The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5361-Lemuel and Latrusse both looked at him.

James said, "If I'm not mistaken, the Mevryee Race should send Yuvin.

I've met him a few times, and the Mevryee Race should be on its way.

I'll leave early and wait on the way for the Mevryee Race powerhouses, create a chance encounter with them, and then follow them back here.

By blending in with the Four Ancient Races, I can also understand their thoughts.

Anyway, my strength is limited.

Even if a fight breaks out here when the Four Ancient Races gather, I won't be of much help." "whatever," Lemuel said indifferently.

Latrusse thought for a moment and said, "Do as you wish.

It doesn't matter to me.

If a fight really breaks out, I'll only make a symbolic move.

If it gets too tough, I won't risk my life." James looked at Latrusse, smiled, and said, "You're familiar with the Dark World.

Draw me a map.

Show me the shortest route for the Mevryee Race to reach here.

I'll leave in advance and meet them halfway." Latrusse said, "The Mevryee Race might not necessarily send Yuvin here." "If they didn't send him, then let's call it off," James said indifferently.

Latrusse waved casually, and an image appeared, depicting the approximate locations of some powerful races in the Dark World.

Pointing to the area where the Mevryee Race was, Latrusse said, " This is the Mevryee Race's territory, here is the Yeftero Race, and we're here.

Based on the timing, the news from the Yeffero Race should have reached the Mevryee Race.

They'll come from here.

You'll probably encounter them if you go this way." Latrusse made a brief analysis.

"Here's the map.

Take it." With a wave, the image transformed into an inscription and floated toward James, who kept it.

"I'm out," James said, tucking away the map and disappearing from the spot.

"This brat," Latrusse sighed helplessly.

Lemuel said nonchalantly, "He's in a hurry to meet Thea.

For such a significant event, why would the Mevryee Race send a weak disciple like Thea here?" James swiftly advanced by following the route pointed out by Latrusse.

Meanwhile, news from the Yeffero Race had indeed reached the Mevryee Race very early, but they remained inactive.

During this period, the Mevryees' Leader, Talvelai, had been burdened with a heavy thought.

In a mansion on the Mevryee Race's spiritual mountain, two men were playing chess.

Yuvin spoke, "Mr.

Talvelai, it's been along time.

Considering the time, the Yeffero Race should have arrived near the Glaciem Holy Land.

What are your thoughts?" Talvelai appeared calm and replied, "I've a bad feeling about the recent incident at the Glaciem Race's ruins.

I sense that the long- standing peace in the Dark World is about to be disrupted.

I don't want to get involved in such matters." "But our clan participated in the events of the past." "That was the former Great Elder's involvement.

Now that he has been removed by me, I've no connection to this matter," Talvelai said calmly.

Yuvín said, "However, if the Mevryee Race remains passive this time, the Yeftero Race will surely take advantage of the situation.

We're about to form an alliance through marriage.

It's not wise to stir up trouble at this moment." "What is your suggestion?" Talvelai looked at Yuvín.

Yuvín said, "According to the news from the Yeftero Race, Yui had reached the Holy Celestial Rank and had already left seclusion.

This time, he brings three powerhouses of the Holy Celestial Rank and is heading to the Glaciem Holy Land.

I think we should bring the princess with us and let her meet her fiancé." Talvelai looked at him, encouraging him to continue.

Yuvín paused for a moment before continuing, "I know that you have great ambitions.

You're not just seeking to ensure the stability of the Mevryee Race.

Arranging the princess' marriage with the Yeftero Race is just the first step.

You intend to gradually engulf the Yeftero Race, completely obliterating them.

This might be a good opportunity to weaken the strength of the Yeftero Race." Talvelai stood up and said, "Take Thea to the Glaciem Holy Land.

It'll take some time to get there.

Don't keep the other races waiting for too long." With that, he left the room

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5362-Yuvin watched as Talvelai left, then stood up and walked away from the courtyard.

He headed toward the spiritual mountain where Thea resided.

Thea had been in a gloomy mood since she returned from the Yeftero Race.

“Mr. Yuvin,” seeing him, the absentminded Thea stood up and greeted.

“What’s on your mind, Thea?” Yuvin asked with a smile.

Thea shook her head and said, “Nothing.” “Do you want to go out for a stroll?” Yuvin asked.

“A stroll?” Thea was slightly startled.

Yuvin nodded and said, ““There’s trouble at the Glaciem Holy Land.” “Huh?” Thea looked puzzled.

“The matter goes back many years...” Yuvin then recounted the events of the Glaciem Race.

“Yui of the Yeftero Race has reached the Holy Celestial Rank.

This time, the Yeftero Race sent him with three Holy Celestial Rank powerhouses to the Glaciem Holy Land.

I plan to take you along there.” At these words, Thea frowned, displeasure evident on her face.

She said, “Why me? I don’t want to see him.” Yuvin smiled and said, “I received information that the Holy Celestial Rank powerhouse attacked the Yeftero Race’s Sect Elder, casting the Sword Energy formed by the Genesis Path from the outside world.

In the outer planes, almost no living beings master the Genesis Path of countless planes.

There’s only one person who does, James.” Upon hearing this, Thea was surprised.

“Are you saying he was involved in this?” Yuvín shook his head slightly and said, “I don’t know, but I can guess that among the three Holy Celestial Rank powerhouses, one has been following James since in the outer planes.

James must have imparted many Genesis Paths from various planes to him.

As for the other, it might be Latrusse, who brought James to the Yeftero Race last time.” “Could the other one be James? Even if he has great potential, is it possible for him to reach the Holy Celestial Rank in such a short time?” Thea asked with skepticism.

Yuvín shrugged.

“I don’t know about that.

That’s why I want to take you to see.

If James is really involved, he’s entangled in the grudges between the Glaciem Race and the Four Ancient Races.

This is good for you.

With the Glaciem Race involved with the Yeftero Race, the Yeftero Race won’t be able to extricate themselves for a short time.” “alright, I’ll go.” Thea did not hesitate.

“Prepare yourself, We’l] leave soon,” Yuvín instructed.

“who are the powerhouses that Father plans to send from the race?” Thea asked.

“Just me.

Our race’s involvement is just a formality.

When we annihilated the Glaciem Race back then, the Yeftero Race took the lead, and the Four Ancient Races merely accompanied.

Moreover, those who participated in our race have already been removed.

Your father can distance himself from this matter,” Yuvín said.

He had been with Talvelai for a long time and knew him very well.

He understood Talvelai's thoughts and plans.

Moreover, he handled these matters most of the time.

His purpose in stepping forward this time was not to deal with the Glaciem Race but to find an opportunity to secretly ally with them.

The leader could not personally get involved in these matters, nor could he let the Four Ancient Races catch any evidence.

Having Yuvín take the lead was the best option.

Even if things went south, the Mevryee Race could shift the blame onto him and retreat unscathed.

Thea did not have much to prepare.

Learning that this matter might be related to James, she had to go and see.

She followed Yuvín, swiftly leaving the Mevryee Race.

On the cliff behind the main peak of the Mevryee Race, Talvelai watched as Yuvín brought Thea to leave.

His expression remained calm, without any emotional fluctuations.

"My Lord, have you made up your mind?" Behind him, a shadow appeared at some point.

It was elusive, gender and age indiscernible.

Talvelai covered his mouth and coughed lightly.

When he withdrew his hand, there was some blood on it.

"My Lord, are you okay?" The shadow expressed concern.

"It's nothing serious.

I've just been too hasty.

The failed impact on the Quasi Bliss Rank caused some damage to my body.

I'm going to seclude myself now.

From now on, everything the Mevryee Race does has nothing to do with me.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5363-Talvelai disappeared in place after saying this.

The Mevryee Race was on the move.

James was also tirelessly traversing the Dark World.

Following Latrusse's given route, he quickly arrived at the designated location.

It was an area inhabited by a race.

However, this Primeval was not particularly powerful in the Dark World.

It was merely one of the countless Tenebrae Races.

This area was also the necessary route for the Mevryee Race to reach the Glaciem Holy Land.

If they took a different path, it would be much farther.

James waited in this area.

However, he had not encountered any Mevryee Race living beings passing through despite waiting for many years.

“Could it be that the Mevryee Race didn't pass through here, or have I missed it?” James furrowed his brow.

He was not in a hurry but patiently waited.

He planned to wait for another three thousand years.

He would return to the Glaciem Holy Land if the Mevryee Race did not pass through this area within this time frame.

Rushing back after three thousand years was roughly around the time when the Four Ancient Races would gather.

In the blink of an eye, more than a thousand years passed.

A flying battleship emerged within James' perception range.

It was large, with flags on it representing the Mevryee Race.

Sensing all this, James disappeared from the spot.

In the next moment, he appeared in the vast darkness.

Just as he showed himself for a moment, the flying battleship came into his line of sight.

It stopped in the distance before him.

On the deck, a man and a woman appeared.

"Who dares to block our way?" Yuvin's face wore a cold expression, his voice resonating with indifference.

James reverted his appearance to the one he had as Forty-nine and smiled, saying, "Long time no see." "It's you, brat.

Come over," Yuvin said casually as he waved, and the barrier formation of the flying battleship was lifted.

James flickered and appeared on the flying battleship.

Once he sensed no other living beings on board, he reverted to his original appearance, looking at Thea by his side.

He embraced her, a gentle expression on his face as he said, "Thea." "Ahem," Yuvin coughed softly.

Thea promptly pushed James away.

"You're audacious," Yuvin said with a touch of coldness.

"If this gets out, ten lives won't be enough for you to lose." James smirked and said, "There's no one else here, is there?" "By the way, why are you here? Were you specifically waiting for us?" Yuvin asked.

Thea was also curious and asked, "Is the matter with the Glaciem Race related to you?" "Huh? How did you know it was related to me?" James was slightly stunned.

Yuvn said, "Because there's news from the Yeftero Race.

One of the powerhouses who attacked Ledger Yeftero used the Genesis Sword Energy.

In the outer planes, there's only one who masters countless Genesis Paths, and that's you.

Let's talk inside." Yuvn turned and walked away.

In a room on the flying battleship, Yuvn asked, "Has the Princess of the Glacies appeared?" James looked at Yuvn with his brows slightly furrowed.

He was not sure whether to believe Yuvn.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5364-Although Yuvn had given him the Supremus Lotus before, he had also exchanged something in return at that time.

Moreover, Yuvn had helped him escape from danger.

However, Yuvn was a powerhouse in the Mevryee Race, and the race was one of the Four Ancient Races.

James did not have a deep understanding of this race.

"Honey, Mr. Yuvn is very trustworthy.

You can trust him." Thea noticed James' hesitation.

James glanced at Thea and said, "Since Thea says so, I'll trust you this time." He looked at Yuvn and said, "Yes, this matter is related to me.

I came to the Dark World this time mainly to search for the Glacem Race's treasure, the Illus.

In my previous life, I entered a Glacem Race ruin and died because of the clues about the Illus.

This time, I obtained clues again and came here." James briefly explained the situation.

"The peak of the Quasi Bliss Rank failed to break through to the Transcendental Bliss Rank?" Yuvin was shocked when he heard this.

"Perhaps, when the Four Ancient Races besieged the Glaciem Race back then, it wasn't just for the Glaciem Race's three treasures.

It might be because they found out about such a legendary powerhouse in the Glaciem Race, fearing that their positions would be in jeopardy.

So, they joined forces to attack the Glaciem Race," Yuvin murmured softly.

James did not care about these things.

Right now, he just wanted to know what actions the Four Ancient Races would take next.

That was the main reason he waited for the Mevryee Race this time.

Yuvin looked at James and said, "By the way, I'll tell you some bad news." "What?" James looked at him.

Yuvin said, "Yui of the Yeftero Race has broken through to the Holy Celestial Rank and has already come out of seclusion.

This time, the Yeftero Race has sent him to lead a team, and he has taken three Holy Celestial Rank powerhouses of the Yeftero Race to the Glaciem Holy Land.

Once this Glaciem Race matter concludes, it might be the time for the Yeftero Race to marry into our race, and it'll be the time for Thea to get married." At these words, James could not help to clench his fist.

Thea looked at James with affection and said, "Honey, rest assured.

I won't marry Yui Yeftero even if I have to die." James also looked at her and promised, "Rest assured too, no matter what happens, I won't let you marry him.

You're my wife, and you're mine.

No one can take you away.

If anyone tries, I'll exterminate their entire race." Yuvin faintly smiled and said, "James, you can't confront the Yeftero Race with your current strength.

You only have one option right now." "Huh?" James looked at Yuvin.

Yuvin said, "That is to unite with the Glaciem Race.

Just as you mentioned, the Princess of the Glacies secluded herself in the holy land.

When she emerges, she will have attained the Holy Celestial Rank.

Moreover, there is also a powerhouse at the peak of Quasi Bliss Rank beside her.

Although his consciousness is incomplete, he is still formidable.

Having a Holy Celestial Rank powerhouse at your side, convincing the Taeyton Race powerhouses to join you could still pose a significant challenge to the Yeftero Race, even if direct confrontation is not possible.

Even..." Shifting the conversation, he continued, "Even though my race can't openly assist you, we can offer discreet support." Yuvin slowly said, "The primary reason lies with Yui.

If you kill him, the marriage alliance will naturally be canceled.

Even if it can't be canceled outright, it will be delayed.

This delay will provide you with more time to grow." Unknowingly, Yuvin had pointed out a clear path for James.

His purpose in coming this time was to see if he could secretly ally with the Glaciem Race and create some trouble for the Yeftero Race and even the other Ancient Clans.

Unexpectedly, James appeared.

James had many connections with Thea.

This time, it could not have been better with James taking the lead.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5365-James had initially planned to ally with the Glaciem Race, but his low cultivation realm made it uncertain whether the princess of the Glaciem Race, Qiyana, would be interested in him. He fell into contemplation.

To collaborate with Qiyana, he needed to involve Lemuel.

Yuin looked at him and asked, "How is it? Is there a way to cooperate with the Glaciem princess and find an opportunity to get rid of Yui?"

James massaged his temple gently and said, "It's a bit difficult, but I'll think of a way as soon as possible."

Yuin reminded, "Also, this matter can't be done with your identity as Forty-nine, nor can it be done with the identity of James. You need to adopt a new identity.

Otherwise, you'll face the fury of the Yeftero Race if Yui dies. Their retaliation might even extend to the Central Plane of the outside world."

"Got it." James massaged his temple gently.

"Alright, you can leave now. Don't follow us. If you encounter the Four Ancient Races, I can't vouch for what will happen. The Mevryee Race is currently recuperating, and we don't want to get involved in unnecessary trouble. If you need help in the future, contact me secretly," Yuvin said, handing an inscription to James.

"Keep this inscription safe. You can contact me at any time with it. Even if we're far apart, I'll respond to you immediately once you get in touch with me."

"Okay " James kept the inscription.

"Be careful, honey," Thea said, her face showing a hint of reluctance as she saw James preparing to leave.

James gave her a carefree smile and said, "Don't worry. Nothing will happen.

My body is strong now, and my cultivation realm has improved. In the future, I'll definitely exterminate the Yeftero Race and become the Lord Supremus of this Dark World. When that day comes, no one will dare to bully you."

‘Take care,’ James waved goodbye to Thea in a casual manner. He disappeared from the flying battleship, and soon his aura vanished from the area.

“This brat can really surprise me. I never expected him to release the Princess of the Glacies,” Yuvín said with a relaxed expression.

Originally, forming an alliance with the Glacím Race would have been troublesome, but James appeared unexpectedly and resolved the issue effortlessly. Now, the Mevryee Race could stay out of the conflict and observe as the Glacím Race engaged with the Yeftero Race, the Suunteli Race, and the Zoltrumm Race.

Even if the Glacím Race could not exterminate the Three Ancient Races, relying on a peak of Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouse would be enough to cause trouble for the Yeftero Race, the Suunteli Race, and the Zoltrumm Race.

Yuvín looked very relaxed, but Thea wore a worried expression. Having returned to the Mevryee Race for a considerable amount of time, she knew the strength of the Four Ancient Races very well. She genuinely worried that James might encounter a mishap.

“Let’s continue the journey,” Yuvín urged, directing the flying battleship to press onward. The battleship traversed through the boundless Dark World, quickly arriving in a distant area.

James retraced his steps and headed back, continuously using the Blithe Omniscience. Even with his current strength, he could not catch up with the Mevryee Race’s flying battleship when going all out.

However, he had no need to worry because rushing back before the gathering of the Four Ancient Races would not be of much help.
