero Race was the leader of the Ancient Four from the Dark World.

Even though the Yeftero Race did not travel outside the plane, they had spies in other planes.

These spies would report detailed information about other planes to the Yeftero Race.

The intelligence department of the Yeftero Race would gather and sort the information received.

If the Yeftero Race wanted to know such information, it was easy.

The intelligence department only needed to look into it.

Soon, a disciple returned.

The disciple knelt on the ground with one knee.

"Sir Halianor, according to the information our race has, there's a living being in another plane called James.

He's the founder of Supremusseum of the Central Plane.

He's at the peak of the Martial Celestial Rank.

He's only a step away from the Holy Celestial Rank.

He spent his entire life sorting out the Genesis Paths of thousands of planes and created the Genesis Path Scripture.

However, James was killed long ago.

The Genesis Path Scripture also disappeared.

“James, the founder of Supremusseum, is also the forger of the Supremusse Sword.

The Supremusse Sword used to be Forty- nine’s weapon.” The disciple told Halianor everything he found.

“On the other hand, I also have news about Forty-nine, whom you asked us to investigate.

“Forty-nine first appeared in Dieux Academy of the Central Plane.

He claims to be the disciple of Thaddeus Holiness.

He also showcased extraordinary strength during the assessment of Dieux Academy’s recruitment.

He also won the Supremusse Sword.” Ever since James left the Yeftero Race, Halianor sent disciples to inquire about James.

With the intelligence network cast in Central Plane by the Yeftero Race, it was easy to inquire about all this.

Upon hearing that, Halianor asked, “Did you find out if James and Forty-nine are related?” “No.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5359-Upon hearing that, Halianor frowned and mumbled, “That’s weird.

James died, and the Genesis Path Scripture disappeared.

So, how could Forty-nine use the Genesis Paths of thousands of planes? Is it simply because the Supremusse Sword contains the Genesis Paths of thousands of planes?” “Sir Halianor, I don’t think Forty-nine has a connection with the three powerhouses who went to the holy site of the Glaciem Race.” “I think the same.

Forty-nine could showcase that Sword Path in the arena because he had the Supremusse Sword and could use the power of the Supremusse Sword.”

“There’s no longer a need to investigate Forty-nine.

Let’s solve the problem from the root.

I believe that the powerhouses who headed to the holy site of the Glaciem Race are the descendants of the Glaciem Race.

For the past several years, we have been searching for the princess of the Glaciem Race.

Perhaps the princess of the Glaciem Race has shown up this time.” In the main hall, several elders spoke up and expressed their opinions.

At once, Halianor said, “Send the news to the other three races.

Let the other three races send out powerhouses and gather at the holy site of the Glaciem Race.” “Yes.” After receiving the order, the disciples of the Yeftero Race immediately sent the news to the other three Ancient Clans.

“Sir Halianor, the enemies this time are extraordinary.

There are three powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank.

Based on the fight between them and Ledger, the three powerhouses could crush Ledger.

It means they’re above the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

Who will we send this time?” An elder asked.

Thinking for a moment, Halianor answered, “I will go in person this time.” “Sir Halianor, why don’t I go?” At this time, a lazy voice sounded from outside the main hall.

Following that sound, a man walked into the main hall.

The man appeared to be young.

He was around the age of twenty.

He wore a flamboyant coat.

He was handsome, and on his handsome face was a relaxed expression.” “Saint Yui.” In the main hall, many elders called out respectfully.

The man before them was the saint of the Yeftero Race, Yui Yeftero.

He was a rare prodigy of the Yeftero Race.

“Saint Rui, have you entered the Holy Celestial Rank?” Halianor glanced at him Yui.

Yui smiled.

He did not speak, but the elders of the Yeftero Race knew that he already had a breakthrough and entered the Holy Celestial Rank.

Now, the Yeftero Race had another powerhouse in the Holy Celestial Rank.

The Yeftero Race’s strength had increased.

“If so, you will lead the group this time.

Head to the holy site of the Glaciem Race and meet up with the other three races.

Remember.

The enemies this time are powerful.

There are three powerhouses above the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

Once you reach the holy site of the Glaciem Race, don’t act recklessly.

Wait until the powerhouses of the other three races arrive and discuss with them,” reminded Halianor.

“T got it.” Yui seemed lazy.

It was as if he did not care about anything.

He turned around and walked out of the main hall.

Then, the Yeftero Race began gathering powerhouses.

Since the enemies this time were powerful, it was useless to send average disciples.

This time, the Yeftero Race sent out three elders in the Holy Celestial Rank and Yui.

Having three powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank was terrifying.

In addition to the powerhouses sent by the other three races, dealing with the enemies should be easy.

Yui and the other three powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank hurried to the ruin of the Glaciem Race.

At the same time, the Yeftero Race sent the news to the other three Ancient Clans.

After the three Ancient Clans received the news, they sent out powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank immediately.

They hurried to the ruin of the Glaciem Race and met up with the other races.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5360-James and the others knew that the Ancient Four from the Dark World would appear in the holy site of the Glaciem Race soon.

They did not know what kind of powerhouses the Ancient Four from the Dark World would send.

However, they were positive.

Firstly, they were in the Holy Celestial Rank.

Secondly, they had Qairo.

His cultivation base used to be in the Quasi Bliss Rank.

He only turned into this state because he failed to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

He used to be at the peak of Quasi Bliss Rank.

His strength was terrifying.

He could defeat any race from the Dark World.

With Qairo around, as long as the leaders of the Ancient Four from the Dark World did not come in person, James and the others should be safe.

At this moment, James was honing his physical body in the time formation.

He was constantly suffering from attacks.

Each time his physical body was hit, his soul would be more tacit with his physical body.

Now, he could use a part of his physical body's power.

The power was equivalent to a full-out attack of a powerhouse in the initial stage of the Great Celestial Rank.

It meant that he no longer needed to rely on his own cultivation rank to fight against a powerhouse in the initial stage of the Great Celestial Rank.

After reaching this rank, the power of his physical body he mastered had reached its limit.

No matter how much he cultivated, it would be useless.

Catching his breath, James stopped cultivating.

Swoosh! His body flashed and appeared before Lemuel and Latrusse.

"Not bad." Latrusse praised, "You can already use a power equivalent to the power of a powerhouse in the Great Celestial Rank." "That's right." James said, "However, after reaching this step, I believe I can no longer improve even if I train for a long time." "Not bad." Lemuel said, "It has only been a short time.

It's equivalent to reaching the Great Celestial Rank from zero.

What else do you want? You need to leave the rest to time.

It takes time to improve.

Also, you need to improve your own cultivation rank as soon as possible.

When your own cultivation rank improves, you will activate the hidden power in your physical body." "Improve my own cultivation rank?" James mumbled.

His strength and cultivation rank had improved quickly.

It was terrifying.

Nonetheless, he felt that he was improving slowly.

Still, he knew he could not rush this matter.

Latrusse got rid of the time formation of this place.

James sensed the time and realized that ten thousand years had passed in the outside world.

“The Yeftero Race should be here soon,” said James softly.

“Yeah.” Latrusse said, “Based on the time, the powerhouses of the Yeftero Race should already be here.

It should take some time for the other three races to arrive.

It depends on how fast the news sent by the Yeftero Race reaches them.

However, no matter how slow the news reaches them, the four races should gather here in twenty thousand years.” James turned around and looked at Latrusse.

He asked, “Do you have any countermeasures?” Latrusse shrugged and responded, “What countermeasures would I have? All we can do right now is to take one step at a time.

We’ll let Qairo deal with the Ancient Four.

If he can’t deal with them, we don’t have to fight against them.

It will be useless.” Latrusse was acceptive.

With Qairo around, Latrusse had nothing to worry about.

Qairo could support anything.

On the other hand, James fell into deep ponder.

After thinking for a while, he said, “I have an idea, but I don’t know if it will work.”
